The Good Conduct Prisoners' Probational Release Rules, 1927Published vide Punjab Government Home Department (Jails) Notification No. 13262, dated 27.4.1927.

1.

These rules may be called the Good Conduct Prisoners' Probational Release Rules.

2. Definitions.

- In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, -(1)"The Act" means the Good Conduct Prisoners' Probational Release Act, 1926;(2)"Reclamation Officer" means an officer appointed by the State Government for the superintendence, direction and control of persons released from prison under the provisions of the Act;(3)"Probation Officer" means an officer appointed by the State Government to assist the Reclamation Officer in the discharge of his duties.(4)"Superintendent" means the Superintendent of a prison in which any prisoners to be released under the Act are confined, or any other officer specially authorised in this behalf by the State Government.

The Reclamation Officer and the Probation Officer shall be taken to be the Government within the meaning of sections 2, 7 and 8 of the Act.

4. Conditional release of well-behaved prisoners.

(a)The Reclamation Officer may, at any time after consultation with the Superintendent, prepare a list of prisoners, who, from their antecedents or conduct in prison, appear to be likely, if released from prison, to abstain from crime and to lead a useful and industrious life, and may forward a list of such prisoners to the State Government with a recommendation for their release under the Act. The State Government may thereupon permit all or any of such prisoners to be released by licenses under section 2 of the Act. (b)A license under section 2 of the Act shall be in Form A herewith annexed, and shall contain the conditions stated therein. (c)No prisoner shall be released from a prison unless the conditions of the license are personally explained to him by the Superintendent and are accepted by him. The fact that the conditions were so explained to the prisoner and were accepted by him shall be certified on the license by the Superintendent.

5. Powers and duties of the Reclamation Officer.

(a)The Reclamation Officer shall be generally responsible for the supervision, direction and control of all prisoners released under the Act. (b)Subject to any general or special orders issued by the State Government in this behalf, the Reclamation Officer may place any prisoner released under the Act under the authority of a Probation Officer and may delegate to him any of his duties in respect of such prisoners.

6. Duties of Probation Officer.

(a)Probation Officers shall work under the control of the Reclamation Officer and shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as may be assigned to them by that Officer. (b)With the permission of the Reclamation Officer a Probation Officer may allow any prisoner placed under his authority to be employed by any person and take from the employer an agreement in writing embodying the conditions of employment. The Probation Officer shall be responsible in such cases for seeing that suitable arrangements are made for the lodging of the prisoner in sanitary conditions and for enforcing the payment of the remuneration and other conditions of the agreement. (c)A Probation Officer shall be generally responsible for the conduct and discipline of every prisoner placed under his authority and for his due observance of the conditions of his license. He shall report any breach of the conditions of a license by a prisoner to the Reclamation Officer.

7. Revocation of licenses.

(a)If on the report of the Probation Officer or otherwise, the Reclamation Officer finds that any prisoner has been guilty of a breach of the conditions of his license or considers that he is unfit to be allowed to remain at large under the license, he shall report the matter to the State Government and the State Government may thereupon revoke his license. (b)When the Reclamation Officer or the Probation Officer decides to recommend the revocation of the license of a prisoner, he may order his arrest and detention in such place and subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by the State Government and if the license is revoked, may send him in charge of a Police Officer to the Superintendent of the Jail mentioned in the revocation order on or before the date specified therein.(c)An order of revocation under section 6 of the Act shall be in Form B herewith annexed, and shall be served upon the prisoner by the Reclamation Officer, a Probation Officer or a Superintendent of a Jail. The Reclamation Officer, the Probation Officer, or the Superintendent of Jail, as the case may be, shall explain the order to the prisoner and shall certify the fact that the order has been so explained, below the revocation order. A note as regards the revocation shall also be made on the original license.

8. Final release of prisoners on probation.

- On the expiry of the period of license, otherwise than by revocation, the Reclamation Officer, or any Probation Officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall forthwith inform the licensee that he is absolved from the observance of all the conditions of the license and shall make a note to that effect on the license.

9. Classes of offenders not eligible for conditional release.

- The following classes of offenders shall not be eligible for conditional release under the Act :-
(a)Persons who have been convicted for offences under the following Acts, or provisions thereof :-
