(Group.C), B.C. (Group.D), and as the case may be in B.C. (Group - E), (subject to outcome of Civil Appeal Nos.2628-2637/2010 pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India) S.C, S.T., Physically Handicapped and Ex-servicemen quotas.

7A. Reservation In Promotions.

- The rule of reservation in the matter of promotions in favour of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be followed by applying Telangana State and Subordinate Service Rules.

8. Qualifications.

(a) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the categories specified in Column (1) of Annexure I to these rules by the method specified in Column (2) unless such person possesses the qualification specified in the corresponding entry in column (3) thereof. (b) Linguistic qualification. - A candidate shall not be eligible for appointment if he/she does not possess an adequate knowledge of the language or languages of the district in which he/she is to be appointed. The language or language of the districts is as specified in Annexure - III to these rules. Provided that where two or more languages are specified for a district and sufficient number of candidates who have an adequate knowledge of all the languages are not available, candidates who have an adequate knowledge of any one of the said languages according to the needs of the district may be selected and such candidates shall be eligible for appointment in that district.

9. Age.

- No person shall be eligible for appointment by direct recruitment if he/she has completed 34 years of age on the first day of July of the year in which the notification for selection is made or such age as may be prescribed by the Government of Telangana from time to time.

10. Unit of appointment.

(a)"Except as otherwise provided herein below, the unit of appointment for the purpose of direct recruitment, transfer, seniority, appointment as full member and discharge for want of vacancy shall be the erstwhile Revenue District existing as on 01-10-2016.(b)But in the case of Hyderabad City, the unit of appointment will be the area falling within the territorial jurisdiction of the City Civil Court, Hyderabad, the City Small Causes Court, Hyderabad and the Metropolitan Sessions Court, Hyderabad and the Court of the Principal Special Judge for CBI Cases, Hyderabad, which includes SPE & ACB Cases and other Special Courts at Hyderabad (shown at Rule 2(r)).(i)In respect of City Civil Court, the Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad shall be the appointing authority in the Unit.(ii)In respect of City Small Causes Court, the Chief Judge, City Small Causes, Hyderabad, shall be the appointing authority in the Unit.(iii)In respect of Metropolitan Sessions Courts, the Metropolitan Sessions Judge, Hyderabad, shall be the appointing authority in the Unit.(iv)In respect of the CBI Courts, SPE & ACB Courts and other Special Courts at Hyderabad (shown at Rule 2(r)), the Principal Special Judge for CBI Cases, Hyderabad, shall be the appointing authority in the Unit.(c)In respect of Special Courts constituted for adjudication of matters of any nature in the districts, the Principal District Judge shall be the appointing authority.

11. Manner of appointment by Direct Recruitment.

- The manner of appointment by direct recruitment shall be as prescribed in Annexure-II to these rules.

12. Revision of orders promotion to selection posts.

- An order promoting a member of the service to a selection category made by a competent authority may be revised by an authority to which an appeal would lie against an order of dismissal passed against such member. Such revision may be made by the authority aforesaid either suo motu at any time or on a petition submitted by any person aggrieved by the order within six months from the date of passing of such order:Provided that the revisional authority may extend the said period of six months if cause is shown for the delay in the submission of the petition.

13. Probation.

(a) Every person appointed by direct recruitment to any post in the service shall, from the date on which he/she commences probation, be on probation for a total period of two years on duty within a continuous period of three years. (b) Every person appointed to any of the posts either by promotion or by transfer shall, from the date on which he/she commences probation, be on probation for a total period of one year on duty within a continuous period of two years.

14. Probation-Suspension-Termination or Extension.

(1) At any time before expiry of the period of probation referred to in Rule 13 or where such period of probation has been extended under Rule 15, the appointing authority may, at any time before the expiry of the prescribed period of probation or the extended period of probation, as the case may be:-(i) suspend the probation of a probationer and discharge him/her for want of a vacancy, and (ii) at its discretion, by an order, either extend the period of probation of the probationer in case the probation has not been extended under Rule 17 or terminate his/her probation and discharge him/her from the service after giving him/her one month's notice or pay in lieu of such notice: Provided that if the termination or probation and the discharge of the probationer from service is to be made as a measure of punishment on the ground of misconduct, negligence or any specific fault on the part of the probationer, the procedure prescribed in Rule 19(2) read with Rule 20 of the Telangana Civil Service (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1991, shall be followed and it shall not be necessary to give him/her one month's notice or pay in lieu of such notice. Explanation. - In cases where the discharge of a probationer is made reverting him/her to his/her lower officiating or substantive post, the pay in lieu of one month's notice shall be limited to the difference in pay between the officiating post and that of the lower officiating or substantive post to which he/she is reverted. (2) (i) If a probationer has appeared within the original or extended period of probation for any tests and the results of the tests for which he has so appeared are not known before the expiry of such period, he/she shall continue to be on probation until the publication of the results of the tests for which he/she has appeared or the first of them in which he/she fails to pass, as the case may be. In case the probationer fails to pass any of the probation tests for which he/she has so appeared, the appointing authority shall forthwith, by order discharge him/her unless the period of probation is extended under Rule 15. (ii) Where a probationer has, before he/she commenced his/her probation, already passed any of the special tests prescribed, he shall not be required to pass such special tests again. (3) (i) Approved Probationer: If, at the end of the period of probation or of the period of probation as extended under Rule 15, the appointing authority considers the probationer to be suitable for full membership, it shall issue an order declaring the probationer to have satisfactorily completed his/her period of probation. On the issue of such order, the probationer shall be deemed to have satisfactorily completed his/her probation on the date of the expiry of the prescribed or extended period of probation; (ii) Termination of Probation: If the appointing authority decides that the probationer has failed to give satisfaction in regard to his/her suitability for full membership it shall, unless the period of probation is extended under Rule 15, by order, discharge him/her from the service after giving him/her one month's notice or pay in lieu of such notice: Provided that if the discharge of a probationer is as a measure of punishment on the ground of misconduct, negligence or any specific fault on the part of the probationer, the procedure prescribed under Rule 19 (2) read with Rule 20 of the Telangana Civil Service (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1991, shall be followed and it shall not be necessary to give him/her one month's notice or pay in lieu of such notice. Explanation I. - The decision of the appointing authority that the probationer has failed to give satisfaction in regard to his/her suitability for full membership may be based also on his/her work and conduct till the date of the decision, inclusive of the period subsequent to the prescribed or extended period of probation. Explanation II. - In case where the discharge of the probationer is made by reverting him/her to his/her lower officiating or substantive post, the pay in lieu of one month's notice shall be limited to the difference in pay between the officiating post and that of the lower officiating or substantive post to which he/she is reverted. (iii) Decision on declaration of probation: The decision whether a probationer is suitable for full membership or his/her probation be extended shall be taken soon after the expiry of the prescribed period of probation, i.e., within a period of six months after such expiry and be communicated to him/her. The appointing authority shall communicate the lapse on the part of the probationer if any, well in advance of the expiry of the prescribed period of probation so that he/she may rectify such lapse.

15. Extension of probation.

- In the case of any probationer falling under subrule (2) or clause (ii) of sub-rule (3) of Rule 14, the appointing authority may extend his/her probation to enable him/her to acquire the special qualifications or pass the prescribed tests, as the case may be, to enable the appointing authority to decide whether the probationer is suitable for full membership or not. Such extended period of probation or the period of probation as extended under clause (ii) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 14 shall terminate at the latest when the probationer has, after the date of expiry of the period of probation prescribed for the class or category in which he/she is on probation, completed one year of duty in such category. In case where the probation is extended, increments of the probationer shall be postponed until he completes his/her probation satisfactorily within the period for which his/her probation is extended. Such postponement of increment shall not be treated as a penalty but only as a condition of the extension of probation and shall not have the effect of postponing future increments after he/she has passed the prescribed tests or examinations or after he/she completes his/her probation satisfactorily.

16. Appeal against termination or probation.

(1) A probationer who is discharged under clause (ii) or sub-rule (1) or under sub-rule (3) of Rule 14 shall be entitled to appeal to the High Court within the period of limitation within which an appeal would lie against an order of dismissal passed against a full member of the division or category as the case may be, to which the probationer belongs. (2) Revision of order of termination of probation: - The High Court may, either of its own motion or otherwise, revise any order discharging a probationer under any of the provisions referred to in sub-rule (1) within one year of the date of such order. (3) Conditions of service on restoration of discharged probationers: (i) When an order discharging a probationer is set aside on appeal under sub-rule (1) or on revision under sub-rule (2) and the probationer is restored to the service, the period on and from the date of discharge to the date of such restoration may be treated as duty except for purposes of probation. The period of probation undergone by such probationer at the time of his/her discharge shall, however, count towards the period of probation prescribed by the rules applicable to him/her.(ii)Such probationer may, during the period on and from the date of his/her discharge to the date of his/her restoration, be paid such pay and allowances, not exceeding the pay and allowances to which he/she would have been entitled if he/she had not been discharged, as the High Court may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, determine.

17. Discharge of probationers and approved probationers for want of vacancies.

(1)Probationers and approved probationers may be discharged for want of vacancies in the following order:-(i)First, probationers in the order of juniority and(ii)Second, the approved probationers in order of juniority. The order of discharge may be departed from in cases where such order would involve excessive expenditure on travelling allowance or exceptional administrative inconvenience.Explanation. - A member of the service who is transferred at his/her own request from one unit to another shall, for the purpose of this sub rule, be treated as junior to all probationers appointed in the new unit prior to his/her joining that unit, notwithstanding the fact that he/she is already an approved probationer or will complete probation earlier than the other probationers in that unit.(2)Reappointment of probationers and approved probationers: Approved probationers and probationers who have been discharged for want of vacancies shall be reappointed as vacancies arise, in the inverse order laid down in clause (i) or (ii) or sub-rule (1).Provided that the said order may be departed from in cases where such order would involve excessive expenditure on travelling allowance or exceptional administrative inconvenience.

18. Appointment of full member.

(1)Subject to the provisions of Rule 32: an approved probationer shall be appointed to be a full member in the category for which he/she was selected at the earliest possible opportunity in any substantive vacancy which may exist or arise in the permanent cadre of such category and if such vacancy existed from a date previous to the issue of the order of appointment, he/she may be so appointed with retrospective effect from such date or, as the case may be, from such subsequent date from which he/she was continuously on duty as a member of the service in such category or in a higher category:Provided that, where more than one approved probationer is available for such appointment as a full member, the senior-most approved probationer on the date of the vacancy shall be appointed;Provided further that where, by reason of administrative convenience, a member of the service completes his/her probation earlier than another member of the service who is senior to him/her, the member who so completes his/her probation earlier shall not be confirmed before the member who is senior to him/her. The senior member shall be confirmed according to his/her seniority in the service after he/she completes satisfactorily the period of his/her probation.Explanation. - (i) For the purposes of this sub-rule, an approved probationer on leave shall be deemed to be on duty as a member of the service in the category concerned, if he/she would have been on duty in such category or in a higher category but for his/her absence on leave.(ii)A member of the service who is transferred on his/her own request from one unit to another shall not, by reason of having completed his/her probation earlier than the other probationers in the new unit, be confirmed before them.(2)No person shall, at the same time, be a full member of this and another service, State or Sub-ordinate.A probationer, approved probationer or full member of this service who is appointed to be a full member of another service shall cease to be a member of this service.

19. Seniority.

(1)The seniority of a person in a category shall, unless he/she has been reduced to a lower rank as a punishment, be determined by the date of his/her first appointment to such category. If any portion of the service of such person does not count towards probation under Rule 25 (4), his/her seniority shall be determined by the date of commencement of his/her service, which counts towards probation.(2)After the selection process is completed, the appointing authority shall draw up the merit list of candidates selected, including the candidates selected against reservation categories, by arranging them in accordance with their merit rankings and shall follow the same for the purpose of determination of seniority.(3)The transfer of a person on administrative grounds from one category to another category carrying the same pay or scale of pay after commencement of these Rules shall not be treated as the first appointment to the latter for purposes of seniority and the seniority of a person so transferred shall be determined with reference to the date of his/her first appointment to the category from which he/she was transferred. Where any difficulty or doubt arises in applying this sub-rule, the appointing authority shall determine seniority and such decision shall be final.(4)Where a member of any category is reduced, for a specified period, to a lower category :- (a)in cases where the reduction does not operate to postpone future increments, the seniority of such member on re-promotion shall, unless the terms of the order of punishment provide otherwise, be fixed in the higher category at what it would have been but for his/her reduction.(b)in cases where the reduction operates to postpone future increments, the seniority of such member on re-promotion shall, unless the terms of the order of punishment provide otherwise, be fixed by giving credit for the period of service rendered by him/her only in the higher category.

20. Scope of application of rules.

- For the purpose of first appointment, discharge for want of vacancies, reappointment, seniority and appointment of full members, every post or group of posts in a category for which qualification in a particular subject is prescribed shall be deemed to be a separate category.

21. Training.

(a)Every person selected for appointment by direct recruitment as Junior Assistant shall undergo training for a period of not less than four months or for such period as the High Court may prescribe from time to time.(b)Every person appointed to the service by direct recruitment shall, before the commencement of training, execute an agreement bond that he/she shall serve the Department for a period of three years after the completion of training referred to in sub-rule (a).(c)He/She shall be liable to refund to the Government the pay and allowances or any other remuneration received by him/her in addition to the amount spent by the Government in his/her training:-(i)if he/she fails to serve the Department for a period of three years after the completion of his/her training for any reason; or(ii)if he/she discontinues the training or is discharged from training for misconduct or any other reasons; or(iii)if he/she secures any other employment elsewhere than under the State Government.(d)The period of training shall count for purposes of probation, increments, leave and pension.(e)A direct recruit shall be eligible during the period of training for the initial pay of the post with usual allowances admissible at the place of training.

22. Security.

(a)Where the State Government, by general or special order, directs that the holder(s) of any specified post or category of posts shall deposit security for the due and faithful performance of his/her duties; and(b)Every person appointed to the following posts shall, for the due and faithful performance of duties attached thereto, deposit security in the sum specified below:(i)Posts in Category 1 & 2 Rs. 50,000/-(ii)Category 3 Rs. 25,000/-(iii)Category 4 to 16 Rs. 10,000/-(c)If within a month from the date of his/her appointment or promotion, the person concerned fails to deposit the security required, his/her probation shall be deemed to have been terminated and the appointing authority shall forthwith, by order, discharge him/her from the service or revert him/her to the post from which he/she was promoted, as the case may be, unless he/she has already been otherwise discharged or reverted.Provided that the termination of probation under this sub-rule shall not disentitle a person for promotion to any post in the service which does not require a security and for which he/she would have been eligible for promotion otherwise than by reason of his/her promotion or appointment to the post requiring a security.

23. Probationer-desiring courses of study not connected with probation.

(1)A probationer who desires to undergo any course study, which though not essentially connected with his/her probation is likely to enhance his/her usefulness as a member of the service, may, on his/her application and subject to exigencies of service, be permitted by the appointing authority to undergo the desired course of study. He/She shall also be granted the entire amount of leave, if any, admissible under the rule applicable to him/her if, but for such leave, he/she would have continued to be on duty.(2)Such a probationer shall, on the completion of the course of study, be entitled to appointment according to the rank and seniority held by him/her in his/her unit in the category before undergoing the said course of study. He/She shall also be entitled to count his/her continuous service immediately before his/her undergoing the said course of study for increments in the time scale of pay applicable to him/her but for his/her absence from the service (whether on leave or otherwise) for undergoing the said course of study, he/she would have continued to be on duty.(3)The absence of an employee as above shall be regularized in accordance with the provisions of the Fundamental Rules.

24. Special provisions relating to Copyists and Process Establishment.

- Nothing in these rules shall affect the operation of the copyists and process establishment rules in the Civil Rules of Practice and Circular Orders, Volume-I.

25. Temporary Promotions.

(1)(i)Where it is necessary in public interest, owing to an emergency which has arisen, to fill immediately a vacancy in a post borne on the cadre of a higher category of the service by promotion from a lower category and there would be undue delay in making such promotion in accordance with these rules the appointing authority may promote a person otherwise than in accordance with these rules, temporarily, until a person is promoted in accordance with these rules. Such promotion shall not, except with the specific permission of the High Court, exceed a period of six months. The High Court may grant such permission only for stated reasons and in very exceptional cases, without prejudice to the normal claims of any other employees.(ii)A person who does not possess the qualifications prescribed for the post shall ordinarily not be promoted under clause (i). Every person who does not possess such qualifications and who has been or is promoted under clause (i) shall be replaced as soon as possible by promoting a person possessing such qualifications.(2)Where it is necessary to fill a short vacancy in a higher category in any division of the service by promotion from a lower category and the appointment of the person who is entitled to such promotion under these rules would involve excessive expenditure on traveling allowance or exceptional administrative inconvenience, the appointing authority may promote any other person who possesses the qualifications, if any, prescribed for the higher category.(3)A person temporarily promoted under clause (i) of sub-rule (1) shall, whether or not he/she possesses the qualification prescribed for the post to which he/she is promoted, be replaced as soon as possible by a member of the service who is entitled to promotion under these rules.(4)A person promoted under sub-rule (1) shall not be regarded as a probationer in the higher category or be entitled, by reason only of such promotion, to any preferential claim to future promotion to such higher category. If such person is subsequently promoted to the higher category in accordance with these rules, he/she shall commence his/her probation, if any, in such category from the date of such subsequent promotion or from such earlier date as the appointing authority may determine.(5)The appointing authority shall have the right to revert to a lower category any person promoted under sub-rule (1)(i) at any time without assigning any reason and without notice.

26. Transfers and postings.

(1)The transfers and postings of persons shall ordinarily be made by the appointing authorities within the unit.(2)Transfer of members of the service who are full members or approved probationers from the jurisdiction of one appointing authority to that of another shall be made by the High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad for the State of Telangana and the State of Andhra Pradesh.Provided that the seniority of a member who is transferred on administrative grounds shall be fixed with reference to the date of his/her appointment in the unit from which he/she is transferred while seniority of a member transferred on his/her own request from one Unit to another shall be fixed in the latter Unit with reference to the date of his/her appointment in that Unit upon such transfer.(3)Transfers of Chief Administrative Officers from one Unit to another shall be made by the High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad for the State of Telangana and the State of Andhra Pradesh.(4)It shall be competent for the High Court to combine two or more districts into one unit of appointment for purposes of transfer and posting of personnel working in the district or units. In cases of transfer of any such personnel, the provisions of Rule 38 of Telangana State and Subordinate Rules shall, unless specifically ordered otherwise, apply. In cases of such combination of Units of appointment, each appointing authority may submit proposals for transfer to the High Court, which shall pass final orders in that regard. With the concurrence of both the Unit Heads, the High Court may transfer a candidate from one unit to the other unit.

27. Consequences of resignation.

(a) A member of the service shall, if he/she resigns his/her post, forego not only the service rendered by him/her in the particular post held by him/her at the time of resignation but all his/her previous service under the Government of Telangana or any other State Government in India. (b) The reappointment of such person to the service shall be treated in the same way as a first appointment to the service by direct recruitment and all rules governing such appointment shall apply; and on such reappointment he/she shall not be entitled to count any portion of his/her previous service for any benefit or concession admissible under any rule or order; Provided that nothing contained in this Rule shall affect the operation of clause (b) of Article 418 of the Civil Service Regulations.

28. Military duty to count for pension.

- Notwithstanding anything in these rules and notwithstanding anything contained in the pension rules made or deemed to be made by the State Government, a member of the service, who was deputed from military duty, shall be entitled to count the periods spent on military duty for purpose of pension, if he/she would have counted for that purpose his/her service in the civil department but for his/her deputation for military duty. Explanation. - This rule shall, in its application to a member who has been or may be called to or employed in service paid for from Defence Services Estimates, be subject to the condition specified in the letter of the Government of India, War Department (Army Branch) to the Adjutant - General in India, No.11008/AGAINST - 14(a), dated the 11th June, 1944, recorded in G.O.Ms.No.465, Finance, dated 6th September, 1944.

29. Reduction of full member.

- If a full member of any category in the service is subsequently reduced to a lower category, he/she shall be deemed to be a full member of the latter and the permanent cadre thereof shall, if there is no vacancy in which he/she could be absorbed, be deemed to be increased by one so long as such member continues therein; Provided that against every such addition, an officiating or temporary vacancy, if any, in such lower category shall be kept unfilled and such addition shall be absorbed in the first permanent vacancy that subsequently arises in such lower category.

30. Appointment in place of members dismissed, removed or reduced.

- Where a person has been dismissed, removed or reduced in rank from any category in the service, no vacancy caused thereby or arising subsequently in such category in the service shall be subsequently filled to the prejudice of such person except temporarily until the appeal, if any, preferred by him/her against such dismissal, removal or reduction is decided and except in conformity with such decision, or until the time allowed for preferring an appeal has expired, as the case may be.

31. Relinquishment of Rights by members.

- Any person may in writing, relinquish any right or privilege to which he/she may be entitled under these rules, if, in the opinion of the appointing authority, such relinquishment is not opposed to public interest and nothing in these rules shall be deemed to require the recognition of any right or privilege to the extent to which it has been so relinquished.

32. Members absent from duty.

- The absence of a member of the service from duty, whether on leave, or on foreign service or on deputation or for any other reason and whether his/her lien in a post borne on the cadre of the service is suspended or not, shall not, if he/she is otherwise fit, render him/her ineligible in his/her turn:(a)for re-appointment to a substantive or officiating vacancy in the category or post in which he/she may be a probationer or an approved probationer.(b)for promotion from a lower to a higher category in the service; or(c)For appointment to any substantive or officiating vacancy in another service for which he/she may be an approved candidate, as the case may be, in the same manner as if he/she had not been absent. He/She shall be entitled to all the privileges in respect of appointment, seniority, probation and confirmation, which he/she would have enjoyed, but for his/her absence, subject to his/her completing satisfactorily the period of probation on his/her return.Provided that a member of the service, who is appointed to another service and is a probationer or an approved probationer in that latter service, shall not be appointed under clause (c) to any other service for which he/she may be an approved candidate unless he/she relinquishes his/her membership in the latter service, in which he/she is a probationer or an approved probationer.

33. Relaxation of Rules.

- (A) Relaxation of Rules by the Governor. - Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Governor of the State may relax the application of the rules in relation to any member of the service or any person to be appointed to the service.Provided that where any such rule is applicable to the case of any person, the case shall not be dealt with in a manner less favourable to him/her than that provided by the rules.(B)Relaxation of rules by the High Court. - Without prejudice to the power of the Governor under Rule 33-A, the High Court shall also have the power to relax any of the rules and deal with the case of a member of the service holding a post carrying a scale of pay less than that of a Junior Assistant or any person to be appointed to such post insofar as such case relates to the service conditions governed by these rules in such manner as may appear to it to be just and equitable.Provided that where any such rule is applicable to the case of any member, the case shall not be dealt with in any manner less favourable than that provided by that rule.

34. Applicability of General Rules.

- In respect of matters, which are not covered by these rules, the provisions of the Telangana State and Subordinate Service Rules shall apply to the members of the service.

35. Transitory Provisions.

(a) In case of person who are in service on the date of issue of these rules and who are eligible for promotion or transfer to a higher post and for whom a test is now prescribed as a pre-requisite for such promotion or appointment by transfer but for whom such test was earlier required to be passed after promotion or transfer within the period of probation, may be promoted or transferred, even though they have not passed the tests, but shall be required to pass the test within the prescribed period of probation for such higher post. This concession shall be in force for a period of two years from the date of issue of these rules. (b) In case of persons who are in service on the date of issue of these rules and who are otherwise eligible for promotion to the higher posts of category 2 to 7 and for whom a Graduation Qualification is now prescribed as a pre-requisite for such promotion, may be promoted, even though they do not possess the Graduation Qualification, but they shall be required to acquire the prescribed qualification within the period of five (5) years from the date of promotion. This concession shall be in force for a period of three (3) years from the date of issue of these rules.

36. Repeal and Saving.

- The Special Rules issued in G.O.Ms.No.129, Law (L.A. & J-Home-Courts-D), 12th November 2003 as amended from time to time are hereby repealed. Provided further that nothing in these rules shall affect the appointments made in accordance with the repealed Rules prior to the coming into force of these rules. Provided further that nothing in these rules shall affect the appointments made in accordance with the rules issued in G.O.Ms.No.965 General Administration (Ser.B) Department, dated 21st October, 1995 (Andhra Pradesh Last Grade Service Rules) and G.O.Ms.No.565 General Administration (Services B) Department, dated 24th October, 1992 (Andhra Pradesh General Subordinate Service Rules) prior to the coming into force of these rules.
