Punjab Boiler Attendants Rules, 1961

1. Short title and commencement.

(1)These rules may be called 'the Punjab Boiler Attendants' Rules 1961.(2)They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Repeal.

- Rules 49 and 50 of the Punjab Boiler Rules, 1926 published with Punjab Government, Revenue Department (Industries) notification No. 1620, dated 31st May, 1926, and Appendix 'B' to these rules are hereby repealed;Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

3. Definitions.

(1)In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, -(a)'the Act', means the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (V of 1923);(b)'Board' means the Board of Examiners constituted under rule 10 ;(c)' Section' means a section of the Act.(2)Every reference in these rules to a boiler or boilers shall be deemed to include also a reference to an economiser or economisers, respectively.II - General

4. Boiler to be under the charge of person holding boiler attendant's Certificate.

- Every owner of a boiler shall arrange to keep his boiler under the charge of a person holding a certificate of competency and after a period of two years of the coming into force of these rules, the owner of a boiler shall not use it or permit it to be used unless it is placed under the direct and immediate charge of a fit and proper person as required by rule;Provided that the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazetted, exempt any boiler or classes or types of boilers from the operation of this rule; Provided further that nothing in these rules shall debar a person holding a certificate of competency granted under the Punjab Boiler Rules, 1926 published with Punjab Government notification No. 1620, dated the 31st May, 1926, from remaining in attendance and in charge of a boiler or to the extent of the qualifications indicated in such certificate.

5. Possession of certificate and extent of qualification

- No person who does not possess a certificate of competency as an attendant under these rules shall be deemed to be a fit and proper person to hold charge of a boiler and no holder of any such certificate shall be deemed a fit and proper person to be in attendance and in charge of boiler except to the extent of his qualification indicated in such certificate.

6. Certificate holder to produce it when required.

- The holder of a certificate or a provisional order under these rules shall, at all reasonable times during the period any boiler is under his charge, be bound to produce such certificate when called upon to do so by any of the persons empowered upon section 15 to call for the production of the certificate or provisional order authorising the use of the boiler.

7. Furnishing of particulars of certificate by owner

(1) The owner of a boiler or battery of boilers who engages any person to be in charge, thereof, shall within seven days of such engagement furnish the Chief Inspector with full particulars of such person including the grade, serial number date, and place of issue of his certificate. (2) The owner of a boiler who engages any person to hold charge of such boiler shall in the event of such person leaving his employment or in the event of death of such person report the fact forthwith to the Chief Inspector.

8. Period of Attendance, reliefs and sphere of action

(a) The working hours of a Boiler Attendant in any one day shall be regulated according to the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948, and the rules framed thereunder. (b) An attendant in charge of a boiler for which a certificate of competency as an attendant of the first class is required may be relieved of charge by a person holding a certificate of the second class, in any one day for not more than two periods, the total of which does not exceed two hours. (c) The holder of a first class certificate may, with the consent in writing of the Chief Inspector, be relieved by a person holding a certificate of second class for a period which may extend to seven consecutive days which, in special circumstances, the Chief Inspector may extend to any length of time not exceeding thirty days at a time. (d) A person in charge of a boiler shall be deemed to be in direct and immediate attendance and charge of the same when he is within one hundred and fifty feet of such boiler.

9. Boiler when deemed to be in use

(a) A boiler shall be deemed to be in use for the purpose of these rules when there is active fire in the furnace, fire box or fire place for the purpose of heating the water in the boiler. A boiler shall be deemed to be not in use when the fire is removed and all steam and water connections are closed. (b) An economiser shall be deemed to be in use for the purpose of these rules, when there is a flow of flued gases past the economiser and an appreciable heat transfer between the water and the heating gases. III - Board of Examiners

10. Board of examiners

(a) A Board of Examiner shall be constituted for the State of Punjab consisting of the Chief Inspector, an Inspector nominated by the Chief Inspector and not less than two members, having theoretical and practical knowledge of prime movers and modern boiler practice to be appointed by the State Government from time to time. (2) The Chief Inspector shall be the ex-officio Chairman and the Inspector nominated by the Chief Inspector shall be the ex-officio Secretary of the Board.

11. Term of office of members

- The term of office of each of the members other than the ex-officio member of the Board shall be three years.
