Any penalty imposed under this sub-section shall be without prejudice to any prosecution for [any offence or any other proceedings] [These words were substituted for the words 'any offence' by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 16 (3)(c)] under this Act.

30. Periodical payment of tax and interest on non-payment of tax.

(1)Tax shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided, and at such intervals as may be prescribed.(2)Every registered dealer furnishing return as required by sub-section (1) of section 29 shall pay into a Government treasury, in the manner prescribed, the whole amount due from him according to such return and shall furnish along with the return a receipt showing full payment of such amount.(2A)[ The Commissioner may, in such circumstances and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, extend in respect of any dealer or class of dealers, the date of payment of tax payable by the dealer according to his returns.] This sub-section inserted by Gujarat Act No. 25 of 2006 Section 19 dated 22-9-06.If the revised return furnished by a registered dealer in accordance with subsection (4) of section 29, shows a higher amount of tax due than shown in the return earlier furnished by him, he shall pay into a Government treasury the remaining amount of tax arising from the revised return alongwith interest on delayed payment of such remaining amount, and furnish alongwith the revised return a receipt showing such payment.(4)If a registered dealer does not pay the amount of tax payable in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), (2) or (3), the Commissioner shall forthwith initiate proceedings under this Act.(5)Where a dealer does not pay the amount of tax within the time prescribed for its payment under this section, then there shall be paid by such dealer for the period commencing on the date of expiry of the aforesaid prescribed time and ending on date of payment of the amount of tax, simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent, per annum, on the amount of tax not so paid or on any less amount thereof remaining unpaid during such period.(6)[ Where a dealer is liable to pay interest under sub-section (5) or under subsection (7) of section 42 and he makes payment of an amount which is less than the aggregate of the amount of tax, penalty and interest, the amount so paid shall be first applied towards the amount of interest, thereafter the balance, if any, towards the amount of penalty and thereafter the balance, if any towards the amount of tax.] [Sub-section (6) was inserted by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 17]

31. Collection of tax only by registered dealers.

(1)A person who is not a registered dealer shall not collect in respect of any sale of goods any amount by way of tax under this Act and no registered dealer shall make any such collection except in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.(2)A registered dealer who has been permitted by the Commissioner to make a lump sum payment under section 14, [4B, 14C or 14D] [These words, figures and letter substituted for 'section-14' by Gujarat Act No. 25 of 2006 Section 7 & 15 w.e.f. 10-5-06.] shall not collect from his purchaser any sum by way of tax on the sales of goods during the period the permission for lump sum tax is valid.(3)The tax collected and deposited under the provisions of this Act to which a dealer may be held not liable shall not be refunded to the dealer and the amount of such tax shall stand forfeited to the Government.(4)If any person collects any amount by way of tax in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to any tax payable, a penalty equal to the amount so collected.

32. Return scrutiny and provisional assessment.

(1>Returns or revised returns furnished by the dealer in accordance with section 29 shall be subject to scrutiny by the Commissioner.(2)(a)If any dealer has furnished return or revised return according to which,-(i)net amount of tax payable, in accordance with section 13, is nil, or(ii)the amount of tax credit is carried forward for subsequent return,or(iii)the amount of refund is claimed therein, or(iv)the dealer has claimed in his return or the revised return higher amount of tax credit than the admissible amount of tax credit-then, the Commissioner may, as soon, as possible, provisionally assess such dealer for the period of such returns or as the case may be, revised return. For the purpose of aforesaid provisional assessment, the Commissioner shall serve on such dealer in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him to explain in writing, on or before the date specified in the aforesaid notice the basis on which the dealer has furnished such returns or the revised returns. The Commissioner may, after considering such explanation provisionally assess the amount of tax due from such dealer and issue an order in the prescribed form.(b)if the dealer who has been served the notice under clause (a) fails to comply with requirement of clause (a), the Commissioner shall determine the amount of tax payable in the manner as may be prescribed and serve on such dealer an order of the provisional assessment.(3)Where a registered dealer has not furnished the return in respect of any tax period within the prescribed time, the Commissioner shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 34, proceed to assess the dealer provisionally for the period for such default. Such provisional assessment shall be made on the basis of past returns or past records or on the basis of information received by the Commissioner and the Commissioner shall direct the dealer to pay the amount of tax assessed in such manner and by such date as may be prescribed.(4)Where the Commissioner has reason to believe that the dealer has evaded the tax or has claimed more amount of tax credit than the admissible amount of tax credit, he may, after taking into account all relevant materials gathered by him and after giving the dealer a notice in the prescribed form, provisionally assess to the best of his judgement the amount of tax payable by the dealer.(5)The provisions of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the provisional assessment as if provisional assessment were an audit assessment made under this Act.(6)Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Commissioner from making assessment under section 33 and 34.

33. Self-assessment.

(1)Every registered dealer shall by such dates and to such authority as may be prescribed, furnish annual return by way of self-assessment in the prescribed form, containing such particulars and accompanied by supporting documents, as may be prescribed.(2)The amount of tax credit, exemptions and other claims by the dealer in the annual return for which no supporting tax invoice, declarations, certificates, or evidence required under this Act on the Central Act is furnished, shall be self-assessed by the dealer by disallowing such tax credits, exemptions and other claims and by levying the appropriate rate of tax as it the sales or purchases were taxable.(3)[ Where,-(a)a dealer has furnished all the returns, revised returns, if any, and annual returns by the date prescribed therefore and paid the amount of tax due according to such returns, and (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the returns or, as the case may be, revised returns and annual returns furnished by such dealer are correct and complete, and (c) a notice for audit assessment under sub-section (2) of section 34 has not been served on such dealer within such period as may be prescribed, Such dealer shall be deemed to have been assessed for that year. Provided that the Commissioner of his own motion within a period of three years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable, may call for and examine the record of such dealer who has been deemed to have been assessed and after serving notice and giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, pass such order thereon in accordance with the provisions of section 34, as the commissioner may think just and proper.] [Sub-section (3) was substituted by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 18]

34. Audit Assessment.

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the amount of tax due from a registered dealer shall be assessed in the manner hereinafter provided, separately for each year, during which he is liable to pay tax. (2) (a) Where, (i) the commissioner is not satisfied with the bonafide of any claim of tax credit, exemption, refund, deduction, concession, rebate; or genuineness of any declaration or evidence furnished by dealer in support thereof with the self-assessment, or (ii) the Commissioner has reason to believe that detailed scrutiny of the case is necessary, the Commissioner may, notwithstanding the fact that the dealer may have been assessed under section 33, serve on such dealer in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him to appear on a date and place specified therein, which may be his place of business or a place specified in the notice, either to attend and produce or cause to be produced the books of account and all evidence on which the dealer relies in support of his returns or to produce such evidence as specified in the notice. (b) [ in respect of such class of dealers as the State Government may, by rules, specify;] [Sub-section (2) was renumbered and as clause (a) and sub-clauses (a) and (b) were renumbered as (i) & (ii) and clause (b) was inserted by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 19(1)] (3) The dealer shall provide all co-operation and reasonable assistance to the Commissioner as may be required in case the proceedings under this section are required to be conducted at his place of business. (4) If proceedings under this section are to be conducted at the place of business of the dealer and it is found that the dealer is not functioning from such premises or no such premises exists, the Commissioner shall assess to the best of his judgement the amount of tax due from him. (5) If the Commissioner is unlawfully prevented from conducting the proceedings under this section, he may assess to the best of his judgement the amount of tax due from the dealer and may further direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax so assessed, a sum equal to the tax amount. (6) if any dealer- (a) has not furnished returns in respect of any period by the prescribed date; (b) has furnished incomplete or incorrect returns for any period; (c) has failed to comply with the terms of notice issued under sub-section (2); (d) has failed to maintain books of accounts in accordance with the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder or has not regularly employed any method of accounting- the Commissioner shall assess to the best of his judgement the amount of tax due from him. (7) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the dealer, in order to evade or avoid payment of tax, - (a) has failed to furnish, without reasonable cause, returns in respect of any period or the self-assessment by the prescribed date; (b) has furnished incomplete or incorrect returns for any period; (c) has availed tax credit for which he is not eligible; (d) has employed such method of accounting which does not enable the

Commissioner to assess the tax due from him, or(e)has knowingly furnished false or incorrect self assessment;he shall, after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to [one and a half times of the amount] [This word was substituted for the words 'a bank' by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 21] of tax assessed on account of the said reason in the audit assessment.(8)If the Commissioner, upon information which has come into his possession, is satisfied that any dealer who has been liable to pay tax under this Act in respect of any period, has failed to get himself registered, the Commissioner shall proceed to assess to the best of his judgement the amount of tax due from the dealer in respect of such period and all subsequent periods. In making such assessment, he shall give the dealer an opportunity of being heard. The Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the default was without reasonable cause, direct that the dealer shall pay, by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax so assessed, a sum equal to the amount of tax assessed or a sum of rupees five thousand, whichever is more.(8A)[(a) During the course of any proceedings under this Act, if the prescribed authority is satisfied that the tax has been evaded or sought to be evaded or the tax liability has not been disclosed correctly or excess tax credit has been claimed by any dealer in respect of any period or periods by not recording or recording in an incorrect manner, any transaction of sale or purchase, or that any claim has been incorrectly made, then in such a case notwithstanding any notice for assessment has been issued under other provisions of this section or any other section of this Act, the prescribed authority may, after giving such dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard, initiate assessment of the dealer in respect of such transaction or claim:Provided that where such proceedings are under section 73 or section 75, the prescribed authority shall transfer the proceedings relating to such transaction or claim directing the concerned assessing authority to assess the dealer in respect of such transaction or claim:Provided further that the prescribed authority shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 17, be deemed to have the requisite jurisdiction and power to assess such dealer in respect of such transaction of sale or purchase or claim, covered by clause (a) and such assessment proceedings shall, for all purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been transferred to such authority.(b)The assessment proceedings under this sub-section shall be without prejudice to the assessment proceedings in respect of the said period or periods under any other provisions of this Act by any authority who otherwise has the jurisdiction to assess such dealer in respect of other transactions of sale or purchase or any other claim.(c)The assessment under this sub-section shall be made separately in respect of the transaction or claim relating to the said period or periods to the best of the judgment of the prescribed authority where necessary and irrespective of any assessment made under this sub-section, the dealer may be assessed separately under the other provisions of this section in respect of the said period or periods:Provided that, once the dealer is assessed under this sub-section, no tax from such transaction or claim and penalty and interest, if any, shall be levied or demanded from such dealer, at the time of assessment to tax under the other provisions of this section in respect of the said period or periods relating to such transaction or claim.Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-section, "prescribed authority", "the said authority", "such authority" and "any authority" shall mean, the Commissioner or, as the case may be, the authorities appointed under section 16 and other officers or persons to whom the Commissioner has delegated his power in this behalf.] Inserted by Gujarat Act No. 9 of 2013, dated 30.3.2013.No assessment under sub-sections (2), (5), (6) or (7) shall be made after the expiry of four years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable.(10)No assessment under sub-section (8) shall be made after the expiry of eight years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable :Provided that where any assessment is required to be made in pursuance of an order of any court or authority, such fresh assessment shall be made at any time within two years from the date of such order.Provided further that in computing the period of limitation for the purpose this section, any period during which assessment proceedings are stayed by an order or injunction of any court or authority shall be excluded.(11)Any assessment made or penalty imposed under this section shall be without prejudice to prosecution for any offence under this Act.(12)Where in the case of a dealer, the amount of tax assessed for any period under this section or reassessed for any period under section 35 exceeds the amount of tax already paid under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) of section 30 by the dealer in respect of such period by more than twenty five per cent of the amount of tax so paid, there shall be levied on such dealer a penalty not exceeding one and one-half times the difference between the tax paid under section 30 and the amount so assessed or reassessed.

34A. [ Assessment on basis of fair market price . [Section 34.A was inserted by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 20]

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if the Commissioner is of the opinion that any transaction by any dealer during any tax period or a set of transactions by the dealer has been accounted in a manner so as to pay tax less than the tax otherwise payable on such sale or purchase, then the Commissioner shall calculate the tax liability as per fair market price of such transaction or transactions,Explanation. - For the Purpose of this sections, "Fair market price" means the value at which goods of like kind are sold or would be sold in the open market in the State.]

35. Turnover escaping assessment.

(1)Where after a dealer has been assessed under section 32, 33 or 34 for any year or part thereof, the Commissioner has reason to believe that the whole or any part of the taxable turnover of the dealer in respect of any period has-(a)escaped assessment; or(b)been underassessed; or(c)been assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it is assessable; or(d)wrongly been allowed any deduction therefrom; or(e)wrongly been allowed any tax credit therein, the Commissioner may serve a notice on the dealer and after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard and making such inquiry as he considers necessary, proceed to determine to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax due from the dealer in respect of such turnover which comes to his notice subsequently, and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.(2)No order shall be made under sub-section (1) after the expiry of five years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable;

36. Refund of excess payment.

(1)Subject to other provisions of this Act and the rules, the Commissioner may refund to a person the amount of tax, penalty and interest, if any, paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him :Provided that, the Commissioner shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due under this Act or the earlier laws and shall then refund only the balance amount, if any

:Provided further that no such adjustment under the proviso shall be made towards a recovery of an amount due that has been stayed by an appellate authority.(2)Where any refund is due to any dealer, according to the return furnished by him for any period, such refund may provisionally be adjusted by him against the tax due and payable as per the returns furnished under section 29 for any subsequent period in the year :Provided that the amount of tax, or penalty, interest or surety forfeited or all or any of them due, from and payable by the dealer on the date of such adjustment, shall first be deducted from such refund before making the adjustment.

37. Provisional refund.

(1)If a registered dealer has filed any return as required by or under this Act, and such return shows any amount to be refundable to the dealer, then the dealer may apply in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, to the Commissioner for grant of provisional refund pending assessment.(2)Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the Commissioner may require the aforesaid dealer to furnish [Such] [This word was substituted for the words 'a bank' by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 21.] Guarantee or other security as may be prescribed, for an amount equal to the amount of refund. On receipt of such guarantee or other security, the Commissioner may, subject to rules, grant provisional refund to the dealer.(3)The Commissioner may direct that assessment under section 32 of such dealer in respect of the period covered by the said return be taken up as early as practicable and adjust the grant of provisional refund against tax due, if any, as a result of the assessment.(4)If, on assessment, the provisional refund granted under sub-section (2) is found to be in excess, then such excess shall be recovered as if it is a tax due from the dealer under this Act and the interest on such tax shall be charged at the rate of eighteen percent per annum, for the period from the date of grant of provisional refund, till the date of assessment.

38. Interest on refund.

(1)Where refund of any amount of tax becomes due to the dealer by virtue of an order of assessment under section 34, he shall subject to the provision of this section be entitled to receive in addition to the amount of tax, simple interest at the rate of six percent per annum on the said amount of tax from the date immediately following the date of the closure of the accounting year to which the said amount of tax relates [till the date of payment of amount of such refund] [These words were substituted for the words 'to the date of order of assessment' by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 22(1)]Provided that where the dealer has paid any amount of tax after the closure of the accounting year and such amount is required to be refunded, no interest shall be payable for the period from the date of closure of such accounting year to the date of payment of such amount.(2)A registered dealer entitled to refund in pursuance of any order other than referred to under sub-section (1) or in pursuance of any order by any court, shall subject to rules, be entitled to receive, in addition to the refund, simple interest at the rate of six per cent [per annum on the amount of such refund from the date immediately following the date of closer of the accounting year to which the said amount of refund relates] [These words were substituted for the words 'for the period commencing after thirty days from the date of such order' by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 22 (2)(a)] till the date of payment of amount of such refund. The interest shall be calculated on the amount of refund due after deducting therefrom any tax, interest, penalty or any other dues under this Act or under the Central Act. If, as a result of any order passed under this Act, the amount of such refund is enhanced or reduced, such interest shall be enhanced or reduced accordingly :[***] The proviso and explanations under sub-section (2) were deleted by Gujarat Act, 6 of 2006, Section 22(2)(b)Where the realization of any amount remains stayed by the order of any court or authority and such order is subsequently vacated, interest shall be payable also for any period during which such order remained in operation.

39. Power to withhold refund in certain cases.

(1)Where an order giving rise to a refund is the subject matter of an appeal of further proceeding or where any other proceeding under this Act is pending, and the Commissioner is of the opinion that grant of such refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue, he may, after giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard, withhold the refund till such time as he may determine.(2)Where a refund is withheld under sub-section (1), the dealer shall be entitled to interest as provided under section 38, if as a result of the appeal or further proceeding he becomes entitled to refund.

40. [ Refund of tax for certain categories.] [Refer P.C Gujaka 28 dated 17-2-2007]

(1)Subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it considers necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorize the Commissioner to grant refund of the amount of tax separately charged by any registered dealer to any class of persons who have purchased the goods from such dealer.(2)Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as possible after it is issued and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature or to such modifications as the State Legislature may make, during the session in which it is so laid or session immediately following. Any recession or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect.(3)Any person, so entitled for refund under sub-section (1) may apply to the prescribed authority in the manner and within the time as may be prescribed. The Commissioner shall subject to provisions of this Act grant such refund to such person.

41. Remission of tax, penalty or interest.

(1)Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it is necessary so to do in the public interest in case of double taxation or to redress an [inequitable situation, or for sufficient and resonable cause] [These words were substituted for the 'inequitable situation' by Gujarat Act No. 25 of 2006 section 7 w.e.f 10-5-2006] remit by an order either generally or specially, the whole or any part of the tax, penalty or interest payable in respect of any period by any dealer or a class of dealers or of any specified class of sales or purchase.[**] [upto 31-3-07 remits whole of the tax payable by R.D. on sale of oil cakes and de-oiled cakes of cotton seeds with condition by Notification No. (GHN.65) VAT-2006/ Section 41(1) (1) Th. dated 17-5-06 by Notification No. (GHN-10) VAT 2007/ Section 41 (1) (5) TH dated 30-3-07 it is extended up to 31-3-08 by
