The Punjab Bhudan Yagna Act, 1955 Punjab Act No. 45 of 1956 Statements of Objects and Reasons. - Bhudan, started by Acharya Vinoba Bhave, has caught the imagination of the people and in its essential particulars is now being implemented in some of the States in the Indian Union by legislation. The object of the movement is to settle the landless workers on the land through voluntary donations. The movement aims at laudable results and though the circumstances in the different States in the Indian Union for the propagation of the movement are not similar, in this State also there is ample justification to legislate in the matter. The legislative measure is, therefore, being undertaken to launch and implement the Bhudan movement as popularly understood. Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary dated the 30th September, 1955. An Act to facilitate activities in connection with Bhudan Yagna initiated by Acharya Vinoba Bhave, to provide for the constitution of a Bhudan Yagna Board, the donation of lands to the said Board, the distribution of land received in donation to landless persons as also their utilisation for community purposes; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Punjab in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows :-
