(1)Every application under the Act shall in addition to the particulars necessary to support it contain also the particulars prescribed in Rule 3 so far as they may be applicable and every application for eviction under Section 10 shall also state the grounds on which the application is made accompanied by the agreement of tenancy, if any, rent receipt and a copy of the notice issued to the tenant.(2)Every application under the Act, shall be accompanied by a spare copy or sufficient number of spare copies thereof for service on the respondent mentioned therein.(3)Every application shall be signed by the applicant or his counsel and be presented to the Controller by the applicant himself personally or by his recognized agent or by counsel at any time during office hours on a working day:[x x x] [Note under sub-rule (3) omitted by G.O. Ms. No. 2436, G.A. (Acc.) dated 28-12-1965.][Provided that in the cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad where there are more than one Controller, one shall be designated by the High Court as the Principal Controller and every application shall be presented before the Principal Controller, who shall, subject to the supervision of the appellate authority, either conduct inquiry and dispose of the application himself or assign the application to any one of the Controllers having jurisdiction for enquiry and disposal:] [Proviso added by G.O. Ms. No. 639, dated 3-8-1970.][Provided further that in the other areas of the State where there are more than one Controller, one shall be designated by the High Court as the Principal Controller and every application shall be presented before the Principal Controller who shall subject to the supervision of the appellate authority, either conduct enquiry and dispose of the application himself or assign the application to any of the other Controllers having jurisdiction for enquiry and disposal] Inserted by G.O. Ms. No. 312 G.A. (Acc.), dated 27-5-1983.[The parties or their counsel shall produce, at the first hearing of the case, all the documentary evidence of every description in their possession or power on which they intend to rely, and which has not already been filed, and all documents which the Controller has ordered to be produced, and the Controller shall receive the documents so produced.] sub-rules (4) to (12) added by ibid.No documentary evidence in the possession or power of any party which should have been, but has not been produced in accordance with the requirements of sub-rule (4) shall be received at any subsequent stage of the proceedings, unless good cause is shown to the satisfaction of the Controller for the non-production thereof; and the Controller receiving any such evidence shall record the reasons for so doing.(6)The Controller may at any stage of the case reject any document which he considers irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection.(7)(i)Subject to the provisions of clause (ii), there shall be endorsed on every document which has been admitted in evidence in the case the following particulars, namely:(a)the number and title of the case.(b)the name of the person producing the document.(c)the date on which it was produced; and(d)a statement of its having been so admitted; and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Controller.(ii)Where a document so admitted is an entry in a book, account or record, and a copy thereof has been substituted for the original under sub-rule (8), the particulars aforesaid shall be endorsed on the copy and the endorsement thereon shall be signed or initialled by the Controller.(8)(i)Save in so far as is otherwise provided by Banker's Book Evidence Act, 1891, where a document admitted in evidence in the case is an entry in a letter-book or a shop book or other account in current use, the party on whose behalf the book or account is produced, may furnish a copy of the entry.(ii)Where such a document is an entry in a public record produced from a public office or by a public officer or an entry in a book or account belonging to a person other than a party on whose behalf the book or account is produced, the Controller may require a copy of the entry to be furnished:(a)where the record book or account is produced on behalf of a party, then by that party; or(b)where the record book or account is produced in obedience to an order of the Controller acting of his own motion, then by either or any party.(iii)Where a copy of an entry is furnished under the provisions of clauses (i) and (ii), the Controller shall, after causing the copy to be examined, compared and certified, make the entry and cause the book, account or record in which it occurs, to be returned to the person producing it.(9)Where a document relied on as evidence by either party is considered by the Controller to be inadmissible in evidence, there shall be endorsed thereon the particulars mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (i) of sub-rule (7), together with a statement of its having been rejected and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Controller.(10)(i)Every document which has been admitted in evidence, or copy thereof, where a copy has been substituted for the original under sub-rule (8), shall form part of the record of the case.(ii)Documents not admitted in evidence shall not form part of the record and shall be returned to the persons respectively producing them.(11)Notwithstanding anything in sub-rule (8) or sub-rule (10), the Controller may, if he sees sufficient cause, direct any document or book produced before him in any case to be impounded and kept in his custody for such period and subject to such conditions as he think fit.(12)(i)Any person, whether a party to the case or not desirous of receiving back any document produced by him in the case and placed on the record shall, unless the document is impounded under sub-rule (11), be entitled to receive back the same:(a)where the case is one in which an appeal is not allowed when the case has been disposed of; and(b)where the case is one in which an appeal is allowed, when the Controller is satisfied that the time for preferring an appeal has elapsed and that no appeal has been preferred or, if an appeal has been preferred, when the appeal has been disposed of :Provided that a document may be returned at any time earlier than that specified by this sub-rule if the person applying therefor delivers to the Controller a certified copy to be substituted for the original and undertakes to produce the original, if required to do so:Provided further that no document shall be returned which, by force of the order of the Controller, has become wholly void or useless.(ii)On the return of a document admitted in evidence, a receipt shall be given by the person receiving it.

(1)When an application under the Act is presented to the Controller he shall fix the date on which and the place at which the inquiry in respect of the application will be held and send notice thereof to the applicant or applicants and the respondent or respondents mentioned in the application and shall send a copy of the application along with the notice to the respondent or respondents:Provided that, in the case of applications for evictions filed under [xxx] [The words 'sub-section (2) omitted by G.O.Ms. No. 2436, G.A. (Acc.) dated 28-12-1965.] sub-section (3) of Section 10 in respect of buildings of which the State Government or the Central Government are tenants, he shall not be bound to give such notice unless he considers such notice necessary, regard being had to the averments in the petition or any other material circumstances.(2)The Controller shall give to the parties a reasonable opportunity to state their case. He shall also record a brief note of the evidence of the parties and witnesses, if any, examined on either side and upon the evidence so recorded and after consideration of any documentary evidence which may be produced by the parties, pass orders on the application.(3)Where an order is passed ex parte against a tenant or a landlord, or an order of dismissal for default is passed, by the Controller, the party affected may, within thirty days from the date of the pronouncement of the order in open Court, apply to the Controller by whom the ex parte order or the order of dismissal was passed, for an order to set it aside, and if he satisfies the Controller, that the summons was not duly served, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the application was called on for hearing, or that such default was occasioned due to circumstances beyond his control, the Controller shall make an order setting aside the ex-parte order or the order of dismissal passed, as the case may be, upon such terms as to costs, payment into Court or other-wise, as the Controller thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the application:Provided that, no order shall be set aside under this sub-rule unless the opposite party has been served with a notice in this regard:Provided further that the Controller shall, in respect of an application for setting aside an ex parte order or order of dismissal for default, received under this sub-rule for the first time, and may, in respect of a second or subsequent application, stay all execution proceedings in pursuance of the ex-parte order or the order of dismissal for default until, the disposal of the application.

An appellate authority may transfer a case from the file of one Controller to that of another Controller within his jurisdiction:(i)If the Controller on whose file the case is pending is personally interested in it and reports the matter to the appellate authority; or(ii)if, on any application for transfer by any party in the case, the appellate authority is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for the transfer;or(iii)if the appellate authority considers such transfer proper on administrative grounds.[Explanation: It shall be obligatory on the part of the Controller on whose file a case in which he is personally interested, is pending to report the matter to the appellate authority at the earliest opportunity] [Added by G.O.Ms. No. 2436, G.A. (Accom) dated 28-12-1965.]

10.

(1)Every appeal against an order of the Controller shall, in addition to the grounds of appeal, specify the date on which the order was received by the appellant. The appeal shall be signed by the appellant or his counsel duly stamped and presented to the appellate authority or to such officer as he appoints in this behalf by the appellant himself personally or by his recognized agent or by counsel at any time during office hours on a working day. The appeal shall be accompanied by a copy of the order of the Controller appealed from.(2)Every appeal under the Act, shall be accompanied by a spare copy or sufficient number of spare copies thereof for service on the respondent or respondents mentioned therein.

11.

(1)When an appeal under this Act is preferred, the appellate authority shall fix a day for hearing the appeal and send notice thereof to the appellant or appellants and the respondent or respondents mentioned in the appeal and shall also send a copy of the appeal along with the notice to the respondent or respondents.(2)If the appellate authority decides to make further inquiry, he may take additional evidence or require such evidence to be taken by the Controller.(3)Where an order is passed ex-parte against a tenant or a landlord or an order of dismissal for default is passed by the appellate authority, the party affected may, within thirty days from the date of the pronouncement of the order in open court, apply to the appellate authority by whom the ex-parte order on the order of dismissal was passed, for an order to set it aside and if he satisfies the appellate authority that the summons was not duly served or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing or that such default was occasioned due to circumstances beyond his control, the appellate authority shall pass an order setting aside the ex-parte order or the order of dismissal passed, as the case may be, upon such terms as to costs, payment into Court or otherwise, as the appellate authority thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the appeal:Provided that no order shall be set aside under this sub-rule, unless the opposite party has been served with a notice in this regard.

12.

The High Court may transfer an appeal from the file of the appellate authority:(i)if the appellate authority before whom the appeal is pending is personally interested, in the appeal and reports the matter to the High Court, or(ii)if, on an application for transfer by any party in the appeal, the High Court is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for such transfer.

13.

In cases falling under Section 5 of the Act or in any other case under the Act, the Controller or the appellate authority concerned may, if he thinks fit to do so, personally inspect the building concerned, after giving notice to the parties concerned [and record a note of inspection in brief. Every such note shall form part of the record of the case, a copy of which may be furnished to the party concerned in accordance with these rules] [Added by G.O. Ms. No. 2436, G.A. (Accom.), dated 28-12-1965.]

14.

[(1) No Landlord shall, in the case of a building in respect of which a notice of vacancy is to be given under Section 3, cut off or withhold any of the amenities therein at any time until he becomes entitled to let the building to a tenant or occupy it himself under sub-section (5) of Section 3] Ins by G.O. Ms. No. 141 Home (Accom. A), dated 30-1-1969.[] [Renumbered as sub-rule (2) by Ibid.] In cases falling under Section 3, the authorised officer or any person authorised by him in that behalf may, if he thinks fit to do so, personally inspect the building concerned and may call for any particulars in respect of the said building from the landlord or tenant or occupant or any previous tenant or occupant thereof, [who shall furnish the particulars so called for] [Inserted by G.O.Ms. No. 610, G.A. (Accom.A), dated 7-7-1967.][After inspection the officer or person shall record a note of inspection in brief and every such note shall form part of the record of the case. A copy of the note of inspection may be furnished to the party concerned, on application, as provided in Rule 18] [Added by G.O. Ms. No 2436, G.A. (Accom-A), dated 28-12-1965.][The landlord or tenant or any other occupant of the building shall keep the building open for inspection by the authorised officer or any person authorised by him in that behalf and shall not obstruct or cause to obstruct the entry of the said officer or person into the building] [Added by G.O.Ms. No 946, Home (Accom-A), dated 13-6-1968.]

Any appearance, application or act in any proceeding before the Controller or the appellate authority may be made or done by the party in person or by his recognized agent or by counsel:[Provided that in any such proceeding where the Union of India or the State of Andhra Pradesh or any public servant under the Union or the State in his official capacity, are parties, no Government or other pleader appearing on their behalf shall be required to present any document empowering him to act, but such pleader shall file a memorandum of appearance signed by him and such memorandum of appearance need not be stamped] [Added by G.O. Ms. No. 251, G.A. (Accom.B), dated 8-2-1962.]

16.

(1)All notices under the Act issued by the Controller or the appellate authority and all orders passed by the Controller or the appellate authority if not pronounced in open Court shall be served on the person concerned:(a)personally by delivering or tendering to him the notice or order; or(b)if such person is not found, by leaving the notice or order at his last known place of abode or business or by giving or tendering the same to some adult member of his family; or(c)if such person does not reside in the area within the jurisdiction of the Controller or the appellate authority, by sending the same to him by registered post, acknowledgement due; or(d)if none of the means aforesaid is practicable, by affixing the same in some conspicuous part of his last known place of abode or business.(2)Every interim order passed under sub-section (3) of Section 14 shall be served on the landlord in any one of the manners specified in sub-rule (1) above.[17. (1) In respect of every application filed under the Act, the applicant or applicants, as the case may be, in the Court of the Rent Controller, shall pay, whenever the service of any notice or order issued under the Act is directed to be executed through Court in the shape of Court Fee stamps of the value of Rs. 8-00 (Rupees eight only) in the case of the first respondent and in the case of every additional respondent at the rate of Rs. 4-00 (Rupees four only) if such additional respondent or respondents are living at the same address.(2)In respect of every notice or order directed to be served through Court on any respondent or the opposite party in any appeal or proceedings pending in the Appellate Court under the above Act, a sum of Rs. 9-00 (Rupees nine only) shall be paid by the party seeking such service in respect of first respondent and Rs. 4-50 (Rupees four and paise fifty only) in respect of every additional respondent or respondents or opposite party in the form of Court Fee.(3)Whenever any order or notice is directed to be served by registered post by any Court under this Act, the party seeking such service shall bring into Court
