Chapter X

Candidates and their Agents

68. Appointment of election agent and revocation of such appointment.

(1)If a candidate seeking election to a Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad desires to appoint an election agent such appointment shall subject to the provisions of Sub-rule (2) and (3), be made in Form VIII either at the time of delivering the nomination paper or at any time before election.(2)The appointment of the election agent may be revoked by the candidate at any time by a declaration in writing signed by him and lodged with the Returning Officer. Such revocation shall take effect from the date on which it is lodged. In the event of such revocation or in the event of the election agent dying before or during the period of the election, the candidate may appoint a new election agent in accordance with the provisions of Sub-rule (1).(3)No person, who is for the time being disqualified under the Act from being elected or from voting at any election of Panchayat shall, so long as the disqualification subsists, be appointed as an election agent.

69. Appointment of polling agent.

(1)At an election at which poll is to take place for the office of Sarpanch or members of Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, any contesting candidate, or his election agent, may appoint one agent to act as polling agent of each candidate at such polling station. Such appointment shall be made by a letter in writing in duplicate in Form IX signed by the candidate or his election agent.(2)The candidate or his election agent shall deliver the duplicate copy of the letter of appointment to the polling agent who shall, on the date fixed for the poll present it to, and sign the declaration contained therein, before the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall retain the duplicate copy presented to him in his custody. No polling agent shall be allowed to perform any duty at the polling station unless he has complied with the provisions of this sub-rule.

70. Appointment of counting agent.

(1) Each contesting candidate election to the office of Sarpanch may appoint not more than 2 counting agents by a letter in writing in duplicate in Form X signed by the candidates. (2) Each candidate seeking election as member of a Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad may appoint [as many counting agents as] [Substituted vide notification No. F/15(Vidhi)/PR/94/28 Dated 3.12.1999, for certain words.] the number of tables provided for counting of votes by the Returning Officer, one for the table of Returning Officer and one relief agent by a letter in writing in duplicate in Form X signed by the candidates or his election agent. (3) The candidate or his election agent shall also deliver the duplicate copy of the letter of appointment to the counting agent who shall on the date fixed for counting of votes, present it to, and sign the declaration contained therein before the Returning Officer or such other officer authorised by him under Rule 58. Such officer shall retain the duplicate copy presented to him in his custody. No counting agent shall be allowed to perform any duty at the place fixed for the counting of votes, unless he has complied with the provisions of this sub-rule.

71. Revocation of the appointment on death of polling agent.

(1) The appointment of the polling agent may be revoked by the candidate at any time before the commencement of the poll by a declaration in writing signed by him. (2) Such declaration shall (a) in the case where the appointment is revoked [not less than seven days before] [Substituted vide notification No. F/15(Vidhi)/PR/94/28 Dated 3.12.1999, for certain words.] the commencement of the poll be lodged with the Returning Officer, (b) in any other case, be lodged with the Returning Officer or the Presiding Officer of the polling station where the polling agent was appointed for duty. (3) If the polling agent of a candidate dies before the commencement of the poll, the candidate or his election agent shall forthwith report in writing the fact of such death (a) in case where the death takes place less than seven days before the commencement of the poll, to the Returning Officer, and (b) in any other case to the Returning Officer or the Presiding Officer of the polling station where the polling agent was appointed for duty. (4) Whenever the Returning Officer receives any declaration or report made under Sub-rule (1) or (2) he shall forthwith communicate such declaration or report, as the case may be, to the Presiding Officer of the polling station where such polling agent was appointed for duty. (5) Where the appointment of polling agent is revoked under Sub-rule (1) or where the polling agent dies before the close of the poll, the candidate or his election agent may, at any time before the poll is closed, appoint a new polling agent in accordance with the provisions of Sub-rule (1) of Rule 69: Provided that the letter appointing new polling agent shall: (a) in the case where such appointment is made not less than seven days before the commencement of the poll be given to the Returning Officer, and (b) in any other case, be given to the Returning Officer or the Presiding Officer of the polling station where the new polling agent is appointed. (6) The provisions of Sub-rule (2) of Rule 69 shall apply in relation to a polling agent appointed under Sub-rule (5) as they apply in relation to a polling agent appointed under Sub-rule (1) of Rule 69.

72. Revocation of the appointment on death of the counting agent.

(1)The appointment of the counting agent may be revoked by the candidate at any time before the commencement of the counting of votes by a declaration in writing signed by him. Such declaration shall be lodged with the Returning Officer or such other officer authorised by him under Rule 49.(2)If the counting agent of a candidate dies before the completion of the counting of votes, the candidate or his election agent shall forthwith report the death in writing to the Returning Officer or such other officer authorised by him under Rule 49.(3)Where the appointment of counting agent is revoked under Sub-rule (1) or where the counting agent dies before the completion of the counting of votes, the candidate or his election agent may appoint a new counting agent in the manner laid down in Sub-rule (1) of Rule 70.(4)The provisions of Sub-rule (2) and (3) of Rule 70 shall apply in relation to counting agent appointed under Sub-rule (3) as they apply in relation to counting agent appointed under Sub-rule (I) of Rule 70.

73. Death of candidates before poll.

- Poll shall not be countermanded due to death of a contesting candidate before the commencement of poll. But if as a result of death of a contesting candidate for any seat there remains only one contesting candidate, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the Commission through the District Election Officer (Panchayat) and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced again as if for a new election in accordance with the rules herein before: Provided that (i)no further nomination shall be necessary in case of a person who was a contesting candidate at the time of the countermanding of the poll; and(ii)no person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under Sub-rule (I) of Rule 28 before the countermanding of the poll, shall be ineligible for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

80. Manner of challenging an election under the Act.

- An election under the Act or under the Rules may be called in question by any candidate at such election by presenting a petition to the District Judge having jurisdiction within thirty days from the date on which the result of such election is declared, on any one or more of the following grounds

(a)that on the date of election a returned candidate was not qualified or was disqualified for such election; or(b)that any corrupt practice was committed by a candidate or by any other person with the consent or connivance of the candidate; or(c)that any nomination was improperly rejected; or(d)that the result of the election in so far as it concerns the returned candidate was materially affected(i)by the improper acceptance of any nomination; or(ii)by any corrupt practice committed in the interest of the candidate by a person other than that candidate or by a person acting with the consent or connivance of such candidate; or(iii)by improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which was void; or(iv)by any non-compliance with the provisions of the Act or of these rules; or(e)that in fact the petitioner of some other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or(f)that but for votes obtained by the returned candidate by corrupt practices, the petitioner or some other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes.

81. Who may present election petition.

(1)A petition under Rule 80 may be presented by any candidate at such election.Explanation. - The petition shall be deemed to have been duly presented, if it is delivered by the person making the petition or by person authorised in writing in this behalf by the person making the petition.(2)No petition shall be deemed to have been presented under these rules unless the petitioner deposits a sum of Rs. 500/- alongwith the petition by way of security for the costs of the opposite party.(3)The petitioner shall also send a copy of the petition under a certificate of posting to the District Election Officer (Panchayats) concerned.

82. Contents and verification of election petition.

(1)The petition shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies and shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.(2)Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified by him in the same manner as the petition.

83. Parties to the petition.

- The person whose election is challenged, and where the petition claims that any other candidate shall be declared as elected in place of such person, every unsuccessful candidate who has polled more vote than such candidate, shall be made respondent to the petition.

84. Appearance and acts.

- Any appearance, application or act before the Judge may be made or done by the party in person or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf.

85. Hearing of petition.

- The procedure provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) in regard to suits, shall, in so far as it can be made applicable, be followed in the hearing of the petition :Provided that (a)any two or more petitioners relating to the election of the same person shall be heard together;(b)the Judge shall not be required to record evidence in full but shall only make a memorandum thereof sufficient in his opinion for the purpose of deciding the petition;(c)the petitioner may at any stage of the proceeding be asked to give further security for the payment of the costs likely to be incurred by any respondent;(d)the Judge, shall only be bound to require the production of, or to receive so much evidence, oral or documentary as he considers necessary; and(e)no witness or other person shall be required to state for whom he has voted at an election.

86. Powers of Court hearing petition.

- The Judge hearing a petition shall have the same powers and privileges as a Judge of a Civil Court when trying a suit and may for the purpose of serving any notice or issuing any process of doing any other thing employ an officer, clerk or peon attached to his Court :Provided that no injunction or stay order shall be issued restraining the person, whose election is questioned, from exercising the power and performing the duties under the Act and rule made thereunder.

87. Order of the Court.

(1)Upon the conclusion of the hearing the Judge shall make an order: (a)dismissing the petition; or(b)declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void; or(c)declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.(d)where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, record [Added vide notification No. F 15 (Vidhi) PR/94/28, Dated 3.12.1999, new Clause (d) and proviso in Sub-rule (1) of Rule 87.a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and(ii)the names of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice;Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under Sub-clause (ii) of Clause (d) above, unless (i) he has been given notice to appear before the Court and to show cause why he should not be so named; and (ii) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross examining any witness who has already been examined by the Court and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.](2) The Judge after pronouncing the order made under Sub-rule (1), shall send a copy thereof to the District Election Officer (Panchayats) for taking further necessary action in pursuance thereof.

88. Execution of order as to costs.

- Any order with regard to costs passed by the Judge shall be executed by him on application made in that behalf in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by himself in a suit.

89. General power of transfer or withdrawal.

(1) On the application of any of the parties and after notice to the parties and after hearing such of them as desire to be heard, or of his own motion, without such notice, the District Judge within whose jurisdiction the place or headquarters of the Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, as the case may be, is situated, may at any stage of the proceeding withdraw any petition pending in the Court of any Judge subordinate to him; and (i) try or dispose of the same, or (ii) transfer the same for trial or disposal to the Court of any other Judge within his jurisdiction; or (iii) re-transfer the same for trial or disposal to the Court from which it was withdrawn. (2) Where any petition has been withdrawn or transferred under Sub-rule (1) the Court which thereafter tries such petition may subject to any special directions contained in the order of transfer, either retry it or proceed from the point at which it was withdrawn or transferred.

Chapter XIV

Miscellaneous

90. Manner of serving the order of requisition of vehicles etc.

- The order of requisition under Sub-Section (2) of Section 116 shall be served (a) Where the person to whom such order is addressed is a corporation or firm, in the manner provided for the service of summons in Rule 2 of Order XXIV or Rule 3 of Order XXX as the case may be, in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908); and (b) Where, the person to whom such order is addressed is an individual: (i) personally by delivering or tendering the order.
