(1)Where it is claimed that a place of public worship or other religious institution was receiving from the income of any jagir resumed by Government under the Act a periodical grant of money for a period exceeding six years from the date of resumption, the jagirdar or any interested person may apply to the Collector of the District in which such place of worship or institution is situated for the continuance of the grant.(2)On receipt of an application under sub-rule (1), the Collector shall make an enquiry to ascertain:-(a)whether the place of worship is really meant for worship by the public and not merely for the jagirdar and his family and whether the religious institution is a public institution;(b)whether there is documentary or other sufficient evidence available to show that regular payments were being made to the institution or place of worship from the income of the resumed jagir.(3)After completing the enquiry the Collector shall forward his recommendations to the Commissioner, Devasthan who may after such further enquiry as he may deem necessary submit his recommendations to the Government subject to the annual Appropriation Act.(4)On receipt of the report from the Commissioner, Devasthan the Government may pass such orders for the continuance of such grant or any part thereof as it may deem fit, subject to the Annual Appropriation Act.(5)[(i) Pensions granted by a Jagirdar or other competent authority to the employee of a jagir in which pension rules were introduced before the year 1949, shall continue to be paid. Sanction for such payment shall be issued by the Collector of the District concerned except that the cases of those employees who held posts in a Jagir which were equivalent to Gazetted posts in the integrating State shall be forwarded by the Collector to Government through the jagir Commissioner for orders. He shall forward the sanction to the Accountant General, Rajasthan along with the old pension payment order to enable the Accountant General to issue new pension payment order. In cases where formal pension payment orders were not issued by the Jagirdar or other competent authority and the payment of pension was regulated on the basis of entries made in the pension disbursement register, the Collector shall forward full details of the pensions to the Accountant General with the formal sanction of the pension in each case. Since the Government liability for payment of pension does not arise before the date of resumption, the Collector should take particular care to see that no payment for the period prior to the date of resumption is made.(ii)Cases of pension sanctioned by the Jagirdar or other competent authority in a Jagir in accordance with the well established custom shall be examined by the Jagir Commissioner. A statement of such cases along with complete information about the pensions shall be forwarded by the Collector to the Jagir Commissioner. The Jagir Commissioner, if satisfied that the payment of pension is in accordance with a well established custom, shall issue orders for its payment or payment of a part thereof. The amount shall be determined by him after taking into consideration to nature of services of pensioner, except that the cases of those employees who held posts in a Jagir which were equivalent to Gazetted post in the integrating State shall be forwarded by the Jagir Commissioner to the Government for orders.(iii)Grants of Hinhayat and Parwarish made by a Jagirdar before the year 1949, which are in the nature of compassionate allowances and family pension shall be examined by the Collector and recommended to the Jagir Commissioner with his opinion in each case. The jagir Commissioner shall examine these cases in consulting with the Finance Department of the Government and shall issue orders for payment of the full amount or any part thereof, after taking into consideration the age of the grantee, his financial resources and other relevant factors including the service of the Finance Department].(iv)[Where a Jagirdar was liable to pay to a Jagir employee, out of income of his Jagir land resumed under the Act, pension in accordance with same specific rules in that behalf, or well established custom, and such Jagir employees was retired, or discharged or his services were terminated by the Jagirdar immediately before the date of resumption of the Jagir land, pension in accordance with such rules or in the absence of specific Thikana Pension Rules, the pension rules of the Covenanting State in which the Jagir land was situated or where such Covenanting State had no pension rules, in accordance with the Rajasthan Service Rules, may be granted to such Jagir employee, the pension papers being prepared by the Deputy Collector, Jagirs and after verification by the Accountant General, Rajasthan, sanction being obtained from the Jagir Commissioner when the amount of monthly pension does not exceed Rs. 50/-, and from the State Government in other cases. [Inserted by Notification No. F. 22(61) Revenue/D/III/59, dated 12-10-1962, published in Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-C, Ordinary, dated 29-11-1962.]Note. - Reference to the provisions of the Rajasthan Service Rules in the above clause shall not include provisions regarding the grant of Death-cum-Retirement gratuity and family pensions.]Chapter-VII Payment of Compensation

37. Statement of compensation.

- The statement of claim required to be filed under sub-section (1) of section 31 of the Act shall be in Form 5 [or Form 5-A] [Inserted by Notification No. 4402/F. 1(144) Revenue A/58, dated 16-6-58, published in Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-C, dated 31-7-58.] and shall be in duplicate.[It shall be signed by the Jagirdar himself provided that the Jagir Commissioner may entertain a statement signed by any other person duly authorised by the Jagirdar, if he is satisfied that the Jagirdar was unable to sign, it owing to a physical disability or any other sufficient reason.] [Added by Notification No. 9726/F. 4(361) Revenue A/54, dated 24-7-1956, published in Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-C, dated 4-8-1956.]

37A. [Scrutiny of the income from jagir forests [Inserted by Notification No. 4402/F. 1(144) Revenue A/58, dated 16-6-58, published in Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-C, dated 31-7-58.]

- Where a claim for compensation by the Jagirdar is based wholly or in part of income from Jagir forests, the Jagir Commissioner may call upon any Officer or the Forest Department of the Government not below the rank of Divisional Forest Officer, to inspect the forest and submit his report about the estimate of income from the Jagir forests. The said Officer shall, for the purposes of determining the forest income, call upon the Jagirdar to furnish information in Form No. 8 within a period of one month. If such statement is not filed by the Jagirdar within the said period, the said Forest Officer may after holding a summary inquiry make his recommendations to the Jagir Commissioner. The Jagirdar shall be given an opportunity of hearing and participation in the said inquiry. The inquiry shall not be subject to the provisions of rule 45. On receipt of the recommendation of the Forest Officer, the Jagir Commissioner shall, after giving the Jagirdar an opportunity of hearing, and after hearing such other person as he may like to be heard make an order determining the period and the average annual income from the Jagir forest, recording his reason therefor.

37B. Scrutiny of income from mines, etc.

- Where a claim of a Jagirdar is based wholly or in part upon the income from mines and quarries the Jagir Commissioner may call upon a Gazetted Officer of the Mining and Geology Department of the Government to inspect the area concerned for checking the figures, or to submit a report, with respect to the income from the mines and quarries. The income shall be verified by the said officer after comparison with the actual income of the three years preceding the year for which the average income is taken. Where the said officer proposes to reduce the figure given by the Jagirdar he shall, if he is himself an Assistant Director of Mines, proceed to estimate the income. If he is not himself an Assistant Director of Mines, he shall move the Assistant Director of Mines of the area concerned to estimate the income. Such estimate of income shall be made after a consideration of and after giving the Jagirdar an opportunity of being heard on the following points:-(i)Where royalties are payable on account of mines and minerals, the average income on account of the royalties calculated on the basis of the annual return filed by the Jagirdar for the assessment of cess or income-tax during the period of 6 years preceding the agricultural year in which the date of resumption of the Jagir falls or any short period for which such returns have been filed.(ii)Where royalties are not so payable to the Jagirdar and the mines are worked directly by the Jagirdar, the average annual income from such mines calculated on the same basis as is specified in clause (i)On such estimate being ready, the Assistant Director of Mines who has prepared the estimate shall forward it with his recommendations to the Jagir Commissioner shall, after hearing the Jagirdar and such other persons as he may like to be heard, shall make an order determining the period of the average annual income from the mines and quarries of the Jagirdars, recording his reason therefor. The inquiry under this rule before Officers of the Mining Department shall not be subject to the provisions of rule 45.

37C. Determination of the dues and debts owned by the jagirdar.

- (i) For the purpose of determining the amount recoverable from the Jagirdar under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 22 of the Act, a notice shall be issued to the Jagirdar in Form No. 9, calling upon him to pay up the dues and debts within a period of one month from the date of receipt of notice, to file objections if any within the said period. The notice shall be issued by the Collector concerned, or in the case of departmental loans and dues, by the Head of the Office or the Department concerned, or in the case of loans advanced directly from the Government Treasury, State Bank of Fund, by a Secretary, Deputy Secretary or Assistant Secretary to the government in the Finance Department. (2) If the Jagirdar submits any objection in reply to the said notice, it shall be decided by the authority issuing the notice. The objections shall be decided within 2 months of the date of its receipt by such authority. (3) On the decision of the objections, or, if no objection is received, on the expiry of the period allowed therefor, the authority concerned shall send to the Jagir Commissioner a certificate in Form No. 10 furnishing details of the dues and debts outstanding on the date of the certificate. Such certificate shall in no case enter the amount of dues or the rate of interest at a figure or a rate higher than that mentioned in the notice under sub-rule (1). Where an objection has been filed by the Jagirdar within the time allowed for it, no decision shall be given unless the Jagirdar has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against it. (4) On receipt of the certificate in Form No. 10 sent under sub-rule (3), the Jagir Commissioner shall effect the deduction of the amount as entered in the certificate from the compensation (including rehabilitation grant) as provided by sub-section (1) of section 34 and section 38C of the Act. He shall also send an intimation of such deduction to the authority issuing the certificate in Form No. 10. That authority shall take necessary steps for adjustment of the recovery so effected, and further recovery of the balance, if any, that might remain outstanding against the Jagirdar. [Provided that in case of the Jagirdars whose financial position is not good, the deduction of the Rehabilitation Grant effected under this Rule shall not exceed:-(i) 50% in the case of jagirdars having an income below Rs.5,000/- per annum. (ii) 66½% in the case of jagirdars having an income above Rs.5,000/- and below 30,000/- per annum. (iii) 80% in the case of jagirdars having an income of Rs.30,000/- and above, per annum.] (5) Where, after the issue of one notice under sub-rule (1) in Form No. 9, a higher amount of the due is found to be recoverable from a Jagirdar, the authority concerned shall issue immediately a supplementary notice to the Jagirdar, which shall also be in Form No. 9. Subsequent procedure with respect to the amount mentioned in the supplementary notice shall be governed by the provisions contained above for the first notice. (6) Where a dispute arises as to the proper authority to deal with a debt or dues recoverable from a Jagirdar under this rule, the matter shall be referred to the Government in the Finance Department, whose decision shall be final.

37D. Inquiry in respect of persons in receipt of maintenance allowance.

(1) For the purpose of determining the persons entitled to receive the maintenance allowance and the amount to be paid to them under section 27, the Jagir Commissioner shall, (after the resumption of a Jagir), by notification in the Rajasthan Gazette and in one or more important newspapers circulating in Rajasthan, call upon persons who under any existing Jagir law are entitled to receive such maintenance allowance and who are desirous of receiving it out of the compensation to be paid to the Jagirdar to apply to the Collector of the District in which the head-quarters of the Jagir are situated. A period shall be specified in the said notification for the submission of the application. The application shall be submitted in duplicate in Form No. 11. If no such application is submitted within the period mentioned in the notification, it shall be presumed that the person entitled to receive a maintenance allowance is not desirous of getting his maintenance allowance under the Act.(2)Where an application in Form No. 11 has been received, the Collector of the District shall forward soon as may be after its receipt and in any case not later than 15 days after its receipt, a copy of the same to the Jagirdar concerned, asking the Jagirdar to state within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the same, if he has any objection in respect of the facts mentioned in the application, and, in particular, in respect of the continuance of the maintenance allowance. The Jagirdar shall, within one month of the receipt of such communication from the Collector send his reply in writing to the Collector giving full reasons for it, and shall return the copy of the application also. If no objections are received by the Jagirdar within the said period it shall be, presumed that he has no objection to the maintenance allowance stated in the application being continued and deducted out of the compensation and rehabilitation grant payable to him.(3)The Collector shall, whether any objections have been received or not from a Jagirdar under sub-rule (2), hold such inquiry as he may deem necessary in respect of the persons entitled to receive the maintenance allowance under section 27 and the amount to be paid to them, and shall forward his re-commendation to the Jagir Commissioner who may after such inquiry or further inquiry as he may deem necessary, fix the amount of maintenance allowance under section 27 of the Act.(4)Where a person has submitted an application in Form No. 11 within the required period or where the Jagirdar has submitted an objection in respect thereof within the required period, no recommendation shall be made and no order shall be passed by the Collector or the Jagir Commissioner under this sub-rule to the prejudice of the applicant for maintenance allowance or the Jagirdar without giving them a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(5)Notwithstanding anything contained above, the Collector may entertain an application in Form No. 11 or any objection with respect thereto after the required period, if he is satisfied that the maintenance holder or the Jagirdar was prevented by sufficient causes from submitting the same within said period.

37E. Inquiry in respect of co-shares.

- For the purpose of determining the amount, if any, payable to co-shares under section 29 of the Act, the same procedure shall be followed as is prescribed by rule 37-D for determining the persons entitled to receive maintenance allowance under section 27 and the amount payable to them, and the provisions of rule 37D shall be followed with such modifications as may be necessary, and with the further modification that the application by the co-shares shall be in Form No. 12.] [Added by Notification No. 18170/F. 1(233) Revenue A/58, dated 14-2-1959, published in Rajasthan Gazette Part IV-C, dated 16-4-1959.]
