(b) For the purpose of payment of interest, any part of the period which is less than one month shall be ignored. (c) The interest shall be paid to the depositor in lumpsum at the time of repayment of amount due.]

16. Premature encashment.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 15 and subject to sub-rule (2), (3) and (4), a certificate may be prematurely encashed any time in any of the following circumstances, namely: - (a) on the death of the holder or any of the holders in case of joint holders; (b) on forfeiture by a pledgee being Gazetted Government Officer when the pledge is in conformity with these rules; or (c) when ordered by a court of law. (2) If a certificate is encashed under sub-rule (1) within a period of one year from the date of the certificate, only the face value of the certificate shall be payable. (3) If a certificate is encashed under sub-rule (1) after expiry of one year but before the expiry of three years from the date of certificate, the encashment shall be at a discount. On encashment of the certificate, an amount equivalent to the face value of the certificate together with simple interest shall be payable. Such simple interest shall be calculated on the face value at the rate applicable from time to time to single accounts under the Post Office Savings Account Rules, 1981, for the complete months for which the certificate has been held. The difference between the aforesaid simple interest and the interest accruing under rule 15 shall be deemed to be discount. (4) (i) If a certificate is encashed under sub-rule (1) after expiry of three years from the date of certificate purchased before the 1st day of March 2001, the amount payable, inclusive of interest accrued under rule 15 and after adjustment of discount, shall be as specified in the Table given below for a certificate of Rs. 100 denomination and at a proportionate rate for a certificate of any other denomination.

- A certificate shall be encashable at the post office at which it stands registered: Provided that a certificate may be encashed at any other post office if the Officer-in-charge of that post office is satisfied on verification from the post office of its registration that the person presenting the certificate for encashment is entitled thereto.

18. Discharge of certificate.

(1) The person entitled to receive the amount due under a certificate shall, on its encashment, sign on the back thereof in token of having received the payment. (2) In the case of a certificate purchased on behalf of a minor who has since attained majority, the certificate shall be signed by such a person himself, but his signature shall be attested either by the person who purchased it on his behalf or by any person who is known to the Postmaster. (3) A certificate of discharge may be issued by the post office to any person encashing a certificate on payment of the fee specified in sub-rule (1) of rule 25.

19. Encashment of minors certificate.

(1) A person encashing a certificate on behalf of a minor shall furnish a letter from the parent or guardian of the minor referred to in sub-clause (i), or as the case may be, sub-clause (ii), of clause (b) of section 5 of the Act, to the effect that the minor is alive and that the money is required on behalf of the minor. (2) When the nominee is a minor, the person appointed under sub-section (3) of section 6 of the Act while encashing the certificate, shall furnish a certificate that the minor is alive and that the money is required on behalf of the minor.

20. Payment to heirs.

(1) If a person dies and is at the time of his death the holder of a Savings Certificate and there is no nomination in force at the time of his death and probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or a succession certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (39 of 1925) is not, within three months of the death of the holder, produced to the authority specified in the Table to sub-rule (2), and if the sum due on all Savings Certificates does not exceed [one lakh rupees] [Substituted 'Rs. 60,000' by Notification No. G.S.R. 820(E), dated 16.10.2003 (w.e.f. 8.5.1989).]

(inclusive of the sum due on the Savings Certificates issued from time to time and held by the deceased), the authority mentioned in the Table to sub-rule (2) may pay the same to any person appearing to it to be entitled to receive the sum or to administer the estate of the deceased. (2) The authorities specified in the Table below shall be competent to sanction claims upto the limit noted against each on the death of the holder of the Savings Certificates without production of the probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or succession certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (39 of 1925).
