Evacuee Interest (Separation) Tamil Nadu Supplementary Act, 1961(Tamil Nadu Act 3 of 1961)Statement of Objects and Reasons. - Although the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Act, 1951 (Central Act 64 of 1951) has been in force for over nine years, applications for the separation of evacuee interests from composite properties are still being filed. In the absence of a provision in the Act fixing a time limit for filing applications, applications could still be filed with the result that it was not possible to complete the work in the near future. Parliament has accordingly enacted the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Amendment Act, 1960 (Central Act 27 of 1960), so as to provide that no application under section 6 of the principal Act shall be entertained if filed after the expiry of one year from the commencement of the Amendment Act. The Amendment Act came into force on the 15th October 1960. As it is likely that some of the claims may relate to matters in the State List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution and in order to make the amendments effective in the State in so far as they relate to matters in the State List, it was necessary to enact suitable supplementary legislation. As the Legislature was not in session, the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Madras Supplementary Ordinance, 1960 (Madras Ordinance 2 of 1960) was promulgated by the Governor. The Bill is intended to replace the above ordinance.Published in Part IV-A of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 11th January 1961.Received the assent of the Governor on the 17th February 1961 and first published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 22nd, February 1961.An Act to supplement the provisions of the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Amendment Act, 1960.Whereas it is expedient to supplement the provisions of the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Amendment Act, 1960 (Central Act 27 of 1960), for the purposes hereinafter appearing;Be it enacted in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows: -
