(3)(a) The Chairman or other member may, by notice in writing under his hand addressed to the State Government resign his office. (b) The Chairman or any member shall not be removed for his office before the expiry of the term of his office except by an order of the State Government on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity after an inquiry made by the Chief Justice of the High Court in which such Chairman or other member has been informed of the charges against him and given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of those charges. (c) The inquiry clause (b) shall be made in such manner as may be prescribed.

5. Vacancy and temporary absence.

(1) If any vacancy occurs by reason of the death, resignation or expiry of term of appointment or removal of the Chairman or other member or for any cause whatsoever, such vacancy shall be filled in by appointment of a duly qualified person. (2) If any member becomes by reason of illness or other infirmity, temporarily incapable of performing the duties of his office the State Government may appoint some other duly qualified person to discharge his duties for any period not exceeding six months at a time and the person so appointed shall during that period have the same powers as the person in whose place he is appointed. (3) The Tribunal shall not be deemed to be invalidly constituted merely by reason of any vacancy or temporary absence referred to in sub-section (1) or (2).

6. Staff of Tribunal.

(1) The Tribunal may, with the previous approval of the State Government appoint such number of officers and servants of the Tribunal as it may think fit. (2) The salaries and the allowances payable to and other conditions of service of the officers and servants of the Tribunal shall be such as may be prescribed.

7. Headquarters of Tribunal.

(1) The headquarters of the Tribunal shall be at such place as the State Government may by an order published in the Official Gazette, determine. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Tribunal may sit at such other place or places other than the place at its headquarters, as the Tribunal may with the approval of the State Government appoint.

Chapter III

Reference to and Procedure of Tribunal

8. Reference to Tribunal and making of award.

(1) Where any dispute arises between the parties to the works contract either party shall irrespective of whether such works contract contains an arbitration clause or not refer within one year from the date when the dispute has arisen such dispute in writing to the Tribunal for arbitration in such form and accompanied by such documents or other evidence and by such fees, as may be prescribed. (2) On receipt of a reference under sub-section (1) the Tribunal may, if satisfied after such inquiry as it may deem fit to make that the requirements under this Act in relation to the reference are complied with admit such reference and where the Tribunal is not so satisfied, it may reject the reference summarily. (3) Where the Tribunal admits the reference under sub-section (2) it shall after recording evidence if necessary and after perusal of the material on record and on affording an opportunity to the parties to submit their agreements make an award or an interim award giving its reasons therefore. (4) The Tribunal shall use all reasonable despatch in entering on and proceeding with the reference admitted by it and making the award and an endeavour shall be made to make an award within four months from the date on which the Tribunal had admitted the reference. (5) The award including the interim award made by the Tribunal shall subject to an order if any made under Section 11 or 12 be final and binding on the parties to the dispute. (6) An award including an interim award as confirmed or varied by an order if any made under Section 11 or 12 shall be deemed to be a decree within the meaning of Section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure 1408 (V of 1908) of the principal Court of original jurisdiction within the local limits whereof the award or the interim award has been made and shall be executed accordingly.

9. Practice and procedure of Tribunal.

(1) The Tribunal may with the previous sanction of the State Government make regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder for regulating its practice and procedure including the constitution of Benches, the disposal by the Tribunal or a Bench thereof of any proceedings before it notwithstanding that in the course thereof there has been a change in the persons sitting as members of the Tribunal or Bench making of interim award the right of audience before the Tribunal or a Bench thereof the levy of any process fee the award of costs and generally for the effective exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions under this Act. (2) The regulations made under sub-section (1) shall be published in the Official Gazette. (3) The functions of the Tribunal may be discharged by one or more Benches thereof constituted in accordance with the regulations made under sub-section (1). (4) If the members of the Tribunal or a Bench thereof are divided the decision shall be the decision of the majority if there be a majority but if the members are equally divided they shall state the point or points on which they differ and the case shall be referred by the Chairman of the Tribunal for hearing on such point or points to one or more of the other members of the Tribunal and such point or points shall be decided accordingly to the majority of the members of the Tribunal who heard the case including those who first heard it.

10. Tribunal to have powers of Court.

- For the propose of exercising its jurisdiction under this Act the Tribunal shall have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) in respect of the following matters, namely:-(a)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;(b)requiring the discovery and production of documents;(c)issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses;(d)any other matter which may be prescribed.

11. Review of award of Tribunal.

(1)The Tribunal may either on its own motion or on the application of any party aggrieved by the award or the interim award, review the award or interim award made by it and pass in reference thereto such order as it thinks just and proper:Provided that no such application made by any party shall be entertained unless the Tribunal is satisfied that there has been the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of such party or could not be produced by such party at the time when evidence on the basis of which award or interim award made was recorded by it or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or for any other sufficient reason:Provided further that no such award or interim award shall be varied or revised, unless notice has been given to the interested to appear and be heard in support or such variation or revision.(2)An application for review under sub-section (1) by any party aggrieved by the award or interim award shall be made within ninety days from the date of the award or the interim award of the Tribunal.

12. Revision.

(1)The High Court may, suo moto, at any time or on an application made to it within three months from the date on which the award or interim award is made or reviewed under this Act by any party aggrieved by the award or interim award so made or reviewed, call for the record of any case in which an award or interim award has been made or as the case may be reviewed and if the Tribunal appears-(a)to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in it by law, or(b)to have failed to exercise a jurisdiction so vested, or(c)to have acted in the exercise of its jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity, the High Court may make such order in the case as it thinks fit.(2)For the purpose of exercising its powers of revision under this section the High Court shall have the same powers as it has and as far as may be follow the same procedure as it follows under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) while exercising its powers of revision under Section 115 of the Code and for that purpose the Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Court subordinate to it.
