Execution of Awards, Decrees, Orders and Decisions

53. Procedure In Execution of award etc

(1)Any decree holder requiring the provisions of clause (c) of section 153 of the Act to be applied shall apply to the Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the defaulter resides or the property of the defaulter is situated.(2)Every such application shall be made in the form specified by the Registrar and shall be signed by the decree holder, may indicate whether he wishes to proceed against the immovable property mortgaged to the decree holder or other immovable property or to secure the attachment of immovable property.(3)On receipt of such application, the Recovery Officer shall verify the correct-ness and genuineness of the particulars set forth in the application with the records, if any, in the office of the Registrar and prepare a demand notice in writing in duplicate in the form specified by the Registrar setting forth the name of the defaulter and the amount due and forward it fit to a sale officer.(4)Unless the decree holder has expressed a desire that proceedings should be taken in a particular order as laid down in sub-rule (2) execution shall ordinary be taken in the following manner:-(i)Movable property of the defaulter shall be first proceeded against but this shall not preclude the immovable property being proceeded against simultaneously in case if necessary;(ii)If there is no movable property, or if the sale proceeds of the movable property, or properties attached and sold are insufficient to meet in full the, demand of the decree holder, the immovable property mortgaged to the decree holder or other immovable property belonging to the defaulter may be proceeded against.(5)In the seizure and sale of movable property the following rules shall be observed:-(a)The sale officer shall after giving previous notice to the decree holder, proceed to the village where defaulter resides or the property to be distrained is situated and serve a demand notice upon the defaulter if he is present. If the amount due together with the expenses be not at once paid the sale officer shall make the distress and shall immediately deliver to the defaulter in a list or inventory of the property distrained and an intimation of place and day and hour at which the distrained property will be brought to sale if the amounts due are not previously discharged. If the defaulter is absent the sale officer shall serve the demand notice on some adult member of his family, or on his authorised agent, or when such service cannot be effected shall affix a copy of the demand notice on some conspicuous part of his residence. He shall then proceed to make the distress and shall affix the list of the property attached on the usual place of residence of the defaulter endorsing thereon the place where the property may be lodged or kept and an intimation of the place, day and hour of sale.(b)After the distress is made, the sale officer may arrange for the custody of the property attached with the decree holder or otherwise. If the sale officer requires the decree holder to undertake the custody of the property, he shall be bound to do so and also loss incurred owing to his negligence shall be made good by decree holder. If the attached property is livestock, the decree holder shall be responsible for providing the necessary food therefor. The sale officer may at the instance of the defaulter or of any person claiming an interest in such property, leave it in the village or place where it was attached, in the charge of such defaulter or person, if he enters into a bond in the form specified by the Registrar with one or more sufficient sureties for the production of the property when called for. (c) The distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset and not at any other time. (d) The distress levied shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible proportionate to the sum due by the defaulter together with interest and all expenses incidental to the distraint, detention and sale. (e) If crops or un-gathered products of the land belonging to the defaulter are attached the sale officer may cause them to be sold when fit for reaping or gathering, or at his option may cause them to be reaped or gathered in due season and stored in proper place until sold. In the later cases, the expenses of reaping or gathering and storing such crops or products shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property or from the proceeds of the sale in event of its being sold. (f) The sale officer shall not work the bullocks or cattle or make use of the goods or effect distrained, and he shall provide the necessary food for the cattle or livestock, the expenses incurred thereon shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property or from proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold. (h) The remainder of the purchase money and the amount required for the general stamp for the sale certificate shall be paid within fifteen days from the date of sale: Provided that the limit for such repayment may be at the discretion of the recovery officer for a period of 10 days from the date of sale: Provided further that in calculating the amounts to be paid under this clause, the purchaser shall have the advantage of any set off to which he may be entitled under clause (k). (i) In default of payment within the period mentioned in the preceding clause the deposit may, if the recovery officer thinks fit after defraying the expenses of the sale be forfeited to the Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the property, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold. (j) Every resale of immovable property in default of payment of the amount mentioned in clause (h) within the period allowed for such payment, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner and for the period therein before prescribed for the sale. (k) Where a decree-holder purchases the property, the purchase money and the amount due on the decree shall be set off against the another and the sale officer shall make entry regarding satisfaction of the decree in whole or in part accordingly. (12) Where prior to the date fixed for a sale, the defaulter or any person acting on his behalf or any person claiming an interest in the property sought to be sold tenders payment of the full amount due together with interest, batta and other expenses incurred in bringing the property to sale, including the expenses of attachment if any, the sale officer shall forthwith release the property after cancelling where the property has been attached by the order of attachment. (13) (i) Where immovable property has been sold by the sale officer, any person either owing such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale may apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing with the recovery officer- (a) for payment to the purchaser a sum equal to 5 percent of the purchase money; and (b) for payment to the decree-holder the amount of arrears specifying the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered together with interest thereon and expenses of attachment, if any, and sale and other costs due in respect of such amount, less amount which may since the date of such proclamation have been received by the decree-holder. (ii) If such deposits on application are made within thirty days from the date of sale, the recovery officer shall pass an order setting aside the sale and shall repay to the purchaser the purchase money so far as it has been deposited together with the 5 percent deposited by the applicant: Provided that if more than one person have made deposit and application under this sub-rule, the application of the first depositor to the officer authorised to set aside the sale shall be accepted. (iii) If a person applies under sub-rule (14) to set aside the sale of immovable property, he shall not be entitled to make an application under this sub-rule.(14)(i)At any time within thirty days of the date of the sale of immovable property, the decree-holder or any person entitled to share in a rateable distribution of the assets or whose interests are effected by the sale, may apply to the recovery officer to set aside the sale on the grounds to a material irregularity or mistake or fraud in publishing or conducting it:Provided that no sale shall be set aside on the grounds of irregularity or fraud unless the said recovery officer, is satisfied that the applicant has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity, mistake or fraud.(ii)If the application be allowed, the said recovery officer shall set aside the sale and may direct a fresh one.(iii)On the expiry of thirty days, from the date of sale if no application has been made to set aside the sale or if such application has been made and rejected, the said recovery officer shall make an order confirming the sale:Provided that, if he shall have reason to think that the sale ought to be set aside notwithstanding that no such application has been made or on grounds other than those alleged in any application which has been made and rejected, he may after recording his reasons in writing set aside the sale.(iv)Whenever the sale of any immovable property is not so confirmed or is set aside the deposit or the purchase money, as the case may be, shall be returned to the purchaser.(v)After the confirmation of any such sale the said recovery officer shall grant a certificate of bearing his seal and signature to the purchaser and such certificate shall state the property sold and name of the purchaser, and it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of the purchase in all courts and tribunals where it may be necessary to prove it. No proof of the seal or signature of the recovery officer shall be necessary unless the authority before whom it is produced has reason to doubt its genuineness.(vi)An order made under this sub-rule shall be final and shall not be liable to be questioned in any suit or other legal proceedings.(15)Where any lawful purchaser of immovable property is resisted and prevented by any person other than a person (not being the defaulter) claiming in good faith to be in possession of the property on his own account from obtaining possession of the immovable property purchased and court of competent jurisdiction on the application, and production of the certificate of sale provided for by sub-rule (14), shall cause the proper process to be issued for the purpose of putting such purchaser in possession, in the same manner as if the immovable property purchased had been decreed to the purchaser by a decision of the Court.(16)It shall be lawful for the sale officer to sell the whole or any portion of the immovable property of the defaulter in discharge of money due:Provided always that so far as may be practicable so larger section or portion of immovable property shall be sold that may be sufficient to discharge the amount due with interest and expenses of attachment, if any, and sale.(17)Where an attachment has been made under these rules any private transfer or delivery of the property attached or of any interest therein and any payment to the defaulter of any debt, dividend or other moneys contrary to such attachment shall be void as against all claims enforceable under the attachment.Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-rule, claims enforceable under an attachment include claims for the rateable distribution of assets under sub-rule (24).(18)Persons employed in serving notice or in other process under these rules shall be entitled to batta at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the recovery officer.(19)Where the cost and charges incurred in connection with attachment and also of movable property or the attachment and sale or sale without attachment of immovable property under this rule, exceeds the amount of the cost deposited by the decree holder under sub-rule (1) such excess shall be deducted from the sale proceeds of the property sold for the moneys paid by the defaulter, as the case may be, and the balance shall be made available to the decree-holder.(20)Every person making a payment towards any money due for the recovery of which application has been made under the rules shall be entitled to a receipt for the amount signed by the sale officer or the officer empowered by the recovery officer in that behalf, such receipts shall state the name of the person making the payment and the subject matter in respect of which the payment is made.(21)(a)Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment of any property attached under this rule on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the sale officer shall investigate the claim or objection and dispose of it on merits:Provided that no such investigation shall be made when the sale officer considers that the claim or objection is frivolous.(b)Where the property to which the claim or objection relates has been advertised for sale, the sale officer may postpone the sale pending the investigation of the claim or objection.(c)Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit within six months from the date of the order to establish the right which he claims against the property in dispute, but, subject to the outcome of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.(22)(i)Any deficiency of price which may occur on a resale held under clause (j) of sub-rule (ii) by reason of the purchasers' default and all expenses incurred on such resale shall be certified by the sale officer to the recovery officer and shall, at the instance of either decree-holder or the defaulter, be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser under the provisions of this rule. The costs, if any incidental to such recovery shall also be borne by the defaulting purchaser.(ii)Where the property is on the resale, sold for a higher price than at the first sale the defaulting purchaser at the first sale, have no claim to the difference or increase.(23)Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree but by reason of the decree holder's default the recovery officer is unable to proceed further with the application for execution, he shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason adjourn the proceedings to a future date. Upon the dismissal of such application the attachment shall cease.(24)(a)Where the sale officer attaches or has attached under these rules, any property not in the custody of any court, which is already under attachment made in execution of a decree of any court, such court shall receive and realize such property and shall determine claims thereto and any objections to the attachment thereof:Provided that where the property is under attachment in the execution of decree of more courts than one, the court which shall receive or realize such property and shall determine any claim thereto and objection to the attachment thereof, shall be the court of the highest grade, or where there is no difference in grade between such courts, the court under whose decree the property was first attached.(b)Where assets are held by the sale officer and before the receipt of such assets demand notices in pursuance of application for execution of decree against the same defaulter have been received from more than one decree-holder and the decree-holders have not obtained satisfaction of their decrees the assets after deducting the costs or realization, shall be rateably distributed by the sale officer among all such decree-holders in the manner provided in section 73 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977.(25)Where a defaulter dies before the decree has been fully satisfied an application under sub-rule (1) may be made against the legal representative of the deceased and thereupon all the provisions of this rule shall, save as otherwise provided in this sub-rule apply as if such legal representative was the defaulter. Where the decree is executed against such legal representative he shall be liable only to the extent of the property of the decrees which has come to his hands and has not been duly disposed of and for the purpose of ascertaining such liability, the recovery officer executing the decree may, of his own motion or on the application of the decree-holder, compel such legal representative to produce such accounts as he thinks fit.(26)Where in connection with proceedings on an application under section 153 of the Act, any person requires the issue of any process or objects to any process issued or objects to any order passed, he shall pay such fee as may be specified by the Registrar in this behalf.

54. Mode of making attachment before judgement

Agriculture and Rural Development Banks

57. Procedure for submission and consideration of application for loans from an Agriculture and Rural Development Bank

(1)All applications for loan from an Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall be made in the form prescribed by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank with the approval of the Registrar. The form shall among other things contain a list of documents, which are required to be submitted for purposes of dealing with the applicant.(2)Every Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall keep sufficient stock of printed copies of the forms of loan application and shall issue them to the intending borrower on payment of such fee as may be specified from time to time by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank with the approval of the Registrar.(3)Every Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall specify from time to time, the name, designation and address of the officer (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as " the receiving officer") who shall receive all loan application forms from the intending borrowers.(4)The application together with copies of necessary documents and amount of all fees specified by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank with the approval of the Registrar and deposit equivalent to the value of one share of the Bank, shall be submitted by the applicant to the receiving officer.(5)On receipt of an application for loan, the receiving officer shall put his initials on the application and mention his designation and the date of receipt of the application.(6)After an application for loan has been received the receiving officer shall verify whether it contains all the necessary particulars and is accompanied by the necessary documents. If any details are lacking, he shall get the application completed by the applicant.(7)Each application shall be entered in the chronological order in the register of application for loan from the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank to be maintained by the receiving officer and shall be dealt with in the same order.(8)Immediately after the application is entered in the register of application for loans from the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank, the receiving officer shall forward it to the Land Valuation Officer or such other persons as may be nominated in this behalf by the Registrar, Cooperative Societies within whose jurisdiction the land in respect of which the application is made is situated (being the person prescribed for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 88 of the Act, hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the Public Inquiry Officer'). The Public Inquiry Officer shall give at least eight days public notice in form 'F' calling upon all persons interested to present their objections to the loan, if any. The notice shall also be given by beat of drum and shall be affixed at conspicuous places in the village or villages where the applicant resides and in the limits of which the land or lands proposed to be improved or offered as security for the loan is or are situated. A copy of the notice shall be exhibited in the Head Office and relevant branch office, if any, of the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank concerned and in the office, if any, of the person giving notice.(9)If any person interested to raise objection fails to appear as stated or required by the aforesaid notice, the question at the issue will be decided in their absence and such persons will till such time as the loan together with interest thereon or with other dues arising out of the loan are paid in full by the loanee. The Public Inquiry Officer shall consider every objection submitted under sub-section (1) of section 88 in the manner laid down in the section.(10)The Public Enquiry Officer shall then forward the application within two days after its disposal to the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank concerned. The Agriculture and Rural Development Bank may appoint an Enquiry Officer (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the "Enquiry Officer") to enquire into the application. The Enquiry Officer shall make enquiry by personally visiting the land in which the improvement is proposed to and shall verify the records of the lands and other property offered as security. He shall conduct his enquiry in accordance with the form to be prescribed by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank. In case the Public Enquiry Officer is unable to forward the application within two days, he shall make a report to the Registrar, stating thereunder, the reasons therefor and he shall thereafter act in accordance with such directions as may be issued to him by the Registrar. The Enquiry Officer may make such other enquiries as may be necessary and shall value lands according to such formula as may be laid down by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank, with the approval of the Registrar from time to time, estimate the repaying capacity of the applicant and examine the feasibility and the utility of the proposed improvement. He shall then submit his report stating therein the amount of loan which may be granted to the applicant against the security and specify the period within which it may be recovered from him. The Enquiry Officer shall complete his enquiry within fifteen days of the receipt of the application. If the Enquiry Officer is unable to complete his enquiry within fifteen days, he shall make a report to the Registrar stating therein the reasons therefor and he shall thereafter act in accordance with such directions as may be issued to him by Registrar.(11)After completion of the Enquiry, the application together with his report shall be submitted by the Enquiry Officer to the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank together with the following certificates:-(a)Certificate regarding outstanding Government dues;(b)Any other relevant certificate.(12)On receipt of the report of the Enquiry Officer under sub-rule (11), the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall satisfy itself that the inquiry has been properly conducted. If there are any deficiencies, the Bank shall get them completed immediately.(13)The Agriculture and Rural Development Bank may then undertake such further scrutiny as may be necessary and pass orders within 30 days. Decision shall be communicated to the applicant within 7 days thereafter. In case the final orders are not passed within 30 days, the Bank shall make a report to the Registrar stating therein the reason therefor and shall thereafter act in accordance with such directions as may be issued to it by Registrar.(14)All the applications received by the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall be disposed of by the Bank within maximum period of four months. If the Bank is unable to dispose of an application for loan within the period of 4 months, it shall make a report to the Registrar stating therein the reasons therefor and the Bank shall thereafter act in accordance with such directions as may be issued to it by the Registrar.(15)In the case of rejection of application for loans, the reasons therefor shall be communicated by the Bank to the applicant. When the loan has been sanctioned, the Bank shall lay down the terms and conditions regarding grant of loan and payment of installments, submission of report on the progress of improvement of land and release of subsequent installment, the applicant shall be asked by the Agriculture and Rural development Bank to remain present at the Head Office or Branch Office of the Bank on a date to be fixed for execution of the mortgage deed and for receiving loan or the communication of sanction of loan to the applicant. First installment thereof, such date shall not ordinarily be latter than 15 days from the date of receipt of application.(16)The applicant while receiving the amount of the loan or the first installment of the loan shall purchase share of the Bank to such extent as may be required under bye-laws of the Bank. The Agriculture and Rural Development Bank shall issue a receipt to the applicant giving full particulars of the amount paid by him from time to time.(17)Failure to comply within time limits specified in this rule shall not in any manner affect the validity of the sanction of the loans by the Agriculture and Rural Development Bank or by the State Agriculture and Rural Development Bank.
