(1)A full, true and accurate statement of his assets including his immovable properties and liabilities shall be furnished-(a)by an applicant for membership of a registered society with unlimited liability together with his application;(b)by a member of a registered society with unlimited liability when required to do so by the Registrar or any person authorised by him in this behalf or by the affiliating society.(2)No member of a registered society with unlimited liability shall be a member of more than one such society.(3)A member of a registered society with unlimited liability shall furnish to the society full, true and accurate information regarding his intention to transfer his immovable property in whole or in part by way of sale, mortgage or gift, at least fifteen days before completion of each such transaction.

19. Loan to be utilised for the purpose for which advanced.

- The loan advance by a registered society to a member thereof shall be utilised by him for the purpose for which it was advanced and for no other purpose. The society shall have power to recover the advance as prescribed if the member does not utilise it.

20. Restrictions on transfer of share or interest.

(1)The transfer or charge of the share or interest of a member in the capital of a registered society shall be subject to such conditions as to maximum holding as may be prescribed by this Act or by the rules.(2)Except as otherwise provided in this Act, no transfer or change of his share or interest by a member of a society with unlimited liability shall be valid unless-(a)he has held such share or interest for not less than one year; and(b)the transferee or mortgagee is either a member of such society or a person whose application for membership has been accepted.

21. Liability of past member and his estate.

(1)The liability of a past member and of the estate of a deceased member for the debts of a registered society as they existed at the date of his ceasing to be a member or on his death, as the case may be, shall continue for a period of four years from the said date.(2)No past member of a registered society with unlimited liability shall be eligible for membership of another such society with unlimited liability except with the special permission of the Register.

22. Share or interest not liable to attachment.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to the provision of Section 44 of this Act, the share or interest of a member in the capital of a registered society or in any fund under Section 53 shall not be liable to attachment or sale under any decree or order of a court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by such member.

23. Nomination of a transferee.

- If the bye-laws of a registered society so permit, any member of the society may, in accordance therewith, nominate a person or persons in whose favour the society shall dispose of the shares or interest of such member on his death.

24. Transfer of interest on death of a member.

- When a member of a registered society dies, his shares and interest in the society shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be transferred-(a)to the person, if any, nominated in accordance with the provisions of Section 23; or(b)if there be no such nominee or if the nominee is not available or is difficult to be ascertained by the managing body, or if for any other cause such transfer cannot be made without unreasonable delay, difficulty to the person as may appear to the managing body to be the heir or legal representative of the deceased member; provided that ninety days have elapsed from the date of the member's death. No new claim shall be entertained after the said period of ninety days.

25. Disposal of shares or interest of ceased members.

- When a member of a registered society is expelled or withdrawn or otherwise ceases to be a member under this Act, rules or bye-law, his share or interest shall be transferred to another eligible person and the value thereon, determined in accordance with rules, shall be paid to such ceased member if his share or interest is not forfeited under the provisions of this Act, rules or bye-laws or if he is insane, to any person appointed to manage his properties; Provided that if there is not eligible transferee and if the bye-laws of the society so provide the value of his share or interest determined in accordance with the bye-laws shall be paid to him or, if he is insane, to any person appointed to manage his properties.

26. Liability of members on winding up of society.

- The members of a registered society, in the winding up the society, be jointly and severally liable to contribute towards any deficiency in the assets of the society-(a)in the case of a society with unlimited liability, without limit; and(b)in the case of a society with limited liability, subject to such limitation of amount as may be provided in the bye-laws.

27. Restriction on transfer of possession of land held under a society.

- Notwithstanding anything in any law for the time being in force-(1)a member of a registered society, the object of which is to develop co-operative or collective farming, shall not be entitled to transfer his possession or interest in any land held by him under the society, except to the society or with the previous approval of the managing body in accordance with its bye-laws, to a member thereof or to a person who will be admitted as a member of the society;(2)on the death of such a member, his possession of an interest in any such land held by him under the society shall come to his nominee in accordance with the provisions of Section 23 or in the first eligible heir according to seniority in age willing to become a member of the society;(3)if no nominee or heir becomes a member, the possession of an interest in such land of the deceased, shall vest in the society, which shall pay to the nominee or the heir, a sum equivalent to the value of the share and interest of the deceased member and any other sum due from the society as determined in accordance with this Act or rules framed thereunder deducting all dues which the deceased member owed to the society;(4)if there is no person qualified to succeed to the share or interest of the deceased member, the society shall pay to his heir, executor or the legal representative, as the case may be, a sum equivalent to the value of the share and interest of the deceased member as determined in accordance with the rules after deducting the dues of the deceased to the society;(5)when in any other case a member ceases to be a member of such society whether this Act, rules or bye-laws his possession of and interest in, any such land held by him under the society shall come to the society, if the bye-laws allow and if the share and interest of the member is not forfeited under this Act or rules framed thereunder, the society shall pay to the ceased member a sum equivalent to the value of the share and interest of such member and any other sum due to him from the society after deducting his debts to the society, if any.(6)no land held under a registered society specified in sub-section (1) by a member thereof, or vested under sub-section (2) in the heir or nominee of such member, shall be attachable in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any debt other than debt due to the society or to a member thereof;(7)no land shall vest in such a society by reason of the provisions of this section unless it is owned by the society or has been leased to the society and, if the society holds the land by lease or contract, the land shall vest in the society only during the pendency of lease or contract.

28. Right of a registered society to pay prior debts of a mortgagor.

(1)Where a mortgage is executed in favour of a registered society for payment of prior debts or part thereof, of the mortgagor secured on the mortgaged property, the registered society may, by notice in writing and served by registered post with acknowledgement due, require any person to whom any such debt is due, to receive payment of such debt or part thereof from the society at its registered office within such period as may be specified in the notice.(2)The person on whom such notice is served shall be bound to receive payment of the amount offered by the society, but where there is disagreement or dispute between the mortgagor and such person as regards the amount of the debt, or where the society tenders less than the agreed amount of debt, the receipt of the sum offered by the society shall not debar such person from enforcing his right to recover the balance claimed by him.(3)If any such person refuses to receive such notice or such payment, such debt or part thereof, as the case may be, shall cease to carry interest from the expiration of the period specified in the notice and the property mortgaged under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been freed from the encumbrance of such prior mortgage.(4)No society shall advance a loan on a mortgage without taking a declaration from the prospective mortgagor or as to the names of prior mortgagees of the property in question, if any.

29. Restriction on mortgaged property.

(1)Where land is mortgaged to a registered society, the mortgagor shall not be entitled without the approval of the society to transfer or mortgage his equity of redemption or to create a charge upon or lease out such property for a period exceeding three years.(2)If the mortgaged property at any time is wholly or partially destroyed or the security is rendered insufficient due to fall in value or for any other reason and the mortgagor having been given a reasonable opportunity by the society of providing for further security sufficient to cover the loan or of repaying the loan with interest or such portion of the loan as may be determined by the supervisory, managing or controlling body and the mortgagor having failed to provide such security or repay such portion of the loan, the whole of the loan or such uncovered portion shall be deemed to fall due at once and recoverable through co-operative demand certificate.(3)The mortgaged property in case of default of payment of mortgaged money or any part thereof may be sold by the society as prescribed by rules in addition to any other remedy available to it, without the intervention of the court if a power of sale without the intervention of court is expressly conferred by the mortgage deed; provided that the society serves a notice in writing by registered post demanding payment of the mortgage money with interest, or part thereof, upon the mortgagor or any person having an interest in or charged upon the mortgaged property or the equity of redemption who has previously notified the society of such interest or charge in writing or any surety, if default has been made in payment of the loan or part thereof for three months after such service of notice; Provided that any party aggrieved by an action taken by a registered society under this section may prefer an appeal to the Registrar within thirty days from the date of the sale. His decision shall be final.

30. Bar to certain claims.

- All payments and transfers made by a registered society under this Chapter shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the society by any other person.

Chapter IV

Management

31. General Assembly.

(1)The General Assembly of a registered society shall consist of all those who are eligible to vote at general meeting of the society.(2)(a)Every member of a registered society and every ex-officio member of the Administrative Council or managing body of such society unless under some temporary disqualification shall have the right to attend any general meeting of the society and to exercise his vote at such meeting; Provided that the bye-laws of a registered society may prescribe-(i)that a registered society affiliated to such society may have more than one representative entitled to vote a general meetings of the society; and(ii)that only one-third of the members of the General Assembly, excluding ex-officio members, may be individual members, the other two-thirds being representatives of affiliated registered societies.(b)When the bye-laws of a registered society contain the provision of sub-section (2) (a) (ii), if the number of individual members exceeds one-third of the total membership of the society, the individual members shall elect at a special meeting to be called by the Secretary of the society not more than one month before the annual general meeting in the manner prescribed in the bye-laws for annual general meetings, those individual members who, as the representatives, of the body of individual members, shall form the one-third membership of the General Assembly for the purpose of voting at the annual and other meetings of the General Assembly during the ensuing year, only such elected representatives having the right to attend and vote at such general meetings.(3)The supreme authority of a registered society shall be vested in the General Assembly; provided that during the pendency of any loan or service from the Government, or any other creditor secured at the instance of the Government, the supreme authority in respect of any matter adversely affecting the interest of Government of the said creditor touching such loan or service shall be vested in the Government or the Registrar, as may be provided in the bye-laws or any person authorised by them in writing and may extend to the appointment of officers to hold any of the officers of the society or any person to be ex-officio members of the Administrative Council, managing body or any committee of the society even if not member of the society. This supreme authority of the Government or Registrar may also be exercised in the absence of any loan or service when the Government or Registrar, as the case may be, deem their intervention to be necessary in the interest of the members of the society or of the co-operative movement in general. The Government or the Registrar, as the case may be, may fix the salary of any such appointed officer and declare it to be charge on the society. They may cancel any such appointment made by them.(4)An annual or special meeting of the General Assembly shall be summoned and shall exercise its authority and perform its functions in such manner as may be prescribed in the bye-laws of the society.

32. Annual meeting of General Assembly.

(1)A general meeting to be termed as annual general meeting of the General Assembly of registered society shall be held at least once in every co-operative year for the purpose of-(a)electing members to the Administrative Council, managing body and other committees of the society, the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and other office bearers as may be provided in the bye-laws and fixing such fees, salaries or other remuneration as prescribed in the bye-laws; provided that the Government may prescribe by rules the qualifications necessary for office-bearers and employees;(b)electing internal auditor or auditors who shall not be members of the Administrative Council or governing body and fixing the remuneration;(c)considering the annual report of the Administrative Council, or, if there be no Administrative Council or the managing body, audit report and audited annual accounts and balance sheets and reviewing the working of the society during the preceding co-operative year;(d)deciding how profits are to be distributed in accordance with the bye-laws;(e)passing the annual budget and approving programme of work for the ensuing year;(f)fixing the maximum amount of liability to be incurred during the ensuing year and the maximum rate of the interest payable on deposits; and(g)considering such other business as may be placed before the meeting in accordance with the bye-laws:Provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or rules made thereunder or bye-laws of any society, the Registrar may direct that the first annual general meeting of any registered society shall be held on a date to be fixed by him (which shall be a date within one hundred and eighty days of the registration of the society) to elect the office bearers of the society, according to the procedure and manner prescribed in the bye-laws of the society and the office-bearers so elected shall assume office on the conclusion of the general meeting in which they are elected in replacement of the managing committee elected at the time of the inaugural general meeting of the society. Provided further that the election of the Board of Directors/Managing Committee of the State Level Societies shall be conducted biennially (every two years) and the terms of office of the Board of Directors/Managing Committee of the State Level Societies shall be two years only. (2) Such a meeting shall be held within 60 days from the date of expiry of the proceeding co-operative year: Provided that if for any reason the meeting cannot be held within the date fixed by the Registrar, any society may, by an application within the aforesaid period of 60 days and addressed to the Registrar, pray for extension of time for holding the meeting stating the ground for which, in the opinion of the society, the meeting cannot be held. The grounds for which the managing body should not stand dissolved under sub-section (4) below should also be stated in the application, if any, made for extension, the period for which the extension is sought for shall be specifically stated in the application. (3) When an application for extension is made under the proceeding sub-section, the Registrar may, if he is of opinion that extension should be granted and that there are good grounds for which the managing body should not stand dissolved under sub-section (4) below, by order grant extension for any period not exceeding 30 days from the date of passing the order. If the Registrar is of opinion that no extension should be granted, he shall, by an order passed to that effect, reject the same. In both the cases the order passed shall be communicated under registered post to the society applying for extension. (4) If any society fails to hold the meeting within the period of 60 days mentioned in sub-section (2) or when an application is made for extension under the proviso to sub-section (2) within the period so extended or when no extension is granted, before the expiry of 20 days from the date on which the order rejecting the application for extension is communicated, the Administrative Council and/or the managing body of the society shall stand dissolved from the date of expiry of the aforesaid period. (5) When the Administrative Council and/or managing body are dissolved under sub-section (4), the Registrar may appoint an officer or officers or any ad hoc body to manage the affairs of the society and to perform the functions of the Administrative Council and managing body till the new body is elected or formed. (6) The officer or officers or the ad hoc body appointed by the Registrar under sub-section (5) shall arrange to hold the annual meeting of the general assembly which shall be held within ninety days of such appointment: Provided that the Government may allow in its discretion such further time as may be considered necessary but not exceeding one year for holding of such meeting.

33. Special meeting of General Assembly.

(1) A special meeting of the General Assembly shall be called-(a) at the instance of the Administrative Council or if there be no Administrative Council, of the managing body; (b) at the request of the Chairman of the society; (c) on requisition signed by one-tenth of the members of the General Assembly or twenty members, whichever is less; or (d) at the instance of the Registrar. (2) The Registrar himself or any person authorised by him in this behalf in writing may, by special order, call a special meeting at the General Assembly at any time and shall call such a meeting upon the failure of the society to call a meeting on the requisition by the member or at the instance of the Registrar under sub-section (1).(3)Notwithstanding any rule or bye-laws prescribing the method of summoning or period of notice for a General Assembly, the Registrar of any person authorised by him in this behalf may specify the time, place business for the meeting and manner of convening it.

34. Administrative Council.

- The management of every registered society shall vest in the managing body of the society, except in the case of a society, which for administrative convenience necessitated by reasons, such as, wide area of operation, that responsibility shall vest in an Administrative Council. The Administrative Council, the managing body and committees of a society shall be constituted in accordance with the bye-laws of the society which shall specify the composition of such bodies, their powers, functions, duties, method of summoning, meetings and procedure.

35. Power to depute Government servant to manage the affairs of a society.

- The Government may, on the application of a registered society and on such conditions as may be determined, depute Government officials to the service of the society for the purpose of managing its affairs and the officials shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be determined.

36. Power of Registrar to direct particular society having essential qualifications only.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Registrar may at any time direct a particular society or class of societies to appoint any persons having such qualifications as may be prescribed by him from time to time.

37. Dissolution or reconstruction of the Administrative Council, managing body or any committee of a society.

(1)When the Registrar is satisfied, after an inspection or enquiry under Section 65 or 66 for reasons to be recorded in writing that the Administrative Council, managing body or any committee of a registered society is not functioning properly or according to this Act, rules or bye-laws, he may, after giving the offending body, an opportunity to state its case, direct under Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 33, that a special general meeting of the General Assembly be called within a time to be specified to dissolve that Administrative Council, managing body or committee concerned and to elect a new one: provided that, if in the opinion of the Registrar, it is necessary as an emergent measure to suspend the offending body forthwith, he may do so and shall appoint a person on such condition as prescribed by him to be in full control of the suspended body until a new body has been elected or action has been taken in accordance with Section 38.(2)The Registrar may, for reasons to be recorded, specify in the direction made under sub-section (1) that all or any of the outgoing members of the dissolved body shall be qualified for such period not exceeding three years as he may determine, for election or appointment as an officer of the society or for service on any of its bodies.(3)An appeal shall lie to the Government against an order of the Registrar disqualifying a member of a society for election or appointment within two months from the receipt of the order.

38. Dissolution of Administrative Council, managing body or any committee and appointment of persons to manage the affairs of a society.

- If the Administrative Council, managing body or any committee, as the case may be, of a society is not dissolved and reconstituted within the time specified by the Registrar under Section 37, he may, by order in writing, dissolve such body and shall thereupon appoint a person or persons on such conditions as prescribed by him, to manage the affairs of a society for such period not exceeding one year when he shall arrange for the constitution of a new body to take the place of the dissolved body. The Registrar may extend this period from time to time as he may deem fit; provided that the aggregate of such periods shall not exceed three years.

39. Tenure of office of the person appointed under Section 38.

- The person appointed under Section 38 shall hold office until the Administrative Council, managing body or committee, as the case may be, is reconstituted or his appointment is cancelled by the Registrar.

40. Powers of person appointed under Section 38.

- During the tenure of office of a person appointed under Section 38, such person shall, subject to the control of the Registrar, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions and duties which may be exercised or performed by the superseded body under the provisions of this Act, rules or bye-laws.

41. Removal of Administrative Council, body or committee.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act; the Government may, if it is of opinion that the Administrative Council, the managing body, any other committee or body of a registered society is not competent to perform or persistently make default in the performance of the duties imposed by or under this Act or exceed or abuse the powers imposed by or under this Act, at any time, after giving an opportunity of showing cause against the actions proposed, remove any such council, body or committee.(2)The Government may, at any time, suspend any such council, body or committee pending its removal under sub-section (1) from office, if in the opinion of the Government immediate action is necessary and the continuance of such council, committees or body in office is inadvisable on any of the grounds on which it could be removed under sub-section (1) or on the ground of public interest.(3)When an Administrative Council, managing body, committee or other body of the registered society is suspended under sub-section (2), the Government may make such arrangements as may be deemed necessary for discharging the duties, functions and obligations of the Administrative Council, managing body, committee or other body so suspended till the termination of the order of suspension or, when a body or person is removed under sub-section (1), till the vacancy is filled up in accordance with the provisions made by or under this Act.(4)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if the term of office of any Administrative Council, managing body, committee or other body expires during the continuance of any order passed under sub-section (2) placing any such council, body or committee under suspension, such Council, body or committee shall cease to function with effect from the date of such expiry and the arrangement made by the State Government under sub-section (3) will continue till the vacancies caused by such expiry are filled up in accordance with the provisions made by or under this Act.

42. Removal, suspension of Chairman etc., after giving opportunity of showing cause.

(1)The Government may, after giving an opportunity of showing cause, remove the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, the Secretary, any other member or office bearer or employees of a registered society from the office of membership held by him on any one or more of the following grounds, namely:(a)doing any act in violation of the provisions of the Act, the rules framed thereunder, the registered bye-laws of the society and other lawful orders of the Government or of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies;(b)doing any act which is prejudicial to the interest of the co-operative movement;(c)misuse any defalcation of funds of the society;(d)misconduct and wilful neglect in the discharge of his duties;(e)refusal to act or incapability of acting.(2)The Government may, at any time, suspend a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary or any other member, office bearer or employee of a registered society pending his removal under sub-section (1) if the Government is of opinion that immediate actions are necessary and his continuance as such Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, Member, office bearer or employee is inadvisable on any of the grounds for which he may be removed under sub-section (1) or on the ground of public interest.(3)When a Chairman, Vice-Chairman or any other member or office bearer or employee is suspended under sub-section (2) of this section, the Government may make such arrangements as may be deemed necessary for discharging the duties, functions and obligations of the person suspended till the termination of the order of suspension or, when a person is removed under sub-section (1) above, till the election or appointment of a person to the office or membership which was held by the person so removed.(4)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if the term of office of any Chairman, Vice-Chairman, member or other office bearer or employee of any registered society expires during the continuance of any order passed under sub-section (2) of this section placing any such person under suspension, such person shall cease to function with effect from the date of such expiry and the arrangements made by the Government-under sub-section (3) will continue till the vacancies caused by such expiry are filled up in accordance with the provisions made by or under this Act.

Chapter IX

Inquiry and Inspection

65. Inquiry by Registrar.

(1)The Registrar may, at any time, of his own motion or shall at the request of the Administrative head in charge of the Civil Administrative Sub-Division or other administrative area, hold an inquiry or direct some person authorised by him by order in writing in the behalf, to hold an inquiry into the constitution, working and financial condition of a registered society.(2)Such an inquiry shall also be held on the application of-(i)the affiliating society, if any, of which the society is a member and a debtor;(ii)a majority of the members of the managing body;(iii)one-third of the members of the society, who shall have deposited such security for costs, if any, as the Registrar may direct;(iv)creditors representing not less than one-half of the borrowed capital of the society, who shall deposit such security for costs, if any, as the Registrar may direct.(3)The Registrar shall communicate the result of any enquiry under this section to the society and to the person at whose request such enquiry was made.

66. Inspection of society.

(1)Every registered society shall be liable to inspection at any time by the Registrar or any person authorised by him in this behalf by general or special order; and by affiliating society, if so provided in its bye-laws.(2)An inspection of a registered society shall be made by the Registrar or any person authorised by him in this behalf by an order in writing at any time on the application of a creditor of a registered society:Provided that no inspection shall be made under this sub-section unless-(i)the creditor deposits with the Registrar such sum as security for the cost of the proposed inspection as the Registrar may require; and(ii)the creditor satisfied the Registrar that the alleged debt is a sum then due and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time;Provided further that no inspection shall be conducted under the sub-section without an opportunity of being heard.(3)The result of the inspection under this section shall be communicated to the society and if held at the instance of a creditor, to the creditor.

67. Right to inspection of the book of any co-operative society by the Financing Bank.

- (i) A financing bank shall have the right to inspect the books of any co-operative society which has either applied to the bank for financial assistance or is indebted to the bank on account of financial assistance granted earlier.(ii)The inspection may be carried out by an Officer or any other member of the said staff of the financing bank with previous sanction of the Registrar in writing.(iii)The officer or any other member of the paid staff of the financing bank undertaking such inspection, shall, at all reasonable times, have access to the books of account, documents, securities, cash and other properties belonging to or in the custody of the co-operative society inspected by him, and shall also be supplied by such society, such information, statements and returns as may be required by him to assess the financial conditions of the society and the safety of the financial assistance to be made to the society or already made to it.

68. Cost of inquiry and inspection.

(1)When an inquiry is held under sub-section (2) of Section 65 or an inspection is made under sub-section (2) of Section 66, the Registrar may, after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, apportion the cost or such part of the cost as he may deem fit between the society, the members thereof or the affiliating society or the creditor or creditors applying for such inspection or inquiry, as the case may be, and the officers, members and past members of the societies.(2)No expenditure from the fund of a registered society shall be incurred for the purpose of defraying any cost in support or any appeal preferred by any person other than the society itself against an order under sub-section (1).(3)Any person authorised by the Registrar under Sections 65 and 66 shall have all the powers of the Registrar when acting under these sections.(4)Recovery of cost under this section shall be recoverable through a Co-operative Demand Certificate.

Chapter X

Settlement of Disputes

69. Reference of disputes.

- Any dispute touching the business of the registered society, other than a dispute regarding disciplinary action taken by a society against an employee of a society, or of the liquidator of a society shall be referred to the Registrar for decision if the parties thereto are among the following:(a)the society, its past or present controlling or managing body, any past or present officer, agent or employee or the liquidator of the society; etc.(b)member, past member or persons claiming through a member, past member or deceased member of the society; or(c)a surety of a member, a past member or deceased member of a society; or(d)any other registered society or the liquidator of such society; or(e)a registered society and a financing bank.

70. Settlement of dispute.

(1)The Registrar shall on receipt of a reference under Section 69-(a)decide the dispute himself or authorise any other Government officer to decide the dispute; or(b)refer it for disposal to an arbitrator appointed by the Registrar or to three arbitrators one to be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third, who shall be nominated by the Registrar to act as Chairman. Where any party to the dispute fails to nominate an arbitrator within fifteen days after the communication of this notice, the Registrar may himself make the nomination. No legal practitioner may be nominated as an arbitrator by any party to a dispute or by the Registrar.(2)The Registrar may withdraw any reference of such dispute referred to under sub-section (1) and may deal with it himself under the said sub-section.(3)Where the Registrar is satisfied that a party to any reference made to him under Section 69 with intent to defeat or delay the execution of any decision that may be passed thereon-(a)is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property; or(b)is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Registrar, the Registrar may direct the conditional attachment of the said property or such part thereof as he deems necessary, and such attachment shall have the same effect as if it had been made by a competent civil Court.

Chapter XI

Dissolution of Society

71. Cancellation of registration.

(1) If the Registrar, on receipt of an application made upon resolution adopted in a meeting of the General Assembly by a three-fourth majority of the members present at the meeting provided that the notice of dissolution was included in the circulated agenda of the meeting, is of opinion that the society ought to be dissolved, he may, by an order in writing cancel the registration of the society. (2) The Registrar, after an enquiry has been held under Section 65 or after an inspection has been made under Section 66, may cancel registration of society which—(i) has not commenced working; or (ii) has ceased working; or (iii) has ceased to apply materially with any condition as to registration in this Act, Rules, or bye-laws; and (iv) in his opinion ought to be dissolved. (3) A copy of the order cancelling the registration of a society shall forthwith be published in the official Gazette by a notice which shall be communicated to the society and to any affiliating society concerned by registered post. The notice shall contain the name of the liquidator appointed under Section 72, who shall take full charge of the society forthwith and shall require all claims against the said society to be made to the liquidator within two months of the publication of the notice. All liabilities recorded in the account books of the society shall be deemed ipso facto to have been so claimed. (4) When the cancellation of the registration of a society takes effect, the society shall cease to exist as a corporate body but shall vest in the liquidator. (5) Any member of the society may, within two months from the date of publication of the order of cancellation, appeal to the Government from such order. (6) Where no appeal is presented within two months from the publication of an order cancelling the registration of the society, the order shall take effect on the expiry of that period. (7) When an appeal is presented within two months of an order of cancellation, the order shall not take effect until it is confirmed by the Government and such confirmation is communicated to the society by registered post.

72. Winding up.

(1) Where an order of cancellation of the registration of a society is made by the Registrar under Section 71, he may appoint any person to be the liquidator of the society and may remove such person and appoint another in his place. (2) The liquidator appointed under sub-section (1) shall have power from the date of his appointment to take immediate possession of all assets, properties, effects and actionable claims of the society or to which the society is entitled and of all books, records, cash and other documents pertaining to the business of the society and, in the interest of the society shall hold charge of the society notwithstanding the provisions of Section 71; provided that no step shall be taken for the winding up of the society during the pendency of any stay order.(3)The liquidator shall, under the general control of the Registrar, have power, so far as is necessary for winding up of the society, on behalf of the society to carry on the business thereof and to do all acts and execute all documents necessary to such winding up, and in particular shall exercise the following powers:(a)to institute, compromise and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of a society by his name of office:(b)to make any compromise or arrangement with any person between whom and the society there exists any dispute.(c)to determine the debts due to the society by a member, past member, or the estate, nominees, heirs or legal representatives of a deceased member;(d)to determine from time to time the contribution to be made or remaining to be made by the members, past members or by the estates or nominees, heirs or legal representatives of deceased members or by any officer or former officers, to the assets of the society and to determine the debts due from such members or persons and the cost of liquidation;(e)to calculate the cost of liquidation and to determine by what persons and in what proportion they are to be borne;(f)to investigate all claims against the society and subject to the provisions of this Act to decide questions of priority arising between claimants;(g)to pay claims against the society including interest up to the date of cancellation of registration according to their respective priorities, if any, in full or rateably as the assets including the reserve fund of the society permit; the surplus, if any, remaining after payment of claims being applied in payment of interest from the date of such cancellation at the rate fixed by him but not exceeding the contract rate in any case;(h)to take steps to recover dues according to the provisions of Section 90 if necessary; and(i)to dispose of the surplus, if any, remaining after paying the claims against the society in accordance with Section 73 of this Act.(4)Subject to the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder, a liquidator appointed under this section shall, in so far as such powers are necessary for carrying out the purposes of this section, have powers to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of any books, accounts, documents, securities, cash or other properties belonging to or in the custody of the society by the same means and so far as may be, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).(5)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, if any landed property is held by a liquidator as such the title over the land shall be complete as soon as the mutation of the name of his office is effected and no court shall question the title on the ground of dispossession, want of possession or physical delivery of possession.

73. Distribution of fund of a dissolved society.

(a)On dissolution of a society, a reserve fund and any undisbursed cash in hand shall be applied to discharging liabilities of the society and the repayment of the share capital.(b)Any sum that may remain may be applied to such object of local and public utility as may be selected by the members of the dissolved society and approved by the Registrar. If, within three months of the notice published in the official Gazette under Section 74, notifying the closing of the liquidation proceedings of the society, the members failed to select any object as aforesaid, the Registrar shall, with the approval of the Government, apply the fund to such local public utility as may be determined by him or credit the remaining sum to the reserve fund of a society to be formed to replace the dissolved society or if there be no such society to any other deserving society existing within the same area of operation and having objects similar to those of the dissolved society or if there be no such society, to any other registered society in Mizoram as may be determined by the Registrar.

74. Liquidator to deposit the books and submit final report.

- When the affairs of a society have been wound up, the liquidator shall make a report to the Registrar, who when satisfied, shall order the liquidation proceedings to be closed and direct the liquidator to deposit the records wheresoever the Registrar thinks fit and the Registrar shall issue a notice in the official Gazette notifying the closing of the liquidation proceedings of the society.

75. Bar of suit.

- Save in so far as expressly provided in this Act, no civil Court shall take cognisance of any matter concerned with the winding up or dissolution of a society under this Act and when a liquidator has been appointed, no suit or other legal proceedings shall lie or be proceeded with against him except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as he may impose.

Chapter XII

Recovery of Sums Due and Enforcement of Obligations

76. Power of Registrar to direct payment of dues.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter X, the Registrar or such other persons as may be authorised by him in this behalf, may, on his own motion or on the written requisition of a registered society or an affiliating society or a financing bank for the recovery of any loan or any other demand due by a defaulting member, after making such enquiry as he deems fit, grant a Co-operative Demand Certificate for the recovery of the amount found to be due.

77. Power of Registrar to distraint and sale for non-payment of loans or interest.

(1) If any instalment of loan or interest payable by a member of a co-operative society or any part of such instalment has remained unpaid for more than 30 days from the date on which it fell due, the managing committee of the society may, in addition to any other remedy available to it, apply to the Registrar or any other officer authorised by him for recovery of such instalment or part thereof by distraint and sale of the produce of the charged land including the standing crop. (2) On receipt of such application, the Registrar or the person authorised by him, may take action in the manner as prescribed for the purpose of distraining and selling such produce: Provided that no distraint shall be made after the expiry of twelve months from the date on which the instalment fell due. (3) The value of the property distrained shall be, as nearly as possible equal to the amount due and the expenses of the distraint and the costs of the sale.

78. Charge and Surcharge.

(1)Where, as the result of an audit under Section 60 or an enquiry under Section 65 or an inspection under Section 66, or a report made in the course of the winding up of a registered society, it appears to the Registrar, that any member, officer or employee, past and present, of the society has at any time within a period of four years prior to the date of such audit, inspection, inquiry or report as the case may be-(a)intentionally, whether individually or as an assenting member of any managing or other controlling body, made or authorised any payment or granted any loan which is contrary to the provisions of this Act or to the rules or bye-laws or failed to take timely steps to recover any loan at the due date or it was being improperly utilised; or(b)was grossly negligent in respect of any loss or deficiency; or(c)failed to bring into account any sum which number to have been brought into account; or(d)misappropriated or fraudulently retained any property of the society; or(e)committed breach of trust in relation to the society ;the Registrar may inquire into the conduct of such officer or member of the managing or other controlling body.(2)The Registrar may similarly inquire into the conduct relating to the affairs of the society of any member, officer or employee, past or present, of a registered society on the application of the present controlling or managing body of the society, or liquidator or any creditor or any other registered society to which the society is affiliated or any contributory.(3)Upon such enquiry, after giving such member, officer or employee an opportunity of being heard and in the case of payment made contrary to the provisions of this Act or bye-laws after affording such member, officer or employee, time to recover the amount of such payment from the payee and credit it to the funds of the society, the Registrar may by an order in writing, require such member, officer on employee to pay such sum with interest at such rate as the Registrar may direct, to the society by way of compensation in respect of such payment or loss or to restore such property as the Registrar thinks fit, and to pay such sum as the Registrar may fix to meet the cost of the proceedings under this section.(4)Any award made by the Registrar under sub-section (3) shall be reduced to the form of a Co-operative Demand Certificate by the officer authorised to issue such certificate.(5)This section shall apply notwithstanding that such member, officer or employee may by his act or omission have incurred in addition to criminal liability under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.(6)An appeal shall lie to the Government against an order passed under sub-Clause (a) within thirty days of the communication of the order.

Chapter XIII

Penalty

79. Prohibition of the use of the word "Co-operative".

(1)No person other than a society registered under this Act or any other Co-operative Societies Act shall trade or carry on business under any name or title of which the word "Co-operative" is a part:Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the use by any person or by his successions in interest of any name or title under which he lawfully traded or carried on business at the commencement of this Act.(2)Whoever contravenes the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees,and in the case of a continuing offence with further fine or five rupees for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction therefor.

Chapter XV

Miscellaneous

93. Society to be a body corporate.

- Every registered society shall be deemed to be a body corporate by the name under which it is registered with perpetual succession and a common seal and with power to hold property, to enter into contracts, institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings and to do all things necessary for the purpose for which it was constituted.

94. Register of members.

- Any registrar or list of members or shares kept by any registered society shall be prima facie evidence of any of the following particulars entered therein:(a)the date on which the name of any person was entered in such register or list as a member, and(b)the date on which any such member ceased to be a member.

95. Entries in the books of a registered society shall be received as prima facie evidence.

(1)A copy of any entry in a book of a registered society regularly kept in the course of business shall, if certified by the Chairman, or Secretary of the society, be received in any suit or legal proceedings as prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters, transactions and accounts herein recorded in every case where and to same extent as the original entry itself is admissible.(2)No officer or liquidator of a registered society and no officer in whose office the books of a registered society are deposited after liquidation shall, in any legal proceedings to which the society or the liquidator is not a party, be compelled to produce any of the society's books, the contents of which can be proved under sub-section (1) or to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transaction and accounts therein recorded, unless specially so directed by an order of the Court or the arbitrator.

96. Construction of reference to Assam Act I of 1950.

- All references to the Assam Co-operative Societies Act, 1949, occurring in any enactment shall, in the application of any such enactment thereto, be construed as reference to this Act, and anything done, or any proceeding commenced in pursuance of such enforcement on or after the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been done or to have commenced and to have had effect as if the reference in such enactment to the Assam Co-operative Societies Act, 1949 had been a reference to this Act, and no such thing or proceeding shall be deemed to have been invalid on the ground that such enactment did not refer to this Act.

97. Act I of 1956 not to apply.

- The provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 shall not apply to registered societies.

98. Acts of societies, etc., not to be invalidated by certain defects.

(1) No act of a registered society or of a managing or controlling body or of any officer or liquidator done in good faith in pursuance of the business of the society shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of some defect subsequently discovered in the organisation of the society or in the appointment or election of the officer or liquidator or on the ground that such officer or liquidator was disqualified from appointment. (2) No act done in good faith by any person appointed under this Act shall be invalid merely by reason of the fact that his appointment has been cancelled or in consequence of any order subsequently passed under this Act. (3) The Registrar shall decide whether any act was done in good faith in pursuance of the business of a society.

99. Power to exempt societies from provisions of this Act.

- The Government may, by general or special order, exempt any registered society or class of registered societies from any of the provisions of this Act or may direct that such provision shall apply to such society with such modifications as may be specified in the order.

100. Rules and bye-laws not to be deemed to go beyond the Act.

- Rules framed under this Act and bye-laws registered under this Act shall not be deemed to go beyond the provision of this Act if their effect is not to lessen the degree of control expressly provided for in the Act.

101. Tower to exempt societies from conditions as the registration.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Government may by special order and subject to such conditions if any as it may impose, exempt any society from any of the requirements of this Act as to registration.

102. Tower to order recoupment of expenditure.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Government may by a general or special order, require of every registered society or class of registered societies to make contribution of such sum annually to be fixed by the Registrar towards the recoupment of administrative expenditure incurred by the Government in respect of inspection, supervision and guidance of a society or class of societies or of any service to such society or class of societies.

103. Tower to seize records of a society.

(1) If the Registrar or any person authorised by him in this behalf, while making audit, inspection, inquiry or supervision, as the case may be, believes or has reason to believe that the registered society is not keeping or maintaining the accounts, books and records of the society properly or finds or reasonably suspects gross negligence of duties or misappropriation or misuse of funds of the society, irregularity in recording proceeding or keeping accounts or books, he shall have power to take possession of any or all books, registers or documents, cash in hand or account books of the society and remove such seized property or keep in proper custody such seized property till it is disposed of in any manner as may be directed by the Registrar. (2) The person seizing the property of the society under sub-section (1) shall prepare an inventory of the properties seized in duplicate with his signature and require the officer or member of the society from whose possession or custody the property is seized to put his signature in witness thereof and, if such officer or member refuses to sign, then the person seizing the property shall call upon two or more persons to sign the seizure list. A copy of the list prepared under this section, signed by the witnesses shall be delivered to the officer of the society. (3) The Registrar shall take immediate steps by way of audit or inspection and pass such orders as he may think fit. (4) The administrative head of a civil sub-division or administrative area shall give police help to all officers mentioned in sub-section (1) of this section when sought for.

104. Proper of the managing body of an affiliating society to enquiry into the affairs of a member society.
