Rajasthan Tenancy Act, 1955Rajasthan Act No. 3 of 1955

001.

Statement of Objects and Reasons Act No. 37 of 2013. - Proviso to sub-section (1) of 45 of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act, 1955 provides that for the purpose of agricultural operations in connection with such agro-processing and agri-business enterprise as may be approved in the prescribed manner by the State Government or any authority appointed by it, a holder of Khudkasht or a land owner may let or a Khatedar tenant may sublet whole or any part of his holding for a term of fifteen years and may extend such lease or sub-lease for a further period of fifteen years. To make easy availability of agricultural land for the purpose of plantation of Prosopis Juliflora or any other like plantation to be used for generation of electricity it had been decided to amend the aforesaid proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 45. Since the Rajasthan Legislative Assembly was not in session and the circumstances existed which rendered it necessary for the Governor of Rajasthan to take immediate action, she, therefore, promulgated the Rajasthan Tenancy (Amendment) Ordinance, 2013 (Ordinance No. 18 of 2013) on 2nd August, 2013, which was published in the Rajasthan Gazette, Part IV (B) Extraordinary, dated 5th August, 2013. This Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance. Hence the Bill. Received the assent of the President on the 14th Day of March, 1955. An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to tenancies of agricultural lands, and to provide for certain measures of land reforms and matters connected therewith. Be it enacted by the Rajasthan State Legislature in Sixth year of the Republic of India as follows-

106. Rent how calculated

Rent for a holding shall be calculated ordinarily, in accordance with the rent-rates determined and sanctioned for the area in which such holding is situated.Rent Rates and Appointment of Rent Rate Officer

107. Determination of rent-rates in certain circumstances

In respect of any area for which rent rates have not been determined or in which revision of rent rates before the expiry of the term of the settlement is considered necessary, the State Government may, no notification in the Official Gazette (I)order that rent-rates shall be determined for such area or any district or part thereof whether by way of revision or otherwise, and(ii)appoint any officer not below the rank of an Assistant Collector, here in after called a Rent Officer, to propose rent-rate in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

108. Duration of rent-rates

When rent-rates have been determined under the provisions a this Act for any area or part of an area, they shall not be determined again until the term of settlement of such area or part has expired :Provided that the State Government may order the determination of rent-rates at an earlier date on the ground that there has been a substantial rise or fall in the prices of agricultural produce or of any particular form of produce:Provided further that the State Government may postpone determination of rent-rates for such period as it may deem fit either on the ground that there has been no substantial rise or fall in the prices of agricultural produce or on ground of administrative convenience.

109. Additional Powers of Rent-Rate Officer

(1) In addition to proposing rent-rates according to the provisions of this Act, the Rent-Rate Officer shall, if so empowered by the State Government, decide suits for the determination, commutation, abatement and enhancement of rent in accordance with the provisions of this Act.(2)Such suits may be instituted in his court within such period as may be fixed by him with the sanction of the Board, and decrees and orders passed therein shall be subject to appeal, revision and review as if they were decrees and orders passed by an Assistant Collector.Procedure in determining rent-rates

110. Formation of circles and soil classification

(1) The Rent Rate Officer shall, if the area for which rent-rates are to be determined is already divided into assessment circles, propose separate rates for each circle and for each separate class of soil therein.(2)If the area for which rent-rates are to be determined has not been divided into assessment circles or if the classification of the soil thereof has not been made, or if revision thereof is required to be done, the Rent Rate Officer shall classify the soil and make circles in the manner laid down in the Rajasthan Lands Summary Settlement Act, 1953 (Rajasthan Act XIX of 1953), and shall propose rent-rates for each class of soil in each circle.

111. Basis of rates

. The Rent Rate Officer shall propose such rent-rate as will appear to him to be fair and in doing so, he shall have regard to and compare-(i)the level of rents paid by tenants who held or were admitted at different times to substantial holding over a series of years;(ii)the prices of agricultural produce prevailing in the main markets of the neighbourhood at such time;(iii)the changes in the crops grown and in the quantity of the produce;(iv)the value of the produce with a view to seeing that the valuation of the holding at the proposed rates does not exceed one-sixth of such value;(v)the rotation of crops and the periods of rest which tenants usually allow to land;(vi)the result of crop cutting experiments in the local area for which rates are proposed or in other parts of the State;(vii)the expenses of cultivation, and the cost to the cultivator of maintaining himself and his family, and(viii)such other matters as generally affect rent payable by tenant.

112. Applicability of proposed rates with or without modification

The Rent Rate Officer shall also record for each village whether the rates proposed by him are applicable without modification or the extent to which they require modification either for the village as a whole or for a specified area or class of soil therein, and in their application to such village, area or class, the rates shall be deemed to be modified accordingly.

113. Provisions for rates in special cases

The Rent Rate Officer shall also propose (i) modified rent-rates for tracts of unstable and shifting cultivation and (ii) when the greater part of the rents of a village is paid in kind, rates for the commutation of such rents;

114. Procedure in publishing and sanctioning rent-rates

(1) The Rent Rate Officer shall publish in such manner as may be prescribed the proposals and records made by him under the forgoing sections and shall receive and consider any objection which may be made in respect of such proposals and records. (2) When such objections, if any, have been considered and disposed of according to the prescribed procedure, the Rent Rate Officer shall submit the proposals and records made by him after such modifications, if any, as he may think fit, to the Board. (3) On receipt of the proposals and records submitted by the Rent Rate Officer under sub-section (2), the Board may approve or vary such proposals after such inquiry as it may deem fit, and shall submit them for the sanction of the State Government. (4) The State Government may sanction the proposals with or without modification or may return to the Board for reconsideration. (5) The rent-rates finally sanctioned by the State Government shall be sanctioned rent-rates for the area in question until altered or revised in accordance with law. Determination of rent

115. Fixation of rent

(1) When no rent has been agreed upon and any person has been admitted to the occupation of land by any person entitled to admit or permit him with the intention that a contract of tenancy should thereby be effected, the person so admitted, or person entitled so to admit or permit him, may sue to have the rent of such land fixed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and for a decree for arrears of such rent. (2) A decree passed in a suit under sub-section (1) shall take effect from such date as the court may direct.

116. Determination of rent' on partial ejectment or surrender

When a tenant is ejected from a part only of his holding under an order of decree of a court, or legally surrenders such part, either he or the landholder other than the State Government may at any time apply to the court, in which the suit for ejectment would lie for the determination of the rent of the remainder.

117. Disputes as to rent in certain cases

(1) When the rent payable in respect of any holding varies with the harvest and there is a dispute regarding any such harvest, the Tehsildar may, on application, inspect the holding to ascertain the condition of the crops and the extent, if any, to which they have failed and in case the crops have been removed, the Tehsildar after making necessary inquiry may draw such inferences from the conduct of the parties as to him may appear reasonable.(2)When there is a dispute as to the practice, hitherto obtaining, for the payment of the rent of any holding, the Tehsildar may, on application and after making a summary enquiry in the prescribed manner, give his award on such dispute and rent shall be payable in accordance with such award until it is set aside or modified in accordance with subsection (3).(3)Any person feeling himself aggrieved by an award given under sub-section (2) may bring a suit for its modification or for setting it aside on any ground whatsoever.(4)Where there is a dispute as to the mode of the payment of rent, namely, as to whether such rent is payable in cash or in kind or is based on an estimate or appraisal of the crop or on rates varying with the crop sown or with the harvest or harvest prices or partly in one such ways and partly in another or others of such ways, the landholder or the tenant may sue for a declaration of such mode.

118. Commutation of rent

(1) Where rent has hitherto been paid in kind or is based on an estimate or appraisal of the crop or on rates varying with the crop sown or with the harvest or harvest prices or partly in one of such ways and partly in another or others of such ways, the landholder other than the State Government or the tenant may sue for commutation of such rent to a fixed money rent and the court may pass such orders in the case it deems fit, provided that in a suit which the landholder is the plaintiff, and a plea is raised by the tenant that the cultivated area of the produce of the holding is exceptionally liable to fluctuation by reason of damage by wild animals, flooding and if the court considers that commutation is undesirable, it may dismiss the suit.(2)A decree passed in a suit under sub-section (1) shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following that in which such decree is passed unless the court for special reasons to be recorded directs that it shall take effect from some earlier or later date to be specified.(3)In case of land held by a tenant directly from the State Government no suit shall be necessary for commutation of rent and the tenant may apply for such commutation to the Assistant Collector and in that case the other provisions of this section shall apply to such application.

119. Period of currency and rent

When rent in respect of any land has been fixed under section 115 or commuted under section 118, it shall not be liable to modification until the period of the settlement of the area in which such land lies has to come to an end or until it is varied in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

120. Method of varying rent

Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the rent of a tenant (including a tenant of Khudkasht and a sub-tenant) may be enhanced or abated only (a)by a registered agreement, or(b)by a decree or order of a competent revenue court passed in a suit or, in case of land held directly from the State Government on application by a tenant or report by the Tehsildar.

121. Grounds for enhancement of rent

The rent of a tenant shall be liable to enhancement under this Act on one or more of the following grounds namely:(i)that the rent payable by the tenant is substantially less than the rent calculated at the sanctioned rent-rates appropriate to him, or(ii)that the productive powers of the land held by the tenant have been increased by fluvial action, or(iii)that the productive powers of the land held by the tenant have been increased by an improvement effected by or at the expense of the landholder, or(iv)that the area of tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise:Provided that the rent shall in no case be enhanced so as to exceed the maximum laid down in this Chapter.

122. Limits of enhancement

The rent of a tenant shall not be enhanced by more than one fourth of his existing rent, subject to the condition that the rent fixed shall in no case be less than three-quarters of the rent calculated at the appropriate sanctioned rent-rates:Provided that (i)this section shall not apply to a case of enhancement of rent on account of an increase in area, and(ii)the enhancement shall be ordered to take effect by yearly increments extending over a number of years, not exceeding three, if it not less than one-fourth of the existing rent.

123. Tenant's plea in enhancement suit or application

If a tenant from whom enhancement of rent is claimed proves that the whole or any portion of the enhancement so claimed is due to an improvement which was made by him within the last year and which he was entitled to make, the court shall pass a decree or order only for such enhancement, if any, as it might have passed, if the tenant had made no improvement.

124. Grounds for abatement of rent

The rent of a tenant shall be liable to abatement under this Act on one or more of the following grounds, namely;(i)that the rent payable by the tenant is substantially greater than the rent calculated at the sanctioned rent-rates appropriate to him; or(ii)that the productive powers of the land by the tenant have been decreased by an improvement made by the landholder or by any cause beyond the control of the tenant during the currency of the present rent; or(iii)that the area of his holding has been decreased by diluvion or encroachment or by the taking up of land for a public purpose or a work of public utility; or(iv)that the rent payable by him is liable to abatement on some ground specified in a lease, agreement, decree or order under which he holds; or(v)that such rent exceeds the maximum laid down in this Chapter.

125. Enhancement or abatement when to take effect

Every decree or order for the enhancement or abatement of rent shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following that in which such decree or order is passed unless the court for special reasons to be recorded orders that it shall take effect from some earlier or later date to be specified.

126. Remission or suspension of rent in agricultural calamities

On the occurrence of a famine or scarcity in any area or of an agricultural calamity affecting the crops of any area, the State Government or any authority empowered by it in this behalf may in accordance with rules made by the State Government in that behalf remit or suspend for any period the whole or any portion of the rent payable by a tenant in such area.

127. Period of suspension to be excluded in computing period of limitation

When the payment of any sum has been suspended in accordance with the provisions of section 126, the period during which the suspension continues shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit or application for the recovery of such sum.

128. Non-recovery of rent remitted or suspended

No landholder shall collect, nor shall any suit or application lie for the recovery of, any rent, the payment of which has been remitted under section 126 or, during the period of suspension, or any rent the payment of which has been suspended under the said section. Extraordinary and emergency provisions

129. Revision of rent in emergencies

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force when the State Government is satisfied that owing to some extraordinary cause there has been a sudden and substantial rise or fall in the prices of agricultural produce or that an emergency has arisen within any specified area, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint an officer not below the rank of a Collector and invest him with all or any of the following: (a) the power of Rent Rate Officer under this Act; (b) the power to abate or enhance rents in accordance with the sanctioned rent-rates; (c) the power in any emergency to abate rents summarily otherwise than in accordance with such rent-rates. (2) Every order abating or enhancing rent under this section shall take effect from such date not preceding the beginning of the agricultural year next following the year in which the order was passed as the officer passing it may direct. (3) An appeal against an order of the officer appointed under this section abating or enhancing rent shall lie to the revenue appellate authority. (4) A revision shall lie to the Board from an appellate order of the revenue appellate authority and the Board may pass such orders in the case it thinks fit.

Chapter X

Payment and Recovery of Rent

130. Hypothecation of produce towards payment of Rent

The produce of a holding shall be deemed to be hypothecate for the payable in respect thereof and, until the demand for such rent has been satisfied, no other claim on such produce shall be enforced by sale in execution of a decree of any civil or revenue court or otherwise.

131. Presumption as to payment by, tenant

Any payment made by a tenant from whom rent is due to the landholder' to whom it is due shall in the absence of evidence of a contrary intention on the part of the tenant, be deemed to be a payment on account of rent.

132. Application of rent payment

(1) A payment made by a tenant to his landholder, whether in satisfaction of a decree or otherwise, shall not be applied to the discharge of an arrear the recovery of which is barred by the law for the time being in force as to the limitation of suits and applications.(2)Subject to the provision contained in sub-section (1), when tenant makes payment on account of rent to his landholder with the express intimation that he wishes the payment to be credited to any years, instalment or holding the payment, if accepted, shall be credited accordingly and if the tenant make no such intimation, the landholder shall credit the payment to an earlier arrear in preference to a later arrear and, where more than one arrear is of the same date, to a similar arrear in preference to a larger or arrear.

133. Rent how payable

Question of Tenancy right in Civil Courts

242. Procedure when plea of tenancy rights raised in Civil Courts

(1) If in any suit relating to agricultural land instituted in a civil court, any question regarding tenancy rights arises and such question- has not previously been determined by a revenue court of competent jurisdiction, the civil court shall frame an issue on the plea of tenancy and record to the appropriate revenue court for the decision of that issue only. Explanation A plea of tenancy which is clearly untenable and intended solely to post the jurisdiction of the civil court shall not be deemed to raise a plea of tenancy. (2) The revenue court, after re-framing the issue if necessary, shall decide such issue only, and return the record together with its finding thereon, to the civil court which submitted it. (3) The civil court shall then proceed to decide the suit accepting the finding of revenue court on the issue referred to it. (4) The finding of the revenue court on the issue referred to it shall, for the purposes of appeal, be deemed to be part of the finding of civil court. Conflict of Jurisdiction

243. Power to refer question of jurisdiction to High Court

(1) Where either a civil or a revenue court is in doubt whether it is competent to entertain any, suit, case, proceeding, application or appeal, or whether it should direct the plaintiff, applicant or appellant to file the same in a court of the other description, the court may submit the record with a statement of the reasons for its doubt to the High Court. (2) Where any suit, case, proceeding, application or appeal having been rejected either by a civil court or by a revenue court (on the ground of want of jurisdiction) is subsequently filed in a court of the other description the latter court if it disagrees with the finding of the former, shall submit the record with a statement of reasons for its disagreement to the High Court. (3) In cases falling under sub-section (1), the court is a revenue court subordinate to the Collector, no reference shall be made under the foregoing provision of this section, except, with the previous sanction of the Collector. (4) On any such reference being made, the High Court may order the court either to proceed with the case or to return the plaint, application or appeal for presentation to such other court as it may declare competent to try the same. (5) The order of the High Court shall be final and binding on all the courts subordinate to the Board.

244. Plea in appeal that suit was instituted in wrong Court

When a suit instituted in a civil or revenue court 'n appeal lies to a civil court, an objection that the suit was instituted in the wrong court shall not be entertained by the appellate court, unless such objection was taken in the court of first instance, and the appellate court shall dispose of the appeals if the suit had been instituted in right court.

245. Procedure when objection was taken in the court of first instance

If a any such suit an objection was made in the court of first instance and the appellate court has before it all the material necessary for the determination of the suit, it shall dispose of the appeal as if the suit had been instituted in the right court ;(2)If the appellate court has not before it all such material and remands the case or frames issues and refers them for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it may direct its order either to the court in which the suit was instituted or, to such court is it may declare to be competent to try the same.(3)No objection shall be taken or raised in appeal or otherwise to any such order on the ground that it has been directed to a court not competent to try the suit.
