- Save as otherwise expressly provided by any enactment, wherever a form is prescribed by any enactment slight deviations therefrom not affecting the substance or calculated to mislead, shall not invalidate it.

20. Acts done on holidays.

- Save as otherwise expressly provided by any enactment, no act done by any authority, whether such authority is judicial or executive, shall be invalid by reason only of its having been done on a public holiday.

21. Provisions as to offences punishable under two or more enactments.

- Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under two or more enactments, then the offender shall be liable to be prosecuted or punished under either or any of them, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.

Chapter IV

Repeal and Expiry of Enactments

22. Effect of repeal.

- Where a Meghalaya Act, Ordinance or Regulation repeals any enactment, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not, - (a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or (b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or (c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or (d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or (e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed.

23. Repeal of law making textual amendment in other laws.

- Where a Meghalaya Act, Ordinance or Regulation (not being an Act which is to cease to have effect or to cease to operate on the expiry of a particular period on the happening of a particular contingency) amends the text of any enactment by the express omission, insertion or substitution of any matter, and any such amending Act is subsequently repealed, then unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not affect the continuance of any such amendment by the amending Act, if such amendment was in force at the time of the repeal.

24. Construction of references to repealed enactments.

- Where a Meghalaya Act, Ordinance or Regulation repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provision of a former enactment, then references in any other enactment to the provision so repealed, shall, unless a different intention appears, be construed as references to the provision so re-enacted.

25. Revival of repealed enactments.

- In any enactment, for the purpose of reviving either wholly or partially, any enactment wholly or partially repealed, it shall be necessary, expressly to state that purpose.

26. Effect of expiration of enactment.

- Where any enactment ceases to have effect or ceases to operate on the expiration of a particular period or on the happening of a particular contingency, then, unless a different intention appears, the expiry shall not affect-(a)the previous operation of, or anything duly done or suffered under the enactment; or(b)any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under that Act; or(c)any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against that Act; or(d)any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy, in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if that enactment had not been expired,

Chapter V

Powers and Functionaries

27. Exercise of powers and performance of duties.

- Where, by any enactment, any power is conferred or any duty is imposed, then, unless a different intention appears, that power shall be exercised and that duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

28. Power incidental for effective exercise of powers granted.

- Where, by any enactment, a power is conferred on any person or functionary to do or enforce the doing of any act or thing all such powers shall be deemed to be also conferred as are necessary to enable such person or functionary to do or enforce the doing of such act or thing.

29. Power to appoint to include power to appoint ex-officio.

- Where, by any enactment, a power to appoint any person to fill any office or execute any function is conferred, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any such appointment may be made either by name or by virtue of office.

30. Power to appoint to include power to suspend or dismiss.

- Where, by any enactment, a power to make any appointment is conferred, then, unless a different intention appears, the authority having for the time being power to make the appointment shall also have power to suspend or dismiss any person appointed, whether by itself or by any other authority, in exercise of that power.

31. Substitution of functionaries.

- In any enactment, it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of indicating the application of a law to every person or number of persons, for the time being executing the functions of an office, to mention the official title of the officer who is, at the time of passing the enactment, executing the functions, or that of the officer by whom the functions are commonly executed.

32. Successors.

- In any enactment, it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of indicating the relation of a law to the successors of any functionaries or of corporations having perpetual succession, to express its relation to the functionaries or corporations.

33. Official chiefs and subordinates.

- In any enactment, it shall be sufficient for the purpose of expressing that a law relating to the chief or superior of an office shall apply to the deputies or subordinates lawfully performing the duties of that office in the place of their superior, to prescribe the duties of the superior.

Chapter VI

Subordinate Legislation

34. Making of rules or bye-laws and issuing of orders between passing and commencement of enactment.

- Where, by any enactment which is not to come into force immediately on the passing thereof, a power is conferred to make rules or bye-laws or to issue orders with respect to the application of the enactment or with respect to the establishment of any Court or office or the appointment of any Judge or officer thereunder, or with respect to the person by whom or the time when, or the place where, or the manner in which, or the fees for which, anything is to be done under the enactment, then, unless a different intention appears, that power may be exercised at any time after the passing of the enactment, but rules, bye-laws or orders so made or issued shall not take effect till the commencement of the enactment.

35. Power to make rules etc. includes power to add, amend, vary or rescind rules, etc.

- Where, by any enactment, a power to issue rules, notifications, orders, schemes, forms or bye-laws is conferred, then unless a different intention appears, that power includes a power to add to, amend, vary or rescind any rules, notifications, orders, schemes, forms, or bye-laws, so issued in the same manner and subject to the same sanction and condition (if any) as the power to issue the rules, notifications, orders, schemes, forms or bye-laws.

36. Provisions applicable to making of rules or bye-laws after previous publication.

- Where, by any enactment, a power to make rules or bye-laws is expressed to be given subject to the condition of the rules or bye-laws being made after previous publication, then the following provisions shall apply, namely : (a) the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws shall, before making them, publish a draft of the proposed rules or bye-laws for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby; (b) the publication shall be made in such manner as that authority deems to be sufficient, or, if the condition with respect to previous publication so requires, in such manner as the Government may prescribe; (c) there shall be published with the draft a notice specifying a date on or after the draft will be taken into consideration; (d) the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws, and where the rules or bye-laws are to be made with the sanction, approval or concurrence of another authority, that authority also, shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received by the authority having power to make the rules or bye-laws from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified; and (e) the publication in the official Gazette of a rule or bye-law purporting to have been made in exercise of a power to make rules or bye-laws after previous publication shall be conclusive proof that the rule or bye-law has been duly made.

37. Continuation of appointment, rules, etc. issued under enactments repealed and re-enacted.

- Where any enactment is repealed and re-enacted with or without modification, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, any appointment, rule, notification, order, scheme, form or bye-law made or issued under the repealed enactment, shall so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions re-enacted, continue in force, and be deemed to have been made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted, unless and until it is superseded by any appointment, rule, notification, order, scheme, form or bye-law, made or issued under the provisions so re-enacted.

38. Construction of rules, notifications etc. issued under enactments.

- Where, by any enactment, a power to issue any rule, notification, order, scheme, form or bye-law is conferred, then expressions used in the rule, notification, order, scheme, form or bye-law, shall, unless a different intention appears, have the same respective meanings as in the enactment conferring the power.

39. Publication and commencement of rules.

- Every rule made under any enactment shall be published in the official Gazette, and shall, in the absence of an express provision to the contrary either in the rule or in the enactment under which it is made, come into force on the day on which it is published in the official Gazette.

40. Laying of rules before Legislative Assembly.

(1) Every rule made by the Government of Meghalaya under any enactment shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly of Meghalaya, while it is in session, for a total period of ten days which may be comprised in one session or in two sessions and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rule or resolves that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereunder have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule. (2) If any rule is not laid before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the provisions of sub-Section (1) shall, on the expiry of two successive sessions immediately following the publication of the rule, cease to have effect, without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Chapter VII

Miscellaneous

41. Citation of enactments.

(1)Any enactment may be cited by reference to the title conferred thereon or by reference to the number and year thereof.(2)Any provision in an enactment may be cited by reference to the section of the enactment in which the provision is contained.

42. Recovery of fines.

- Sections 63 to 70 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) and as far as may be the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 [(5 of 1898)] [See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).] in the relation to the issue and the execution of warrants for the levy of fines, shall apply all fines imposed under any enactment or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder, unless the enactment, rule or bye-law contains an express provision to the contrary.

43. Meaning of "service by post".

- Where any enactment authorises or requires any document to be served by post, whether the expression "serve" or either of the expressions "give" or "send" or any other expression is used, then, unless a different intention appears, the service shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying, and posting by registered post, a letter containing the document, and unless the contrary is proved to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
