Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Act, 2008(Tamil Nadu Act 56 of 2008)Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Act, 2008 (Tamil Nadu Act 56 of 2008). - There had been rapid increase in the population owing to industrialisation, migration and various other factors, putting pressure on land and infrastructure in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area leading to unauthorised developments which are not in conformity with the provisions of the Acts, building rules, regulations and bye-laws in force in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area.2. The Government have constituted a committee headed by a retired Supreme Court Judge to look into all aspects of developments and to suggest necessary modifications to the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 35 of 1972). The committee is looking into the aspects including various aspects of unauthorised constructions and unauthorised use of the premises and yet to submit its recommendation. It is expected that the recommendations of the committee aforesaid may involve substantial amendments to the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 35 of 1972) and some with retrospective effect, and in particular, to the provisions relating to construction and use of the premises, thereby changing the position as obtaining now under the said Act.3. The Chennai Metropolitan Development Authority has prepared the draft Master Plan-II for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area, with the perspective year, 2026 keeping in view the emerging new dimensions in urban development. The Government have approved the said draft Master Plan-II for Chennai Metropolitan Area 2026 and the same has been published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 2nd September 2008.4. A comprehensive policy for the improvement of shun areas and re-settlement of the people in slum area wherever necessary in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area is contemplated by the State Government.5. A detailed study of the issues relating to unauthorised occupation by the vendors and hawkers in the public streets is contemplated with a view to evolving a scheme for regulating their activities in terms of the Master Plan-II.6. Action for violation of the provisions of the Acts, building rules, regulations, bye-laws in force in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area before a final view is taken in the matter by the Government may cause avoidable hardship and irreparable loss to a large number of people including small traders.7. The Government have, therefore, enacted the Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Act, 2007 (Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007) so as to defer the enforcement action by the authorities against the violation of laws in force. The validity of the said Act, has been challenged before the High Court, Madras and a Division Bench of High Court, Madras has quashed the said Act. The Government have filed Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court of India against the above judgement of High Court, Madras. The Supreme Court of India has ordered to maintain the status-quo as on 14-12-2007. Since, the said Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007 would cease to operate from the 27th day of July 2008, there has been an urgent need to defer such enforcement action in Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area for a period of one year. The Government have, therefore, decided to bring in a legislation for the above purpose.<sup>8</sup> Accordingly, the Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Ordinance, 2008 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 4 of 2008) was promulgated by the Governor on the 25th July 2008 and the same was published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th July 2008.<sup>9</sup> The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance. Published in Part-IV-Section 2, of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th July 2009. Received the assent of the Governor on the 25th July 2009 and published in Part IV-Section 2 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th July 2009. An Act to make special provisions for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area for a period of one year and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Whereas, there had been rapid increase in the population owing to industrialisation, migration and various other factors, putting pressure on land and infrastructure in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area leading to unauthorised developments which are not in conformity with the first Master Plan for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area in force, the Development Control Rules contained therein and the building rules, regulations and bye-laws; And Whereas, the Government have constituted a committee headed by a retired Supreme Court Judge to look into all aspects of developments and to suggest necessary modifications to the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 35 of 1972); And Whereas, it is expected that the recommendations of the Committee aforesaid may involve substantial amendments to the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 35 of 1972) and some with retrospective effect, and in particular to the provisions relating to construction and use of the premises, thereby changing the position as obtaining now under the said Act; And Whereas, Chennai Metropolitan Development Authority has prepared the draft Master Plan-II for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area, with the perspective year 2026 keeping in view the emerging new dimensions in urban development, which has been published for public objections and suggestions giving time up to 31-8-2007. The draft Second Master Plan after public consultation and modification as suggested by the Government was re-submitted to Government on 29th February 2008. The Government have approved the said draft Master Plan-II for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area, 2026 and the same has been published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, Extraordinary dated the 2nd September 2008. And Whereas, a comprehensive policy for the improvement of slum areas and resettlement of the people in slum area wherever necessary in the Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area is contemplated by the State Government; And Whereas, a detailed study of the issues relating to unauthorized occupation by the vendors and hawkers in the public street is contemplated with a view to evolving a scheme for regulating their activities in terms of the Master Plan-II; And Whereas, action for violation of the provisions of the first Master Plan for Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area in force and Development Control Rules contained therein, before a final view is taken in the matter by the Government may cause avoidable hardship and irreparable loss to a large number of people including small traders; And Whereas, the Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Ordinance, 2007 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 1 of 2007), which was replaced by the Tamil Nadu (Special Provisions) Act, 2007, (Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007) was challenged before the High Court of Madras, and it was quashed by a Division Bench of the High Court of Madras; And Whereas, in the Special Leave petitions filed before the Supreme Court of India against the above Judgement of High Court of Madras, quashing the above said Tamil Nadu Ordinance 1 of 2007 and the said Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007, the Supreme Court has ordered that status quo as on 14-12-2007 shall be maintained until further orders and the petitioners shall not pass any order of regularization in the meantime; And Whereas, the validity of the said Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007 is pending before the Supreme Court of India and the said Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 2007 would cease to operate from the 27th day of July 2008. And Whereas, there is a need to make provisions to deal with deviations which may be marginal or gross in nature in a balanced and just manner without compromise on the safety and transport mobility but at the same time keeping in view the spirit and text of judicial pronouncements; And Whereas, the modern requirements of fire safety precautions in commercial and shopping centres should be gone through thoroughly evolving a safety measure and to make provisions to empower the planning authority suitably; And Whereas, the Government will require more time to consider the report of the committee headed by a retired Supreme Court Judge and there is an urgent need for deferring enforcement action against unauthorised buildings; And Whereas, the purpose and objective of the Tamil Nadu Laws (Special Provisions) Act, 2007 has not been sub served and it is expedient to have a law to provide temporary relief to the people of Chennai Metropolitan Planning Area against such action for a period up to 26th July, 2009 within which various issues referred to above to be finalized; And Whereas, it is expedient to have a law for a period of one year to provide temporary relief and to minimize hardships and irreparable loss to a large number of people including small traders; Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-
