6. Enquiry by sub-committee.

(1) The sub-committee shall consider each application for registration under sub-section (7) or (8) of section 25 separately. Any application which does not satisfy the requirements of rules 4 and 5 shall be rejected by the sub-committee. The question of registration or enlistment in respect of each application shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the members of the sub-committee. (2) For the purpose of making enquiry in respect of any such application, the sub-committee may, if it considers necessary, direct the Registrar to call any applicant for interview at the applicant's cost, or may refer any application, - (a) to the Collector of Bombay, if the applicant claims to be practising the Homoeopathic or the Biochemic system of medicine in Greater Bombay; or (b) to the Collector of the District concerned, if the applicant claims to be practising the Homoeopathic or the Biochemic system of medicine outside Greater Bombay, for verification of such facts mentioned by the applicant in the application, as the sub-committee may specify in that behalf.

7. Certificates of registration and enlistment.

- The certificates of registration and enlistment shall be in Forms 'F' and 'G', respectively. The certificate of registration shall be printed on white paper and the certificate of enlistment shall be printed on the blue paper.

8. Maintenance of Register and List.

- Each page of the Register and the List shall be verified by the Registrar's signature and each entry in the Register or the List, as the case may be, as respects particulars specified in clauses (e), (f) or (g) of rule 3 shall be attested by the initials of the Registrar.

9. Making new entries or altering entries in Register and List.

(1) Any registered or enlisted practitioner who desires -(a) to have the entry as respects his name in the Register or List, altered, or (b) to have an entry as respects any additional qualification acquired by him subsequent to the date of his registration or enlistment, made in the Register or List; or (c) to have any alteration made in the entry as respects his additional qualifications in the Register or List; may make an application in that behalf to the Registrar. (2) The application made under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by a fee of [rupees fifteen] [Substituted by G. N. of 17.1.1976.], if it relates to clause (a) and a fee of [rupees twenty] [Substituted by G. N. of 17.1.1976.], in any other case. (3) On receipt of the application and the fee, the Registrar shall alter or make any entry as applied for : [Provided that, no entry as respect alteration of the name shall be made unless the application is accompanied in duplicate, by the marriage registration certificate, or any notification in the Official Gazette, relating to such alteration of name, or an affidavit regarding such alteration of name made before any Metropolitan Magistrate, Judicial or Executive Magistrate. The original document shall be returned when no longer required] [Inserted by G. N. of 17.1.1976.] : [Provided further that] [Inserted by G. N. of 17.1.1976.] no entry as respect additional qualification shall be made in the Register unless a person possessing such qualification is entitled to have his name entered in the Register under sub-section (3) of section 20. (4) [When the name of any practitioner is altered under sub-rule (3), then the certificate of registration in Form 'F' of enlistment in Form 'G' shall stand amended accordingly; and if such certificate is produced by the practitioner, the certificate shall be duly amended by the Registrar under his hand and seal, if any.] [Added by G. N. of 17.1.1976.]

10. Change of address to be intimated to the Registrar.

- It shall be the duty of every registered or enlisted practitioner who changes his address to intimate such change of address to the Registrar within one month of such change.

11. [Entries to be made in register. [Substituted by G. N. of 17.1.1976.]

- After the end of every year on the 31st day of March, there shall be entered in the register and the list separately :-(a) the number of practitioners already registered upto the end of the year, immediately preceding; (b) the number of practitioners registered during the year immediately preceding; (c) the number of practitioners whose names are restored to the register and the list, during the year immediately preceding; (d) the number of practitioners whose names have been removed from the register and the list, during the year immediately preceding, stating the provisions of the law under which the names have been removed; and (e) the number of practitioners whose names have been removed by reason of death or for misconduct.

12. Form of general notice, etc.

13. Removal of names of defaulting practitioners from register, etc.

- The Registrar shall publish the names of the defaulting practitioners referred to in sub-clause (iv) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 26 which are removed from the register or the list, as the case may be, in the Official Gazette. Such names shall also be put on the notice board in the office of the Board. The Registrar shall send an intimation of removal of his name to the defaulting practitioner under certificate of posting.

14. Withdrawal of certificate of registration.

- The Registrar shall send a registered notice to the defaulting practitioner whose certificate of registration or enlistment is cancelled, and require him to return such certificate for cancellation, within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the registered notice.

15. Period for making application for re-entering name in register.

- The period within which an application for re-entering in the register the name of any defaulting practitioner shall be one year from date on which the fact of the removal was published in the Official Gazette.

16. Power of Registrar to get fresh application for registration and undertaking in certain cases.

- When the certificate of registration or enlistment or an undertaking under section 22 given by a practitioner has been spoiled, lost or destroyed and the practitioner desires to continue his name on such register or list, then it shall be lawful for the Registrar to require the practitioner to make a fresh application in the prescribed form for such registration or enlistment, or as the case may be, to give a fresh undertaking under that section.

17. Postage charges to reimburse.

- If the Registrar is required to carry on any correspondence with any practitioner for the purposes of this Act or rules thereunder (being correspondence for which specific provision is not made therein) then it shall be lawful for the Registrar to require the practitioner to reimburse the Registrar with all the postage charges incurred by the Registrar in that behalf.]Form 'A'(rule 4(1))Form of Application for Registration under sub-section (3) of section 20 of the Bombay Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners' Act, 1959ToThe Registrar,Board of Homoeopathic and Biochemic Systems of Medicine,
