4. Restriction for Provisional Commutation.

- No Government servant against whom departmental or judicial proceedings as referred to in Rule 7 of Orissa Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1992 have been instituted before the date of his retirement, or the pensioner against whom such proceedings are instituted after the date of his retirement, as the case may be, shall be eligible to commute a fraction of his provisional pension authorised under Rule 66 of Orissa Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1992 during the pendency of such proceedings.

5. Commutation of Pension.

(1) A Government servant on retirement is entitled to commute for a lump sum payable a fraction not exceeding one-third of his pension : Provided that for the purpose of commutation of invalid pension, the amount of original invalid pension, determined with reference to qualifying years of service will only be taken into account. (2) In an application for commutation in Form-1 or Form 1-A or Form-2, as the case may be, an applicant shall indicate the fraction which he desires to commute and may either indicate the maximum limit of one-third of pension or such lower limit as he may desire to commute. (3) If fraction of pension to be commuted results in fraction of rupee, such fraction of a rupee shall be ignored for the purpose of commutation. (4) The lump sum payable to an applicant shall be calculated in accordance with the table of values prescribed from time to time and applicable to the applicant on the date on which the commutation becomes absolute. (5) The amount of commuted value of pension as finally calculated shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee.

6. Commutation of Pension to become absolute.

(1)The commutation of pension shall become absolute in the case of an applicant referred to - (i) in Sub-rule (1) of Rule 12, on the date on which the application in Form 1 is received by the Head of Office; (ii) in Sub-rule (3) of Rule 12, on the date following the date of his retirement; (iii) in Rules 16 to 28 on the date on which the medical authority signs the medical report in Part (III) of Form 4; Provided that - (a) in the case of an applicant who is drawing his pension from a treasury, the reduction in the amount of pension on account of commutation shall be operative from the date of receipt of the commuted value of Pension or at the end of three months after issue of authority by the Accountant-General, Orissa for the payment of commuted value of pension, whichever is earlier; and (b) in the case of an applicant who is drawing pension from a branch of a nationalised Bank, the reduction in the amount of pension on account of commutation shall be operative from the date on which the commuted value of pension is credited by the Bank to the applicant's account to which pension is being credited. (c) in the case of an applicant governed by Sub-rule (3) of Rule 12 in whose case the commuted value of pension becomes payable on the day following the date of his retirement, the reduction in the amount of pension on account of commutation shall be operative from its inception. Where, however, payment of commuted value of pension could not be made within the first month after the date of retirement, the difference of monthly pension for the period between the day following the date of retirement and the date preceding the date on which the commuted value of pension is deemed to have been paid shall be authorised by the Accounts Officer. (2) In the case of an applicant referred to in Rule 9 or Rule 10 the commuted value is paid in two stages. The reduction in the amount of pension shall be made from the respective dates of the payments as laid down in Clause (a) or Clause (b) of the proviso to Sub-rule (1)-(3) The date on which the payment of the commuted value of pension was made to the applicant of the commuted value was credited to the applicant's account shall be entered in both halves of the pension payment order by the disbursing authority under intimation to the Accounts Officer who authorised the payment of commuted value of pension.

7. Restoration of commuted portion of pension.

(1) The pensioners who have commuted a portion of their pension are entitled to have commuted portion of pension restored on the expiry of twelve years from the date on which the amount of pension was reduced on account of commutation of a portion thereof. (2) (a) Each pensioner who is eligible for restoration of Commuted portion of pension as per Sub-rule (1), is required to apply in the prescribed Form 7 duly completed, to the pension disbursing authority who will restore the commuted portion of pension if the commuted amount has been mentioned in the pension payment order and will also pay the arrears, if any. (b) In cases where the pensioner had completed twelve years, as per Sub-rule (1) and had died subsequently his/her legal heir(s) is/are also entitled to receive arrears from the date this rule came into force or from the date of completion of twelve years from the date on which the amount of pension was reduced on account of commutation, whichever is later, till the date of pensioner's death. For this purpose, legal heir(s) may also apply to the pension disbursing authority. (c) In cases where the pension payment order does not contain information regarding commuted portion, pension disbursing authority will obtain information from Accounts Officer who is issued the pension payment orders. (d) The pension disbursing authority will intimate to the Accounts Officer who had issued the pension payment order the full particulars of each pension cases along with the amount of pension restored for verifying the correctness.(3)The State Government pensioners who got themselves absorbed under public undertakings, autonomous bodies and have received or opted to receive commuted value of one-third of pension as well as terminal benefits equal to the commuted value of the balance amount of pension left after commuting one-third of pension are not entitled to any benefit under these rules as they have ceased to be State Government pensioners.

8. Nomination to receive the commuted value of pension.

(1)An applicant shall make a nomination in Form 5 along with the application referred to in Rule 12 or Rule 17, as the case may be, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the commuted value of pension in case the applicant dies without receiving the commuted value on or after the date on which commutation becomes absolute.(2)If there is no such nomination, or if the nomination made does not subsist, the commuted value shall be paid to the family in the manner indicated in Clause (b) of Sub-rule (1) of Rule 50 of Orissa Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1992.(3)If in any case the commuted value cannot be paid in the manner indicated in Sub-rules (1) and (2), the same shall be paid to his heirs on production of succession certificate from the competent Court of Law.

9. Commutation of provisional pension.

(1)A Government servant to whom, pending assessment of final pension, provisional pension has been sanctioned under Rule 65 of Orissa Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1992 shall be eligible to commute a fraction of such provisional pension subject to the limit specified in Rule 5.(2)For the purpose of commutation of provisional pension, the provisions of Chapter III or Chapter IV, as the case may be, shall apply.(3)The following provisions of this sub-rule shall apply to an applicant who for the purpose of commutation of provisional pension is governed by Chapter IV of these rules, namely : (a)Where an applicant desires to commute a fraction of his provisional pension which works out to be not exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem and in whose case it is expected that the amount which he would be entitled to commuted when the final amount of pension has been authorised would exceed five hundred rupees per mensem, his application shall be deemed, for the purpose of Rule 20, to be for commutation of amount exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem.(b)Where the applicant does not indicate the possibility of his entitlement to commutation of pension exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem on the determination of final pension due to him he shall be treated as having applied for commutation of pension not exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem.(c)If on the determination of final pension, the applicant becomes entitled to commute his pension up to rupees five hundred per month, he shall not be required to undergo medical examination for payment to him of the difference between the commuted value of the pension originally commuted and the pension commuted subsequently.(d)If on the determination of final pension, the applicant becomes entitled to commute a sum exceeding five hundred rupees, he shall, for commutation of pension exceeding rupees five hundred, be required to apply afresh in Form 2.

10. Retrospective revision of final pension.

- An applicant who has commuted a fraction of his final pension and after commutation his pension has been revised and enhanced retrospectively as a result of Government's decision, the applicant shall be paid the difference between the commuted value determined with reference to enhanced pension and the commuted value already authorised. For the payment of difference the applicant shall not be required to apply afresh :Provided that in the case of an applicant who has commuted a fraction of his original pension not exceeding rupees five hundred after being declared fit by the Chief District Medical Officer and as a result of retrospective enhancement of pension, he becomes eligible to commute an amount exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem, he shall be allowed the difference between the commuted value of five hundred rupees per mensem and the commuted value of the fraction of the original pension without further medical examination. The commutation of any further amount beyond rupees five hundred per mensem shall be treated as fresh commutation and allowed subject to examination by a Medical Board. 25. Withdrawal of application.

(1)The applicant may after giving notice in writing, to the appointing authority withdraw his application at any time before subjecting himself to medical examination before the medical authority but in no case after he has appeared before such authority.(2)If the applicant is informed by the Accounts Officer under Rule 26 that on account of modification of the Table, the commuted value becoming payable to the applicant will be less than the value communicated to him in Form 3 it shall be open to the applicant to withdraw his application by a written notice addressed to the Accounts Officer and the applicant shall endorse a copy of the notice to the appointing authority within fourteen days of the date on which he receives intimation of such modification.

26. Modification in the value specified in the Table.

(1) In case the value specified in the Table is modified at any time before the commutation becomes absolute in terms of Clause (ii) of Sub-rule (1) of Rule 6, the payment shall be made in accordance with the value so modified. (2) Where the commuted value calculated with reference to the Table as modified, is less favourable than the value determined with reference to the Table before it was so modified, the Accounts Officer shall - (a) inform the applicant of the revised value and communicate to him the provisions of Sub-rule (2) of Rule 25; and (b) endorse to the appointing authority a copy of the communication issued under Clause (a).

27. Authorisation of payment of commuted value by the Accounts Officer.

(1) The Accounts Officer on receipt of the documents referred to in Sub-rule (4) of Rule 22 from the appointing authority, shall without delay issue an order to the disbursing authority concerned furnish to it the following particulars and documents, namely : (i) the amount of pension commuted, the amount of commuted value of pension and the date on which the commutation became absolute; (ii) the amount of residuary pension; (iii) Form 4 in original; (iv) copy of the applicant's photograph attested by the medical authority. (2) The Accounts Officer shall also - (a) bring to the notice of disbursing authority the provisions of proviso to Sub-rule (1) of Rule 6 regarding the date on which the amount of original pension should be reduced; (b) endorse to the applicant a copy of the order issued under Sub-rule (1) with the remarks that he should collect the commuted value from the disbursing authority; and (c) bring to the notice of the applicant the provisions of the proviso to Sub-rule (1) of Rule 6.

28. Final Assessment of pension.

(1) An applicant referred to in Rule 9 to whom the commuted value of the fraction of the provisional pension has been paid by the appointing authority, shall, on final assessment of the pension, be paid by the Accounts Officer, the difference between the commuted value so determined and the commuted value already paid. (2) The commuted value of the fraction of provisional pension as indicated in the endorsement in Form 3 addressed to the applicant and forwarded under Sub-rule (3) of Rule 18 shall be deemed to have been amended with the issue of an authority by the Accounts Officer for the payment of difference between the commuted value of the fraction of the final pension and the fraction of the provisional pension. Chapter-V Miscellaneous

29. Interpretation.

- Where any doubt arises as to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government in the Finance Department for decision.

30. Power to relax.

- Where the Governor is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, he may, by order for reasons to be recorded in writing, dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent and subject to such exception and conditions, as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner :Provided that no such order shall be made except with the concurrence of the Finance Department.

31. Repeal and saving.

(1)On the commencement of these rules, all rules including Chapter XII of Orissa Pension Rules, 1977 corresponding to the provisions of these rules and orders including Office Memorandum (hereinafter referred to as the old rule) in force immediately before such commencement shall cease to operate;(2)Notwithstanding such ceaser of operation -(a)any case which pertains to the sanction of commutation of pension and is pending on the date of commencement of these rules shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the old rules as if these rules had not been made; and(b)subject to the provisions of Clause (a) anything done or any action taken under the old rules shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these Rules.
