4. Function of Council.

It shall be the function of the Council to advise the State Government on all matters connected with the administration of this Act.

5. Term of office of and allowances to members of Council.

(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the members of the Council, not being members ex-officio, shall hold office for a term of three years commencing on the date on which the first meeting of the Council is held after the nomination of the members under sub-section (2) of section 3. (2) The members of the Council shall be entitled to such compensatory allowances and at such rates as may be prescribed.

6. Casual vacancies in Council.

A vacancy in the office of a nominated or elected member of the Council occurring otherwise than by efflux of time shall be filled by nomination or election, as the case may be, and the person nominated or elected to fill the vacancy shall hold office only for the remainder of the term for which the member whose place he takes was nominated or elected.

7. Meetings of Council.

(1) The Council shall meet not less than twice in every year, on such dates and at such hours as may be fixed by the President; and six months shall not intervene between two successive meetings. (2) The President of the Council may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of not less than one-third of the total number of members of the Council, and on a date not later than thirty days after the receipt of such request, call a special meeting of the Council. (3) One-third of the total number of members of the Council shall form the quorum. (4) The Council shall transact business in such manner and in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed.

8. Department of Libraries.

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a Department of Libraries shall be constituted by the State Government with a Director of Libraries as its head and with such other officers and servants as the State Government may think fit. (2) The State Government shall appoint a whole-time officer having the prescribed qualifications to be the Director of Libraries.

9. Functions of Director.

(1) Subject to the superintendence, direction and control of the State Government, the Director shall be responsible for the administration of this Act. (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Director shall—(a) be responsible for the planning, maintenance, organisation and development of public libraries and public library system; (b) superintend and direct all matters relating to public libraries; (c) promote the establishment of public libraries to achieve the purposes of this Act; (d) recognise, in accordance with the rules made under this Act, public libraries and State, Divisional and other public library associations for the purposes of grant-in-aid from the Library Fund and sanction and disburse
