Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968(Act No. 17 of 1968)Last Updated 26th October, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 5 of 2012). - In terms of Section 4(1) of the Andhra Pradesh (Regulation of Trade in Indian Made Foreign Liquor, Foreign Liquor) Act, 1993, the Andhra Pradesh Beverages Corporation Limited has the exclusive privilege of importing, exporting and carrying on wholesale trade and distribution of Indian Made Foreign Liquor, Foreign Liquor, Wine and Beer on behalf of the Government for the whole of Andhra Pradesh and while doing so the Corporation is deemed as an authority acting on behalf of the Government for the purpose of Section 68-A of the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968. Accordingly the Corporation is exempted from taking out a licence or permit under the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act for carrying on its operations. In terms of Section 23-A of the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968 the entire amount realized by the Corporation from sale of liquor, after deducting the expenses incurred by the Corporation including donations made to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund, shall be paid as Privilege Fee or any other fee by whatever name called to the Commissioner of Prohibition and Excise in the month succeeding the month of sale. Incidentally the reference to the deduction of expenses incurred by the Corporation in Section 23-A was meant to provide for its administrative and operational expenses only such as remuneration paid to employees, various office/depot expenses, cost of travel etc. the above mentioned provision implies that the Corporation is required to conduct transactions in liquor on its own books of accounts while acting as an authority on behalf of the Government. It also gives an impression as if the Government is levying Privilege Fee from itself since the Corporation acts only as an authority under the Government. However, in actual practice, the entire value of liquor purchased from the Corporation is being remitted by the licensees to a Public Deposit account maintained in the Government Treasury. In turn the Government issues Letters of Credit to the Corporation for effecting payment to the liquor suppliers, remitting Government revenues under various heads and defraying its own expenses. It is therefore necessary to bring the required clarification in the statutory provisions relating to the levy and collection of trade margins/privilege fee by the Corporation and remittance of the same to the Government in consonance with the status assigned to the Corporation under Section 4 of the 1993 Act, since the provisions of the Andhra Pradesh (Regulation of Trade on Indian Made Foreign Liquor, Foreign Liquor) Act, 1993 shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968, it is considered more appropriate to incorporate the operative provisions on the above aspects in the 1993 Act by omitting Sections 23-A and 23B in the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968. Accordingly it has been decided to suitably amend the Andhra Pradesh (Regulation of Trade on Indian Made Foreign Liquor, Foreign Liquor) Act, 1993, and the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968, to achieve the above objects. Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 8 of 2010). - The Bill relates to amendment of Sections 34, 37, 37-A and 60 and insertion of new Section 60-A in the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968. The punishment of imprisonment as provided under the following sections of the Act for the offences as specified therein is not deterrent enough to discourage smuggling of intoxicating drugs/liquor in the State, to sell illicit diluted/adulterated liquor so as to reduce the crimes of such nature which sometimes results in grievous hurt or death. 1. Section 34(l)(ii) - illegal import, export, transport, manufacture, possession or sale of intoxicant. 2. Section 37(e)(i) & (ii) - Prints counterfeit excise adhesive labels etc. 3. Section 37-A - Adulteration of liquor with substance which causes grievous hurt or death. With a view to discourage such crimes it is proposed to enhance the minimum imprisonment of one year as provided in the said sections to three years by suitably amending these sections. It is also proposed to make the offences falling under sub-item (ii) of item (1) of Section 34, 37 and 37-A as non-bailable under a new Section 6-A by deleting these sections from the existing Section 60(5). To achieve the above object in view, it is proposed to amend the Sections 34, 37, 37-A and 60 of the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968 suitably. This Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision. Statement Of Objects And Reasons - (Act No. 11 of 2000). - The State Government have been issuing licenses under Sections 13 and 16 of the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968 for all types of Distilleries irrespective of the purpose for which the Rectified Spirit produced by them is put to use i.e., for Industrial purpose or Potable purpose or for both. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India by an order dated 29-1-1997 in W.P.No.322/96 in M/s Bihar Distilleries and others has held that:-(i) in the matter of industries where the manufacture of Rectified Spirit is exclusive for the purpose of obtaining or manufacture potable liquors, such industries shall be under the total and exclusive control of the States in all respects; (ii) in the matter of industries where the manufacture of Rectified Spirit is for both industrial and potable purposes permission to establish and regulate the functioning of distilleries shall be the exclusive domain of the Union; (iii) however, even in regard to industries where the entire Rectified spirit is supplied for industrial purposes or both for industrial and potable purpose, the power of the States to take necessary steps to ensure against misuse or diversion of Rectified Spirit meant for industrial purposes, both during and after manufacture of Rectified Spirit continues unaffected. In view of the said observation of the Apex Court, the Government have decided to amend Sections 13 and 16 of the Andhra Pradesh Excise Act, 1968 so as to restricting the power to grant licenses to those industries manufacturing Rectified Spirit for potable purpose and empowers the Government or officials of Prohibition and Excise Department to regulate all the industries manufacturing the Rectified spirit for potable purpose, or Industrial purpose or for both so as to avoid the misuse or diversion of the Rectified spirit meant for Industrial purpose to be used for potable purpose. Whereas the Andhra Pradesh Excise (Amendment) Bill has been introduced in the Legislative Assembly of the State on 26th November, 1998 as L.A. Bill No. 36 of 1998, the same has lapsed due to dissolution of the tenth Legislative Assembly. This Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision. Appended to L.A. Bill No. 2 of 2000. An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the production, manufacture, possession, transport, purchase and sale of intoxicating liquor and drugs, the levy of duties of excise and countervailing, duties on alcoholic liquors for human consumption and opium, Indian hemp and other narcotic drugs and narcotics and to provide for matters connected therewith in the State of Andhra Pradesh. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Andhra Pradesh in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows
