The Orissa Agricultural Credit Operations and Miscellaneous Provisions (Banks) Act, 1975 Orissa Act No. 43 of 1975 Statement of objects and Reasons - One of the main objectives of the legislation relating to social control of Banks in 1968 and the nationalisation of fourteen major Indian Commercial Banks in 1969 was to ensure that adequate proportion of Commercial Bank credit goes to the agricultural sector and other priority sectors. An examination of the State Laws has shown that there are certain provisions therein which inhibit the entry of Commercial Banks into the field of financing of agriculture. It would, therefore, be necessary to modify these laws for the purpose of enabling Commercial Banks to undertake financing of agriculture on a large scale, and also to facilitate expeditious action, in this regard. The proposed bill is, therefore, being enacted to enable Commercial Banks and other institutional credit agencies to serve expeditiously as an effective instrument of national property, Published vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 547/19.3.1975. An Act to make provisions to facilitate adequate flow of credit for agricultural production and development through banks and other institutional credit agencies and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Orissa in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Republic of India, as follows :

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, an agriculturist who has availed himself of financial assistance from a Bank by creating a charge or mortgage on land or interest therein, shall not, so long as the financial assistance continues to be outstanding, lease out or create any tenancy rights on such land or interest without prior permission in writing of the Bank. (2) Any lease granted or tenancy rights created in contravention of this section shall be void.

Chapter IV

Arrangement for recovery of dues by Banks

9. Removal of bar to attachment and sale by process of Court.

- Nothing in any law shall prevent in any manner a Bank from causing any land, crop, movables or any interest therein charged or mortgaged to it by an agriculturist to secure any financial assistance, to be attached and sold through a Civil Court and applying the proceeds of such sale towards all moneys due to it from that agriculturist including the costs and expenses as may be awarded by the Court.

10. Recovery of dues of a Bank through a prescribed authority.

(1)An officer of the State Government notified by them as the prescribed authority for the purposes of this section may, on the application of a Bank and after such inquiry as he deems proper, make an order on any agriculturist or his heir or legal representative, directing the payment of any sum due to the Bank on account of financial assistance availed of by the agriculturist by the sale of any land or any interest therein upon which the payment of such money is charged or mortgaged :Provided that no order shall be made by the prescribed authority under this section unless the agriculturist or the heir or legal representative of the agriculturist, as the case may be, has been served with a notice by the prescribed authority calling upon him to pay the amounts due.(2)Every order passed by the prescribed authority under Sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree of such Court.(3)Nothing in this section shall debar a Bank from seeking to enforce its rights in any other manner open to it under any other law for the time being in force.

11. Right of a Bank to acquire and dispose immovable property.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force a Bank shall have power to itself acquire agricultural land or interest therein or any other immovable property which has been charged or mortgaged to it by an agriculturist in respect of any financial assistance availed of by him; provided that the said land or interest therein or any other immovable property has been sought to be sold by public auction and no person has offered to purchase it for a price which is sufficient to pay to the Bank the money due to it.(2)A Bank which acquires land or interest therein or any other immovable property in exercise of the power vested in it under Subsection (1), shall dispose it of by sale, within a period to be specified by the State Government in this behalf.(3)If the Bank has to lease out any land acquired by it under Sub-Section (1), pending sale thereof as indicated in Sub-section (2), the period of lease shall not exceed one year at a time and the lessee shall not acquire any interest in that property, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force.(4)A sale by a Bank of land or interest therein in terms of this section shall be subject to the provisions of any law in force which provides for restrictions on purchase of land by non-agriculturists or by person not belonging to a Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Caste or for restriction against fragmentation of land or which provides for a ceiling on acquisition of land.

12. Exemption to Banks from restriction on acquisition of land in excess of ceiling.

- Nothing in any law for the time being in force placing a ceiling or limit on the holding of land shall apply to a Bank acquiring land in terms of Section 11 and holding such land till such time the Bank is in a position to sell the land in the manner provided in that section or otherwise, at a price which is adequate to cover its dues.

Chapter V

Financing of Co-operative Society by Banks

13. Banks eligible to become member of a Co-operative Society.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1962 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963), or in any law for the time being in force, it shall be lawful for a Bank to become a member of a Co-operative Society.

14. Power of Co-operative Societies to borrow from Banks.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1962 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963) it shall be lawful for any Co-operative Society to borrow from a Bank.

15. Inspection of books of Co-operative Society by a Bank.

(1) A Bank shall have the right to inspect the books of any Co-operative Society which has either applied to the Bank for financial assistance or is indebted to the Bank on account of financial assistance granted earlier. (2) The inspection may be carried out by an Officer or any other member of the paid staff of the Bank with the previous sanction in writing of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies. (3) The Officer or any other member of the paid staff of the Bank undertaking such inspection, shall, at all reasonable times, have access to the books of accounts, documents, securities, cash and other properties belonging to or in the custody of the Co-operative Society inspected by him, and shall also be supplied by such society, such information, statements and returns as may be required by him to assess the financial condition of the society and the safety of financial assistance to be made to the society or already made to it.

16. Disputes between a Bank and a Co-operative Society.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any dispute touching the constitution, management or the business of a Co-operative Society between a Bank, financing a Co-operative Society and the Co-operative Society so financed, other than disputes regarding the disciplinary action taken by the society or its committee against a paid employee of the society, shall be referred by either of the parties to the dispute to the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for decision.(2)Where any question arises whether, for purposes of the foregoing Sub-section, a matter referred to for decision is a dispute or not, the question shall be decided by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies whose decision thereon shall be final.

17. Settlement of disputes.

(1)If the Registrar of Co-operative Societies is satisfied that any matter referred to him or brought to his notice is a dispute within the meaning of Section 16, he shall decide the dispute himself or refer it for disposal to a nominee or a Board of nominees appointed by him.(2)Where any dispute is referred under Sub-section (1) for decision to the nominee or Board of nominees, the Registrar may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from his nominee or Board of nominees and may decide the dispute himself or refer it for decision to any other nominee or Board of nominees appointed by him.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 16, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, suspend the proceedings in regard to any dispute if the question at issue between a Co-operative Society and a bank is one involving complicated questions of law and fact until the question has been tried by a regular suit instituted by one of the parties to the dispute and if any such suit is not instituted within two months from the order of the Registrar suspending the proceedings, the Registrar shall take action as is provided in Sub-section (1).

18. Procedure for hearing of dispute.

- The Registrar of Co-operative Societies or his nominee or Board of nominees hearing a dispute under Section 17 shall, as far as practicable, decide the dispute in the manner provided in the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1862 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963) and the rules made thereunder.

19. Decision of Registrar or his nominee or Board of nominees.

(1)When a dispute is referred for decision, the Registrar or his nominee or the Board of nominees may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the parties to the dispute to be heard, make an award on the dispute, on the expenses incurred by the parties to the dispute in connection with the proceedings, on fees and on the expenses payable to the Registrar or his nominee or, as the case may be, the Board of nominees.(2)Any such award shall not be invalid merely on the ground that it was made after the expiry of the period fixed for deciding the dispute and shall, subject to appeal, review or revision as provided under the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1962 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963) be binding on the parties to the dispute.

20. Recovery of money awarded.

- Every award made under Section 19 shall if not carried out, on a certificate signed by the Registrar be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court, and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree of such Court.

21. Powers of a Bank to proceed against defaulting member of a Co-operative Society.

(1) If a Co-operative Society is unable to pay its debts to a Bank from which it has borrowed by reason of its members defaulting in the payment of the moneys due by them, the Bank may direct the committee of such society to proceed against such members by taking action under the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1962 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963). (2) If the Committee of the Co-operative Society fails to proceed against its defaulting members within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of such direction from the Bank, the Bank itself may proceed against such defaulting members in which event, the provisions of the said Act and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder shall apply as if all references to the society or its committee in the said Act, Rules and bye-laws were references to the Bank. (3) Where a Bank has obtained a decree or award against a Cooperative Society indebted to it, the Bank may proceed to recover such moneys firstly from the members of the Co-operative Society and secondly from the members of the Co-operative Society to the extent of their debts due to the society.

22. Audit, inspection and inquiry reports of societies to be available, to Banks.

- The Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall draw the attention of the Bank financing a Co-operative Society to the defects noticed in every audit or inquiry or inspection of such society conducted under the provisions of the Orissa Co-operative Societies Act, 1962 (Orissa Act 2 of 1963) and shall also supply a copy each of such audit, inquiry or inspection report if demanded, in writing, by the Bank.

Chapter VI

Miscellaneous
