Rajasthan Forest Act, 1953(Rajasthan Act No. 13 of 1953)Last Updated 28th September, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons Act No. 15 of 2013. - Frequency and propensity of the forest offences have been engaging the attention of the State Government for sometime past. It was being felt that the provisions of the Rajasthan Forest Act, 1953 need to be strengthened and updated to enable the officers of the Forest Department to deal with the forest offences sternly and effectively. Accordingly, it is considered expedient to enhance the penalty imposable in respect of forest offences. It is also proposed to empower the officers at appropriate level for the Forest Department to seize and confiscate the forest produce in respect of which a forest offence has been committed, together with all machinery, arms, tools, boats, cattle, vehicle, ropes, chains or any other article used in committing such offence. The State Government is also proposed to be empowered to authorise the forest officers to issue search warrant in respect of forest offence. For this purpose, amendments in Sections 26, 33, 42, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 60, 62, 71 and 72 and insertion of new Sections 52-A, 52-B, 52-C is being proposed in the Rajasthan Forest Act, 1953. Section 67 is proposed to be amended to remove therefrom the power of an Executive Magistrate trying forest offence so as to bring it in line with the scheme of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 which restricts the trial of offences only to the Judicial Magistrates. Section 68 is proposed to be amended to replace 'Ranger' by 'Range Forest Officer' so that the power to compound forest offences may not be delegated to an officer below the rank of Range Forest Officer. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives. Hence the Bill. Statement of Objects and Reasons Act No. 8 of 2014. - Sections 26 and 33 of the Rajasthan Forest Act, 1953 prohibit certain acts in reserved and protected forest respectively and provide for penalty for contravention of the provisions. Before the enactment of the Rajasthan Forest (Amendment) Act, 2012, the maximum fine provided for under the aforesaid sections was rupees five hundred. This maximum limit was raised by the Rajasthan Forest (Amendment) Act, 2012 upto rupees twenty five thousand. The Cabinet Sub-committee of the State Government considered these provisions and it was found that certain offences which have lesser gravity and could be committed without definite object or intention have also been covered by the aforesaid penalty of rupees twenty five thousand. The severity of penalty is causing hardship to the local people, specially the tribal people who traditionally depend for their sustenance on minor forest produces. Therefore, Cabinet Sub-committee recommended that maximum penalty for such offences may be reduced to rupees five hundred. The State Government has considered and accepted the recommendation of the Cabinet Sub-committee. Accordingly sections 26 and 33 of principal Act are proposed to be amended suitably. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives. Hence the Bill.] Statement of Objects and Reasons - (Act No. 17 of 2018). - The Government of India has decided to promote the growth of bamboo and other major agro-forestry tree species outside the forest area and to remove difficulties in felling and interstate transit/movement of bamboos. In this context, the Government of India has enacted the Indian Forest (Amendment) Act, 2017 for omission of word "bamboos" from the definition of "tree" so that bamboos grown outside various forest area would not be considered as "tree" and "forest produce", and permission for felling and transit permit for the bamboos growing outside various forest area will not be required. Accordingly, it is proposed that the existing word "bamboos" in clause (9) of Section 2 of the Rajasthan Forest Act, 1953 may also be deleted. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives. Hence the Bill. Received the assent of the President on the 31st day of March, 1953. An Act to consolidate the law relating to forest, the transit of forest produce and the duty leviable on timber and other forest produce.
