Rajasthan Stamp Act 1998(Rajasthan Act No. 14 of 1999)Last Updated 28th September, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 8 of 2017) - At present under section 3-A and section 3-B of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998, surcharges on stamp duty payable only on certain instruments related to immovable property are being levied for the purposes of development of basic infrastructure facilities etc. and propagation of cow and its progeny. With a view to generate more revenue for the aforesaid purposes, the surcharges mentioned above are proposed to be levied on the stamp duty payable on all the instruments included in the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998. Provisions are also proposed to empower the State Government to make rules for collection of surcharge and for regulating the duties and remuneration of the person through whom surcharge is collected. Accordingly, section 3-A and 3-B are proposed to be amended suitably.According to section 5 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998, if the parties execute more than one instrument to complete the single transaction of sale, mortgage or settlement, then only principal instrument of the transaction is chargeable with stamp duty and other remaining instruments of the transaction are not chargeable with stamp duty. Agreement or any other document (memorandum etc.) relating to deposit of title deeds as provided under Article 6 of the said Act is also a kind of mortgage which is usually executed for the purposes of housing or other loans. Section 5 is proposed to be suitably amended to include the instrument of Agreement or any other document (memorandum etc.) relating to deposit of title deeds in the category of instruments mentioned in section 5 and also to prescribe stamp duty of rupees 200/- each on other instruments of the transaction mentioned in section 5.Section 32 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 specifies the party by whom stamp duty is payable in the absence of any agreement between the parties to the instrument to bear the expenses of providing proper stamp duty. Section 32 is proposed to be amended to specify the party by whom stamp duty is payable in case of instruments leave and Licence Agreement, Bank Guarantee, Licence relating to arms or ammunitions, Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) so that it is easier to collect the stamp duty and reconcile it as and when required.Sometimes stamp duty is paid in excess of the requirement and case of refund of the stamp duty charged or paid in excess is made out. To provide relief to the people, section 49 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to make provisions for refund of stamp duty charged or paid in excess of that which is legally chargeable on the instrument at the time of the registration of the instrument. Clause (f) of the Article 5 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to rationalize the rate of stamp duty on agreements relating to any advertisement made for promotion of any product or program or event with an intention to make profits or business out of it. With a view to rationalize the rates as well as method of calculation of stamp duty on the lease deed, Article 33 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended. Article 35-A of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty on the instruments of licence and renewal of licence relating to revolvers or pistols from rupees three thousand to five thousand and one thousand to two thousand respectively. At present concessional rate of stamp duty is applicable on release deed of ancestral property executed in favour of family members mentioned in Article 48 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998. Besides above, lot of ancestral property transaction take place including father's sister and son of predeceased brother also. Therefore, Article 48 is proposed to be amended to include father's sister and son of predeceased brother in the list of family members so as to provide relief in stamp duty also on release deed of ancestral property executed in favour of father's sister or son of predeceased brother. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives. Hence the Bill. Statement of Objects and Reason - (Act No. 5 of 2016). - Sub-section (1) of Section 3-A of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended in consequence of amendment in the Schedule of the Act. With a view to make provision for conservation and propagation of cow and its progeny in the State, a surcharge on stamp duty is proposed to be levied by adding a new Section 3-B in the Act. The proposed surcharge shall not exceed ten percent of the stamp duty chargeable under Section 3 read with the Schedule to the Act. At present, adjudication fee under Section 35 is rupees fifty to two hundred as the Collector may in each case decide. Section 35 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to fix the adjudication fees of rupees five hundred in each case. Section 52 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the time limit prescribed for rectification of the order of the Collector from ninety days to two years. A new Section 52-B is proposed to be inserted to empower the Inspector General of Stamp to redetermine the stamp duty by re-examining such orders of Collector, which are erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of State revenue. Inspector General of Stamp shall not re-examine the orders of Collector which are more than five years old. Due to insertion of Section 52-B, consequential amendment in Section 65 is also proposed. Section 65 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the time limit for filing revision against an order referred to in sub-section (1) of that section on behalf of the State Government from ninety days from date of order to one hundred eighty days from date of communication of the order. Article 1 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty on the instrument of Acknowledgement of a debt from two rupees to ten rupees. Article 2 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to revise the stamp duty on the Administration bond from ten rupees for every hundred rupees, or part thereof of the value of the bond subject to a maximum of one hundred rupees to two percent of the value of bond. Article 3 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to revise the stamp duty on the Adoption Deed from three hundred rupees to one thousand rupees. Article 4 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty on the Affidavit from twenty rupees to fifty rupees. Clause (g) of Article 5 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty on an Agreement or memorandum of an agreement not coming under any specific category from one hundred rupees to five hundred rupees. At present certificates of sale granted in respect of any property sold by public auction by a Civil or Revenue Court, Collector or other Revenue Officer are chargeable under Article 17 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 with stamp duty on the amount of purchase money. Various other authorities are also empowered to sale the property by public auction under various State or Central Acts. Therefore, to bring every certificate of sale within the ambit of stamp duty and also to charge the stamp duty on the amount of purchase money or market value of the property, whichever is higher, the Article 17 is proposed to be suitably amended. Article 18 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to charge the stamp duty on the market value of the shares, scrip or stock instead of the face value of such shares, scrip or stock. The rates of stamp duty on the orders of amalgamation, demerger or reconstruction under Article 21 need to be streamlined in line with the stamp duty being charged in other States. Therefore, to rationalize the rates and to change the method of calculation of stamp duty on the orders of amalgamation or demerger or reconstruction, clause (iii) of Article 21 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended. Article 22 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty from five rupees to one hundred rupees on the copy or extract where original is chargeable with duty of more than one rupee. Article 23 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty from ten rupees to one hundred rupees on the counterpart or duplicate of instruments where original instrument is chargeable with duty of more than three rupees. The present provision of Article 24 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 provides for stamp duty on Supplementary instruments executed to correct clerical errors in any instrument chargeable with duty. Article 24 of the Schedule to the Act is proposed to be amended to also include the supplementary instruments executed to make amendments, not amounting to transfer of interest in any property, and to increase the stamp duty from one hundred rupees to five hundred rupees. Instruments of leave and licence Agreement are generally being executed as an alternative of lease deeds. Therefore, Article 33-A of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to provide for stamp duty on the instruments of leave and licence at par with lease deeds. Article 35 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to increase the stamp duty on the Letter of licence from one hundred rupees to two hundred rupees. A new Article 35-B is proposed to be inserted in the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 to provide for stamp duty on instruments relating to constitution, reconstruction or amalgamation, winding up or dissolution of Limited Liability Partnership and conversion of partnership firms or companies into Limited Liability Partnership. Article 43 of the Schedule to Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be amended to rationalize the rate of stamp duty on instruments of partnership. Clause (a) of Article 48 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 is proposed to be substituted to rationalize the stamp duty in parity with documents of family settlement and partition of ancestral property as well as to redefine family members so as to clearly specify the relatives. Presently, works contracts are charged under Article 58 of the Schedule to the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 with fixed amount of stamp duty according to their classification of value of up to rupees ten lacs, ten to fifty lacs and above fifty lacs. Article 58 of the Schedule to the Act is proposed to be amended to provide ad valorem stamp duty at the rate of 0.25 percent subject to maximum of rupees 15000/- on the amount or value set forth in such contract. Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 21 of 2018). - At present under section 3-B of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998 surcharge at the rate of ten percent is payable on the stamp duty charged on the instruments mentioned in Schedule to the said Act. In order to generate the funds for conservation and propagation of cow and its progeny, the rate of surcharge payable under section 3-B is proposed to be increased from ten percent to twenty percent by amending section 3-B of the said Act. Since the Rajasthan State Legislative Assembly was not in session and circumstances existed which rendered it necessary for the Governor of Rajasthan to take immediate action, he, therefore, promulgated the Rajasthan Stamp (Amendment) Ordinance, 2018 (Ordinance No. 3 of 2018), on 13th June, 2018, which was published in Rajasthan Gazette, Part IV (B), Extraordinary, dated 14th June, 2018. The Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance. Hence the Bill. [Received the assent of the President on the 24th day of March, 1999; Assent first published in the Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part IV-A, dated 15-5-1999] An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Stamps in the State of Rajasthan. B - Of stamps and mode of using them.

10. Duties how to be paid.

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, all duties with which any instruments are chargeable shall be paid and such payment shall be indicated on such instruments by means of stamps,-(a)according to the provisions herein contained, or(b)when no such provision is applicable thereto, as the State Government may, by rule, direct.(2)The rule made under sub-section (1) may, among other matters, regulate,-(a)in the case of each kind of instrument the description of stamps which may be used;(b)in the case of instruments stamped with impressed stamps, the number of stamps which may be used; and(c)in the case of bills of exchange or promissory notes, the size of the paper on which they are written.(3)The Inspector General of Stamps may, subject to such conditions as he may deem fit to impose, authorize use of franking machine or any other machine specified by the State Government, for making impressions on instruments chargeable with duties to indicate payment of duties payable on such instruments.(4)(i)Where the Inspector General of Stamps or the Superintendent of Stamps when authorized by the Inspector General of Stamps in this behalf, is satisfied that having regard to the extent of instruments executed and the duty chargeable thereon, it is necessary in public interest to authorise any person, body or organization to such use to franking machine or any other machine, he may, by order in writing authorize such person, body or organization; and(ii)Every such authorization shall be subject to such conditions, if any, as the Inspector General of Stamps may, by any general or special order, specify in this behalf.(5)The procedure to regulate the use of franking machine or any other machine as so authorized shall be such as the Inspector General of Stamps may, by order determine.(6)An impression made under sub-section (3), (4) and (5), on any instrument, shall have the same effect as if duty of an amount equal to the amount indicated in the impression has been paid, in respect of such instrument by means of stamps, under sub-section (1).Analogous Law. - Section 10 of the repealed Act.

11. Use of adhesive stamps.

- The following instruments may be stamped with adhesive stamps, namely,-(a)instruments chargeable with a duty not exceeding twenty paise except parts of bills of exchange payable otherwise than on demand and drawn in sets;(b)bills of exchange drawn or made out of India and promissory notes so drawn or made;(c)entry as an advocate on the roll of a High Court;(d)notarial acts; and(e)transfers by endorsement of shares in any incorporated company or other body corporate.Analogous Law. - Section 11 of the repealed Act.

12. Cancellation of adhesive stamps.

(1)(a)Whoever affixes any adhesive stamp to any instrument chargeable with duty which has been executed by any person shall, when affixing such stamp, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again;(b)Whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall, at the time of execution, unless such stamps have been already cancelled in the manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.(2)Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again, shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.(3)The person required by sub-section (1) to cancel an adhesive stamp may cancel it by writing on or across the stamp his name or initials or the name or initials of his firm with the true date of his so writing, or in any other effectual manner.Analogous Law. - Section 12 of the repealed Act.

13. Instruments stamped with impressed stamps how to be written.

- Every instrument written upon paper stamped with an impressed stamp shall be written in such manner that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument. Explanation 1. - Where two or more sheets of paper stamped with impressed stamps are used to make up the amount of duty chargeable in respect of any instrument, either a portion of such instrument shall be written on each sheet so used, or the sheet on which no such portion is written shall be signed by the executant or one of the executants, with an endorsement indicating that the sheet is attached to another sheet on which the instrument is written. Explanation 2. - Where a single sheet of paper, not being paper bearing an impressed hundi-stamp, is insufficient to admit the entire instrument being written on the side of the paper which bears the stamp so much plain paper may be sub-joint thereto as may be necessary for completing the writing of such instrument, provided that in every such case, a substantial part of the instrument is written on the sheet which bears the stamp before any part is written on the plain papers sub-joined. Analogous Law. - Section 13 of the repealed Act.

14. Only one instrument to be on same stamp.

- No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written: Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsement which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby. Analogous Law. - Section 14 of the repealed Act.

15. Instrument written contrary to Section 13 or 14 deemed unstamped.

- Every instrument written in contravention of section 13 or section 14 shall be deemed to be not duly stamped. Analogous Law. - Section 15 of the repealed Act.

16. Denoting duty.

- Where duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty, depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last mentioned duty shall, if application is made in writing to the Collector for the purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first mentioned instrument, by endorsement under the hand of the Collector or in such other manner, if any, as the State Government may by the rule prescribe. Analogous Law. - Section 16 of the repealed Act. C- Of the time of stamping instruments

17. Instruments executed in the State.

- All instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in the State shall be stamped before or at the time of execution or immediately thereafter on the next working day following the day of execution. Analogous Law. - Section 17 of the repealed Act.

18. Instruments other than bills and notes executed out of State.

(1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed out of the State and not being a bill of exchange, or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in the State. (2) Where any such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefor, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, who shall stamp the same, in such manner as the State Government may by rule prescribe, with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for. Analogous Law. - Section 18 of the repealed Act.

19. Bills and notes drawn out of India.

- The first holder in the State of any bill of exchange, payable otherwise than on demand or promissory note drawn or made out of India shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers or otherwise negotiates the same in the State, affix thereto the proper stamp and cancel the same: Provided that - (a) if, at the time any such bill of exchange or note comes into the hands of any holder thereof in the State, the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in the manner prescribed under section 12 and such holder has no reason to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled; (b) nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp. Analogous Law. - Section 19 of the repealed Act.

20. Payment of duty on certain instrument liable to increased duty in the State of Rajasthan.

- When any instrument has become chargeable in any part of India other than the State of Rajasthan with duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (Act No. 2 of 1899) or under any other law for the time being in force in such part and thereafter becomes chargeable with a higher rate of duty in the State of Rajasthan under this Act, - (i) the amount of duty chargeable on such instrument shall be the amount chargeable on it under this Act less the amount of duty, if any, already paid on it in India; and (ii) in addition to the stamps, if any, already affixed thereto, such instrument shall be stamped with the stamp necessary for the payment of the amount of duty chargeable on it under clause (i) in the same manner and at the same time and by the same person as though such instrument were an instrument received in this State for the first time, when it became chargeable with the higher duty. Analogous Law. - Section 19-A of the repealed Act.

21. Payment of difference of duty on copies of instruments registered out of the State.

(1)Where any instrument is registered in any part of India other than the State of Rajasthan and such instrument relates, wholly or partly to any property situate in the State of Rajasthan, the copy of such instrument shall, when received in the State of Rajasthan under the Registration Act, 1908 (Act No. 16 of 1908), be liable to be charged with the difference of duty as on the original instrument.(2)The difference of duty shall be calculated having regard to, the extent of property situated in the State of Rajasthan and the proportionate consideration or market value of such extent of property.(3)The party liable to pay duty on the original instrument shall upon receipt of notice from the registering officer, pay the difference of duty within the time allowed by such registering officer.(4)Where deficiency in duty paid is noticed from the copy of any instrument, the Collector may Suo moto or on a reference from any court or any registering officer, require the production of the original instrument before him within the period specified by him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the adequacy of the duty paid thereon, and the instrument so produced before the Collector, shall be deemed to have produced or come before him in the performance of his functions and the provisions of sections 35 and 51 shall, mutatis mutandis apply.(5)In case the original instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require the payment of deficit duty, if any, together with penalty under section 44 on the copy of the instrument, within such time as may be prescribed.D - Of valuation for duty

22. Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currencies.

(1)Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of India, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of India according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.(2)The rate of exchange for conversion of British or any foreign currency into the currency of India, as may be prescribed by the Central Government, under sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (Act No. 2 of 1899) for the purposes of calculating stamp duty, shall be deemed to be the current rate of exchange for the purposes of sub-section (1).Analogous Law. - Section 20 of the repealed Act.

23. Stock and marketable security how to be valued.

- Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.Analogous Law. - Section 21 of the repealed Act.

24. Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price.

- Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped. Analogous Law. - Section 22 of the repealed Act.

25. Instruments reserving interest.

- Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein. Analogous Law. - Section 23 of the repealed Act.

26. Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements.

(1) Where an instrument (not being promissory note or bill of exchange), - (a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or (b) makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer, intended as a security, of any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under Article 5 (c) of the Schedule. (2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty. Analogous Law. - Section 23-A of the repealed Act.

27. How transfer in consideration of debt, or subject to future payment, etc. to be charged.

- Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him, or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or encumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money or stock is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty: Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any such certificate of sale as is mentioned in Article 17 of the Schedule. Explanation. - In the case of a sale of property subject to a mortgage or other encumbrance, any unpaid mortgage money or money charged together with the interest, if any, due on the same, shall be deemed to be part of the consideration for the sale: Provided that, where property subject to a mortgage is transferred to the mortgagee, he shall be entitled to deduct from the duty payable on the transfer the amount of any duty already paid in respect of mortgage. Analogous Law. - Section 24 of the repealed Act.

28. Valuation in case of annuity, etc.

- Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument or the consideration for such conveyance, as the case may be, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be, - (a) where the sum is payable for the definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained such total amount;(b)where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance, the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of twenty years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due; and(c)where the sum is payable for an indefinite time terminable with any life being at the date of such instrument or conveyance the maximum amount which will or may be payable as aforesaid during the period of twelve years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due. Analogous Law. - Section 25 of the repealed Act.

29. Stamp duty where value of subject matter is indeterminate.

- Where the amount or value of the subject matter of any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty, cannot be, or, in the case of an instrument executed before the commencement of this Act, could not have been, ascertained at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount or value for which, it stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient: Provided that, in the case of lease of a mine in which royalty or a share of the produce is received as the rent or part of the rent, it shall be sufficient to have estimated such royalty or the value of such share, for the purpose of stamp duty, -(a) when the lease has been granted by or on behalf of the Government, at such amount or value as the Collector may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, have estimated as likely to be payable by way of royalty or share to the Government under the lease, or (b) when the lease has been granted by any other person, at twenty thousand rupees a year; and the whole amount of such royalty or share, whatever it may be, shall be claimable under such lease: Provided further that, where proceedings have been taken in respect of an instrument under section 35 or 45, the amount certified by the Collector shall be deemed to be the stamp actually used at the date of execution. Analogous Law. - Section 26 of the repealed Act.

30. Facts affecting duty to be set forth in instruments.

(1) The consideration, if any, and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein. (2) In the case of instruments relating to immovable property chargeable with an ad valorem duty on the market value of the property, the instrument shall fully and truly set forth the land revenue in the case of revenue paying land, the annual rental or gross assets, if any, in the case of other immovable property, the local rates, municipal or other taxes, if any, to which such property may be subject, and any other particulars which may be prescribed by rules made under this Act. Analogous Law. - Section 27 of the repealed Act.

31. Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyances.

(1) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, provided that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.(2)Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.(3)Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contract to sell the same to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.(4)Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different person in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without, regard to the amount or value of the original consideration; and the conveyance of the residue, if any, of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the considerations paid by the sub-purchasers:Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than ten rupees.(5)Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be after-wards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller, or, where such duty would exceed fifty rupees, with a duty of fifty rupees.Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, the consideration with respect to an instrument shall, where it relates to chargeability of ad valorem duty, be deemed to be the market value of the property.Analogous Law. - Section 28 of the repealed Act.E - Duty by whom payable

32. Duties by whom payable.

- In the absence of an agreement to the contrary the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne,-(a)in the case of any instrument described in any of the following Articles of the Schedule, namely:-No. 2 (Administration bond),No. 6 (Agreement relating to deposit of title-deeds, pawn or pledge),No. 14 (Bond),No. 15 (Bottomry Bond),No. 25 (Customs Bond),No. 30 (Further charge-instrument of),No. 32 (Indemnity Bond),No. 37 (Mortgage deed),No. 48 (Release),No. 49 (Respondentia Bond),No. 50 (Security bond or Mortgage-deed),No. 51 (Settlement),-by the person drawing, marking or executing such instrument;(b)in the case of a conveyance (including a re-conveyance of mortgaged property)-by the grantee; in the case of a lease or agreement to lease-by the lessee or intended lessee;(bb)[in the case of a leave and licence agreement - by licensee;] Inserted by Rajasthan Finance Act, 2017, dated 31.3.2017in the case of a counterpart of a lease-by the lessor;(cc)[in the case of Bank Guarantee, Licence relating to arms and ammunitions, Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) - by the person in favour of whom instrument is executed;] Inserted by Rajasthan Finance Act, 2017, dated 31.3.2017in the case of an instrument of exchange-by the parties in equal shares;(e)in the case of certificate of sale-by the purchaser of the property to which such certificate relates;(f)in the case of an instrument of partition-by the parties thereto in proportion to their respective shares in the whole property partitioned, or when the partition is made in execution of an order passed by a revenue authority or Civil Court or arbitrator, in such proportion as such authority, Court or arbitrator directs;(ff)[in the case of a works contract or a sub-contract-by the contractor or sub-contractor, as the case may be; and] Inserted by Rajasthan Act 7 of 2004, w.e.f. 27-5-2004.in the case of any other instrument chargeable with stamp duty under this Act by the person executing the instrument.Analogous Law. - Section 29 of the repealed Act.

- Any person receiving any money exceeding [five thousand] [Substituted 'five hundred' by Rajasthan Act No. 15 of 2005, dated 20.5.2005.] rupees in amount, or any bill of exchange, cheque or promissory note for an amount exceeding [five thousand] [Substituted 'five hundred' by Rajasthan Act No. 15 of 2005, dated 20.5.2005.] rupees, or receiving in satisfaction or part satisfaction of a debt, any movable property exceeding [five thousand] [Substituted 'five hundred' by Rajasthan Act No. 15 of 2005, dated 20.5.2005.] rupees in value, shall, on demand by the person paying or delivering such money, bill, cheque, note or property, give a duly stamped receipt for the same and any person receiving or taking credit for any premium or consideration for any renewal of any contract of fire-insurance, shall within one month after receiving or taking credit for such premium or consideration, give duly stamped receipt for the same.Analogous Law. - Section 30 of the repealed Act.

34. Person from whom duty on an instrument is due.

- For the purposes of this Act, the person from whom duty on an instrument is due, is,-(a)the person liable under an agreement or under sections 19, 32 and 33, or(b)where clause (a) does not apply, the executant of the instrument.

Chapter III

Adjudication as to stamps

35. Adjudication as to proper stamp.

(1)When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty, if any, with which it is chargeable, [and pays a fee of five hundred rupees] [Subsituted 'and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding fifty rupees and not less than ten rupees) as the Collector may in each case direct' by Rajasthan Act No. 5 of 2016, dated 9.4.2016.], the Collector shall determine the duty, if any, with which in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable.(2)For this purpose Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the charge ability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly: Provided that, - (a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and (b) every person by whom and such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates, is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid. (3) Where the Collector has reason to believe that the market value of the property has not been truly set forth in the instrument brought to him for determining the duty under sub-section (1) he may, after such inquiry as he may deem proper and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person bringing the instrument, determine the market value of such property for the purpose of duty. Analogous Law. - Section 31 of the repealed Act. Determination of duty and procedure thereon

36. Certificate by Collector.

(1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 35 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and (a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or (b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 35, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable, has been paid. (2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in the manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable. (3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped: Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse any instrument chargeable with a duty not exceeding ten paise or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped: Provided further that, - (a) any instrument executed or first executed in the State and brought to the Collector within one month of its execution or first execution, as the case may be; or (b) any instrument executed or first executed out of State and brought to the Collector within three months after it has been first received in the State; shall be chargeable with duty as applicable at the time of its execution and where any instrument is presented to the Collector after the period specified above, such instrument shall be chargeable with duty as applicable at the time of its presentation and calculated, on the basis of market value, wherever applicable, prevalent on the date of its presentation before the collector and he may certify accordingly. Analogous Law. - Section 32 of the repealed Act.

Chapter IV

Instrument not duly stamped

37. Examination and impounding of instruments.

(1) Every person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of a police, before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same. (2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in the State when such instrument was executed or first executed: Provided that, - (a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter XI or Part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974); (b) in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf. (3) For the purposes of this section in cases of doubt, - (a) the State Government may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and (b) the State Government may determine who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public offices. (4) When a person in charge of a public office, during the course of inspection or otherwise, detects from an instrument or copy thereof or when it appears therefrom to the person referred to in sub-section (1) that the instrument is not duly stamped, such person shall forthwith make a reference to the Collector in that matter.
