The Bombay Borstal Schools Act, 1929 Bombay Act No. 18 of 1929 [Dated 25th November 1929] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1929, Pt V, p. 129; for Report of the Select Committee, see ibid., 1929, Part V, p. 143, and for Proceedings in Council, see Bombay Legislative Council Debates, 1929, Vols. XXVI and XXVII. An Act to provide for establishment of Borstal schools in the Presidency of Bombay. Whereas it is expedient to provide for the establishment of Borstal Schools in the Presidency of Bombay; and whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General required by sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act has been obtained for the passing of this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. Short title.

- This Act may be called the Bombay Borstal Schools Act, 1929.

2. Extent and commencement.

(1) This Act shall apply to the [Bombay area of the State of Gujarat] [These words were substituted for the words 'Pre-reorganisation State of Bombay excluding the transferred territories' by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.]. (2) It shall come into operation on such date as the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may, by notification in the [Official Gazette] [The words 'Official Gazette' were substituted for the words 'Bombay Government Gazette', by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.], appoint in this behalf;

3. Definitions.

- In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context (a) "Borstal school" means a place in which young offenders, whilst detained in pursuance of this Act, are given such industrial training and other instruction and are subjected to such disciplinary and moral influences as will conduce to their reformation and the prevention of crime;(b)"Inspector-General" means the Inspector-General of Prisons and includes any officer appointed by the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] to perform all or any of the duties imposed by this Act on the Inspector General;(c)"Prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

4. Establishment of Borstal Schools.

(1)For the purposes of this Act the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may establish one or more Borstal Schools.(2)For every' Borstal School, a visiting committee shall be appointed in such manner as may be prescribed.

5. Application of the Prisons Act, 1894 and the Prisoners Act, 1900.

- Subject to any alterations, adaptations, and exceptions made by this Act and the rules framed under it, the [Prisons Act, 1894] [See Central Acts.], (IX of 1894), and the [Prisoners Act, 1900] [See Central Acts.] (III of 1900), and the rules framed thereunder shall apply in the case of every Borstal School established under this Act as if it were a prison and the inmates prisoners.

6. Court may pass order for detention in a Borstal School.

- When an offender is found guilty of an offence for which he is liable to be sentenced to transportation or imprisonment, or is liable to imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898, (V of 1898), whether any previous conviction is proved against him or not, and it appears to the Court(a)that the offender is not less than sixteen or, in any district or place in which the Bombay Children Act 1924, (Bombay XIII of 1924), is not in operation less than fifteen, nor more than twenty-one years of age, and(b)that by reason of his criminal habits or tendencies or association with persons of bad character it is expedient that he should be subject to detention for such term and under such instruction and discipline as appears most conducive to his reformation, it shall be lawful for the Court, if empowered in this behalf, to pass, in lieu of a sentence of transportation or imprisonment or of an order of imprisonment under section 123 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (V of 1898), an order for the detention of the offender in a Borstal School [established under this Act or subject to the provisions of section 13-A, in a Borstal School in any other] [These words, figures and letter were inserted by Bombay2 of 1936, Section 2 (1).] [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Province' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] in [India] [The word 'British' was omitted by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] for such term, not being less than [three] [The word 'three' was substituted for the word 'two' by Bombay 17 of 1935, Section 2.] years nor more than five years, as the Court subject to rules made under this Act, thinks fit :Provided that before passing such an order the Court shall give an opportunity to the parents or guardians of the said offender to be heard and shall consider any report or representation which may be made to it as to the suitability of the case for treatment in [such Borstal School] [The words 'such Borstal school' were substituted for the words 'a Borstal school' by Bombay 2 of 1936, Section 2(2).] and shall be satisfied that the character, state of health and mental condition of the offender and the other circumstances of the case, are such that the offender is likely to profit by such instruction and discipline as aforesaid.

7. Power of [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government to exempt.

- The [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may, by rules made under this Act direct that any class, or classes of persons specified in such rules shall not be ordered to be detained in a Borstal School.

8. Courts empowered to pass order for detention.

- The powers conferred on Courts by this Act shall be exercised only by the High Court, a Court of Session, [] [The words 'a District Magistrate, a sub-division Magistrate' were deleted by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule-Part III.] [] [The words 'a salaried Presidency Magistrate' were deleted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] or a Magistrate of the First Class and may be exercised by such Courts whether the case comes before them originally, or on appeal or in revision.

9. Procedure when Magistrate is not empowered to pass an order under this Act.

(1)When any Magistrate not empowered to pass an order for detention under this Act is of the opinion that an offender who has been found guilty by him or who has failed to furnish the security which the Magistrate has ordered, him to furnish under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (V of 1898), is a proper person to be detained in a Borstal School, he may, without passing any order, record such opinion and submit his proceedings and forward the offender to the [Magistrate of the first class] [These words were substituted for the words 'District Magistrate, by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule-Part III.] [] [The words 'or the Chief Presidency Magistrate, as the case may be,' were deleted by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] to whom he is subordinate.(2)The [Magistrate of the first class] [These words were substituted for the words 'District Magistrate, by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule-Part III.] [] [The words, 'or, as the case may be, to a salaried Presidency Magistrate' were deleted.] to whom the proceedings are so submitted may transfer the proceedings to any Magistrate subordinate to him competent to pass an order under this Act, [] The words, 'or, as the case may be, to a salaried Presidency Magistrate' were deleted, by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule-Part III.The [Magistrate of the first class] [These words were substituted for the words 'District Magistrate, by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule Part III.] [] [The words 'or Chief Presidency Magistrate' were deleted, by Bombay 23 of 1951, section 2, Schedule-Part III.] to whom the proceedings are so submitted or any Magistrate to whom the proceedings are so transferred may make Such further enquiry (if any) as he may think fit and may pass such order for the detention of the offender in a Borstal School, or such other sentence or order, as he might have passed if such offender had originally been brought before or tried by him

10. Limitation on powers conferred by section 6.

- Any offender detained in a Borstal School for failure to furnish security when ordered to do so under section 106 or section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (V of 1898), shall be released on furnishing such security or on the passing of an order under section 124 of the said Code.

11. [Transfer from prison to Borstal School. [This section was substituted for the original by Bombay3 of 1934, s.2.]

(1) If the Inspector-General is satisfied that a person undergoing transportation or imprisonment in consequence of a sentence [passed under any law or undergoing imprisonment under an order made under section 123 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (V of 1898), for failure to give security] being within the limits of age within which persons may be ordered to be detained in a Borstal School, by reason of his criminal habits or tendencies, or association with persons of bad character, might with advantage be detained in a Borstal School, the Inspector-General may by order in writing direct such person to be transferred from prison to a Borstal School [established under this Act or subject to the provisions of section 13A, to a Borstal School in any other] [These words, figures and letter were inserted by Bombay2 of 1936, Section 3] [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Province' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] in [India] [The word 'British' was omitted, by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] and to be detained in such School, in lieu of the unexpired residue of his sentence [or of the period of imprisonment which he is liable to undergo for failure to give security, as the case may be] [These words were inserted by Bombay 39 of 1948, Section 2 (ii).] for such period as together with the period of transportation, or imprisonment already undergone will not exceed the maximum period for which such person could have been ordered to be detained by a Court under section 6; Provided that the Inspector-General shall not, without the previous sanction of [the [State] [The words 'the Provincial Government' were substituted for the word 'Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council] Government], direct such person to be detained in a Borstal School for a period which including the period of imprisonment or transportation undergone exceeds the period of imprisonment or transportation to which such person has been sentenced [or the period of imprisonment which he is liable to undergo for failure to give security, as the case may be.] [These words were inserted by Bombay 39 of 1948, Section 2 (iii)] (2) A person transferred to a Borstal School under sub-section (1) shall upon transfer to such school be deemed to be an offender ordered to be detained by a Court under the provisions of section 6 and the provisions of the Act shall, apply to such person accordingly]

12. Transfer of incorrigibles, etc. to prison.

(1)Where an offender detained in a Borstal School escapes, or is reported to the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] by the Inspector General to be incorrigible or to exercise [or to be likely to exercise] [These words were inserted by Bombay. 39 of 1948, Section 3 (i).] a bad influence on the other inmates of the School, [or to be more than twenty years of age] [The words 'or to be more than twenty years of age' were inserted by Bombay. 10 of 1932, Section 2], [or where a licence granted under section 14 is revoked by the [State] [These words, figures and brackets were inserted by Bombay 39 of 1948, s (3) (ii).] Government under clause (i) of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 15 or is, in the opinion of the [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government, otherwise unsuitable for training in a Borstal School], the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may commute the unexpired residue of the term of detention to such term of imprisonment of either description as the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may determine, but in no case exceeding the shorter of the following two periods:(a)the unexpired residue of the term of detention, or(b)the maximum period of Imprisonment provided by law for the offence of which the offender was found guilty or the failure to give security, as the case may be, in consequence of which the offender was ordered to be detained in a Borstal school [or ordered to be transferred to and detained in such school by the Inspector General.] These words were added by Bombay 3 of 1934, Section 3.Such offender may be confined in any prison within the [State of Gujarat] [These words were substituted for the words 'State of Bombay' by the Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.] by warrant under the hand of a Secretary to [the [State] [The words 'the Provincial Government' were substituted for the word 'Government' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] and effect shall be given to such warrant and the sentence of imprisonment passed upon such offender shall be executed in the same manner as if such person had been sentenced by a competent court of criminal jurisdiction.

13. [State] [This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] Government to determine the Borstal School in which a person shall be detained and may order removal.

(1)Every offender ordered to be detained in a Borstal school shall be detained in such Borstal School as the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may, by general or special order, or in the prescribed manner, appoint for the reception of persons so ordered to be detained:Provided that, if accommodation in a Borstal School is not immediately available for such offender, he may be detained in a special ward, or such other suitable part of a prison as the [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council' by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may direct until he can be sent to a Borstal school The period of detention so undergone shall be treated as detention in a Borstal school.(2)The [[State] [The words 'Provincial Government' were substituted for the words 'Governor in Council 'by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.] Government] may order the removal of any offender from any one Borstal School to any other Borstal School [established under this Act or to a Borstal School in any other [State] [These words were inserted by Bombay 2 of 1936, Section 4.] in [India] [The word 'British' was omitted, by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.] [*] [The words 'or in an Acceding State' were omitted, by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.].Provided that the whole period of his detention in a Borstal School shall not be increased by such removal.
