

Rules for the Departmental Examination of Senior District Prosecutors, Jharkhand

JHARKHAND

India

Rules for the Departmental Examination of Senior District Prosecutors, Jharkhand

Rule

RULES-FOR-THE-DEPARTMENTAL-EXAMINATION-OF-SENIOR-DISTRICT-PROSECUTORS, JHARKHAND, 1962

- Published on 16 November 1962
- Commenced on 16 November 1962
- [This is the version of this document from 16 November 1962.]
- [Note: The original publication document is not available and this content could not be verified.]

Rules for the Departmental Examination of Senior District Prosecutors, JharkhandPublished vide Notification No. 1/CI-606/61-P.P.-11123, dated 16th November, 1962, published in Bihar Gazette dated 12.12.1962Notification No. I/CI-606/61-P.P.-11123, the dated 16th November 1962. - In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 309 of the Constitution of India, read with sub-rule (2) of rule 12 of the "Rules for the Departmental Examination of Gazetted Officers" published with the Appointment Department Notification No.V/DE-109/61-A -13559, dated the 10th October 1961, the Governor of Jharkhand is pleased to make the following rules for the departmental examination of Senior District Prosecutors:-General

1. Short title.

- These rules may be called the Rules for the Departmental Examination of Senior District Prosecutors, Jharkhand.

2. Definitions.

- In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.-(a)"Government" means the Government of Jharkhand;(b)"Departmental Examination" means the departmental examination prescribed under rule 4 of these rules;(c)"Committee" means the Central Examination Committee constituted under rule 3 of the Rules for the Departmental Examination of Gazetted Officers published with Notification No.V/DE-109/61-A-13559, dated the 10th October 1961;(d)"Appendix" means an appendix to these rules, and(e)"Officer" means a Senior District

Prosecutor.

3. Function and power of the Central Examination Committee

- The functions and powers of the Central Examination Committee shall be the same as have been specified in rule 4 of the Rules for the Departmental Examination of Gazetted Officers published with Notification No. V/DE-109/61 -A-13559, dated the 10th October 1961.

4. Subjects of Examination.

(1)The Departmental Examination of Senior District Prosecutors shall consist of examination in the following subjects:-(a)Law Part I (without books),(b)Law Part II (with books),(c)Accounts, and(d)Hindi.(2)The syllabus for the examination will be as detailed in Appendix I.

5. Liability of the Senior District Prosecutors.

- Senior District Prosecutors are required to pass the Departmental Examination specified in rule 4.

6. Passing in Tribal Language.

(1)A Senior District Prosecutor posted in any of the areas mentioned in Part I of Appendix II will have to pass the examination in the tribal language mentioned therein against the district in which he is posted, by the lower standard, within a period of eighteen months from the date on which he is posted to that district. If he fails to do so, his increments will be stopped until such time as he passes the examination:Provided that if an Officer is prevented from passing the examination due to circumstances beyond his control, the Government may grant him such further time for passing the examination as they consider fit.(2)An officer whose increments have been stopped for failure to pass the compulsory examination in a tribal language shall get his increments, as soon as he is transferred to a district outside the areas mentioned in Part I of Appendix II, or as soon as he crosses the age of 50 years, whichever is earlier.(3)The stoppage of increments under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall not have cumulative effect.(4)An Officer who is posted in Jharkhand outside the areas mentioned in Part I of Appendix II will be eligible to appear at the optional examination in the tribal language mentioned in Part II of Appendix II.

7. Passing test in drill & riding.

- Officers appointed directly will have to pass the tests in drill and riding in the manner prescribed by the Inspector-General of Police, Jharkhand, who will also determine the date of the test and the Officers by whom it shall be conducted.

8. Procedure for appearance at the examination.

- An Officer desirous of appearing at the Departmental Examination is required to send to the Inspector-General of Police, Jharkhand, through the proper channel, but not later than the 1st of May in the case of the first half-yearly examination and the 1st of September in the case of the second half-yearly examination, an application in the form given in Appendix III.

9. List of officers appearing.

- From the applications referred to in rule 8 the Inspector-General of Police, Jharkhand, will prepare and send a consolidated statement showing the particulars of the Officers and the subjects in which they intend to appear, alongwith their applications, to the Secretary to the Committee latest by the 16th May/16th September for the first/second half-yearly examination.

10. Issue of Admit Card.

- On receipt of such applications, the Secretary to the Committee shall take necessary steps to inform the Centre Superintendents about the candidates permitted to appear at each Centre and may also issue admit cards to the candidates for this purpose.

11. Probation.

- An Officer will be appointed on probation for a period of two years: Provided that the period of continuous officiation, if any, of an Officer promoted from the rank of District Prosecutor will be counted towards the period of probation.

12. Confirmation.

- An Officer will be confirmed in his post after-(a) he has rendered two years of continuous service as a Senior District Prosecutor: (b) he has passed the departmental examination completely; and (c) the Government consider the Officer suitable in all respects for confirmation in the post: Provided that an Officer promoted from the rank of District Prosecutor will be required to pass the Departmental Examination in accounts only and not in other subjects specified in rule 4 above, and that if he fails to pass the examination in accounts within two years from the date of promotion, he will be liable to be reverted to his substantive post.

13. Regulation of Increments.

- A Probationary Officer appointed direct will be entitled to draw his first increment in the prescribed scale of pay as soon as the following conditions are fulfilled:-(i) He has completed one year from the date on which he joined his first appointment; and (ii) He has passed the tests in drill and riding prescribed by the Inspector-General of Police, Jharkhand.

14. Second increment.

- After a Probationary Officer appointed direct has rendered himself eligible for the first increment, he will be entitled to draw the second increment as soon as the following conditions are fulfilled:-(i)He has completed two years of services;(ii)He has passed the departmental examination completely; and(iii)He has been confirmed in his appointment.

15. Third and subsequent increment.

- A Probationary Officer appointed direct will be entitled to draw his third and subsequent increments on the anniversaries of the date from which he draws his second increment subject to the provisions regarding crossing of the efficiency bar. If his confirmation is delayed due to delay in fulfilling the departmental obligations, on confirmation, he will be allowed the pay at the stage to which he would have been entitled, had his increment not been withheld. No arrear pay will, however, be paid to any Officer.

16. Crossing of E.B.

- An Officer will be allowed to cross the efficiency bar in the time scale of his pay when the Government are satisfied that he is capable of performing all the duties ordinarily expected of a Senior District Prosecutor. Appendix I (See Rule 4)

Part I – Law

1. The examination in law shall be directed as far as feasible to points which frequently arise in every day working of the law courts and the papers to be answered with the aid of books shall be such as will thoroughly test the capacity of the examinees to understand the bearing of facts and to ascertain the law and apply it. Certain facts of probable occurrence in real life should be stated, and the examinee required to find out and apply the law applicable to such facts. Only unannotated editions of Acts or Codes and Manuals issued by authority will be allowed in answering this paper.

2. There will be only one standard of examinations. There will be two papers, one without books and another with books. Each paper will carry 160 marks and will be of three hours duration. The minimum marks required for passing the examination in Law Paper I (without books) and Law Paper II (with books) will be 90 and 100, respectively.

3. The Acts and Code from which question will be set in Law Paper I (without books) are shown below:-

(i)The Indian Penal Code: Chapters II, IV, V, VIII, XI, XII, XV, XVI, XVII, XVIII and XXIII and definitions of all offences.(ii)The Code of Criminal Procedure: Chapters IV to XXII, XXIV, XXV, XXXIX, XLI, XLIII, XLIV, and XLV.(iii)The Indian Evidence Act : Chapters II (Sections 3 to 35, 45 to 48, 51, 53, 67 and 73 only) VII (Sections 101 to 106, 110 and 114 only) IX, X (Sections 135 to 149 and 152 to 162 only).(iv)The Police Act, 1861.(v)The Police Act, 1888.(vi)The Police Act, 1949.(vii)Medical Jurisprudence.All amending Acts.

4. In Law Paper II (with books) questions will be set from Acts, Rules and Manuals given below:-

(i)The Indian Penal Code.(ii)The Code of Criminal Procedure.(iii)The Indian Evidence Act.(iv)The Jharkhand Panchayat Raj Act, 2001 (Act 6 of 2001).(v)Police Manual.(vi)Military Police Manual.(vii)Indian Arms Act, 1878 (XI of 1878).(viii)The Indian Arms Rules, 1951.(ix)(a)The Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908 (XIV of 1908).(b)The Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1932 (XXIII of 1932).(c)The Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1938 (XX of 1938).(x)(a)The Indian Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance, 1943 (XXXIX of 1943 as amended).(b)The Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance, 1944 (XXXVIII of 1944).(c)The Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance, 1946 (VI of 1946).(xi)The Preventive Detention Act, 1950 (VI of 1950).(xii)The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947 (II of 1947).(xiii)The Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 (XXV of 1946).(xiv)The Explosive Substances Act, 1908 (VI of 1908).(xv)The Cattle Trespass Act, 1871 (I of 1871).(xvi)The Press (Objectionable Matter) Act, 1951 (LVI of 1951).(xvii)The Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (IV of 1912).(xviii)The Opium Act, 1857 (XIII of 1857).(xix)The Opium Act, 1878 (I of 1878).(xx)The Public Sarais and Paraos Act, 1867 (XXII of 1867).(xxi)The Indian Treasure Trove Act, 1878 (VI of 1878).(xxii)The Police (Incitement to Disaffection) Act, 1922 (XXII of 1922).(xxiii)The Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867 (XXV of 1867).(xxiv)The Cinematograph Act, 1918 (II of 1918).(xxv)The Cinematograph Act, 1952 (XXXVII of 1952).(xxvi)The Dramatic Performance Act, 1876 (XXIX of 1876).(xxvii)The Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (XIII of 1885).(xxviii)The Indian Post Office Act, 1898 (VI of 1898).(xxix)The Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (VI of 1884).(xxx)The Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (IV of 1939) and Rules.(xxxi)The Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890).(xxxii)The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1890 (XI of 1890).(xxxiii)Bihar and Orissa Excise Act, 1915 (II of 1915).(xxxiv)Bihar Excise (Amendment) Act, 1940 (VII of 1940).(xxxv)Village Chaukidari Act, (Bengal Act VI of 1870) and Rules.(xxxvi)Public Gambling Act, (Bengal Act I of 1867).(xxxvii)Private Fisheries Protection Act, (Bengal Act II of 1889).(xxxviii)Bihar and Orissa Motor Vehicles Taxation Rules.(xxxix)Bihar and Orissa Motor Vehicles Taxation Act, (B. & O. Act II of 1930).(xl)Indian Official Secrets Act (XIX of 1923).(xli)Identification of Prisoners Act (XXXIII of 1920).(xlii)Bihar Essential Services Maintenance Act (Bihar Act I of 1948).(xliii)Bihar Maintenance of Public Order Act (Bihar Act III of 1950) (Amendment) Act (Bihar Act XX of 1951).(xliv)The Bihar Fire Services Act and Rules.All amending Acts.

Part II – Accounts

5. The text books in accounts and the portions to be studied in the same are detailed below. The examination will be with the aid of books. The questions will be such as to test the practical acquaintance of the candidates with the principles and provisions of the books prescribed. There will be one paper of 3 hours duration carrying 160 marks. The minimum marks required for passing the examination in accounts will be 90.

(i) Police Manual, 1930:

Chapter XXIV (Accounts).

(ii) Jharkhand Service Code:

Chapter 2
, Chapter 3 (except rules 61 to 66).

Chapter 4
, Chapter 5 (except rules 110 to 136).

Chapter 6
(except rules 160, 191 to 195).

Chapter 7
(except rule 162), Chapter 9.

Appendix I relating to powers conferred on Police Officers. Appendix 6 relating to Police Department, Appendices from 9 to 13. (iii) T.A. Rules.

Part III – Hindi

6. There will be only one written paper in Hindi (in Devanagari script) carrying 200 marks. The duration of the examination will be three hours. The marks will be distributed as follows :

(i)Noting - 50.(ii)Drafting - 50.(iii)Translation - 80 (Hindi to English - 40) (English to Hindi - 40).(iv)Correction of sentences-20.Officers securing 60 per cent marks and above would be declared to have passed the examination.

7. There will be a viva voce examination in Hindi which will carry 100 marks. The topics for the viva voce examination will be as follows:-

(i)Conversation on general topics - 40 marks.(ii)Testing knowledge of technical words and expressions generally used - 30 marks.(iii)Reading of Hindi manuscripts and their oral translation into English and reading of passages in English and their oral translation into Hindi - 30 marks.The minimum marks required for passing in viva voce examination will be 60 per cent.

8. An officer has to obtain the minimum pass marks separately in the written examination and the viva voce examination for being declared to have passed in Hindi.

9. The following books are recommended:-

(i)Navin Hindi Praveshika.(ii)Prashikshan Vyakhyan Mala, Part II.Appendix II(See rule 6)Study of Tribal LanguagesPart-I Compulsory Examination in Tribal Languages

1. An officer posted in any of the areas mentioned below must pass the compulsory examination in the tribal language noted against the district in which he is posted:-

1. Hazaribagh - Santhaii.

2. Ranchi - Mundari.

3. Palamau - Oraon.

4. Singhbhum - Ho.

5. Santhal Parganas - Santhaii.

6. Dhanbad - (only Chas and Chandan Kiari Police Stations of Baghmara Subdivision of the district of Dhanbad) - Santhaii.

2. The tests which a candidate must undergo at the compulsory examination are as follows:-

(a)He must be able to converse freely with the people of the tribe, to understand and to make himself understood by them;(b)he must write down sentence spoken in the tribal language by one of the tribe and must explain the sentences correctly in English or Hindi; and(c)he must translate from English or Hindi into the tribal language sentence, not of more difficult nature than those described in clause (b) and the translation must be substantially correct and intelligible to people of the tribe in whose language it is written.

3. (a) The standard prescribed for the compulsory examination is the lower standard. In order to pass by this standard, the examinee must obtain not less than 50 per cent of the marks allotted to each branch of examination and 68 per cent of the aggregate.

(b)The examinee shall be declared to have passed by the Higher standard, if he obtains not less than 60 per cent of the marks allotted to each branch of the examination and 75 per cent of the aggregate. Passing by the higher standard shall be optional for all officers. An officer who passes by the lower standard shall be eligible to re-appear at the examination for the higher standard while an officer who passes by the higher standard shall be declared to have passed by that standard even though he has not previously passed by the lower standard.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, the compulsory examination in the case of officer who has put in 15 years or more of service shall consist only of an oral test, in which the examinee must be able to converse freely with the people of the tribe, to understand and to make himself understand by them. In this test the examinee shall be declared to have passed, if he secures not less than 50 per cent of the marks.

5. if an officer is posted to one of the districts named in paragraph 1 of this Appendix and duly passes the examination in the tribal language prescribed for that district, and is subsequently posted to another district named in the same paragraph, for which a different tribal language is prescribed, it shall not be necessary for him to pass the examination in the tribal language of the latter district.

6. If an officer knows one of the languages mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Appendix as his mother tongue, and is posted to a district for which that very, language has been prescribed as the compulsory tribal language, he shall not be required to pass the compulsory examination in that language. If, however, he is posted to a district for which the prescribed tribal language is different from the tribal language which he knows as his mother tongue, he shall be required to pass the compulsory examination in the tribal languages of that district.

7. Examination in the tribal languages shall be held once in six months, in January and June each year. The Commissioners of Chotanagpur and Bhagalpur Divisions will be responsible for conducting these examinations. There shall be uniformity in the standard of examination held in both the Divisions. The same set of question papers shall be set for examination shall be held at the District Headquarters and the District Officer shall, under the supervision and control of the Commissioner, be made responsible for conducting the examination.

8. The prescribed text books in the different tribal languages are the following:-

Name of language.	Name of prescribed text book.
(1) Santhaii	Santhaii Praveshika, Part I and II by Sri Doman Sah, 'Samir' Editor of the "Hor Sambad", published by SanthalPaharia Seva Mandal, Deoghar.
(2) Mundari	A Mundari Grammar with exercise by Rev. J. Hoffman, S.J.Catholic Mission, Ranchi.
(3) Oraon	Hath Ara Kath Billin Id-u, by Dr. Christ Michael Tiga, K.B.Kadru, Ranchi.
(4) Ho	Ho Kaji, by Shri Bhim Ram Solanki, Chaibassa.

9. Rewards will be given as mentioned below to officer who passes the examination mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Appendix, within the stipulated time, subject to the condition that from all rewards granted, any rewards previously drawn for the same language will be deducted.

Lower Standard - Rs. 750. Higher Standard - Rs. 1000. Note I. - An officer, who appears only at the oral test, as provided in paragraph 4 above, shall not be entitled to any reward. Note II. - No reward shall be given to any officer for proficiency in a second language of the same group. The groups are-Group I - Ho, Mundari, Santhaii; Group II - Oraon, Rajmahal Paharia; Group III - Nepalese Paharia or Khas Kura.

10. The Commissioners conducting the examination will report to Government the names of officers declared to have passed by each standard.

Part-II Rules for the Optional Study of Tribal Languages

11. Officers posted outside the areas mentioned in Part I of this Appendix will be eligible to appear at the optional examination in the languages noted below:-

Group I - Ho, Mundari, Santhali; Group II - Oraon, Rajmahal Paharia; Group III - Nepalese Paharia or Khas Kura.

12. The tests which an Officer must undergo shall be as in Part I of this Appendix. In addition, the examination in Nepalese Paharia shall include a test in which the examinee must transliterate and translate into English or Hindi a paper in the current written (not printed) form of character of the language.

13. The standards of the optional examination and the percentage of marks required for passing by each standard shall be the same as for the compulsory examination in other tribal languages laid down in paragraph 3 of this Appendix.

14. The examination shall be conducted under the control of the Commissioner, Chotanagpur and Bhagalpur Divisions, who will convene local committees for the purpose.

Commissioner of Bhagalpur Group I - Santhali. Group II - Rajmahal Paharia. Group III - Nepalese Paharia. Commissioner of Chotanagpur Group I - Ho and Mundari. Group II - Oraon.

15. The rewards to be given to successful candidates will be as detailed below subject to the condition that from all rewards granted, any rewards previously drawn for the same language are deducted:-

For all language except Nepalese Paharia.

Lower Standard.

Rs. 750.

for Nepalese Paharia.

Rs. 250.

Higher Standard.

Rs. 1,000

Rs. 500.

16. The Commissioners, Chotanagpur and Bhagalpur Divisions will report to Government the names of Officers declared to have passed by each standard.

Appendix III(See Rule 8)Form For ApplicationNo.....From.....To..... the.....Sir,With reference to rule 8 of the Rules for the Departmental Examination of the Senior District Prosecutors, I have to report my intention to appear at the departmental Examination to be held at.....(a) from the.....(b).....20.....in the following subjects:-Subject.(1)(2)(3)(4)(5)To be clearly written.Your faithfully,Full Signature with name and designation.Office.....District.....(a)Name of Centre(b)Date