14. Verification .-(a) As soon as a man is enrolled, his character, antecedents, connections and age shall be verified in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Central Government from time to time. The Verification Roll shall be sent to the District Magistrate or Deputy Commissioner of the District of which the recruit is a resident.

(b)The Verification Roll shall be in CRP Form-25 and after verification shall be attached to the Character and Service Roll of the member of the Force concerned.(c)The Commandant may waive verification in the case of men who have been enrolled in the Force within six months of their discharge from the regular Army.

15. Plural marriages .-No member of the Force who has wife living shall contract any other marriage without first obtaining the permission of the Government notwithstanding that such subsequent marriage is permissible under the personal law for the time being applicable to the member of the Force.

16. Period of service .-(a) All members of the Force shall be enrolled for a period of three years. During this period of engagement, they shall be liable to discharge at any time on one month's notice by the appointing authority. At the end of this period those not given substantive status shall be considered for quasi-permanency under the provision of the Central Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1965. Those not declared quasi-permanent under the said rules shall be continued as temporary Government employees unless they claim discharge as per Schedule to the Act. Those who are temporary shall be liable to discharge on one month's notice and those who are quasi-permanent shall be liable to discharge on three months' notice in accordance with the said rules, as amended from time to time.

(b)Should the Central Government decide at any time to disband the Force or any part of it either before termination of the period for which a member of the Force is enrolled or at any time thereafter, he shall be liable to discharge, without compensation from the date of disbandment.(c)No member of the Force shall withdraw from the duties of his office without the express permission of the Commandant or an accredited Gazetted Officer.(d)The appointing authority may, during the period of initial appointment of a member of the Force appointed under [sections 4 and 5] of the Act, permit him, for good and sufficient reason, to resign from the Force with effect from such date as may be specified in the order accepting his resignation:Provided that on the acceptance of his resignation any such member of the Force shall be required to refund to the Government all the cost of training imparted to him in the Force or a sum equal to three months' pay and allowances, received by him prior to the date of his resignation whichever is less.Explanation .-(1) For the purpose of this sub-clause "during the period of initial appointment" shall mean the period before a member of the Force is declared quasi-permanent.(2)The appointing authority may refuse to permit a member of the Force to resign if any emergency has been declared in the country either due to internal disturbances or external aggression.(e)The appointing authority may give substantive status to such members of the Force as are found suitable in all respect.

17. Discharge .-Subject to the provisions of the Schedule appended to the Act, any member of the Force shall at any time before he has completed three months' service or after the completion of the full period of service for which he is engaged, be entitled to claim his discharge from the Force by applying to his appointing authority through the proper channel.

[17-A. Recoveries on resignation and discharge.-A member of the Force seeking resignation under rule 16 or discharge under rule 17 from service shall be required to refund to the Government a sum equal to three months pay and allowances received by him or her prior to the resignation or discharge, as the case may be, or the cost of training imparted to him or her in the Force, whichever is higher:Provided that in the case of a member of the force seeking discharge from service under rule 17 within the period of three months from the date of enrolment, the sum equal to three months pay and allowances shall be calculated with reference to three months pay and allowances which would have been received but for discharge:Provided further that a member of the Force tendering resignation of seeking discharge from service for accepting a job under the Central or State Governments or local bodies, after having been granted cadre clearance for the same, shall not be required to refund the sum as provided hereinabove.]

18. Discharge certificate .-Every member on leaving the Force shall be entitled to a discharge certificate in the prescribed Form CRP-26.

19. Travelling allowance to men discharged at their own request .-(a) Any member of the Force who claims his discharge on completion of his initial period of engagement or any time thereafter shall on being discharged be entitled to receive one single railway fare of the class to which he is entitled under the rules applicable to servants of the Central Government from the place of his discharge to the railway station nearest to his home.

(b) Any member of the Force entitled to be discharged at his own request, but who cannot be discharged owing to the exigencies of the service, shall retain his title to the above concession when the discharge is effected.

20. Travelling allowance admissible to men discharged otherwise than at their own request .-(1) Any member of the Force discharged otherwise than at his own request shall be entitled to a free railway pass of the class to which he is entitled under the rules applicable to servant of the Central Government to the railway station nearest to his home. In the case of a member of the Force discharged for inefficiency the grant of the concession shall be subject to the condition that the Commandant is satisfied that the inefficiency is not due to wilful negligence. This concession shall not be admissible to a person discharged for misconduct.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), the Commandant may, where he considers it necessary to do so for the purpose of maintaining and preserving discipline in the Unit or sub-Unit to which the member released from the Quarter Guard belongs, make an exception and issue a free railway pass to such member as mentioned in sub-rule (1).

21. Travelling allowance admissible to members of his family in the event of member of the Force being declared medically unfit .-If a member of the Force has his family residing at a place which is the Headquarters of the Force prior to his having been declared medically unfit he shall also be entitled to a free railway pass of the same class to which he is entitled for each and every member of his family (as defined in Fundamental Rules), from the Headquarters of the Force to the railway station nearest to his home.

[Notes .-1. When the post of Deputy Inspector-General remains unfilled for a period of over one month at a time the Commandant shall exercise the powers of punishing the Subedars (Inspectors) and Sub-Inspectors except the powers of ordering dismissal or removal from the Force.

2. When the post of Commandant remains unfilled for a period of over one month at a time consequent on the incumbent proceeding on leave or otherwise, the Assistant Commandant shall exercise the powers of punishment vested in the Commandant, except the powers of ordering dismissal or removal from the Force.

Explanation .-(a) Dismissal of a member of the Force precludes him from being re-employed in Government service, while removal of any such member from the Force shall not be disqualification for any future employment (other than an employment in the Central Reserve Police Force) under the Government.(b)When non-Gazetted Officers or men of the various ranks are to be punished for any offence, a departmental enquiry, if necessary under clause (a) , shall be held by the Commandant or other superior officer under the orders of the Commandant, provided that when the charge is against an officer of the rank of Subedar (Inspector) or Sub-Inspector the enquiry shall be held by an authority to be designated for the purpose by the Deputy Inspector-General. Where the officer conducting the enquiry in the case of a Subedar (Inspector) or a Sub-Inspector considers that a punishment [under items (1) to (5) and (7)] [Substituted by G.S.R. 631, dated 27.8.1983.] of the Table is called for, he shall complete the departmental proceedings and forward the departmental proceedings and forward the same to the Deputy Inspector-General for orders.(c)The procedure for conducting a departmental enquiry shall be as follows:-(1)The substance of the accusation shall be reduced to the form of a written charge, which should be as precise as possible. The charge shall be read out to the accused and a copy of it given to him at least 48 hrs. before the commencement of the enquiry.(2)At the commencement of the enquiry the accused shall be asked to enter a plea of "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" after which evidence necessary to establish the charge shall be let in. The evidence shall be material to the charge and may either be oral or documentary, if oral;(i)it shall be direct;(ii)it shall be recorded by the Officer conducting the enquiry himself in the presence of the accused;(iii)the accused shall be allowed to cross examine the witnesses.(3)When documents are relied upon in support of the charge, they shall be put in evidence as exhibits and the accused shall, before he is called upon to make his defence, be allowed to inspect such exhibits.(4)The accused shall then be examined and his statement recorded by the officer conducting the enquiry. If the accused has pleaded guilty and does not challenge the evidence on record, the proceedings shall be closed for orders. If he pleads "Not guilty", he shall be required to file a written statement, and a list of such witnesses as he may wish to cite in his defence within such period, which shall in any case be not less than a fortnight, as the officer conducting enquiry may deem reasonable in the circumstances of the case. If he declines to file a written statement, he shall again be examined by the officer conducting the enquiry on the expiry of the period allowed.(5)If the accused refuses to cite any witnesses or to produce any evidence in his defence, the proceedings shall be closed for orders. If he produces any evidence the officer conducting the enquiry shall proceed to record the evidence. If the officer conducting the enquiry considers that the evidence of any witness or any document which the accused wants to produce in his defence is not material to the issues involved in the case, he may refuse to call such witness or to allow such document to be produced in evidence, but in all such cases he must briefly record his reasons for considering the evidence inadmissible. When all relevant evidence has been brought on record, the proceedings shall be closed for orders.(6)If the Commandant has himself held the enquiry, he shall record his findings and pass orders where he has power to do so. If the enquiry has been held by any officer other than the Commandant, the officer conducting the enquiry shall forward his report together with the proceedings, to the Commandant, who shall record his findings and pass orders, where he has power to do so.[* * *] Sub-Clause (7) deleted by G.S.R. 75, dated 26.1.1980.[Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule--(i)where any penalty is imposed on a member of the Force on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge; or(ii)where the authority competent to impose the penalty is satisfied for reasons to be recorded by it in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to hold an enquiry in the manner provided in these rules; or(iii)where [the Special Director-General or Additional Director heading zone or Director-General] is satisfied that in the interest of security of the State, it is not expedient to hold any enquiry in the manner provided in these rules, the authority competent to impose the penalty may consider the circumstances of the case and make such orders thereon as it deems fit.(ccc)When a member of the Force has been tried and acquitted by a Criminal Court, he shall not be punished departmentally under this rule on the same charge or on a similar charge upon the evidence cited in the criminal case, whether actually led or not, except with the prior sanction of the Inspector-General.] Inserted by S.O. 3117, dated 15.7.1971.(1) Where two or more members of the Force, including those on deputation to the Force are concerned in any case, the Inspector-General [or any other authority competent to impose the penalty of dismissal from service on all such members of the Force] [Inserted by S.O. 3117, dated 15.7.1971.] may make an order directing that disciplinary action against all of them may be taken in a common proceeding. Note .-Where in such a proceeding, the misconduct of a deputationist is to be dealt with, the consent of the disciplinary authority competent to impose the penalty of dismissal shall be obtained for the taking of such a disciplinary action. (2) Such order shall specify--(i) the authority which may function as the disciplinary for such a common proceeding; (ii) the penalties specified in the table of sub-rule (a) above which such disciplinary authority shall be competent to impose; (iii) whether such disciplinary authority shall hold the Departmental enquiry himself or may designate any other enquiry officer for that purpose; and (iv) that the enquiry shall be held in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (a) and sub-rule (c). [27-A. Suspension.-The suspension of any of the non-Gazetted Officers and men of the ranks specified in column (1) of the Table below may be ordered pending enquiry into any serious misconduct against such person by the authority specified against his rank in column (2) of the said table:-

-B. Responsibilities of members of the Force during suspension .-(1) A member of the Force shall not by reason of his suspension cease to be a member of the Force, during the period of his suspension, the powers vested in him as such member shall be in abeyance, but he shall be subject to the same responsibilities, discipline and penalties to which he would have been subject if he were on duty. (2) Every such member shall during the period of his suspension stay at Battalion Headquarters or Detachment Headquarters as the Commandant or suspending authority may direct: Provided that the Commandant or suspending authority may, for special reasons, grant permission in writing to the member to stay elsewhere. (3) A member under suspension shall deposit his arms and belt, if any, with the Quarter Master or suspending authority. (4) A member under suspension shall not be employed on guard duty or any such duty which might entail exercise of his power as a member of the Force, nor shall be issued arms and ammunition. He shall not be detailed as motor transport driver or signal operator. (5) A member of the Force under suspension shall be allowed reasonable facilities for the preparation of his defence.] [Substituted by G.S.R. 75, dated 14.1.1980.]

28. Appeal .-(a) Every subordinate officer or personnel of any other rank below him against whom an order under serial number 1 to 7 of the table in rule 27 or under clauses (d) and (e) of Section 13 is passed is entitled to prefer an appeal against such order to the Director-General, if the original order was passed by the Special Director-General or Additional

Director-General heading zone and to the Special Director-General or Additional Director-General heading Zone, if the original order was passed by the Inspector-General and to the Inspector-General, if the original order was passed by the Deputy Inspector-General and to the Deputy Inspector-General, if the original order was passed by the Commandant.]

(b) No appeal shall lie against an order by the competent authority inflicting any of the punishments mentioned in--(1)[Serial Nos. 8 to 11 of the Table in rule 27;] Substituted by G.S.R. 631, dated 10.8.1983.Clauses (a) , (b) and (c) of section 13;(3)Against an order discharging recruit before the termination of his period of training.(c)[Every appeal preferred under these rules shall contain all material statements and arguments relied upon by the person preferring the appeal. It shall contain no disrespectful or improper language or irrelevant allegations and it shall be complete in itself. Petitions or appeals filed by members of the Force are not chargeable with stamp duty. Copies of other documents filed with the appeal shall be stamped under section 6 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, unless they have to be stamped under article 24 of Schedule I of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899.] Substituted by G.S.R. 1618, dated 29.10.1976.Every appeal, whether the appellant is still in the Force or not, shall be preferred through the Commandant and shall not be sent direct to the appellate authority.(e)An appeal which is not filed within 30 days of the date of the original order, exclusive of the time taken to obtain a copy of the order or record, shall be barred by limitation:Provided the appellate authority may entertain time barred appeal if deemed fit.(f)The Commandant may withhold [an appeal to the appellate authority senior to him] [Substituted for the words "an appeal to the Inspector-General or Deputy Inspector-General" by Notification No. GSR 95 (E) dated 13.2.2012 (w.e.f. 24.2.1955)] in cases--(1)where under these rules no appeal lies;(2)where the appeal does not comply with the provisions of sub-rule (c) , (d) or (e) above;(3)where it is a further appeal presented after a final decision has been given by the competent appellate authority and no new facts have been brought out necessitating reconsideration of the case:Provided that in every case in which an appeal is withheld the person preferring the appeal shall be informed of the fact together with brief reasons therefor;(g)No appeal shall lie against an order withholding of an appeal by a competent authority:Provided that in cases of failure to comply with the conditions stated in sub-rule (c) or (d) above, the appeal shall not be withheld if it is preferred again in the prescribed form in conformity with the rules and is not time barred.(h)A quarterly statement of all appeals withheld with brief reasons in respect of each appeal shall be furnished by the Commandant to the Deputy Inspector-General.

29. Revision .-(a) A member of the Force whose appeal has been rejected by a competent authority may prefer petition for revision to the next Superior Authority. The power of revision may be exercised only when in consequence of some material irregularity, there has been injustice or miscarriage of justice or fresh evidence is disclosed.

(b)The procedure prescribed for appeals under sub-rules (c) to (g) of rule 28 shall apply mutatis mutandis to petitions for revision.(c)[The next superior authority] while passing orders on a revision petition may at its discretion enhance punishment: Provided that before enhancing the punishment the accused shall be given an opportunity to show cause why his punishment should not be enhanced: [Provided further that an order enhancing the punishment shall, for the purpose of appeal, be treated as an original order except when the same has been passed by the Government in which case no further appeal shall lie, and an appeal against such an order shall lie, - (i) to the Inspector-General, if the same has been passed by the Deputy Inspector-General; and (ii) to the Special Director-General or Additional Director-General heading Zone, if the same has been passed by the Inspector-General; and (iii) to the Director-General, if the same has been passed by the Special Director-General or Additional Director-General heading Zone; and (iv) to the Central Government, if the same has been passed by the Director-General.] (d) [The Director-General [or [Special Director-General or the Additional Director-General heading the Zone] [Substituted by G.S.R. 476, dated 22.4.1980.]] or the Inspector-General] or the Deputy Inspector-General may call for the records of award of any punishment and confirm, enhance, modify or annul the same, or make or direct further investigation to be made before passing such orders: Provided that in a case in which it is proposed to enhance punishment, the accused shall be given an opportunity to show cause either orally or in writing as to why his punishment should not be enhanced.

30. Petitions .-A Subordinate Officer or an officer of any other rank below him including an enrolled follower who has any grievance may present a petition subject to the condition that it should be addressed to the officer of the lowest rank who is empowered to pass the desired order.

31. Desertion and absence without leave .-(a) If a member of the force who becomes liable for trial under clause (f) of section 9, or clause (m) of section 10 or for deserting the Force while not on active duty under clause (p) of section 10 read with clause (f) of section 9, does not return of his own free will or is not apprehended within sixty days of the commencement of the desertion, absence or overstaying of leave, then the Commandant shall assemble a Court of Inquiry consisting of at least one Gazetted Officer and two other members who shall be either superior or Subordinate Officers to inquire into the desertion, absence or overstaying of leave of the offender and such other matters as may be brought before them.

(b) The Court of Inquiry shall record evidence and its findings. The Court's record shall be admissible in evidence in any subsequent proceedings taken against the absentee. (c) The Commandant shall then publish in the Force Order the findings of the Court of Inquiry and the absentee shall be declared a deserter from the Force from the date of his illegal absence, but he shall not thereby cease to belong to the Force. This shall, however be no bar to enlisting another man in the place of a deserter.

32. Orderly Room .-(a) Report of petty cases of misconduct and indiscipline should as far as possible be inquired into and disposed off in Orderly Room by an officer authorised to award petty punishment under sub-section (3) of section 11 read with rule 27 to any member of the Force who is for the time being subject to his authority. Inquiries in the Orderly Room shall be held on two or more fixed days in a week.

(b) If the offence calls for more severe punishment than the officer dealing with it is authorised to inflict, he shall--(1) if at Headquarters, have the accused brought before the Commandant; (2) if away from Headquarters forward the record with his recommendations to the Commandant for orders; (3) proceedings of such inquiries shall be recorded in the Orderly Room Register.

33. Entry of punishment in Service Roll .-A punishment whether judicial or departmental shall be entered in the Service Roll of the offender.

34. Report on judicial proceedings .-The Commandant shall submit a brief to the Deputy Inspector-General on every case in which a Member of the Force has been convicted by a Court of Law.

35. [Loss or damage to arms, ammunition and property

.- (1) In all cases of loss or serious damage to arms, ammunition or other Government property, where such loss or damage exceeds Rs. 100 in the case of arms and ammunition, and Rs. 500 in the case of other Government property, the Commandant shall assemble a Court of Inquiry consisting of the Assistant Commandant (if available) or the senior superior officer present as the president and two superior or subordinate officers as members. (2) The Court shall inquire into the case, record evidence and submit findings in Form A.F.A. 2 to the Commandant. (3) On receipt of the findings under sub-rule (2), the Commandant may, if the total value of the loss or damage does not exceed Rs. 1,000 pass orders that the loss or damage be written off. (4) If the total value of the loss exceeds Rs. 1,000 but does not exceed Rs. 2,000, the Commandant shall submit the findings to the Deputy Inspector-General of Police who may pass orders for writing off such loss or damage. (5) If the total value of the loss exceeds Rs. 2,000, the Commandant shall submit the findings through the Deputy Inspector-General of Police to the Inspector-General of Police or the Director-General, as the case may be, within the competence of such authority, as provided for in the Delegation of Financial Powers Rules, or other orders as may be notified from time to time, who may pass orders for writing off such loss or damage. (6) In case of loss or damage to arms and ammunition or other Government property where such loss or damage does not exceed Rs. 100 in the case of arms and ammunition and Rs. 500 in the case of other Government property, it shall be dealt with the Commandant in the Orderly Room after a summary enquiry by a Gazetted Officer.] [Substituted by G.S.R. 476, dated 22.4.1980.]

The clause or clauses of this rule under which they are granted should also be mentioned in the order sanctioning the rewards;(iii)Rewards shall not be sanctioned on request.]

54. Force deductions .-The Commandant is authorised to make deductions from amounts due to members of the Force in satisfaction of money owed by them to messing and other funds of the Force, provided that members of the Force are not asked to make any new contributions without the prior approval of the Inspector-General.

Chapter IX

Rules For Promotion

Section I-General Principles

55. Merit .-(a) All promotions shall be governed by merit. Other things being equal seniority shall count for promotion. For promotion, a member of the Force must be qualified and recommended by the Commandant, Assistant Commandant or Company Commander, as the case may be.

(b)For exceptional reasons, the Commandant may promote an unqualified Head Constable to the rank of Sub-Inspector or an unqualified Sub-Inspector to the rank of Subedar (Inspector) with the prior approval of the Deputy Inspector-General or Inspector-General respectively, provided that such promotions in either case do not exceed ten per cent. of the sanctioned strength in such ranks.

56. Seniority .-Ordinarily a senior member of the Force who is qualified and recommended shall be promoted. Any member of the Force having unsatisfactory record either from the point of view of work or conduct, may be suspended. On the other hand, any member of the Force having exceptional qualification may be given accelerated promotion out of turn.

57. Determination of seniority [of Members of the Force other than the Gazetted Officers]

.-Seniority shall depend on the date of confirmation in each rank; provided that a person whose period of probation is extended for the reason that he is not qualified and provided further that this non-qualification is due to circumstances beyond his control, shall retain his seniority according to the date of his promotion to a rank in a clear vacancy, if he attains the necessary qualifications at the earliest available opportunity.

58. Probationary period .-An officer promoted in permanent vacancy shall be on probation for one year in the rank to which promoted. He may be reverted at any time during the probationary period but, if not reverted shall ordinarily be confirmed on conclusion of the probationary period. In special circumstances the probationary period may be extended by the officer authorised to order the promotion. Confirmation shall count from the date on which a member of the Force is promoted on probation in a clear vacancy.

IGP CRP's Order No. D. III-9/63, dated 1st January, 1965 In view of the instructions contained in the office Memorandum No. F.1/10/64 Estt(d), dated the 14th January, 1965, of the Ministry of Home Affairs, it is stressed that the Competent authorities for confirmation and promotion in the CRP should ensure that every officer or man or clerk to be considered for promotion or confirmation is upright and honest. IGP CRP's No. C.VI-I/64-65, dated 7th October, 1965 and 27th October, 1965 Temporary/officiating service, in a rank may be counted as probationary period, if the service is satisfactory.

59. Officiating promotions .-Officiating promotions in temporary vacancies (e.g., leave and deputation) may be made, if required by the exigencies of service. Normally, such promotions shall be made from amongst persons who have already been approved for promotion.

Section II-Examinations

60. The following examinations and courses shall be held to enable Under Officers and Constables to qualify for promotion:--

(1) From Head Constable to Sub-Inspector 1st Class Certificate of Education, and Third Class English Certificate. (2) From Naik to Head Constable: (i) Senior Cadre Course, and (ii) Second Class Certificate of Education. (3) From Constable to Naik: (i) Junior Cadre Course, and (ii) Third Class Certificate of Education. Note .- [Member of the Force with matriculation or equivalent of higher academic qualification from a recognised Board or University shall be exempted from passing any of the above mentioned examination.] (i) by transfer on deputation of officers having the required technical qualification from the rank of Captain of the Army or Assistant Superintendent of Police or Deputy Superintendent of Police in a Star; or (ii) by transfer on deputation (by promotion) of officers having the required technical qualifications from amongst Inspectors on the select list for promotion to the posts of Deputy Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts in a State Police or substantive holders of the post of Inspector or equivalent posts of officiating Inspectors with at least three years' continuous service in that grade or equivalent posts in any Central or State Organisation, preferably with the experience of Armed Police; (iii) by promotion from amongst technically qualified Subedars below the age of 50 years and with minimum service of three years in that rank, in the Central Reserve Police Force; or (iv) by direct recruitment from amongst technically qualified candidates possessing the additional qualifications as prescribed in clause (iv) of sub-rule (4); or (v) by re-employment of technically qualified and retired or released Army Officers who held the rank of Captain or retired State Police Officer or officer of the Force who have held the rank of a Deputy Superintendent of Police or equivalent ranks. (4-B) For the purpose of sub-rules (4) and (4-A), the percentage for recruitment shall be as follows: (i) by direct recruitment 50% (ii) by promotion 50% (iii) any shortfall in direct recruitment or recruitment by promotion in the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police may be filled by deputation or re-employment as specified in these rules. [(4-C) The posts of Deputy Superintendent of Police (Assistant Engineer) shall be filled by: (i) promotion of serving Inspector (Overseer) with 3 years' service such in the Force and have degree/diploma in Civil Engineering; or (ii) Serving Deputy Superintendent of Police with 3 years commissioned service in Army Corps of Engineers and who was attended Young Officer's Course of Corps of Engineers at College of Military Engineering, Pune or Serving Deputy Superintendent of Police in the Force with degree in Civil Engineering; or (iii) transfer on deputation of officers holding analogous post from other Central Police Organisations or Government Department. All promotions shall be on the basis of merit with due regard to seniority. (6) Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of this rule with respect to any class or category of persons. Section III-Promotion Subedar (Inspector) and Sub-Inspector

61. Maintenance of lists of approved candidates .-Lists of approved candidates for promotion to various ranks, required to be maintained under sub-rule (b) of rule 62, shall be kept in the office of the Commandant, and promotions shall ordinarily be made from these lists according to the provisions of rule 55.

62. Preparation of lists of approved candidates .-(a) The Commandant may, for special reasons, promote to the next higher rank any qualified candidate whose name is not on the appropriate approved list. In the case of Subedar (Inspectors) and Sub-Inspectors prior approval of the Inspector-General and the Deputy Inspector-General respectively shall be obtained.

(b) Promotions shall be made from among the best men in the Force as a whole and for this purpose the Commandant shall maintain separate lists for promotion to different ranks, as shown below: (1) List "A" containing names of Constables fit for promotion to the rank of Lance Naik. (2) List "B" containing names of Lance Naiks suitable for promotion to the rank of Naik. (3) List "C" containing names of Naiks suitable for promotion to the rank of Head Constables. (4) List "D" containing names of suitable Head Constables for promotion to the rank of Sub-Inspectors. (5) List "E" containing names of suitable Sub-Inspectors for promotion to the rank of Subedars (Inspectors). (c) Ordinarily, only those men shall be considered for inclusion in List A who have passed the prescribed course for Drill Instructors and are sufficiently educated to be able to read and write Hindi, Roman and Hindi numerals. Higher educational qualification is necessary for promotion above the rank of Head Constable, but the normal standard shall be Third Class for promotion from Constable to Lance Naik and second class from Naik to Head Constable. A man selected for promotion should have initiative, power and leadership, the makings of an officer. Men on promotion list for Naiks and above shall be on probation for at least one year and names of those on the list who do not come upto the required standard shall be removed thereof from time to time.

Entry of names in Lists A, B and C shall be made by the Commandant and in Lists D and E by the Commandant with the approval of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police and Inspector-General of Police respectively.

63. Selection Board .-In February and August each year the Commandants shall constitute Selection Board consisting of himself, Asstt. Commandant and Adjutant and nominate in the prescribed form Sub-Inspectors considered fit for promotion to the rank of Subedars (Inspectors) and Head Constables considered fit for promotion to the rank of Sub-Inspectors. The names of Sub-Inspectors and Head Constables whose nominations are accepted by the Deputy Inspector-General shall be placed on the approved lists, seniority of men brought on these lists shall be determined by dates of their selection.

64. [Educational qualifications for promotion to the Rank of Sub-Inspector

.-No Head Constable, with academic qualification below matriculation, who has not obtained a First class certificate of education and at least a third class English certificate shall be nominated for promotion to rank of Sub-Inspector.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 345, dated 22.4.1991.]

65. Confidential Reports .-In February each year the Commandant shall forward to the Deputy Inspector-General a confidential report in the prescribed form on the work and conduct of each and every Sub-Inspector and Head Constable whose names are on the approved lists. While recording his report the Commandant shall indicate together with reasons in support of his opinion whether he recommends that a name of the Member of the Force should remain on the approved list or be removed from it. The Deputy Inspector-General shall pass orders on these recommendations after such inquiries as may deem fit.

66. Additions to and removals from approved lists .-All acceptances for and removals from the approved lists shall be published in the Force orders.

67. Head Constables .-Promotions to the rank of Head Constable shall be made by the Commandant according to seniority from the List C referred to in rule 62 subject to the general provisions of rule 55 on the recommendations of Company Commanders. The requisite qualification for such promotions are the passing of the Senior Cadre Course and the possession of the Second Class Certificate of Education [or a matriculation or equivalent or higher academic qualification certificate.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 1006, dated 6.11.1986.]

68. Naiks .-Promotion to the rank of Naik shall be made by the Commandant from the List B referred to in rule 62 subject to the general provisions of rule 55 on the recommendation of Company Commanders. The requisite qualifications for such promotions are the passing of the Junior Cadre Course and the possession of a Third Class Certificate of Education or a matriculation or equivalent or higher academic qualification certificate.

69. Lance Naiks .-A Lance Naik shall receive the same pay as a Constable. Appointments shall be made by the Commandant from the List of Constables qualified for promotion to the rank of Naik. Such appointment shall be made on the recommendations of Company Commanders. Seniority alone shall not be the guiding factor in making such appointments but men who are considered to be potential leaders shall be given preference. A Constable appointed to the rank of Lance Naik but found unsuitable for the rank may be summarily reverted to the rank of Constable without assigning any reasons.

70. Special promotion to Naik and Head Constable .-The Commandant may, on the recommendation of a Company Commander, promote to the rank of Lance Naik, Naik or Head Constable respectively, a Constable, a Lance Naik or a Naik, who, although not qualified for promotion, is considered in all respects capable of acting as an Under Officer, provided that the number of unqualified Naik and Head Constables permanent and officiating may not at any time exceed 10 per cent. of the sanctioned number of posts of each rank.

71. Special qualification for promotion .-Qualifications as Drill Instructor, Physical Training Instructor, Weapon Training Instructor, Tear Smoke Training Instructor or Signalling Instructor, etc., shall be considered as additional qualifications for promotion.

Section IV-Increments

72. Withholding of increment .-If the increment of a member of the Force is withheld, the period for which it is withheld and the reason for withholding it, shall be stated in the Force Orders. Such period shall not exceed one year.

73. Subedars (Inspectors) and Sub-Inspectors .-(a) Subedars (Inspectors) and Sub-Inspectors are in a time scale of pay; and the grant of increment is subject to approved service, efficiency, and good conduct. There are efficiency bars at the following stages:--

Subedars (Inspectors) at Rs. 250 (Rs. 320 in new scale). Sub-Inspectors at Rs. 180 (Rs. 200 in new scale). (b) Increments shall be sanctioned by the Commandant, but prior approval of the Deputy Inspector-General shall be obtained before an Officer is allowed to cross an efficiency bar and the fact shall be recorded in the Force Orders.

74. Head Constables, Naiks and Constables .-Increment in the time scale of Head Constables, Naiks and Constables shall be sanctioned by the Commandant on the recommendation of Company Commanders. Such increments shall be sanctioned, subject to approved service, general efficiency and good conduct.

Section V-Officiating Promotions

75. How to be made .-(a) Officiating promotions shall be normally made according to seniority in the approved lists, subject to the general provisions of Sections I and II of this Chapter and the exigencies of the service.

(b) The Commandant shall be competent to sanction officiating promotions in the following cases-(1) The Sub-Inspectors to Subedars (Inspectors) with the approval of the Inspector-General. (2) From Head Constable to Sub-Inspector with the approval of Deputy Inspector-General. (3) From Naik to Head Constable. (4) From Constable and Lance Naik to Naik. (c) If the Commandant decided to pass over, for officiating promotion, an officer whose name is on the appropriate approved list the prior sanction of the Inspector-General or the Deputy Inspector-General, as the case may be, shall be obtained.

76. Supersession .-The passing over of any member of the Force for promotion in an officiating vacancy of four months or less (except for inefficiency or misconduct) or on the grounds of technical appointment such as Motor Transport Sub-Inspector, Radio Sub-Inspector, Armourers, Tailors, Carpenters shall not amount to supersession.

76-A. Honorary rank of Company Commander/Quarter Master.-(1) The Central Government may, on the recommendation of the Inspector-General, confer the honorary rank of Company Commander/Quarter Master on senior and deserving Subedars and Subedar Major and employ them as such. During such employment they would not be entitled to any benefit of pay or travelling and other allowances of the post of Company Commander/Quarter Master.[They will, however, be supplied free of cost the extra articles as shown in item 7 of the foot-note below Appendix A to be worn as honorary Company Commander/Quarter Master in addition to the articles of uniform already issued to them as Subedars.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 1205, dated 5.8.1965.][76-B. Grant of Local Rank.-(1) Notwithstanding, anything contained in the rules, the Director-General may, subject to confirmation of the Central Government, grant to an Officer or an Inspector of the Force a rank, just above in the order of seniority from the ranks mentioned below, for a period of six months, which may, if necessary, be extended further, in the interest of better functioning of the Force, namely:--(i)Additional Director-General;(ii)Inspector-General;(iii)Deputy Inspector-General;(iv)Additional Deputy Inspector-General;(v)Commandant;(vi)Second-in-Command;(vii)Deputy Commandant;(viii) Assistant Commandant.(2)An Officer or Inspector of the Force holding a rank under sub-rule (1) shall,--(a)exercise the command and be vested with the powers of an officer holding that rank;(b)cease to hold that rank if the grant of such rank is not confirmed within one month by the Central Government or when so ordered by the Director-General or when he ceases to hold the appointment for which the rank was granted;(c)not be entitled to claim any seniority over other officers of the Force by virtue of having held such rank; and(d)not be entitled to any extra pay and allowances for holding such rank.]Section VI-Special Appointments

77. Subedar (Inspector) Major .- [(a) The appointment of Subedars (Inspector) Major shall be made by the Head of Office with the prior approval of the Director-General on the basis of the recommendations of a Screening Committee to be constituted by the Director-General. Selection shall be made on the principle of seniority-cum-fitness and the seniority for this purpose shall be combined seniority of Inspectors in the Force.]

(b)The appointment shall ordinarily be for three years, but may be extended from time to time for a period not exceeding one year at a time, unless promoted, until he attains the age of superannuation.(c)The Subedar (Inspector) Major ranks as the Senior most Subordinate Officer.

78. Sub-Inspector Adjutant .-(a) The appointment of Sub-Inspector Adjutant shall be made by the Commandant by selection from Sub-Inspectors who are good instructors and disciplinarians.

(b)The maximum period of the appointment shall not ordinarily exceed three years.

79. Quarter Master Sub-Inspector .-(a) The appointment of Quarter Master Sub-Inspector shall be made by the Commandant from amongst Sub-Inspectors with special qualification in this direction.

(b)The maximum period of the appointment shall not ordinarily exceed three years.

80. Head Constables .-All special appointments in the rank of Head Constable shall be made by the Commandant. The Battalion Havildar Major shall rank as the senior most Head Constable, except for purposes of promotion. The maximum period of the appointment shall not ordinarily exceed three years.
