5.

Where this Order requires that in any specified existing law or in any section or other portion of such law, certain words shall be substituted for certain other words, or that certain words shall be omitted, that substitution or omission, as the case may be, shall, except where it is otherwise expressly provided, be made wherever the words referred to occur in that law or as the case may be,

in that section or portion.

6.

(1)The following provisions shall have effect where a existing law which under this Order is to be adapted or modified has before the appointed day been amended either generally or in relation to any particular area, by the insertion or omission of words, or the substitution of words for other words-(a)effect shall first be given in the amending law to any adaptation or modification required by paragraphs three and five of this Order to be made therein;(b)the original law shall then be amended, either generally or, as the case may be, in its application to the particular area, so as to give effect to the directions contained in the amending law, or where any adaptation or modification has fallen to be made under clause (a), in that law, as so adapted or modified ; and(c)all adaptations and modifications required by this Order to be made in the original law shall then be made in that law as so amended, except so far as in the case of any particular area they may be inapplicable.(2)In this paragraph, references to the amendment of law by the insertion or omission of words or the substitution of words do not include reference to an amendment which is effected merely by directing that certain words shall be construed in a particular manner.

7.

Notwithstanding any adaptation made by this order, where the extent or application of an existing law in force immediately before the appointed day refers by reason only of such adaptation to the State of Madhya Pradesh, such reference shall not be deemed to include a reference to any part of that State to which that law did not extend or apply immediately before the appointed day.

8.

In any existing law, unless the context otherwise requires,-(a)a reference to the Legislature of the State shall be construed as a reference to the Legislature of the State of Madhya Pradesh ;(b)a reference to the Speaker or Deputy Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of the State shall be construed as a reference to the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Madhya Pradesh;(c)a reference to the Chief Justice or the Judge of the Madhya Bharat High Court or the Rajasthan High Court shall be construed as a reference to the Chief Justice or the Judge of High Court of Madhya Pradesh;(d)a reference to the Judicial Commissioner of Bhopal or the Judicial Commissioner of Vindhya Pradesh shall be construed as a reference to the Chief Justice of the High Court of Madhya Pradesh;(e)a reference to the Chairman or member of the Public Service Commission, Madhya Bharat shall be construed as a reference to the Chairman or member of the Public Service Commission of Madhya Pradesh.

9.

Except as otherwise provided by this Order, a reference to any authority, body or tribunal in any existing law shall be construed as a reference to an authority, body or tribunal of the same name or designation in the State of Madhya Pradesh.

10.

Save as otherwise provided by this Order, all powers, which under any existing law were, immediately before the appointed day, vested in or exercisable by any person or authority shall continue to be so vested or exercisable until other provision is made by or under the Act or by the Legislature of the State of Madhya Pradesh or other authority empowered to regulate the matter in question.

11.

(1) If on the appointed day in any area forming the State of Madhya Pradesh, any body, authority or person entitled by or under any existing law to exercise any rights, powers to jurisdiction or to perform any duties or to discharge any functions or to hold any property, is not or cannot be duly constituted or appointed by reason of the transfer of that area from an existing State to the State of Madhya Pradesh then, notwithstanding anything in such law, but save as expressly provided by or under the Act, all such rights, powers and jurisdiction shall be exercisable, all such duties shall be performed and all such functions shall be discharged by, and all such property shall vest in the State Government. (2) Nothing in sub-paragraph (1) shall be deemed to prevent the State Government from duly constituting or appointing for purposes of any such existing law after the appointed day, any body, authority or person to exercise or perform or discharge all or any such rights, powers, jurisdiction, duties or functions or vesting therein all or any part of the property aforesaid.

12.

The provisions of this Order which adapt or modify any law so as to alter the manner in which, the authority by which, or the law under or in accordance with which any powers are exercisable, shall not render invalid any notification, order, license, permission, award, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation duly made or issued, or anything duly done, before the appointed day ; and any such notification, order, license, permission, award, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule, regulation or thing may be revoked, varied, or undone in like manner to the like extent and in the like circumstances as if it had been made, issued or done after the commencement of this Order by the competent authority and under and in accordance with the provisions then applicable to such a case.

13.

Nothing in this Order shall affect the previous operation of, or anything duly done or suffered under, any existing law or any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred under any such law, or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence already committed against any such law.
