The Punjab Laws (Application) Act, 1957 Punjab Act No. 33 of 1957 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - Doubts have arisen whether certain institutional laws in force in the erstwhile State of Punjab are applicable in the new State of Punjab after its formation under section 11 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956. In order to remove those doubts it is considered desirable to apply such institutional laws to similar institutions, authorities and officers of the new State of Punjab with retrospective effect from the 1st November, 1956. Opportunity has also been taken to make certain amendments in the laws sought to be applied. Published vide Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated 12.10.1957. Received the assent of the Governor of Punjab on the 7th November, 1957 and was first published for general information in the Punjab Government Gazette (Extraordinary) dated the 11th November, 1957. An Act to enforce in the new State of Punjab certain laws applicable in the State of Punjab before, the 1st of November, 1956. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Punjab in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows :-
