1. Short title.

- These rules may be called the Tamil Nadu Village Panchayats (Devolution and Delegation of President's Function) Rules, 1999.

2. Definition.

- In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, "Act" means the Tamil Nadu Panchayats Act, 1994 (Tamil Nadu Act 21 of 1994).

3. Absence of the president from his jurisdiction.

- Where the absence of the president from his jurisdiction is within the State of Tamil Nadu and is on business connected with the village panchayat, his functions except to the extent, if any, to which the functions have been delegated to the vice-president, shall not devolve on the said vice-president under sub-section (2) of section 47 of the Act.

4. Delegation of functions.

- The president shall not delegate under section 48 of the Act any of his functions including his function as executive authority to the vice-president or a member, which the village panchayat expressly forbids him to delegate.(2)The president may delegate his any function to a member only when there is vacancy in the office of vice-president or when the vice-president is away from the jurisdiction of the village panchayat for more than thirty days or incapacitated.

5. Nomenclature during delegation period.

- The member to whom the functions of the president including his function as executive authority have been delegated shall be styled the president delegate during the period of delegation.

6. Restriction for delegation to another member.

- When an order of delegation made to a member in force, no further order of delegation of any function shall be made in favour of any member than the member in whose favour the order of delegation in force was made.

7. Maximum period for delegation.

- No delegation shall be made by the president to a member for any period exceeding in the aggregate ninety days in any year without the special sanction of the village panchayat.

8. Intimation about delegation.

(1)Every order of delegation made by the president to the vice-president or a member shall be communicated to the village panchayat and its next meeting to the Inspector.(2)The provisions of rules 5 to 7 shall not apply to the delegation by the president of his functions to the vice-president.

9. Restrictions and control imposed on temporary presidents.

- The temporary president appointed under sub-section (3) of the section 47 of the Act shall perform the functions of the president, subject to the restrictions and conditions that he shall not -(i)appoint, promote or punish any officer or servant of the village panchayat;(ii)conduct public auction of annual sales of leases of markets, slaughterhouses, fishery rights and other like lease;(iii)enter into contract on behalf of the village panchayat and withdraw any money belonging to the village panchayat by means of cheque except salary bills and electricity consumption charges;(iv)pass final orders of disposal on applications, petitions and other complaints received from public involving administrative problems;(v)grant leave other than casual leave to the officers and servants of the village panchayat;(vi)pass orders on petitions for revision of house tax.
