21A. Necessity for conductor's licence.

(1)No person shall act as a conductor of a stage carriage unless he holds an effective conductor's licence issued to him authorising him to act as such conductor; and no person shall employ or permit any person who is not so licensed to act as a conductor of a stage carriage.(2)A State Government may prescribe the conditions subject to which sub-section (1) shall not apply to a driver of a stage carriage performing the functions of a conductor or to a person employed to act as a conductor for a period not exceeding one month.

21B. Grant of conductor's licence.

(1)Any person who is not disqualified under sub-section (1) of section 21C and who is not for the time being disqualified for holding or obtaining a conductor's licence may apply to the licensing authority having jurisdiction in the area in which he ordinarily resides or carries on business for the issue to him of a conductor's licence.(2)Every application under sub-section (1) shall be in such form as may be prescribed and shall be signed by, or bear the thumb impression of, the applicant in two places, and shall contain the information required by the form.(3)Every application for a conductor's licence shall be accompanied by a medical certificate in such form as may be prescribed, signed by a registered medical practitioner and shall also be accompanied by two clear copies of a recent photograph of the applicant.(4)A conductor's licence issued under this Chapter shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.(5)The fee for a conductor's licence and for each renewal thereof shall be one-half of that for a driving licence.

21C. Disqualifications for the grant of conductor's licence.

(1) No person under the age of eighteen years shall hold, or be granted, a conductor's licence. (2) The licensing authority may refuse to grant a conductor's licence—(a) if the applicant does not possess the prescribed qualifications; (b) if the medical certificate produced by the applicant discloses that he is physically unfit to act as a conductor; and (c) if any previous conductor's licence held by the applicant was revoked.

21D. Revocation of a conductor's licence grounds of disease or disability.

- A conductor's licence may at any time be revoked by any licensing authority or any Regional Transport Authority constituted under Chapter IV, if the authority has reasonable grounds to believe that the holder of the licence is suffering from any disease or 44 disability which is likely to render him permanently unfit to hold such a licence and where the authority revoking a conductor's licence is not the authority which issued the same, it shall intimate the fact of revocation to the authority which issued that licence.

21E. Orders refusing, etc., conductor's licences and appeals therefrom.

(1) Where a licensing authority refuses to issue or renew or revokes any conductor's licence, it shall do so by an order communicated to the applicant or the holder, as the case may be, giving the reasons in writing for such refusal or revocation. (2) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1) may, within thirty days of the service on him of the order, appeal to the prescribed authority which shall decide the appeal after giving such person and the authority making the order an opportunity of being heard and the decision of the appellate authority shall be binding on the authority making the order.

21F. Powers of licensing authority and Regional Transport Authority to disqualify.

(1) If any licensing authority or any Regional Transport Authority constituted under Chapter IV is of opinion that it is necessary to disqualify the holder of a conductor's licence for holding or obtaining such a licence on account of his previous conduct as a conductor, it may, for reasons to be recorded, make an order disqualifying that person for a specified period, not exceeding one year, for holding or obtaining a conductor's licence. (2) Upon the issue of any such order, the holder of the conductor's licence shall forthwith surrender the licence to the authority making the order, if the licence has not already been surrendered, and the authority shall keep the licence until the disqualification has expired or has been removed. (3) Where the authority disqualifying the holder of a conductor's licence under this section is not the authority which issued the licence, it shall intimate the fact of such disqualification to the authority which issued the same. (4) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1) may, within thirty days of the service on him of the order, appeal to the prescribed authority which shall decide the appeal after giving such person and the authority making the order an opportunity of being heard and the decision of the appellate authority shall be binding on the authority making the order.

21G. Power of Court to disqualify.

(1) Where any person holding a conductor's licence is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court by which such person is convicted may, in addition to imposing any other punishment authorised by law, declare the person so convicted to be disqualified for such period as the Court may specify for holding a conductor's licence. (2) The Court to which an appeal lies from any conviction of an offence of the nature specified in sub-section (1) may set aside or vary any order of disqualification made by the Court below, and the Court to which appeals ordinarily lie from the Court below, may set aside or vary any order of disqualification made by that Court, notwithstanding that no appeal lies against the conviction in connection with which such order was made.

21H. Certain provisions of Chapter II to apply to conductor's licence.

- The provisions of sub-section (2) of section 6, sub-section (1) of section 9, sections 10, 11 and 18, sub-section (1) of section 19 and section 20 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to a conductor's licence, as they apply in relation to a driving licence.

21I. Savings.

- If any licence to act as a conductor of a stage carriage (by whatever name called) has been issued by any State Government and is effective immediately before the commencement of this Chapter in that State, it shall continue to be effective, notwithstanding such commencement, for the period for which it would have been effective, if the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1956, had not been passed, and every such licence shall be deemed to be a licence issued under this Chapter as if this Chapter had been in force on the date on which that licence was granted.

21J. Power to make rules.

(1) A State Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Chapter. (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—(a) the appointment, jurisdiction, control and functions of, licensing authorities and other prescribed authorities under this Chapter; (b) the conditions subject to which drivers of stage carriages and persons temporarily employed may be exempted from the provisions of this Chapter; (c) the form of application for conductor's licences or for renewal of such licences and the particulars it may contain; (d) the form in which conductor's licences may be issued or renewed and the Particulars it may contain; (e) the minimum qualifications of conductors; their duties and functions and the conduct of persons to whom conductor's licences are issued; (f) the issue of duplicate licences to replace licences lost, destroyed or mutilated, the replacement of photographs which have become obsolete and the fees to be charged therefor;(g)the conduct and hearing of appeals that may be preferred under this Chapter, the fees to be paid in respect of such appeals and the refund of such fees:Provided that no fee so fixed shall exceed two rupees;(h)the badges and uniform to be worn by conductors of stage carriages and the fees to be paid in respect of such badges;(i)the granting by registered medical practitioners of the certificates referred to in sub-section (3) of section 21B and the form of such certificates;(j)the communication of particulars of conductor's licences from one authority to other authorities; and(k)any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed.

Chapter III

55. [Procedure in considering application for public carrier's permit.

[Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 49, for the original section (w.e.f. 16-12-1957).]

(1)A Regional Transport Authority shall, in considering an application for a public carrier's permit, have regard to the following matters, namely: -(a)the interests of the public generally;(b)the advantages to the public of the service to be provided and the convenience afforded to the public by the provision of such service and the saving of time likely to be effected thereby;(c)the adequacy of other goods services operating or likely to operate in the near future, whether by road or other means, between the places to be served;(d)the operation by the applicant of other transport services, including those in respect of which applications from him for permits are pending;(e)the benefit to any particular locality or localities likely to be afforded by the service;(f)the condition of the roads included in the proposed area or route;(g)the nature of the goods to be carried with special reference to any of a fragile or perishable nature;(h)the volume of traffic and the existence of marketing centers in the proposed area or along or near the proposed route;and shall also take into consideration any representations made by persons already providing goods transport facilities by any means, whether by road or otherwise, in the proposed area or along or near the proposed route, or by any local authority or police authority within whose jurisdiction any part of the proposed area or route lies:Provided that other conditions being equal, an application for a public carrier's permit from a co-operative society registered or deemed to have been registered under any enactment in force for the time being [and an application for a public carrier's permit from a person who has a valid licence for driving transport vehicles] shall as far as may be, be given preference over applications from individual owners.(1A)[The Government of a State shall reserve in that State certain percentage of public carriers' permits for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.(1B)The Government of a State may, having regard to the extent to which persons belonging to economically weaker sections of the community have been granted public carriers' permits in that State,(a)reserve in that State such percentage of public carriers' permits, as may be prescribed, for persons belonging to economically weaker sections of the community; or(b)notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (1), give preference, in such manner as may be prescribed, to applications for public carriers' permits from such persons.(1C)The provisions of sub-sections (1B), (1D), (1F) and (1G) of section 47 shall apply to or in relation to the grant of public carriers' permits under this section as they apply to or in relation to the grant of stage carriage permits under that section.] Inserted by Act 47 of 1978, section 22 (w.e.f. 16-1-1979).A Regional Transport Authority may, having regard to the matters mentioned in sub-section (1), limit the number of transport vehicles generally or of any specified type for which public carrier's permits may be granted in the region or in any specified area or on any specified route within the region.]

56. [Grant of public carrier's permits. [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 50, for the original section (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).]

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 55, a Regional Transport Authority may, on an application made to it under section 54, grant a public carrier's permit in accordance with the application or with such modifications as it deems fit or refuse to grant such a permit : Provided that no such permit shall be granted in respect of any area or route not specified in the application. (2) The Regional Transport Authority, if it decides to grant a public carrier's permit. may grant the permit for one or more goods vehicles of a specified description and may, subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, attach to, the permit any one or more of the following conditions, namely:-(i) that the vehicle or vehicles shall be used only in a specified area, or on a specified route or routes; (ii) that the laden weight of any vehicle used shall not exceed a specified maximum; (iii) that goods of a specified nature shall not be carried; (iv) that goods shall be carried at specified rates; (v) that specified arrangement shall be made for the housing, maintenance and repair of vehicles and the storage and safe custody of the goods carried; (vi) that the holder of the permit shall furnish to the Regional Transport Authority such periodical returns, statistics and other information as the State Government may, from time to time, prescribe; (vii) that the Regional Transport Authority may after giving notice of not less than one month, -(a) vary the conditions of the permit; (b) attach to the permit further conditions; (viii) that the conditions of the permit shall not be departed from save with the approval of the Regional Transport Authority; (ix) any other conditions which may be prescribed. (3) Where there is any free zone along or contiguous to the area or route for which a public carrier's permit is granted, the Regional Transport Authority shall include in such permit, wherever possible, an authorisation to carry any goods other than those prohibited by any law for the time being in force, anywhere in that free zone. (4) For the purposes of this section, "free zone" means such municipal limits of a town or such other area as the State Transport Authority may, subject to any rules that may be made under section 68 and having regard to the volume of traffic in the area and other circumstances, declare to be a free zone within which goods may be carried anywhere by any motor vehicle covered by a public carrier's permit.]

57. Procedure in applying for and granting permits.

(1) An application for a contract carriage permit or a private carrier's permit may be made at any time. (2) An application for I stage carriage permit or a public carrier's permit shall be made not less than six weeks before the date on which it is desired that the permit shall take effect, or, if the Regional Transport Authority appoints dates for the receipt of such applications, on such dates. (3) On receipt of an application for a stage carriage permit or a public carrier's permit, the Regional Transport Authority shall make the application available for inspection at the office of the Authority and shall publish the application or the substance thereof in the prescribed manner together with a notice of the date before which 76 representations in connection therewith may be submitted and the date not being less than thirty days from such publication, on which, and the time and place at which, the application and any representations, received will be considered; [Provided that, if the grant of any permit in accordance with the application or with modifications would have the effect of increasing the number of vehicles operating in the region, or in any area or on any route within the region, under the class of permits to which the application relates, beyond the limit fixed in that behalf under subsection (3) of section 47 or sub-section (2) of section 55, as the case may be, the Regional Transport Authority may summarily refuse the application without following the procedure laid down in this sub-section.] Added by Act 100 of 1956, section 51 (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).No representation in connection with an application referred to in sub-section (3) shall be considered by the Regional Transport Authority unless it is made in writing before the appointed date and unless a copy thereof is furnished simultaneously to the applicant by the person making such representation.(5)When any representation such as is referred to in sub-section (3) is made, the Regional Transport Authority shall dispose of the application at a public hearing at which the applicant and the person making the representation shall have an opportunity of being heard either in person or by a duly authorised representative.(6)When any representation has been made by the persons or authorities referred to in section 50 to the effect that the number of contract carriages for which permits have already been granted in any region or any area within a region is sufficient for or in excess of the needs of the region or of such area, whether such representation is made in connection with a particular application for the grant of a contract carriage permit or otherwise, the Regional Transport Authority may take any such steps as it considers appropriate for the hearing of the representation in the presence of any persons likely to be affected thereby.(7)When a Regional Transport Authority refuses an application for a permit of any kind, it shall give to the applicant in writing its reasons for the refusal.(8)[An application to vary the conditions of any permit, other than a temporary permit, by the inclusion of a new route or routes or a new area or, in the case of a stage carriage permit, by increasing the [number of trips above the specified maximum, or by altering the route covered by it] [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 51 (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).], or in the case of a contract carriage permit or a public carrier's permit, by increasing the number of vehicles covered by the permit, shall be treated as an application for the grant of a new permit.Provided that it shall not be necessary so to treat an application made by the holder of a stage carriage permit who provides the only service on any route or in any area to increase the frequency of the service so provided, without any increase in the number of vehicles.(9)A Regional Transport Authority may, before such date as may be specified by it in this behalf, replace any stage carriage permit, contract carriage permit or public carrier's permit granted by it before the said date by a fresh permit conforming to the provisions of section 48 or section 51 or section 56, as the case may be, and the fresh permit shall be valid for the same route or routes or the same area for which the replaced permit was valid:Provided that no condition other than a condition which was already attached to the replaced permit or which could have been attached thereto under the law in force when that permit was granted shall be attached to the fresh permit except with the consent in writing of the holder of the permit.(10)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 58, a permit issued under the provisions of sub-section (9) 'shall be effective without renewal for the remainder of the period during which the replaced permit would have been so effective.]

58. Duration and renewal of permits.

- [(1) (a) A stage carriage permit or a contract carriage permit other than a temporary permit issued under section 62 shall be effective without renewal for such period, not less than three year and not more than five years, as the Regional Transport Authority may specify in the permit.(b)A private carrier's permit or a public carrier's permit other than a temporary permit issued under section 62

shall be effective without renewal for a period of five years.](2)A permit may be renewed on an application made and disposed of as if it were an application for a permit :[Provided that the application for the renewal of a permit shall be made,-(a)in the case of a stage carriage permit or a public carrier's permit, not less than [one hundred and twenty days] before the date of its expiry; and(b)in any other case, not less than [sixty days] [Substituted by section 25, Act 56 of 1969, for 'thirty days' (w.e.f. 1-11-1970).] before the date of its expiry:]Provided [further] [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 52, (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] that, other conditions being equal, an application for renewal shall be given preference over new applications for permits.(2A)[Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), An application for the renewal of a permit may be made by a State transport undertaking in the case of a stage carriage permit or a public carries permit or a contract carriage permit, not less than fifteen days before the date of expiry of the permit.] Inserted by Act 47 of 1978, section 23 (w.e.f. 16-1-1979).[Notwithstanding anything contained in the [first] [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 52, (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] proviso to sub-section (2), the Regional Transport Authority may entertain an application for the renewal of a permit after the last date specified in the said proviso for the making of such an application, if the application is made not more than fifteen days after the said last date and is accompanied by the prescribed fee.] Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 52, (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).[Where a permit has been renewed under this section after the expiry of the period thereof, such renewal shall have effect from the date of such expiry irrespective of whether or not a temporary permit has been granted under clause (d) of section 62, and where a temporary permit has been granted, the fee paid in respect of such temporary permit shall be refunded.] [Inserted by Act 56 of 1969, section 25 (w.e.f. 1-11-1970).]

59. General conditions attaching to all permits.

(1)Save as provided in section 61, a permit shall not be transferable from one person to another except with the permission of the transport authority which granted the permit and shall not without such permission operate to confer on any person to whom a vehicle covered by the permit is transferred any right to use that vehicle in the manner authorised by the permit.(2)The holder of a permit may, with the permission of the authority by which the permit was granted, [replace any vehicle covered by the permit by any other vehicle of the same nature] [Substituted for the words 'reokace by another vehicles of the same nature and capacity any vehicle covered by te permit' by Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).].(3)The following shall be conditions of every permit-(a)that the vehicle or vehicles to which the [permit relates carry valid certificates of fitness issued under section 38 and] [Substituted for the words 'perimt relates' by Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).] are at all times so maintained as to comply with the requirements of Chapter V and the rules made thereunder;(b)that the vehicle or vehicles to which the permit relates are not driven at a speed exceeding the speed lawful under this Act;(c)that any prohibition or restriction imposed and any [* *] [Omitted 'maximum or minimum' by Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).] fares or freights fixed by notification made under section 43 or observed in connection with any vehicle or vehicles to which the permit relates;(d)that the vehicle or vehicles to which the permit relates are not driven in contravention of the provisions of [section 5 or section 72] [Substituted for the words, 'Section 72' by Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).];(e)that the provisions of this Act limiting the hours of work of drivers are observed in connection with any vehicle or vehicles to which the permit relates;(f)and that the provisions of Chapter VIII so far as they apply, to the holder of the permit are observed.

59A. [General form of permits. [Inserted by Act 56 of 1956, Section 53 (w.e.f. 16.2.1957).]

- Every permit other than a temporary permit issued under section 62 shall consist of two parts, Part A of which shall be complete in itself and shall contain all the necessary particulars of the permit and the conditions attached thereto, and Part B of which shall be a summary of the permit containing such particulars as may be prescribed; and where a permit covers more than one, vehicle, there shall be issued to the holder of the permit as many copies of Part B as there are vehicles authorised by the permit to be in operation at any one time.] [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 52, for the original sub-section (1) (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).]

60. Cancellation and suspension of permits.

(1)The transport authority which granted a permit may cancel the permit or may suspend it for such period as it thinks fit-(a)on the breach of any condition specified in sub-section (3) of section 59, or of any condition contained in the permit, or(b)if the holder of the permit uses or causes or allows a vehicle to be used in any manner not authorised by the permit, or(c)if the holder of the permit ceases to [own] [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'possess' (w.e.f. 16-2-1956).] the vehicle or vehicles covered by the permit, or(d)if the holder of the permit has obtained the permit by fraud or misrepresentation, [or] Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'possess' (w.e.f. 16-2-1956).if the holder of the permit, not being a private carrier's permit, fails without reasonable cause to use the vehicle or vehicles for the purposes for which the permit was granted, or [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'possess' (w.e.f. 16-2-1956).if the holder of the permit acquires the citizenship of any foreign country;]Provided that no permit shall be cancelled unless an opportunity has been given to the holder of the permit to [furnish] [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'submit' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] his explanation.(1A)[The transport authority which granted a permit may, after giving the holder thereof an opportunity to furnish his explanation, reduce either permanently or for such period as it thinks fit, the number of vehicles or the route or area covered by the permit on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section 1).] Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'possess' (w.e.f. 16-2-1956).[The transport authority may exercise the powers conferred on it under sub-section (1) and (1A) in relation to a permit granted by any authority or person to whom power in this behalf has been delegated under sub-section (5) of section 44 as if the said permit was a permit granted by the transport authority.] Inserted by Act 56 of 1969, section 27 (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).Where a transport authority cancels or suspends a permit 2[or reduces the number of vehicles or the routes or area covered by a permit], it shall give to the holder in writing its reasons for [the action taken] [Substituted for the words 'revocation or suspension', Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).].(2A)The powers exercisable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) (other than the power to cancel a permit) by the transport authority which granted the permit may be exercised by any authority or person to whom such powers have been delegated under subsection (5) of section 44:Provided that-(i)no such authority or person shall pass an order suspending the permit for a period exceeding one month or reducing the period thereof by more than one month; and(ii)any such order shall be placed within the said period of one month before the transport authority who may vacate the order or extend the said period of one month where it has not expired or cancel the permit or take action under sub-section (3), as it may deem fit.[

Where a permit is liable to be cancelled or suspended under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (e) of subsection (1) and the transport authority is of opinion that having regard to the circumstances of the case, it would not be necessary or expedient so to cancel or suspend the permit if the holder of the permit agrees to pay a certain sum of money, then, notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), the transport authority may, instead of cancelling or suspending the permit, as the case may be, recover from the holder of the permit the sum of money agreed upon.] Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'possess' (w.e.f. 16-2-1956).[The powers exercisable by the transport authority under sub-section (3) may, where an appeal has been preferred under section 64, be exercised also by the appellate authority.] [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 54, for 'submit' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).]

61. Transfer of permit on death of holder.

(1)Where the holder of a permit dies, the person succeeding to the possession of the vehicles covered by the permit may, for a period of three months, use the permit as if it had been granted to himself :Provided that such person has, within thirty days of the death of the holder, informed the transport authority which granted the permit of the death of the holder and of his own intention to use the permit :Provided further that no permit shall be so used after the date on which it would have ceased to be effective without renewal in the hands of the deceased holder.(2)The transport authority may, on application made to it within three months of the death of the holder of a permit, transfer the permit to the person succeeding to the possession of the vehicles covered by the permit.

62. Temporary permits.

Special Provisions Relating to State Transport Undertakings

68A. Definitions.

- In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, -(a)"road transport service" means a service of motor vehicles carrying passengers or goods or both by road for hire or reward;(b)"State transport undertaking" means any undertaking providing road transport service, where such undertaking is carried on by, -(i)the Central Government, or a State Government;(ii)any Road Transport Corporation established under section 3 of the Road Transport Corporations Act, 1950; (64 of 1950.)(iii)[* * *] Clause (iii) omitted by Act 56 of 1969, section 38 (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).any municipality or any corporation or company owned or controlled by [the Central Government or one or more State Governments, or by the Central Government and one or more State Governments] [Substituted by section 38, Act 56 of 1969, for the words 'the State Government' (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).].

68B. Chapter IVA to over ride Chapter IV and other laws.

- The provisions of this Chapter and the rules and orders made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in Chapter IV of this Act or in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

68C. Preparation and publication of scheme of road transport service of State transport under-taking.

- Where any State transport undertaking is of opinion that for the purpose of providing an efficient, adequate, economical and properly coordinated road transport service, it is necessary in the public interest that road transport services in general or any particular class of such service in relation to any area or route or portion thereof should be run and operated by the State transport undertaking, whether to the exclusion, complete or partial, of other persons or otherwise, the State transport undertaking may prepare a scheme giving particulars of the nature of the services proposed to be rendered, the area or route proposed to be covered and such other particulars respecting thereto as may be prescribed, and shall cause every such scheme to be published in the Official Gazette and also in such other manner as the State Government may direct.

68D. Objection to the scheme.

- (1) On the publication of any scheme in the Official Gazette and in not less than one newspaper in regional language circulating in the area or route which is proposed to be covered by such scheme,-(i)any person already providing transport facilities by any means along or near the area or route proposed to be covered by the scheme;(ii)any association representing persons interested in the provision of road transport facilities recognised in this behalf by the State Government; and(iii)any local authority or police authority within whose jurisdiction any part of the area or route proposed to be covered by the scheme lies, may, within thirty days from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette, file objections to it before the State Government.The State Government may, after considering the objections and after giving an opportunity to the objector or his representatives and the representatives of the State transport undertaking to be heard in the matter, if they so desire, approve or modify the scheme.(3)The scheme as approved or modified under sub-section (2) shall then be published in the Official Gazette by the State Government and the same shall thereupon become final and shall be called the approved scheme and the area or route to which it relates shall be called the notified area or notified route :Provided that no such scheme which relates to any inter-State route shall be deemed to be an approved scheme unless it has been published in the Official Gazette with the previous approval of the Central Government.

68E. Cancellation or modification of scheme.

- [(1)] [Re-numbered by Act 56 of 1969, section 40 (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).] Any scheme published under sub-section (3) of section 68D may at any time be cancelled or modified by the State transport undertaking and the procedure laid down in section 68C and section of 68D shall, so far as it can be made applicable, be followed in every case where the scheme is proposed to be cancelled or modified as if the proposal were a separate scheme:Provided that the State Transport Undertaking may, with the previous approval of the State Government, modify without following the procedure laid down in section 68C and section 68D, any such scheme relating to any route or area in respect of which the road transport services are run and operated by the State Transport Undertaking to the complete exclusion of other persons in respect of the following matters, namely:-(a)increase in the number of vehicles or the number of trips;(b)change in the type of vehicles without reducing the seating capacity;(c)extension of the route or area, without reducing the frequency of the service; or(d)alteration of the time-table without reducing the frequency of the service.[Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the State Government may, at any time, if it considers necessary in the public interest so to do, modify any scheme published under sub-section (3) of section 68D, after giving,-(i)the State Transport Undertaking, and(ii)any other person who, in the opinion of the State Government, is likely to be affected by the proposed modification, an opportunity of being heard in respect of the proposed modification.]

68F. Issue of permits to State transport under-takings.

(1)Where, in pursuance of an approved scheme, any State transport undertaking applies [in such manner as may be prescribed by the State Government in this behalf] [Substituted for words and figures 'in the manner specified in Chapter IV' by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (56 of 1969), section 41(a)(i) (w.e.f. 1.10.1970).] for a stage carriage permit or a public carrier's permit or a contract carriage permit in respect of a notified area or notified route, the [State Transport Authority in any case where the said area or route lies in more than one region and the Regional Transport Authority in any other case] [Substituted for words 'Regional Transport Authority' by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (56 of 1969), section 41(a)(ii) (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).] shall issue such permit to the State transport undertaking, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Chapter IV.(1A)[Where any scheme has been published by a State Transport Undertaking under section 68C that Undertaking may apply for a temporary permit, in respect of any area or route or portion thereof specified in the said scheme, for the period intervening between the date of publication of the scheme and the date of publication of the approved or modified scheme, and where such application is made, the State Transport Authority or the Regional Transport Authority as the case may be, shall, if it is satisfied that it is necessary to increase, in the public interest, the number of vehicles operating in such area or route or portion thereof, issue the temporary permit prayed for by the State Transport Undertaking.(1B)A temporary permit issued in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (1A) shall be effective,-(i)if the scheme is published under sub-section (3) of section 68D, until the grant of the permit to the State Transport Undertaking under sub-section (1), or(ii)it the scheme is not published under sub-section (3) of section 68D, until the expiration of the one week from the date on which the order under subsection (2) of section 68D is made.(1C)If no application for a temporary permit is made under sub-section (1A), the State Transport Authority or the Regional Transport Authority, as the case may be, may grant, subject to such conditions as it may think fit, temporary permit to any person in respect of the area or route or portion thereof specified in the scheme and the permit so granted shall cease to be effective on the issue of a permit to the State Transport Undertaking in respect of that area or route or portion thereof.(1D)Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (1A) or subsection (1C), no permit shall, be granted or renewed during the period intervening between the date of publication, under section 68C of any scheme and the date of publication of the approved or modified scheme, in favour of any person for any class of road transport service in relation to an area or route or portion thereof covered by such scheme :Provided that where the period of operation of a permit in relation to any area, route or portion thereof specified in a scheme published under section 68C expires after such publication, such permit may be renewed for a limited period, but the permit so renewed shall cease to be effective on the publication of the scheme under sub-section (3) of section 68D.] Inserted sub-sections (1A), (1B), (1C) and (1D) by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (56 of 1969), section 41(b) (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).[Where a State transport undertaking applies for renewal of a permit within the period specified in sub-section (2A) of section 58, the State Transport Authority or, as the case may be, the Regional Transport Authority, shall, renew such permit, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Chapter IV.] Inserted by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1978 (47 of 1948), section 28 (w.e.f. 16.1.1979).For the purpose of giving effect to the approved scheme in respect of a notified area or notified route, [the State Transport Authority or as the case may be, the Regional Transport Authority concerned] [Substituted for the words 'the Regional Transport Authority' by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (58 of 1969), section 41 (c) (i) (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).] may, by order,-(a)refuse to entertain any application for [the grant or renewal of any other permit or reject any such application as may be pending] [Substituted for the words 'the renewal of any other permit' by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (58 of 1969), section 41 (c) (ii) (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).];(b)cancel any existing permit;(c)modify the terms of any existing permit so as to-(i)render the permit ineffective beyond a specified date;(ii)reduce the number of vehicles authorised to be used under the permit;(iii)curtail the area or route covered by the permit so far as such permit relates to the notified area or notified route.(3)For, the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no appeal shall lie against any action taken, or order passed, by [the State Transport Authority or any Regional Transport Authority] [Substituted for the words 'the Regional Transport Authority' by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (58 of 1969), section 41 (d) (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).] under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

68FF. [Restriction on grant of permits in respect of a notified area or notified route. [Inserted by section 42, Act 56 of 1969, (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).]

- Where a scheme has been published under sub-section (3) of section 68D in respect of any notified area or notified route, the State Transport Authority or the Regional Transport Authority, as the case may be, shall not grant any permit except in accordance with the provisions of the scheme;Provided that where no application for a permit has been made an by the State Transport Undertaking in respect of any notified area or notified route in pursuance of an approved scheme, the State Transport Authority or the Regional Transport Authority, 'as the case may be, may grant temporary permits to any person in respect of such notified area or notified route subject to the' condition that such permit shall cease to be effective on the issue of a permit to the State Transport Undertaking in respect of that area or route.] [After sub-section (1) as so renumbered, new sub-section (2), inserted by Act 56 of 1969, section 40 (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).]

68G. Principles and method of determining compensation.

(1)Where, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 68F, any existing permit is cancelled or the terms thereof are modified, there shall be paid by the State transport undertaking to the holder of the permit compensation the amount of which shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) or sub-section (5), as the case may be.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no compensation shall be payable on account of the cancellation of any existing permit or any modification of the terms thereof, when a permit for an alternative route or area in lieu thereof has been offered by [the State Transport Authority or the Regional Transport Authority, as the case may be,] [Substituted 'Regional Transport Authority' by Act 56 of 1969, section 43, for the words (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).] and accepted by the holder of the permit.(3)For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no compensation shall be payable on account of the refusal to renew a permit under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 68F.(4)Where, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) or sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 68F, any existing permit is cancelled or the terms thereof are modified so as to prevent the holder of the permit from using any vehicle authorised to be used thereunder for the full period for which the permit would otherwise have been effective, the compensation payable to the holder of the permit for each vehicle affected by such cancellation or modification shall be computed as follows:-(a)for every complete month or part of a Two hundred month exceeding fifteen days of the rupees unexpired period of the permit:(b)for part of a month not exceeding fifteen One hundred days of the unexpired period of the rupees permit :Provided that the amount of compensation shall, in no case, be less than four hundred rupees.(5)Where, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-clause (iii) of clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 68F, the terms of an existing permit are modified so as to curtail the area or route of any vehicle authorised to be used thereunder, the compensation payable to the holder of the permit on account of such curtailment shall be an amount computed in accordance with the following formula, namely:-

$Y \times AR$

Explanation. - In this formula,-(i)"Y" means the length or area by which the route or area covered by the permit is curtailed;(ii)"A" means the amount computed in accordance with sub-section (4);(iii)R" means the total length of the route or the total area covered by the permit.

68H. Payment of compensation.

- The amount of compensation payable under section 68G shall be paid by the State 'transport undertaking to the person or persons entitled thereto within one month from the date on which the cancellation or modification of the permit becomes effective :Provided that where the State transport undertaking fails to make the payment within the said period of one month, it shall pay interest at the rate of 3½ per cent. per annum from the date on which it falls due.

68HH. [Disposal of articles found in vehicles. [Inserted by Act 56 of 1969, section 44 (w.e.f. 1-10-1970).]

92A. Liability to pay compensation in certain cases on the principle of no fault.

(1)Where the death or permanent disablement of any person has resulted from an accident arising out of the use of a motor vehicle or motor vehicles, the owner of the vehicle shall, or, as the case may be, the owners of the vehicles shall, jointly and severally, be liable to pay compensation in respect of such death or disablement in accordance with the provisions of this section.(2)The amount of compensation which shall be payable under sub-section (1) in respect of the death of any person shall be a fixed sum of fifteen thousand rupees and the amount of compensation payable under that sub-section in respect of the permanent disablement of any person shall be a fixed sum of seven thousand five hundred rupees.(3)In any claim for compensation under sub-section (1), the claimant shall not be required to plead and establish that the death or permanent disablement in respect of which the claim has been made was due to any wrongful act, neglect or default of the owner or owners of the vehicle or vehicles concerned or of any other person.(4)A claim for compensation under sub-section (1) shall not be defeated by reason of any wrongful act, neglect or default of the person in respect of whose death or permanent disablement the claim has been made nor shall the quantum of compensation recoverable in respect of such death or permanent disablement be reduced on the share of such person in the responsibility for such death or permanent disablement.

92B. Provisions as to other right to claim compensation for death or permanent disablement.

(1)The right to claim compensation under section 92A in respect of death or permanent disablement of any person shall be in addition to any other right (hereafter in this section referred to as the right on the principle of fault) to claim compensation in respect thereof under any other provision of this Act or of any other law for the time being in force.(2)A claim for compensation under section 92A in respect of death or permanent disablement of any person shall be disposed of as expeditiously as possible and where compensation is claimed in respect of such death or permanent disablement under section 92A and also in pursuance of any right on the principle of fault, the claim for compensation under section 92A shall be disposed of as aforesaid in the first place.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section(1),where in respect of the death or permanent disablement of any person, the person liable to pay compensation under section 92A is also liable to pay compensation in accordance with the right on the principle of fault, the person so liable shall pay the first-mentioned compensation and-(a)if the amount of the first-mentioned compensation is less than the amount of the second-mentioned compensation, he shall be liable to pay (in addition to the first-mentioned compensation) only so much of the second-mentioned compensation as is equal to the amount by which it exceeds the first-mentioned compensation:(b)if the amount of the first-mentioned compensation is equal to or less than the amount of the second-mentioned compensation, he shall not be liable to pay the second-mentioned compensation.

92C. Permanents disablement.

- For the purposes of this Chapter, permanent disablement of a person shall be deemed to have resulted from an accident of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) of section 92A if such person has suffered by reason of the accident any injury or injuries involving--(a)permanent privation of the sight of either eye or the hearing of either ear, or privation of any member or joint; or(b)destruction or permanent impairing of the powers of any member or joint; or(c)permanent disfiguration of the head or face.

92D. Applicability of Chapter to certain claims under Act 8 of 1923.

- The provisions of this Chapter shall also apply in relation to any claim for compensation in respect of death or permanent disablement of any person under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 resulting from an accident of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) section 92A and for this purpose, the said provisions shall, with necessary modifications, be deemed to form part of that Act.

92E. Over riding effect.

- The provisions of this Chapter shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act or of any other law for the time being in force.[Chapter VIII] [Chapter VIII shall effect on and from 29.10.1956 in all Part B States to which the Act extends - See S.R.O. 2419, dated 22-10-1956 in Gazette of India, 1956, Part II, Section 3, page 1784; Chapter VIII takes effect in the State of Kerala from 16-4-1973 - See S.O. 197(E) published in Gazette of India, 2-4-1973, Part II, Section 3 (ii), extraordinary page 665.] Insurance of Motor Vehicles against third Party Risks

96. Duty of insurers to satisfy.

(1)If, after a certificate of insurance [* * ] [The words 'or a cover note' omitted by Act 100 of 1956, section 76 (w.e.f.16-2-1957)] has been issued under sub-section (4) of section 95 in favour of the person by whom judgments against persons insured in respect of third party risks, a policy has been effected, judgment in respect of any such liability as is required to be covered by a policy under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 95 (being a liability covered by the terms of the policy) is obtained against any person insured by the policy, then, notwithstanding that the insurer may be entitled to avoid or cancel or may have avoided or cancelled the policy, the insurer shall, subject to the provisions of this section, pay to the person entitled to the benefit of the decree any sum not exceeding the sum assured payable thereunder, as if he were the judgment debtor, in respect of the liability, together with any amount payable in respect of costs and any sum payable in respect of interest on that sum by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments.(2)No sum shall be payable by an insurer under sub-section (1) in respect of any judgment unless before or after the commencement of the proceedings in which the judgment is given the insurer had notice through the Court of the bringing of the proceedings, or in respect of any judgment so long as execution is stayed thereon pending an appeal; and an insurer to whom notice of the bringing of any such proceedings is so given shall be entitled to be made a party thereto and to defend the action on any of the following grounds, namely:-(a)that the policy was cancelled by mutual consent or by virtue of any provision contained therein before the accident giving rise to the liability, and that either the certificate of insurance was surrendered to the insurer or that the person to whom the certificate was issued has made an affidavit stating that the certificate has been lost or destroyed, or that either before or not later than fourteen days after the happening of the accident the insurer has commenced proceedings for cancellation of the certificate after compliance with the provisions of section 105; or(b)that there has been a breach of a specified condition of the policy, being one of the following conditions, namely:-(i)a condition excluding the use of the vehicle-(a)for hire or reward where the vehicle is on the date of the contract of insurance a vehicle not covered by a permit to ply for hire or reward, or(b)for organised racing and speed testing, or 114A(c)for a purpose not allowed by the permit under which the vehicle is used, where the vehicle is [a transport vehicle] [Substituted by Act 58 of 1960, section 3 and Schedule II, for 'a public service vehicle or a goods vehicle' (w.e.f. 26.12.1960).], or(d)without side-car being attached, where the vehicle is a motor cycle; or(ii)a condition excluding driving by a named person or persons or by any person who is not duly licensed, or by any person who has been disqualified for holding or obtaining a driving licence during the period of disqualification; or(iii)a condition excluding liability for injury caused or contributed to by conditions of war, civil war, riot or civil commotion; or(c)that the policy is void on the ground that it was obtained by the non-disclosure of a material fact or by a representation of fact which was false in some material particular.(2A)[Where any such judgment as is referred to in sub-section (1) is obtained from a Court [ * ] [Inserted by Act 58 of 1960, section 3 (w.e.f. 26.12.1960).] in a reciprocating country and in the case of a foreign judgment is, by virtue of the provisions of section 13 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, (5 of 1908) conclusive as to any matter adjudicated upon by it, the insurer (being an insurer registered under the Insurance 1 Act, 1938, (4 of 1938) and whether or not he is registered under the corresponding law of the reciprocating country) shall be liable to the, person entitled to the benefit of the decree in the manner and to the extent specified in sub-section (1), as if the judgment were given by a, Court in India.Provided that no sum shall be payable by the insurer in respect of any such judgment unless, before or after the commencement of the proceedings in which the judgment is given, the insurer had notice through the Court Concerned of the bringing of the proceedings and the insurer to whom notice is so given is entitled under the corresponding law [ * ] [Omitted words 'in the State of Jammu and Kashmir or' by Act 25 of 1968, section 2 and Schedule (w.e.f. 15-8-1968).] of the reciprocating country, to be made a party to the proceedings and to defend the action on grounds similar to those specified in sub-section (2).] Substituted by section 71, Act 100 of 1956, for the words 'shall apply to any motor vehicle or to any driver of a motor vehicle to whom any rules made under clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) apply' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).Where a certificate of insurance [ * ] [The words 'or cover note' were omitted the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1956 (100 of 1956), section 76 (w.e.f. 16.2.1957).] has been issued under sub-section (4) of section 95 to the person by whom a policy has been effected, so much of the policy as purports to restrict the insurance of the persons insured thereby by reference to any conditions other than those in clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall, as respects such liabilities as are required to be covered by a policy under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 95, be of no effect: Provided that any sum paid by the insurer in or towards the discharge of any liability of any person which is covered by the policy by virtue only of this sub-section shall be recoverable by the insurer from that person. (4) If the amount which an insurer becomes liable under this section to pay in respect of a liability incurred by a person insured by a policy exceeds the amount for which the insurer would apart from the provisions of this section be liable under the policy in respect of that liability, the insurer shall be entitled to recover the excess from that person. (5) In this section the expressions "material fact" and "material particular" mean, respectively, a fact or particular of such a nature as to influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in determining whether he will take the risk and, if so, at what premium and on what conditions, and the expression "liability covered by the terms of the policy" means a liability which is covered by the policy or which would be so covered but for the fact that the insurer is entitled to avoid or cancel or has avoided or cancelled the policy. (6) No insurer to whom the notice referred to in sub-section (2) [or sub-section (2A)] [Inserted by Act 58 of 1960, section 3 (w.e.f. 26.12.1960).] has been given shall be entitled to avoid his liability to any person entitled to the benefit of any such judgment as is referred to in sub-section (1) [or sub-section (2A)] [Inserted by Act 58 of 1960, section 3 (w.e.f. 26.12.1960).] otherwise than in the manner provided for in sub-section (2) [or in the corresponding law [ * *] [Inserted by Act 58 of 1960, section 3 (w.e.f. 26.12.1960).] of the reciprocating country, as the case may be].

97. Rights of third parties against insurers on insolvency of the insured.

(1) Where under any contract of insurance effected in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter a person is insured against liabilities which he may incur to third parties then—(a) in the event of the person becoming insolvent or making a composition or arrangement with his creditors, or (b) where the insured person is a company, in the event of a winding up order being made or a resolution for a voluntary winding up being passed with respect to the company or of a receiver or manager of the company's business or undertaking being duly appointed, or of possession being taken by or on behalf of the holders of any debentures secured by a floating charge of any property comprised in or subject to the charge, if, either before or after that event, any such liability is incurred by the insured person, his rights against the insurer under the contract in respect of the liability shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any provision of law, be transferred to and vest in the third party to whom the liability was so incurred. (2) Where an order for the administration of the estate of a deceased debtor is made according to the law of insolvency, then, if any debt provable in insolvency is owing by the deceased in respect of a liability to a third party against which he was insured under a contract of insurance in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, the deceased debtor's rights against the insurer in respect of that liability shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any provision of law, be transferred to and vest in the person to whom the debt is owing. (3) Any condition in a policy issued for the purposes of this Chapter purporting either directly or indirectly to avoid the policy or to alter the rights of the parties thereunder upon the happening to the insured person of any of the events specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) or upon the making of an order for the administration of the estate of a deceased debtor according to the law of insolvency shall be of no effect. 115(4) Upon a transfer under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the insurer shall be under the same liability to the third party as he would have been to the insured person, but- (a) if the liability of the insurer to the insured person exceeds the liability of the insured person to the third party, nothing in this Chapter shall affect the rights of the insured person against the insurer in respect of the excess, and (b) if the liability of the insurer to the insured person is less than the liability of the insured person to the third party, nothing in this Chapter shall affect the rights of the third party against the insured person in respect of the balance.

98. Duty to give information as to insurance.

(1) No person against whom a claim is made in respect of any liability referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 95 shall on demand by or on behalf of the person making the claim refuse to state whether or not he was insured in respect of that liability by any policy issued under the provisions of this Chapter, or would have been so insured if the insurer had not avoided or cancelled the policy, nor shall he refuse, if he was or would have been so insured, to give such particulars with respect to that policy as were specified in the certificate of insurance issued in respect thereof. (2) In the event of any person becoming insolvent or making a composition or arrangement with his creditors or in the event of an order being made for the administration of the estate of a deceased person according to the law of insolvency, or in the event of a winding up order being made or a resolution for a voluntary winding up being passed with respect to any company or of a receiver or manager of the company's business or undertaking being duly appointed or of possession being taken by or on behalf of the holders of any debentures secured by a floating charge on any property comprised in or subject to the charge, it shall be the duty of the insolvent debtor, personal representative of the deceased debtor or company, as the case may be, or the official assignee or receiver in insolvency, trustee, liquidator, receiver or manager, or person in possession of the property to give at the request of any person claiming that the insolvent debtor, deceased debtor or company is under such liability to him as is covered by the provisions of this Chapter, such information as may reasonably be required by him for the purpose of ascertaining whether any rights have been transferred to and vested in him by section 97, and for the purpose of enforcing such rights, if any; and any such contract of insurance as purports whether directly or indirectly to avoid the 116 contract or to alter the rights of the parties thereunder upon the giving of such information in the events aforesaid, or otherwise to prohibit or prevent the giving thereof in the said events, shall be of no effect. (3) If, from the information given to any person in pursuance of sub-section (2) or otherwise, he has reasonable ground for supposing that there have or may have been transferred to him under this Chapter rights against any particular insurer, that insurer shall be subject to the same duty as is imposed by the said sub-section on the persons therein mentioned. (4) The duty to give the information imposed by this section shall include a duty to allow all contracts of insurance, receipts for premiums, and other relevant documents in the possession or power of the person on whom the duty is so imposed to be inspected and copies thereof to be taken.

99. Settlement between insurers and insured persons.

(1) No settlement made by an insurer in respect of any claim which might be made by a third party in respect of any liability of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 95 shall be valid unless such third party is a party to the settlement. (2) Where a person who is insured under a policy issued for the purposes of this Chapter has become insolvent, or where, if such insured person is a company, a winding up order has been made or a resolution for a voluntary winding up has been passed with respect to the company, no agreement made between the insurer and the insured person after liability has been incurred to a third party and after the commencement of the insolvency or winding up, as the case may be, nor any waiver, assignment or other disposition made by or payment made to the insured person after the commencement aforesaid shall be effective to defeat the rights transferred to the third party under this Chapter, but those rights shall be the same as if no such agreement, waiver, assignment or disposition or payment has been made.

100. Saving in respect of sections, 97, 98 and 99.

(1) For the purposes of sections 97, 98 and 99, a reference to "liabilities to third parties" in relation to a person insured under any policy of insurance shall not include a reference to any liability of that person in the capacity of insurer under some other policy of insurance. (2) The provisions of sections 97, 98 and 99 shall not apply where a company is wound up voluntarily merely for the purposes of reconstruction or of an amalgamation with another company.

101. Insolvency of insured persons not to affect liability of insured or claims by third parties.

- Where a certificate of insurance has been issued to the person by whom a policy has been effected, the happening in relation to any person insured by the policy of any such event as is mentioned in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 97 shall, notwithstanding anything in this Chapter, not affect any liability of that person of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 95; but nothing in this section shall affect any rights against, the insurer conferred under the provisions of sections 97, 98 and 99 on the person to whom the liability was incurred.

102. Effect of death on certain of insurance.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 306 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, (39 of 1925) the death of a person in whose favour a certificate of insurance [* * *] [The words 'or cover note' omitted by Act 100 of 1956, section 77 (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] had been issued, if it occurs after the happening of an event which has given rise to a claim under the provisions of this Chapter, shall not be a bar to the survival of any cause of action arising out of the said event against his estate or against the insurer.

103. Effect of certificate of insurance.

- When an insurer has issued a certificate of insurance in respect of a contract of insurance between the insurer and the insured person, then-(a)if and so long as the policy described in the certificate has not been issued by the insurer to the insured, the insurer shall, as between himself and any other person except the insured, be deemed to have issued to the insured person a policy of insurance conforming in all respects with the description and particulars stated in such certificate; and(b)if the insurer has issued to the insured the policy described in the certificate but the actual terms of the policy are less favourable to persons claiming under or by virtue of the policy against the insurer either directly or through the insured than the particulars of the policy as stated in the certificate, the policy shall, as between the insurer and any other person except the insured, be deemed to be in terms conforming in all respects with, the particulars stated in the said certificate.

103A. [Transfer of certificate of insurance. [Inserted by Act 56 of 1969, section 56 (w.e.f. 1-10-1970).]

(1)Where a person in whose favour the certificate of insurance has been issued in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter proposes to transfer to another person the ownership of the motor vehicle in respect of which such insurance was taken together with the policy of insurance relating thereto, he may apply in the prescribed form to the insurer for the transfer of the certificate of insurance and the policy described in the certificate in favour of the person to whom the motor vehicle is proposed to be transferred, and if within fifteen days of the receipt of such application by the insurer, the insurer has not intimated the insured and such other person his refusal to transfer the certificate and the policy to the other person the certificate of insurance and the policy described in the certificate shall be deemed to have been transferred in favour of the person, to whom the motor vehicle is transferred with effect from the date of its transfer.(2)The insurer to Whom any application has been made under sub-section (1) may refuse to transfer to the other person the certificate of insurance and the policy described in that certificate if he considers it necessary so to do, having regard to-(a)the previous conduct of the other person,-(i)as a driver of motor vehicles; or(ii)as a holder of the policy of insurance in respect of any motor vehicle; or(b)any conditions which may have been imposed in relation to any such policy held by the applicant; or (c) the rejection of any proposal made by such other person for the issue of a policy of insurance in respect of any motor vehicle owned or possessed by him.(3)Where the insurer has refused to transfer, in favour of the person to whom the motor vehicle has been transferred, the certificate of insurance and the policy described in that certificate, he shall refund to such transferee the amount, if any, which, under the terms of the policy, he would have had to refund to the insured for the unexpired term of such policy.]

104. Duty to surrender certificate on cancellation of policy.

(1)Whenever the period of cover under a policy of insurance issued under the provisions of this Chapter is terminated or suspended by any means before its expiration by efflux of time, the insured person shall within seven days after such termination or suspension deliver to the insurer by whom the policy was issued the latest certificate, of insurance given by the insurer in respect of the said policy, or, if the said certificate has been lost or destroyed, make an affidavit to that effect.(2)Whoever fails to surrender a certificate of insurance or to make an affidavit, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifteen rupees for every day that the offence continues subject to a maximum of five hundred rupees.

105. Duty of insurer to notify registering authority cancellation or suspension of the policy.

- Whenever a policy of insurance issued under the provisions of this Chapter is cancelled or suspended by the insurer who has issued the policy, the insurer shall within seven days notify such cancellation or suspension to the registering authority in whose records the registration the vehicle covered by the policy of insurance is recorded or to such other authority as the [State Government] [Substituted for the words 'Provincial Government' by A.L.O., 1950.] may prescribe.

(2) Where an offence has been compounded under sub-section (1), the offender, if in custody, shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of such offence.]

128. Power of arrest without warrant.

(1)A police officer in uniform may arrest without warrant any person who commits in his view an offence punishable under section 116 or section 117 or section 126:Provided that any person so arrested in connection with an offence punishable under section 117 shall be subjected to a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner within two hours of his arrest or shall then be released from custody.(2)A police officer in uniform may arrest without warrant-(a)any person who being required under the provisions of this Act to give his name and address refuses to do so, or gives a name or address which the police officer has reason to believe to be false, or(b)any person concerned in an offence under this Act or reasonably suspected to have been so concerned if the police officer has reason to believe that he will abscond or otherwise void the service of a summons.(3)A police officer arresting without warrant the 'driver of a' motor vehicle shall, if the circumstances so require, take or cause to be taken any steps he may consider proper for the temporary disposal of the vehicle.

128A. [Breath tests. [Inserted by Act 27 of 1977, section 10 (w.e.f. 1-1-1978).]

(1)A police officer in uniform may require any person driving or attempting to drive a motor vehicle in a public place to provide one or more specimens of breath for breath test there or nearby, if the police officer has any reasonable cause-(a)to suspect him of having alcohol in any quantity in his body, or(b)to suspect him of having committed an offence punishable under section 117:Provided that no requirement for breath test shall be made unless it is made as soon as reasonably practicable after the commission of such offence.(2)If a motor vehicle is involved in an accident in a public place and a police officer in uniform has any reasonable cause to suspect that the person who was driving or attempting to drive the motor vehicle at the time of the accident, had alcohol in his blood or urine or that he was driving under the influence of a drug referred to in section 117, he may require the person so driving or attempting to drive the motor vehicle, to provide a specimen of his breath for a breath test-(a)in the case of a person who is at a hospital as an indoor patient, at the hospital,(b)in the case of any other person, either at or near the place where the requirement is made, or, if the police officer thinks fit, at a police station specified by the police officer:Provided that a person shall not be required to provide such a specimen while at a hospital as an indoor patient if the registered medical practitioner in immediate charge of his case is not first notified of the proposal to make the requirement or objects to the provision of a specimen on the ground that its provision or the requirement to provide it would be prejudicial to the proper care or treatment of the patient,(3)If it appears to a police officer in uniform, in consequence of a breath test carried out by him on any person under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), that the device by means of which the test has been carried out indicates the presence of alcohol in the person's blood, the police officer may arrest that person without warrant except while that person is at a hospital as an indoor patient.(4)If a person, required by a police officer under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test, refuses or fails to do so and the police officer has reasonable cause to suspect him of having alcohol in his blood or urine, the police officer may arrest him without warrant except while he is at a hospital as an indoor patient.(5)A person arrested under this section shall, while at a police station, be given an opportunity to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test there.(6)The results of a breath test made in pursuance of the provisions of this section shall be admissible in evidence.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, "breath test" means a test for the purpose of obtaining an indication of the presence of alcohol in a person's blood carried out, on one or more specimens of breath provided by that person, by means of a device of a type approved by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, for the purpose of such a test.

128B. Laboratory test.

(1)A person, who has been arrested under section 128A, may, while at a police station, be required by a police officer to provide, to such registered medical practitioner as may be produced by such police officer, a specimen of his blood or urine for a laboratory test if, -(a)it appears to the police officer that the device, by means of which breath test was taken in relation to such person, indicates the presence of alcohol in the blood of such person, or(b)such person, when given the opportunity to submit to a breath test, has refused, omitted or failed to do so:Provided that where the person required to provide such specimen is a female and the registered medical practitioner produced by such police officer is a male medical practitioner, the specimen shall be taken only in the presence of a female whether a medical practitioner or not.(2)A person while at a hospital as an indoor patient may be required by a police officer to provide at the hospital a specimen of his blood or urine for a laboratory test-(a)if it appears to the police officer that the device by means of which test is carried out in relation to the breath of such person indicates the presence of alcohol in the blood of such person, or(b)if that person having been required, whether, at the hospital or elsewhere, to provide a specimen of breath for a breath test, has refused, omitted or failed to do so and a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect him of having alcohol in his blood:Provided that a person shall not be required to provide a specimen of his blood or urine for a laboratory test under this sub-section if the registered medical practitioner in immediate charge of his case is not first notified of the proposal to make the requirement or objects to the provision of such specimen on the ground that its provision or the requirement to provide it would be prejudicial to the proper care or treatment of the patient.(3)The results of a laboratory test made in pursuance of this section shall be admissible in evidence.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, "laboratory first" means the analysis of a specimen of blood or of urine made a laboratory established, maintained or recognised by the Central Government or a State Government.

128C. Presumption of unfitness to drive.

- In any proceeding for an offence punishable under section 117, if it is proved that the accused, when requested by a police officer at any time so to do, had refused, omitted or failed to consent to the taking of or providing a specimen of his breath for a breath test or a omission or failure may, unless reasonable cause therefor is shown, be presumed to be a circumstance supporting any evidence given on behalf of the defence, with respect to his condition at that time.]

129. Power of police officer to impound document.

(1) Any police officer authorised in this behalf or other person authorised in this behalf by the [State Government] [Substituted for the words 'Provincial Government' by A.L.O., 1950.] may, if he has reason to believe that any identification mark carried on a motor vehicle or any licence, permit, certificate of registration, certificate of insurance or other document produced to him by the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle is a false document within the meaning of section 464 of the Indian Penal Code, (45 of 1860) seize the mark or document and call upon the driver or owner of the vehicle to account for his possession of or the presence in the vehicle of such mark or document. (2) Any police officer authorised in this behalf [or other person authorised in this behalf] [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 94 (w.e.f. 10.2.1957).] by the [State Government] [Substituted for the words 'Provincial Government' by A.L.O., 1950.] may, if he has reason to believe that the driver of a motor vehicle who is charged with any offence under this Act may abscond or otherwise avoid the service of a summons, seize any licence held by such driver and forward it to, the Court taking cognizance of the offence [and the said Court shall, on the first appearance of such driver before it, return the licence to him in exchange for the temporary acknowledgement given under sub-section (3)] [Inserted by Act 100 of 1956, section 94 (w.e.f. 10.2.1957).] (3) [A police officer or other person] [Substituted by section 94, Act 100 of 1956, for 'A police officer' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] seizing a licence under subsection (2) shall give to the person surrendering the licence a temporary acknowledgement therefor and such acknowledgement shall authorise the holder to drive until the licence has been returned to him [or until such date as may be specified by the police officer or other person in the acknowledgement, whichever is earlier: Provided that if any Magistrate, police officer or other person authorised by the State Government in this behalf is, on an application made to him, satisfied that the licence cannot be, or has not been, returned to the holder thereof before the date specified in the acknowledgement for any reason for which the holder is not responsible, the Magistrate, police officer or other person, as the case may be, may extend the period of authorisation to drive to such date as may be specified in the acknowledgement.] [Substituted by section 94, Act 100 of 1956, for 'or the Court has otherwise order' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).]

129A. [Power to detain vehicles used without certificate of registration or permit. [Inserted by Act 20 of 1942, section 20.]

- Any police officer authorised in this behalf or other person authorised in this behalf by the [State Government] may, if he has reason to believe that a motor vehicle has been or is being used in contravention of the provisions of [section 22] [Substituted by Act 100 of 1956, section 95, for 'sub-section (1) of section 22' (w.e.f. 16-2-1957).] or without the permit required by sub-section (1) of section 42 or in contravention of any condition of such permit relating to the route on which or the area in which or the purpose for which the vehicle may be used, seize and detain the vehicle, and for this purpose take or cause to be taken any steps he may consider proper for the temporary safe custody of the vehicle: [Provided that where any such officer or person has reason to believe that a motor vehicle has been or is being used without the permit required by sub-section (1) of section 42, he may, instead of seizing the vehicle, seize the certificate of registration of the vehicle and shall issue an acknowledgement in respect thereof.] [Inserted Proviso by Act 56 of 1969, section 70 (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).] [Provided further that where a motor vehicle has been seized and detained under this section for contravention of the provisions of section 22, such vehicle shall not be released to the owner unless and until he produces a valid certificate of registration under this Act in respect of that vehicle.] [Inserted Proviso by Act 47 of 1978, section 36 (w.e.f. 16-1-1979).]

130. Summary disposal of cases.

- [(1) The Court taking cognizance of an offence under this Act, -(i) may, if the offence is an offence punishable with imprisonment under this Act, and (ii) shall, in, any other case, state upon the summons to be served on the accused person that he -(a) may appear by pleader and not in person, or (b) may, by a specified date prior to the hearing of the charge plead guilty to the charge by registered letter and remit to the Court such sum (not exceeding the maximum fine that may be imposed for the offence) as the Court may specify : Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any offence specified in Part A of the Fifth Schedule.] [Substituted by Act 56 of 1969 section 71 (w.e.f. 2-3-1970).] (2) Where the offence dealt with in accordance with sub-section (1) is an offence specified in Part B of the Fifth Schedule, the accused person shall, if he pleads guilty to the charge, forward his licence to the Court with the letter containing his plea in order that the conviction may be endorsed on the licence. (3) Where an accused person pleads guilty and remits the sum specified and has complied with the provisions of sub-section (2), no further proceedings in respect of the offence shall be taken against him, nor shall he be liable to be disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence by reason of his having pleaded guilty.

131. Restriction on conviction.

- No person prosecuted for an offence punishable under section 115 or section 116 shall be convicted unless -(a) he was warned at the time the offence was committed that the question of prosecuting him would be taken into consideration, or (b) within fourteen days from the commission of the offence, a notice specifying the nature of the offence and the time and place where it is alleged to have been committed was served on or sent by registered post to him or the person registered as the owner of the vehicle at the time of the commission of the offence, or (c) within twenty-eight days of the commission of the offence, a summons for the offence was served on him : Provided that nothing in this section shall apply where the Court is satisfied that - (a) the failure to serve the notice or summons referred to in this sub-section was due to the fact that neither the name and address of the accused nor the name and address of the registered owner of the vehicle could with reasonable diligence have been ascertained in time, or (b) such failure was brought about by the conduct of the accused.

131A. [Courts to send intimations about conviction. [Inserted by Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 1969 (56 of 1969), Section 72 (w.e.f. 2.3.1970).]

- Every Court by which any person holding a driving licence is convicted of an offence under this Act or of an offence in the commission of which a motor vehicle was used, shall send intimation to -(a) the licensing authority which issued the driving licence, and (b) the licensing authority by whom the licence was last renewed, and every such intimation shall state the name and address of the holder of the licence, the licence number, the date of issue and renewal of the same, the nature of the offence, the punishment awarded for the same and such other particulars as may be prescribed.]

132. Jurisdiction of Courts.

- No Court inferior to that of a [Metropolitan Magistrate] [Substituted for the words 'Presidency Magistrate' by Act 47 of 1978, section 37 (w.e.f. 16.1.1979).] or a Magistrate of the second class shall try any offence punishable under this Act or any rule made thereunder.
