(3) The President shall determine the methods of taking votes by division. (4) The result of the vote shall be announced by the President and shall not be challenged. (5) In the event of an equality of votes the President shall have a second or a casting vote.

29. Power of the President in respect of movement of the motion.

(1) When motions identical in purport stand in the names of two or more members the President shall decide whose motion shall be moved and the other motion or motions shall thereupon be deemed to be withdrawn. (2) Every motion or amendment shall be seconded and if not seconded shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. (3) When a motion has been seconded, it shall be read out by the President. (4) When a motion has been thus read out, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved either in the affirmative or in the negative or any member may, subject to sub-rule 30 (1) and 30 (4) move an amendment to the motion: Provided that the President shall not allow an amendment to be moved which if it had been a substantive motion would have been inadmissible under rule 25 (6).

30. Amendment of the motion.

(1) An amendment must be relevant to and within the scope of the motion which it is proposed. (2) An amendment may not be moved which has merely the effect of a negative vote. (3) The President may refuse to put an amendment which is in his opinion frivolous. (4) A motion may be amended by-(a) the omission, insertion or addition of words, or (b) the substitution of words for any of the original words.

31. Motion or amendment under debate.

(1) When a motion or amendment is under debate no proposal with reference thereto shall be made other than-(a) An amendment of the motion or of the amendment as the case may be as proposed in Rule 29 (2). (b) A motion for the adjournment of the debate on the motion or amendment either to a specified date and hour or sine die; (c) A motion for the closure, namely a motion that the question be now put; (d) A motion that the Council instead of proceeding to deal with the motion to pass to the next item on the programme of business: Provided that no such motion or amendment shall be moved so as to interrupt a speech: Provided also that no motion of the nature referred to in clause (b), (c) and (d) shall be moved or seconded by a member who has already spoken on the question then before the meeting: Provided further that a motion referred to in sub-clause (c) and (d) above shall be moved without a speech. (2) It shall be in the discretion of the President to put or refuse to put to the Council a proposal of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (1). (3) Unless the President is of opinion that a motion for closure is an abuse of the right of reasonable debate, he shall forthwith put a motion that the question be now put and if that motion is carried the substantive motion or amendment under debate shall be put forthwith: Provided that the President may allow the mover of the substantive motion to exercise his right of reply before the substantive motion under debate is put.

32. Proposal to adjourn the council.

- Except that it shall not interrupt a speech, a proposal to adjourn the Council to a specified date and hour may be made at any time, but it shall be in the discretion of the President to put or refuse to put such a proposal to the Council.

33. Withdrawal of motion or amendment.

- A motion or an amendment which has been moved and seconded shall not be withdrawn save with the leave of the Council which shall not be granted, if any member dissents from the granting of such leave.

34. Discussion on the motion under the direction of the President.

- When a motion has been moved and seconded members other than the mover and the seconder may speak on the motion in such orders as the President may direct: Provided that the seconder of a motion or of an amendment may, with the permission of the President, confine himself to seconding the motion or amendment as the case may be and speak thereon at any subsequent stage of the debate.

35. Objections, suggestions or elucidation on a point by the President.

- During the meeting, the President, may at any time, make any objections or suggestions or give information to elucidate any point to help the members in the discussion.

36. No person to speak more than once.

(1) The mover of an original motion, and if permitted by the President, the mover of any amendment shall be entitled to a right of final reply, no other member shall speak more than once in any debate except, with the permission of the President, for the purpose of making a personal explanation or of putting a question to the member than addressing the Council: Provided that any member at any stage of the debate may rise to a point of order, but no speech shall be allowed on that point: Provided further that a member who has spoken on a motion may speak again on an amendment to the motion subsequently moved. (2) No member shall, save with the permission of the President, speak for more than five minutes: Provided that the mover of a motion when moving the same, may speak for ten minutes. (3) A speech shall be strictly confined to the subject matter of the motion or amendment on which it is made. (4) Any motion or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from the meeting or unwilling to move it, may be brought forward by another member with the permission of the President.

37. Observation by a member.

(1) A member desiring to make any observations on the matter before the Council shall speak from his place, shall rise when he speaks, and shall address the President. (2) If at any time the President rises, any member speaking shall immediately resume his seat. (3) No member shall be heard except upon the business before the Council.

38. Amendment in the terms of original motion.

(1) When an amendment of any motion is moved and seconded or when two or more such amendments are moved and seconded, the President, shall before taking the votes of the Council thereon state or read to the Council the terms of the original motion and of the amendment or amendments proposed. (2) An amendment to a motion shall be put to the vote first. (3) If there be more than one amendment to a motion the President shall decide in what order they shall be taken.

39. Division of motion at the discretion of the President.

- When any motion involving several points has been discussed, it shall be in the discretion of the President to divide the motion, and put each or any point separately to the vote as he may think fit.

40. Procedure for adjournment of the meetings.

(1) The President may, at any time, adjourn any meeting to any future day or to any hour of the same day. (2) Whenever a meeting is adjourned to a future day, the Registrar shall, if possible, send notice of the adjournment to every member who was not present at such meeting. (3) When a meeting has been adjourned to a future day the President may change such day to any other day and the Registrar shall send written notice of the change to each member. (4) At a meeting adjourned to a future day : any motion standing over from the previous day shall, unless the President otherwise directs, take precedence over other matter on the Agenda. (5) Either at the beginning of the meeting or after the conclusion of the debate on a particular item during the meeting, the President or a member may suggest a change in the order of business on the Agenda, and if the Council agrees such a change shall be made. (6) No matter which had not been on the Agenda of the original meeting shall be discussed at an adjourned meeting. (7) The same quorum shall be necessary for an adjourned meeting as for an ordinary meeting, except in such cases as provided for in Rule 26 (3).

41. Decision of all points of order by the President.

(1)The President shall decide all points of order which may arise and his decision shall be final.(2)If any question arises with reference to procedure in respect of a matter for which these rules make no provision the President shall decide the same and his decision shall be final.

Four representatives of the Press and other visitors, not exceeding four at a time may be admitted, at the discretion of the President, to the meetings on production of permits from the Registrar. The Press representatives shall be required to obtain the previous approval of the registrar for the publication of their report of the proceedings. The President at any time may hold the meetings in camera in which case all visitors including Press representatives will be required to withdraw.Part-III Minutes of the Council

43. Preservation of the minutes of the meetings.

- The proceedings of the meetings of the Council shall be preserved in the form of printed minutes which shall be authenticated after confirmation by the signature of the President.

44. Submission of the minutes of the meetings to the President.

- A copy of the minutes of each meeting shall be submitted to the President within 10 days of the meeting and attested by him and they shall then be sent to each member within 30 days of the meeting.

45. Contents of the meetings.

- The minutes of each meeting shall contain such motions and amendments as have been moved and adopted, or negatived, with the names of the mover and the seconder, but without any comment and without any record of observations made by any member at the meeting. Time limit for entertaining the objections about correctness of minutes. - If any objection regarding the correctness of the minutes is received within 30 days of the despatch of the minutes by the Registrar, such objection together with the minutes as recorded and attested shall be put before the next meeting of the Council for confirmation. At this meeting no question shall be raised except as to the correctness of the records of the last meeting. Provided that if no objection regarding a decision taken by the Council at a meeting is received within 30 days of the despatch by the Registrar of the minutes of that particular meeting such decision may, if expedient, be put into effect before the confirmation of the minutes at the next meeting: Provided further that the President may direct that action be taken on a decision of the Council before the expiry of the period of 30 days mentioned above.

46. Insertion of minutes in a volume.

- The minutes of the Council shall, as soon as is practicable after their confirmation, be made up in sheets and consequentially paged for insertion in a volume, which shall be permanently preserved. A copy of such volume, shall be supplied free to each member of the Council.

47. Placing of report of the observations and discussions of meetings.

- A report shall be kept of the observations and of the discussions at the meetings of the Council in as accurate a manner as possible for the use of the members of the Council. The detailed proceedings of the meetings which shall be treated as 'Confidential' shall be kept in the office and shall be open to members for inspection. A copy of the proceedings in whole or in part shall be supplied to any member who may apply for it. Such copy shall be marked 'Confidential' and be supplied on the payment of a sum not exceeding the cost of copying fixed by the President.
