Transportation of Goods (Through Foreign Territory), Regulations, 2020Published vide Notification No. G.S.R.137(E), New Delhi, dated 21.02.2020Last Updated 3rd March, 2020Ministry of Finance(Department of Revenue)(Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs)No. 16/2020-Customs (N.T.)G.S.R. 137(E). - In exercise of the powers conferred by section 157 read with section 56 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), and in supersession of the Transportation of Goods (Through Foreign Territory) Regulations, 1965, except as respects things done before such supersession, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs hereby makes the following regulations, namely: -

1. Short title and commencement.

(1)These regulations may be called the Transportation of Goods (Through Foreign Territory), Regulations, 2020.(2)They shall come into force on the day of their publication in the official gazette.

2. Application.

- These regulations shall apply to the movement of goods, -(i)under the Agreement on the Use of Chattogram and Mongla Ports for Movement of Goods to and from India between the People's Republic of Bangladesh and the Republic of India (hereinafter referred to as 'ACMP');(ii)under the Protocol on Inland Water Transit and Trade between the People's Republic of Bangladesh and the Republic of India (herein after referred to as "PIWTT");Provided that the regulations shall not apply to the movement of export-import cargo between India and Bangladesh or export to third countries under the PIWTT; and(iii)from one part of India to another through a land route which lies partly over the territory of a foreign country, not being a movement covered under (i) and (ii) above.

3. Documentation.

- For the movement of the goods under these regulations, the consignor of the goods or the carrier of the goods or their authorised agent shall, at the customs station of exit in India, -(i)file a Customs Transit Declaration, -(a)in Annexure 'A', for movements under clause (i) of regulation 2;(b)in Annexure 'B' for movements under clauses (ii) and (iii) of regulation 2; and(ii)execute a bond, for the value of the goods, to ensure safe transportation of the goods up to the destination declared in the Customs Transit Declaration, as per Annexure 'C'.

4. Approval of Customs Transit Declaration.

- Upon the compliance of Regulation 3, by the consigner of the goods or the carrier of the goods or their authorized agent, the proper officer shall approve the Customs Transit Declaration.

5. Permission to load goods.

- No person-in-charge of a conveyance shall allow the loading of goods under these regulations unless the Customs Transit Declaration relating to such goods has been approved by the proper officer.

6. Permission for transshipment.

- Where pursuant to the approval, goods have been loaded on the conveyance, the proper officer shall, -(a)ensure that the cargo is sealed securely with a customs one-time-lock:Provided that the Principal Commissioner of Customs or Commissioner of Customs, as the case may be, may having regard to the nature of goods or manner of transport, permit the movement of goods under these regulations without affixing a customs one-time-lock;(b)endorse the Customs Transit Declaration with the one-time-lock number.

7. Arrival at the customs station of re-entry.

(1)The proper officer at the customs station of re-entry shall check the intactness of the customs one-time-lock affixed at the customs station of exit and if the one-time-lock is found intact, he shall endorse the Customs Transit Declaration and allow clearance of the goods.(2)In case the customs one-time-lock affixed at the customs station of exit is not found intact, the proper officer shall make due verification of the goods to check whether the goods are in accordance with the Customs Transit Declaration and upon being satisfied that there is no irregularity, he shall endorse the Customs Transit Declaration and allow clearance of the goods.(3)In case the goods are not in accordance with the Customs Transit Declaration, the proper officer shall inform the customs station of exit about the irregularity for further action.(4)The consignor of the goods or the carrier of the goods or their authorised agent shall submit copy of the Customs Transit Declaration duly endorsed by the proper officer at the customs station of re-entry in India, to the customs officer at the customs station of exit in India, as a proof of due arrival of the goods at the customs station of re-entry to India, within three months of the departure from the customs station of exit, which may be extended by a further period not exceeding six months by the proper officer.(5)The customs officer at the customs station of exit in India shall after receipt of the duly endorsed Customs Transit Declaration as provided under sub-regulation (4), credit or close the bond, as the case may be, unless the said endorsement indicates that the goods have not arrived into India as per the Customs Transit Declaration.(6)Notwithstanding the above, where the customs officer at the customs station of re-entry in India makes an electronic entry accessible to the customs station of exit regarding the due arrival of the goods, the endorsed Customs Transit Declaration as per sub-regulation (4) shall not be required to be submitted.
