3. Originating goods.

- For the purposes of these rules, goods imported by a Party which are consigned directly as referred to in rule 10, shall be deemed to be originating and eligible for preferential tariff treatment if, -(a)the goods are wholly obtained or produced entirely in the Party, as provided for in rule 4; or(b)the goods are not wholly obtained or produced in the Party, subject to the condition that the goods satisfy the requirements of rule 5 or rule 6.

4. Wholly obtained or produced goods.

- For the purposes of clause (a) of rule 3, the following goods shall be considered as being obtained or produced in a Party, namely :-(a)live animals born and raised in the Party;(b)animals obtained by hunting, trapping, fishing, gathering or capturing in the Party;(c)goods obtained from live animals in the Party;(d)plants and plant products harvested, picked or gathered in the Party;(e)minerals and other naturally occurring substances, not included in clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d), extracted or taken in the Party;(f)goods of sea-fishing and other goods taken by vessels of the Party from the sea outside the territorial seas of the Parties;(g)goods produced on board factory ships of the Party, outside the territorial seas of the Parties, from the goods referred to in clause (f);(h)goods taken from the sea-bed or sub-soil beneath the sea-bed outside the territorial sea of the Party:provided that the Party has rights to exploit such sea-bed or subsoil in accordance with the provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, done at Montego Bay, December 10, 1982;(i)articles collected in the Party which can no longer perform their original purpose in the Party nor are capable of being restored or repaired and which are fit only for disposal or for the recovery of parts or raw materials;(j)scrap and waste derived from manufacturing or processing operations or from consumption in the Party and fit only for disposal or for the recovery of raw materials;(k)parts or raw materials recovered in the Party from articles which can no longer perform their original purpose nor are capable of being restored or repaired; and(l)goods obtained or produced in the Party exclusively from the goods referred to in clauses (a) to (k).Explanation. - For the purposes of clause (d), the term "plant" shall mean all plant life, including fruit, flowers, vegetables, trees, seaweed, fungi and live plants.

5. Goods produced using non-originating materials.

(1)For the purposes of clause (b) of rule 3, goods shall qualify as an originating goods of a Party if, -(a)the goods have a qualifying value content, calculated using the formula set out in rule 6, of not less than thirty-five percent; and(b)all non-originating materials used in the production of the goods have undergone in the Party a change in tariff classification at the six-digit level (i.e. a change in tariff sub-heading) of the Harmonized System.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), goods subject to product specific rules shall qualify as an originating goods of a Party if it satisfies the applicable product specific rules set out in Annexure-1.(3)For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-rule (1) and the relevant product specific rules set out in Annexure-1, the rule requiring that the materials used have undergone a change in tariff classification or a specific manufacturing or processing operation, shall apply only to non-originating materials.

6. Calculation of qualifying value content.

- For the purposes of calculating the qualifying value content of goods, one or the other of the following formula's shall be applied, -(a){ $Q.V.C = \frac{F.O.B - V.N.M.F.O.B}{V.O.M + \text{Direct Labour Cost} + \text{Direct Overhead Cost} + \text{Profit}} \times 100$ }(b){ $Q.V.C = \frac{F.O.B}{V.O.M + \text{Direct Labour Cost} + \text{Direct Overhead Cost} + \text{Profit}} \times 100$ }Explanation 1. - For the purpose of calculating the qualifying value content of a good, the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the exporting Party shall be applied.Explanation 2. - For the purposes of this rule, -(a)F.O.B. shall be the value, -(i)of a good payable by the buyer of the good to the seller of the good, regardless of the mode of shipment, not including any internal excise taxes reduced, exempted, or repaid when the good is exported; or(ii)adjusted to the first ascertainable price paid for a good from the buyer to the producer of the good, if there is free-on-board value of the good, but it is unknown and cannot be ascertained; or(iii)determined in accordance with Articles 1 to 8 of the Agreement on Customs Valuation, if there is no free on board value of a good:Provided that in applying the agreement on customs valuation to determine the value of a good or non-originating material, the agreement on customs valuation shall apply mutatis mutandis to domestic transactions or to the cases where there is no domestic transaction of the good or non-originating material.(b)Q.V.C. is the qualifying value content of a good, expressed as a percentage;(c)V.N.M. is the value of non-originating materials used in the production of a good;(d)V.O.M. is the value of originating material used in the production of the good.Explanation 3. - For the purposes of this rule, the value of a material used in a production of a good in a Party, -(a)shall be customs value (CIF value) of the imported good in accordance with the agreement on customs valuation including freight and insurance where appropriate, packing and all other costs incurred in transporting the material to the port of importation in the Party where the producer of the good is located:Provided that in applying the agreement on customs valuation to determine the value of a good or non-originating material, the agreement on customs valuation shall apply mutatis mutandis to domestic transactions or to the cases where there is no domestic transaction of the good or non-originating material; or(b)shall be the first ascertainable price paid for the material in the Party, but may exclude all the costs incurred in the Party in transporting the material from the warehouse of the supplier of the material to the place where the producer is located such as freight, insurance and packing as well as any other known and ascertainable cost incurred in the Party.

7. Accumulation.

- For the purposes of determining whether a good qualifies as a originating good of a Party, an originating good of the other Party which is used as a material in the production of the good in the former Party may be considered as an originating material of the former Party, provided that such good has undergone its last production process in the former Party which goes beyond the operations provided for in rule 9.

8. De minimis.

(1)Non-originating materials used in the production of a good which do not satisfy an applicable rule for the good shall be disregarded, subject to the condition that totality of such materials does not exceed the percentages in value or weight of the good as specified below:(a)in the case of a good classified under Chapters 15 through 24 (except 1604.20, 1605.20, 1605.90, 2101.11, 2101.20, 2106.10, 2106.90, 2207.10 and 2207.20), 2501.00, 2906.11, 2918.14, 2918.15, 2940.00, 3505.10, 3505.20, 3809.10 and 3824.60 of the Harmonized System, seven percent in value of the good; (b) in the case of a good classified under Chapters 28 through 49 (except 2905.44, 2906.11, 2918.14, 2918.15, 2940.00, 3502.11, 3502.19, 3505.10, 3505.20, 3809.10, 3824.60, 4601.29, 4601.94 and 4602.19) and 64 through 97 of the Harmonized System, ten percent in value of the good; and (c) in the case of a good classified under Chapters 50 through 63 (except 5001.00, 5003.00, heading 51.02, 51.03, 52.01 through 52.03, 53.01 and 53.02) of the Harmonized System, seven percent in weight of the good. Explanation. - For the purposes of this rule, the term "value of the good" means the free-on-board value of the good referred to in rule 6 or the value set out in clause (a) of Explanation 2 to rule 6. (2) This rule shall not be applied in calculating the qualifying value content set out in rule 6.

9. Non-qualifying operations.

- A good shall not be considered to be an originating good of the exporting Party merely by reason of having undergone the following, - (a) operations to ensure the preservation of products in good condition during transport and storage (such as drying, freezing, keeping brine, removal of damaged parts) and other similar operations; (b) changes of packaging and breaking up and assembly of packages; (c) disassembly; (d) placing in bottles, cases, boxes and other simple packaging operations; (e) collection of parts and components classified as a good pursuant to clause (a) of rule 2 of the General Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System; (f) simple operations consisting of removal of dust, sifting or screening, sorting, classifying, matching (including the making-up of sets of articles), washing, painting; (g) simple cutting, slicing and repacking or placing in bottles, flasks, bags or boxes, fixing on cards or boards, and all other simple packing operations; (h) affixing or printing marks, labels and other like distinguishing signs on products or their packaging; (i) simple mixing of products whether or not of different kinds; (j) simple assembly of parts of goods to constitute a complete product; (k) slaughter of animals; (l) mere dilution with water or another substance that does not materially alter the characteristics of the goods; or (m) any combination of operations referred to in clauses (a) to (l). Explanation. - For the purposes of this rule, an operation is described as "simple" if neither special skills nor machines, apparatus or equipment especially produced or installed for carrying it out are needed.

10. Consignment criteria.

(1) An originating good of the other Party shall be deemed to meet the consignment criteria when it is, - (a) transported directly from the other party ; or (b) transported through one or more non-Parties for the purpose of transit or temporary storage in warehouses in such non-Parties, subject to the condition that it does not undergo operations other than unloading, reloading and any other operation to preserve it in good condition. (2) If an originating good of the other Party does not meet the consignment criteria referred to in sub-rule (1), the good shall not be considered as an originating good of the other Party.

11. Unassembled or disassembled goods.

- Where a good satisfies the requirements of the relevant provisions of rule 3 to rule 9 and is imported into a Party from the other Party in an unassembled or disassembled form but is classified as an assembled good pursuant to clause (a) of rule 2 of the General Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System, such a good shall be considered as an originating good of the other Party.

12. Fungible goods and materials.

(1) For the purposes of determining whether a good qualifies as an originating good of a Party, where fungible originating materials of the Party and fungible non-originating materials that are mixed in an inventory are used in the production of the good, the origin of the materials may be determined pursuant to an inventory management method under the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the Party. (2) Where fungible originating goods of a Party and fungible non-originating goods are mixed in an inventory and, prior to exportation do not undergo any production process or any operation in the Party where they were mixed other than unloading, reloading or any other operation to preserve them in good condition, the origin of the good may be determined pursuant to an inventory management method under the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the Party.

13. Indirect materials.

- Indirect materials shall be, without regard to where they are produced, considered to be originating materials of a Party where the good is produced.

14. Accessories, spare parts, tools instructional or other information materials.

(1) In determining whether all the non-originating materials used in the production of a good undergo the applicable change in tariff classification or a specific manufacturing or processing operation, accessories, spare parts, tools and instructional or other information materials delivered with the good that form part of the good's standard accessories, spare parts, tools and instructional or other information materials, shall be disregarded: Provided that, -(a) the accessories, spare parts, tools and instructional or other information materials are not invoiced separately from the good, without regard to whether they are separately described in the invoice or not; and (b) the quantities and value of the accessories, spare parts, tools and instructional or other information materials are customary for the good. (2) If a good is subject to a qualifying value content requirement, the value of the accessories, spare parts, tools and instructional or other information materials shall be taken into account as the value of originating or non-originating materials as the case may be, in calculating the qualifying value content of the good.

15. Packing and packaging materials and containers.

(1)Packing materials and containers for shipment used to protect a good during transportation shall not be taken into account in determining whether the good qualifies as an originating good of a Party.(2)The packaging materials and containers that are used for retail sale of a good shall be disregarded in determining whether the good qualifies as an originating good of a Party, if such packaging materials and containers are classified with the good pursuant to rule 5 of the general rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System; and(3)Where the good is subject to a qualifying value content requirement, the value of packaging materials and containers referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be taken into account as the value of originating materials of a Party where the good is produced or non-originating materials, as the case may be, in calculating the qualifying value content of the good.

16. Operational certification procedures.

- The procedure regarding the Certificate of Origin and operational certification shall be asset out in Annexure 2.Annexure-1(see sub-rule (2) of rule 5)

Part 1 – 1. For the purposes of the product specific rules set out in this Annexure, -

(a)the product specific rule, or specific set of rules, that applies to a particular heading or sub-heading is set out immediately adjacent to the heading or sub-heading;(b)where the specific set of rules, provides for more than one rule to be selectively applied, the order of the description of the rules shall not indicate priority of application.

2. Definitions. - For the purposes of the product specific rules set out in part 2 of this Annexure, -

(a)"section" means a section of the Harmonized System;(b)"chapter" means a chapter of the Harmonized System;(c)"heading" means the first four digits in the tariff classification number under the Harmonized System; and(d)"sub-heading" means the first six digits in the tariff classification number under the Harmonized System.

3. This Annexure is based on the Harmonized System as amended on January 1, 2007.

Annexure-2(see rule 16)Operational Certification Procedures

1. Definitions. - For the purposes of this Annex, -

(a)"competent governmental authority" means the authority that, according to the legislation of each Party, is responsible' for the issuing of a certificate of origin, for the designation of certification entities or bodies, or, for taking appropriate measures when necessary in relation to the issuance of a certificate of origin which in case of Japan, is the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, and in case of the Republic of India, is Department of Commerce, Ministry of Commerce and ,Industry; and(b)"preferential tariff treatment" means the rate of customs duties applicable to an originating good of the exporting Party in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 19 of the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement between the Republic of India and Japan signed on the 16th day of February, 2011.

2. Claim for preferential tariff treatment. - (1) For the purposes of claiming the preferential tariff treatment for an originating good of the exporting Party, a certificate of origin shall be submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party by the importer, together with the documents required for the importation of the good in accordance with the laws and regulations of the importing Party.

(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-paragraph (1), the importing Party may waive the requirement for a certificate of origin in accordance with its laws and regulations.(3)Where an originating good of the exporting Party is imported through one or more non-Parties as provided for in rule to, the customs authority of the importing Party may require the importer, who claims the preferential tariff treatment for the good, to submit, -(a)a copy of through bill of lading indicating the, port of exportation and importation; or(b)a certificate or any other information given by the customs authorities of such non-Parties or other relevant entities, which evidences that the good has not undergone operations other than unloading, re-loading and any other operation to preserve it in good condition in those non-Parties. Provided that the customs authority of the importing Party may require the importer to submit documents provided for in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (3) in addition to a copy of through bill of Lading provided for in clause (a) of sub-paragraph, (3) in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3) of Appendix-A to this Annexure.

3. Issuance of certificate of origin. - (1) A certificate of origin referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 2 shall be issued by the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party on request having been made in writing by the exporter or its authorized agent.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party may designate other entities or bodies for the issuance of certificate of origin, under the authorisation given in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the exporting Party. (3) Where the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party designates other entities or bodies to carry out the issuance of certificate of origin, the exporting Party shall notify in writing the other Party of its designees. (4) For the purposes of this Annexure, the certificate of origin shall be issued in the format provided in Appendix-B to this Annexure in the English language. (5) A certificate of origin shall be completed in the English language. (6) Where the exporter of a good is not the producer of the good in the exporting Party, the exporter may request a certificate of origin on the basis of, -(a)a declaration provided by the exporter to the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party or its designees based on the information provided by the producer of the good to that exporter; or(b)a declaration voluntarily provided by the producer of the good directly to the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party or its designees by the request of the exporter. (7) A certificate of origin shall be issued only after the exporter who requests the certificate of origin, or the producer of a good in the exporting Party referred to in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (6), proves to the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party or its designees that the good to be exported qualifies as an originating good of the exporting Party. (8) The competent governmental authority of the exporting Party shall provide the importing Party with specimen signatures and impressions of stamps used in the offices of the competent governmental authority or its designees, upon entry into force by this Agreement and their modification thereafter. (9) Each Party shall, in accordance with its laws and regulations, ensure that the exporter to whom a certificate of origin has been issued, or the producer of a good in the exporting Party referred to in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (6), shall notify in writing the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party or its designees without delay when such exporter or producer knows that such good does not qualify as an originating good of the exporting Party. (10) The competent governmental authority of the exporting Party shall, when it cancels the decision to issue the certificate of origin, promptly notify the cancellation to the exporter to whom the certificate of origin has been issued, and to the customs authority of the importing Party, except where the original certificate has been returned to the competent governmental authority.

4. Validity of certificate of origin. - A certificate of origin issued under paragraph 3 shall be applicable to a single importation of originating goods of the exporting Party into the importing Party and shall be valid for twelve months from the date of issuance:

Provided that a certificate of origin submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party after the expiration of its validity as a result of force majeure shall be accepted.

5. Record keeping. - (1) Each Party shall ensure that the competent governmental authority of the Party or its designees shall keep a record of the certificates of origin issued under paragraph 3 for a period of five years after the date on which the certificate was issued including all antecedents, which were presented to prove the qualification as an originating good of the exporting Party.

(2) Each Party shall, in accordance with its laws and regulations, ensure that the exporter to whom a certificate of origin has been issued, or the producer of a good in the exporting Party referred to in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 3 shall keep the records relating to the origin of the good for five years after the date on which the certificate of origin was issued.

6. Request for checking of certificate of origin. - (1) For the purposes of determining whether a good imported from the exporting Party under preferential tariff treatment qualifies as an originating good of the exporting Party, the customs authority of the importing Party may request information relating to the origin of the good from the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party on the basis of the certificate of origin.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party shall, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Party, provide the requested information in a period not exceeding three months after the date of receipt of the request: Provided that if the customs authority of the importing Party considers necessary, it may require additional information relating to the origin of the good: Provided further that if additional information is requested by the customs authority of the importing Party, the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party shall, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the exporting Party, provide the requested information in a period not exceeding two months after the date of receipt of the request. (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), the competent governmental authority of the exporting Party may request the exporter to whom the certificate of origin has been issued, or the producer of the good in the exporting Party referred to in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 3, to provide the former with the requested information. (4) The request of information
