- In respect of leave, travelling allowance, joining time, suspension, medical facilities, fees, honoraria, house-rent allowance, dearness allowance, fixation of pay, grant of increment, crossing of efficiency bar, deputation and other matters not expressly provided in these rules, members of a Service shall be governed by the corresponding provisions contained in the rules applicable to Punjab Government employees. The authority competent to sanction casual leave, earned leave, increment, efficiency bar will be as indicated against each category of Service in Appendix 'E' : Provided that a person on transfer shall draw his travelling allowance and joining time benefits from the Municipal Corporation to which he is transferred.

15. Contributory Provident Fund.

(1) Members of a Service shall be entitled to contribute to the Provident Fund of the Municipal Corporation where they are employed for the time being like other subscribers of the Corporation and shall be governed by the rules contained in Chapter-XVI of the Municipal Account Code, 1930 :Provided that on transfer of a member of a Service from one Municipal Corporation to another, the balance of Provident Fund at his credit along with interest accrued thereon up-to-date shall within a period of fifteen days from the date of his transfer be transferred to the Municipal Corporation to which such a member has been transferred.(2) A separate account of Provident Fund shall be maintained for each member of a Service by the Municipal Corporation where he may be serving for the time being:Provided that the Government may, if it so decides, make arrangements for centralized accounting of the Provident Fund of members of a Service.

16. Gratuity.

- The members of a Service shall at their option be entitled to gratuity at such rates as may, from time to time, be notified by the Government or to the amount of gratuity to which they may be entitled under the conditions of service applicable to them immediately before becoming members of a Service, whichever is more beneficial to them:Provided that the total service of a member under different Municipal Committee and Corporations, he has served, shall be taken into account for calculating the amount of gratuity due to him :Provided further that on transfer of a member of a Service from one Municipal Committee/Corporation to another Corporation, the gratuity to which he may be entitled shall be transferred to the Municipal Corporation to which such a member has been transferred and the member shall be entitled to claim the entire amount of gratuity due from the Municipal Corporation last served.

17. Departmental Examinations

. - Government may, by notification, direct that the persons appointed to a Service, as may be specified, shall be required to pass a departmental examination, the details and syllabus for which and the consequences for failure to pass it shall be such as may be notified by Government.

18. Record of service.

(1) There shall be a personal file for every member of a Service in which shall be placed all papers, record and other documents relating to his service. The file shall contain in particular service book giving history of service from the date of his appointment, particulars of increments, promotion, reward, punishment and all other special events of his career. The service book shall also contain the leave account form showing a complete record of leave other than casual leave.(2) A confidential file shall also be maintained for each member of a Service :Provided that Government, may, if it so decides, make such arrangements as it may deem necessary to maintain, in addition, a centralised record of leave, pay and service of members of a Service.

19. Liability for vaccination and re-vaccination.

- Every member of a Service shall get himself vaccinated or re-vaccinated when the appointing authority so directs by a special or general order.

20. Oath of allegiance.

- Every member of a Service unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established.

21. Power to relax.

- Where the Government is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules, except the educational qualifications and experience, with respect to any class or category of persons.

22. Interpretation.

- If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the Government shall decide the same. Annexure 'A' (See rule 1(3) and rule 7(2))
