The Punjab Local Authorities Laws (Exercise of Power) Act, 1953 Punjab Act No. 34 of 1954 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - The Punjab Local Authorities Laws (Exercise of Powers) Ordinance, 1953, was promulgated to amend the enactments pertaining to Local Government in order to distribute the functions of the Commissioner thereunder between the State Government and the Deputy Commissioner, consequent upon the decision of the State Government to abolish one post of a Commissioner and to relieve the other of the work connected with local bodies. The Punjab Local Authorities Laws (Exercise of Powers) Bill, 1953, is intended to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the Legislature. Published vide Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, 1953. Received the assent of the Governor on the 28th October, 1953, and was first published for general information in the Punjab Government Gazette (Extraordinary), dated 2nd November, 1953. An Act to provide for the performance of the functions of a Commissioner under certain laws. It is hereby enacted as follows :

1. Short title, extent and commencement.

(1) This Act may be cited as the Punjab Local Authorities Laws (Exercise of Powers) Act, 1953. (2) It shall extend to the whole of the State of [Haryana] [Substituted by Haryana Adaptation Laws Order, 1968.]. (3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Performance of the functions of the Commissioner by other authority.

- All the powers, functions, or duties of the Commissioner under the provisions referred to in Schedule I and Schedule II of this Act, shall be exercised, performed or discharged, as the case may be, by the State Government and the Deputy Commissioner, respectively; and the enactments referred to therein shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

3. Amendment of certain Acts.

- In relation to the enactments referred to in column I of the Schedule III of this Act, the provisions referred to in column 2 thereof shall be deemed to have been amended to the extent and in the manner indicated in column 3 thereof.

4. Delegation.

- The State Government shall be competent to delegate any power, duty or function devolving upon itself as a result of this Act, to any officer or other authority, to the extent as it may specify by a notification in this behalf.

4A. [The State Government, may by general or special order, notified in the official Gazette, authorise any Officer or authority, to exercise, perform, or discharge all or any of the powers, functions or duties of the Deputy Commissioner, under the provisions of this Act or enactments referred to in Schedule I and Schedule II of this Act (other than the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883), in such area and subject to such extent or restrictions as it may specify in such order.] [Added vide Punjab Act 18 of 1954.]

5. Removal of difficulties.

- If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any of the enactments specified in the Schedules of this Act or any rule made there under, the State Government shall be competent to issue necessary instructions by means of a general or special order for the purposes of removing the same.

6. Saving of pending proceedings.

- The provisions of this Act shall not affect the validity of any action taken or anything done by the Commissioner under any of the provisions of the enactments specified in the Schedules of this Act before the commencement of this Act and anything done or any action taken shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the provision of this Act as if this Act was in force at the time when such thing was done or such action taken.

7. Repeal of Punjab Ordinance No. II of 1953.

- The Punjab Local Authorities Laws (Exercise of Powers) Ordinance, 1953, is hereby repealed but notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken in the exercise of any powers conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Act as if this Act was in force on the day on which such thing was done or action was taken.
