Note :- This rule is not applicable to processes issued for service on witnesses.

5. Except as otherwise directed by any provisions of law, a fee of 75 nP. shall be chargeable for any process issued by a Criminal Court, whether such process be served through the Process-serving Establishment or through the Police :

Provided that no fee shall be chargeable for any process of a Criminal Court relating to a cognizable offence, as defined in Section (4)(i)(f) of the Code of Criminal Procedure or for any process relating to a non-cognizable offence, if in the same case a process relating to a cognizable offence is issued :Provided also that no fee shall be charged by any Criminal Court in the Punjab for any individual process issued in a criminal case at the instance of a Municipal Committee in the Punjab, if such Municipal Committee has compounded for the process fees, otherwise payable by it, by paying such sum of money to the Government of Punjab for such period and in such form as the Governor of the Punjab may from time to time direct.

6. Process issued by and sent to Courts in India to be served free of charge. - A process issued by any Court in India whether of Civil or Criminal jurisdiction, shall be served free of charge by any Court in the Punjab if it be certified on the process that the proper fee has been levied under the rules in force in the territory in which the Court issuing the process is situated. When any Court in the Punjab, whether of Civil or Criminal jurisdiction, transmits a process for service or execution to any Court beyond its jurisdiction, a certificate shall be endorsed on the process that the fee chargeable under rule 2 or rule 4, as the case may be, has been levied.

7. Travelling allowance of process-servers. - Ordinarily process-servers should travel on foot when proceeding to serve or execute processes; but in special cases, the judge of the Court issuing the process, may permit the journey to be made by railway. In such cases the permission should be in writing and the railway fare should be charged to the budget heads. Travelling allowance of process-servers under process-serving establishment is not charged to the person at whose instance the process is issued.

Processes - Civil Courts

Part C – General

1. General provisions regarding services of summons. - The provisions regarding the service of summons on the parties, contained in Sections 27, 28, 29 and 143, Order V, Rules 9 to 30, Order XXVII, Rule 4, Order XXIX, Rule 2, Order XLVIII, Rules 1, 2 and 3, Order III, Rules 3, 5 and 6, Order XXVIII, Rule 3, Order XXX, Rule 3, and Order XLI, Rule 14 of the Civil Procedure Code as amended by the High Court should be strictly observed, as neglect of them may often render the service ineffectual, especially when personal service cannot be made.

2. Rules regarding service in particular cases. - Attention is drawn to the following rules regarding service in particular cases :-

Re : service on agents	Order III, Rules 3 and 6, and Order V, Rules 12, 13 and 14.
Re : service on pleaders	Order III, Rule 5.
Re : service on Corporation	Order XXIX, Rule 2.
Re : service on Firms	Order XXX, Rule 3.
Re : service in suits against the Government	Order XXVII, Rule 4 and Chapter 8 of Volume I.
Re : Service in suits against Military or Naval men or Airmen	Order XXVIII, Rule 3, Order V, Rules 28 and 29 and Chapter 7-Dof this volume.
Re : service by post	Order V, Rule 10, as amended by the High Court and Rules 20-A, 21, 24 and 25.
Re : service re : appeals	Chapter 14-B, volume I.
Re : service re : execution	Chapter 12-E, paragraph 11, Volume I.

3. Service in cantonments. - Summonses for service on persons residing within the limits of cantonments should not be sent to Executive Officers of cantonments.

4. Service on witnesses. - The general procedure for serving processes on witnesses is the same as in the case of defendants. (See Order XVI, Rule 8, and also Volume I, Chapter 5 "Witnesses - Civil Courts").

5. Service of orders and notices. - All orders and notices issued under the Code are to be served in the manner provided for the service of summons (Order XLVIII, Rule 2).

6. Service of processes during trial, appeal and execution. - In connection with the service of processes during the trial, attention is invited to Rules 19 to 25 of Order VII, Rules 11 and 12 of Order VIII and Order XLI (Appeals), Rule 38, of the Code framed by the High Court under section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Under the new rules parties are required to file addresses for the purposes of serving notices on them during the trial. If the party concerned is not found at the address given, the procedure laid down in Order VII, Rule 22, should be followed, and if the party fails to appear on the date fixed, notice should be sent to the address by registered post. Such service is then taken to be as effectual as personal service.

The new rules are intended to facilitate service of processes on parties throughout the trial including appeals and executions and should be carefully studied.

7. Form of processes. - Forms of processes will be found in Appendix B to Schedule I of the Code of Civil Procedure. In the case of persons of distinction a letter may be substituted for a summons if the Court thinks fit (Order V, Rule 30).

8. Form for return of processes. - The forms prescribed for the return of processes by process-servers (as amended by the High Court) should be followed as nearly as the circumstances of the case permit. These forms are reproduced in Appendix I to this Chapter.

9. Scale of process-fees. - For the scale of process-fees see Chapter 5 of this Volume. For instructions as to the levy of fresh process-fees in certain cases and fees for substituted service see Part A of Chapter 5 of this Volume.

10. Processes sent by post. - When processes are transmitted by post, they should be sent under service covers, and should ordinarily be registered. (Section 143, Civil Procedure Code).

11. Employment of process-servers for execution of warrants of attachment, arrest and sale. - Ordinarily bailiffs are to be employed for the execution of warrants of attachment, arrest and delivery of possession, etc., but process-servers may be employed for this purpose with the permission of the officer-in-charge of the Nazarrat where the value of property involved is not high. Re : execution of warrants of sale by process-servers see Rule 24 (iv) Chapter 12-L, Volume I.
