(b) If the Rural Godownman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods, he may dispose of them in any manner he may think fit and shall incur no liability by reason thereof. (c) The Rural Godownman shall, from the proceeds of any sale made pursuant to this provision satisfy his lien and shall hold the balance if any, in trust for the holder of the receipt.

4. Delivery requirements. - (a) Instructions for delivery or transfer of goods shall always be in writing and signed by the depositor or his authorised agent.

(b) When a rural godown receipt has been issued, no goods covered by that receipt shall be delivered unless the receipt properly endorsed is surrendered for cancellation or for endorsement of partial delivery thereon. (c) Should a Rural Godown receipt be lost or destroyed, goods covered by it shall not be delivered until, the person lawfully entitled to possession of the goods, obtains and surrenders a duplicate receipt. The duplicate will be issued on such terms and conditions and on furnishing a bond to indemnify a Rural Godownman against any liability as provided under the Act and the Rules.

5. Diligence requirements. - (a) The Rural godownman undertakes to exercise reasonable care and diligence required by the law for keeping the goods.

(b) The rural godownman's liability is limited to the value of goods on the date of deposit. (c) Perishable goods or goods which are susceptible to damage through temperature of humidity changes are accepted only at owners risk for such damage as might result from general storage conditions. (d) The depositor of goods shall examine the contents of goods at the time of taking delivery & shall give notice in writing with full particulars of the loss or damage, if any, caused to the goods, to the Rural godownman, forthwith or give notice within 72 hours of his examining the goods and defer taking delivery of the goods till then. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the prescribed authority. No claim against the godownman, shall be valid if such notice of loss or damage has not been given by the depositor as aforesaid. Similar notice for claim of damage shall be given to the Rural Godownman by depositor in case he (depositor) comes to know of the loss or damage while the goods are in the Rural Godown. (e) The Rural Godownman is not responsible for usual and customary shrinkage in weight and effect on quality during storage due to natural causes. (f) The quality, conditions, value and contents of goods are unknown to the Rural Godownman except when specifically mentioned in the rural godown receipt.

6. Schedule of charges and Insurance. - (a) Whenever provision is made in these contract terms and conditions for a charge or charges by the Rural Godownman, such charge or charges will not exceed the rule godownman's tariff in effect at the time the charge accrues or the service is performed.

(b)The schedule of maximum tariff to be charged shall be that approved by the prescribed authority.(c)(i)All goods stored in the Rural Godown will be insured against the risk of fire and burglary. Against other risks prescribed under the Act, the goods stored shall be insured to the extent as may be requested in writing by the depositor on payment of additional charges, for that purpose.
