Kerala Government Land Assignment Act, 1960(Kerala Act No. 30 of 1960)Last Updated 30th November, 2019Statement of Objects and Reasons - Act 30 of 1960. - In the Travancore-Cochin area, assignments of Government lands are regulated by the provisions contained in the Travancore-Cochin Government Land Assignment Act, 1950. In the Malabar area assignments of Government lands are not regulated by any specific statute as in the Travancore-Cochin area. In the Malabar area the Government Grants Act 1895, is in force and it merely provides that the conditions and restrictions imposed in the grant will have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law. It is considered necessary to have a comprehensive legislation for the whole State for the purpose of regulating the assignments of Government lands. Hence the Bill.(Published in K.G. Ext No. 40 dated 15/06/1960)An Act to provide for the assignment of Government lands.Preamble. - Whereas it is expedient to regulate the assignment of Government lands and to remove doubts as to the validity of the limitations and restrictions imposed in assignments of land by the Government or under their authority;Be it enacted in the Eleventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

1. Short title, extent and commencement.

(1)This Act may be called the Kerala Government Land Assignment Act, 1960.(2)It extends to the whole of the State of Kerala.(3)It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.

(1)The following, that is to say:-(i)all public roads, streets, lanes and paths, the bridges, ditches, dykes and fences on or beside the same;(ii)the bed of the sea and of harbours and creeks below high water mark, the beds and banks of rivers, streams, irrigation and drainage channels;(iii)all canals, tanks, lakes, back-waters and water courses;(iv)all land wherever situated, save in so far as the same are the property of -(a)jenmis or holders of Inams; or(b)holders of land in any way subject to the payment of land revenue to the Government; or(c)any other registered holder of land in proprietary right; or(d)any person holding land under grant from the Government otherwise than by way of lease or licence; or (e) any person claiming through or holding under any of the persons referred to in clause (a), (b), (c) or (d), are, and are hereby declared to be, Government lands except as may be otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, subject to all rights of way and other public rights and to the natural and easement rights of other land owners and to all customary rights legally subsisting.

Explanation I. - Land registered in the name of a person but subsequently abandoned or relinquished and all lands held by right of escheat, purchase, resumption, reversion or acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act for the time being in force as Government lands within the meaning of this sub-section.

Explanation II. - In this sub-section the expression 'high water mark' means the highest point reached by the ordinary spring tide at any season of the year.

(2) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, - (a) "assignment" includes a transfer of land by way of lease and a grant of licence for the use of land, (b) "assignee" includes his heirs; (c) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

3. Assignment of Government Land.

(1) Government land may be assigned by the Government or by any prescribed authority either absolutely or subject to such restrictions, limitations and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) [No Government land assignable for public purpose may be assigned under sub-section (1) without consulting the local authority as defined in the Kerala Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 (13 of 1994) or the Kerala Municipality Act, 1994 (20 of 1994) as the case may be and if such local authority required such land, for carrying out any of the functions assigned to it. Government may set apart such land for that purpose.] [Inserted by Act 16 of 2000 G.O. (P) No 3294/Leg C1/2000/Law dt 12/05/2000]
