(8) Whether the previous sanction of the State Government has been obtained, if clause (b) of the proviso to section 49 applies (a copy of the relevant order of the State Government shall be attached).

33. Proposals for collection and distribution of chit assets:

(1) The Receiver shall, as soon as possible, settle and submit to the Registrar a statement (hereinafter referred to as the 'Provisional Statement') showing (a) the names of subscribers and other persons from whom moneys are due to the chit; (b) the names of the subscribers and other persons to whom moneys are due from chit; (c) proposals as to how the chit assets are to be collected and applied in the discharge of its liabilities; and (d) the amount proposed to be paid to each of the persons specified in clause (b). (2) Notice of the preparation of the provisional statement accompanied by a copy thereof shall be published and be served on the petitioner, the subscribers and other persons mentioned by the receiver in such manner as the Registrar may direct. If the number of persons on whom notice is to be served is large, the notice may, in the discretion of the Registrar, be served on the petitioner only and advertised in one or more daily newspapers. The notice shall specify the date on which objections to the provisional statement will be heard and shall call upon any person having such objections. (i) to submit his statement of objections and the grounds therefor supported by an affidavit before the date appointed by the Registrar in this behalf; and (ii) to appear in person or by an advocate on the date of hearing with all the evidence in support of his objections.

34. Set-off to be allowed:

- When money is due from the foreman to a subscriber and also from the subscriber to the foreman, the subscriber be allowed the benefit of set-off.

35. Hearing of objections to the provisional statement:

- On the date fixed for the hearing of the objections under sub-rule (2) of rule 33, the Registrar shall enquire into the objections and after considering the evidence, if any adduced in support thereof pass, orders on the objections and call upon the receiver to revise, if necessary, the provisional statement in accordance with his orders. The Registrar shall fix a date by which revision is to be made and intimate orally or in writing such date to the persons who have appeared in person or through their advocates on the date of the hearing.

36. Final orders of settlement by Registrar:

(1) As soon as possible thereafter and at least ten days before the date fixed under rule 35, the Receiver shall submit to the Registrar a fresh list of subscribers or other persons to whom or from whom moneys are due and fresh proposals for the distribution of the available chit assets after making such further enquiry as may be necessary. The Registrar shall thereupon consider the said list and proposals and approve or modify them in such manner as he considers necessary. The Registrar shall pass final orders accordingly on the date fixed under Rule 35 for the collection and distribution of the Chit assets. The Registrar may also pass such orders as may be necessary for the distribution of the available chit assets in case such assets happen to be insufficient to meet the sums which have to be paid to the subscribers.(2)The final orders passed by the Registrar under this rule shall be conclusive evidence of the several claims to be met out of the chit assets.

37. Provision for expenses of winding up:

- In making proposals for the distribution of the chit assets, the Receiver shall specify the estimated amount of the cost of winding up including remuneration for the Receiver and such other items of expenditure as are incidental to the winding up and such estimated amount shall first be provided for and deducted from the value of the chit assets and the balance amount shall also be proposed for distribution in the provisional statement and the fresh list mentioned in rule 36.

38. Filing of Final accounts by Receiver:

(1)Upon the termination of the proceedings relating to the winding up, the Receiver shall file his final accounts with the Registrar within fifteen days of such final accounts being passed by the Registrar and the balance of money in the hands of the Receiver shall be paid to the Registrar. The Receiver shall also state how the balance amount may be disposed of together with the reasons for his proposals. He shall also deposit with the Registrar all books, accounts and all other records relating to the chit which has been wound up.(2)The Receiver may, thereafter apply to the Registrar for a certificate of discharge from the duties as Receiver and for the vacating of his re-cognizance bonds entered into by him and the sureties, if any. On receipt of such application, the Registrar may pass orders of such discharge and vacating of the bonds and for disposal of the final balance of the chit assets, if any.

39. Final order of winding up by the Registrar:

(1)After the affairs of a chit have been completely wound up, the Registrar shall make an order recording the fact of such winding up.(2)A copy of such order shall be exhibited on the notice board of the Registrar.

40. Disposal of Records:

- The Books and papers of a chit which has been completely wound up and of the Receiver shall be retained and disposed of in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

41. Meetings:

- When the number of subscribers is large and the Registrar, whether on an application of the Receiver or not, at any stage considers that a meeting of all such parties is necessary in order to ascertain their wishes in any matter, the Registrar may pass an order for holding such a meeting. The Registrar may direct the manner in which and the time and place at which the meeting shall be held and the Receiver shall convene and hold the meeting accordingly.

Chapter V

Fees

42. Table of Fees:

- The fees payable to the Registrar for matters specified in section 62 and section 63 of the Chit Fund Act, 1982 shall be as set out in Appendix-II and shall be paid in cash.

43. Receipt for fees:

- The Registrar shall grant receipts for all fees received by him.

44. Refund of fees:

- The Registrar may refund any fee paid to him in excess of the amount prescribed or any fee that is unearned.Explanation: The expression "fee that is unearned" in this rule means fees paid in connection with the registration of the chit agreement, the filing of a document or other service to be performed by the Registrar where such registration or filing is not actually effected or the service is not actually rendered.

Chapter VI

Disputes and Arbitration

45. Reference of dispute:

- A reference of a dispute under section 64 of the Chit Fund Act, 1982 shall be made in writing to the Registrar in Form XVII. Wherever necessary, the Registrar may require the party referring the dispute to him to produce a certified copy of the relevant records on which the dispute is based and such other statements or records as may be required by him before proceeding with the consideration of such reference.

46. Registrar's satisfaction regarding existence of a dispute:

- Where any reference of a dispute is made to the Registrar or any matter is brought to his notice, the Registrar shall, on the basis of the reference (if any) made to him in Form XVII and the relevant records and statements submitted to him, record his decision together with the reasons therefor, whether he is or is not satisfied about the existence of a dispute within the meaning of section 64 of the Chit Fund Act, 1982. Such recording of decision shall be sufficient proof of the Registrar's satisfaction whether the matter is or is not a dispute, as the case may be.

47. Disposal of a dispute or reference to a nominee:

(1)Where the Registrar is satisfied that there is a dispute, the Registrar may decide himself or refer it to his nominee, for disposal.(2)Neither the Registrar nor his nominee shall take up for consideration any dispute, unless the parties concerned comply with the condition of affixing the court fees specified in rule 57 of these rules for determining the dispute.

48. Qualifications for appointment as Registrar's nominees:

(1)The State Government or the Registrar of Chits may appoint a person to be a Registrar's nominee provided that, .(a)he has practiced as an Advocate, Pleader or Vakil for not less than five years; or(b)he is enrolled as an advocate or holds a degree or other qualification in law of any university established by law or of any other authority which entitles him to be enrolled as an Advocate; or(c)he has held office not lower in rank than that of Sub-Registrar of Chits/Assistant Registrar of Chits for not less than five years; or(d)he possesses good knowledge and experience of chit fund legislation and practice.(2)The State Government or Registrar of Chits may by a notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons as may be necessary to act as Registrar's nominees for settlement of disputes arising under the Act.

49. Procedure for hearing and decision of disputes:

(1)The Registrar or his nominee shall record either in english or in the official language of the State i.e., Telugu, the evidence of the parties to the dispute and the witnesses who attend. Upon the evidence so recorded, and upon consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties, a decision shall be given by him in writing. Such decision shall be pronounced in the open court, either at once or as soon as may be practicable on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.(2)Where neither party appears when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that it be dismissed for default.(3)Where the opponent appears and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claims or a part thereof, in which case the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where, only part of the claim is admitted. may dismiss the dispute in so far as it relates to the remainder.(4)Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, then if the Registrar or his nominee is satisfied from the record and proceedings that the summons was duly served, the Registrar or his nominee may proceed with the dispute ex-parte. Where the summon is served by any officer of the Registrar or his nominee, he shall make his report of service on oath.(5)The Registrar or his nominee may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Registrar or his nominee may, however, at his discretion grant such further adjournments on payment of such costs to the other side and such fees to the Registrar or his nominee, as the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may direct.(6)Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgement or award made by the Registrar or his nominee on payment of fees, at the rate prescribed in Appendix-II.

50. Summons, notices, and fixing of dates, place etc., in connection with the disputes:

(1)The Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may issue summons or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the dispute requiring:(i)the attendance of the parties to the dispute, and of witness if any; and(ii)the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute.(2)Summons or notices issued by the Registrar or his nominee may be served through the Mandal Revenue Officer / Tahsildar or any employee of the Chit Department or by registered post with acknowledgement due.(3)The Officer serving summons or notice, shall in all cases in which summons or notice has been served, endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to, the original summons or notice. a return stating the time when, and the manner in which the summons or notice was served, and the name and address of the person (if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or tender of the summons or the notices.(4)The official issuing the summons or notice may examine the serving officer on oath or cause him to be so examined by the officer through whom it is served and may make such further enquiry in the matter as he thinks fit, and shall either declare that the summons or notice, as the case may be, has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.(5)The mode of serving summons and notices as laid down in sub-rules (1) to (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the service of summons or notices issued by the Registrar or the person authorize by him, when acting under section 46.

51. Investigation of claims and objections against any attachment:

- Where any claim or objection has been preferred against the attachment of any property under section 68 of the said Act, on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Registrar, or his nominee, as the case may be, shall investigate into the claim or objection and dispose it of on merits. Provided that, no such investigation shall be made if the Registrar or his nominee considers that the claim or objection is frivolous.

52. Procedure for the custody of property attached under Section 68 of the said Act, 1982:

(1) Where the property to be attached is movable property other than agricultural produce in the possession of the debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, or of a Receiver, if one is appointed under sub-rule (2) and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof; Provided that when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expenses of keeping it in custody are likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once. (2) Where it appears to the officer ordering conditional attachment under section 68 to be just and convenient, he may appoint a Receiver for the custody of the movable property attached under that Section and his duties and liabilities shall be identical with those of a Receiver appointed under Order XL in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. (3) (i) Where the property to be attached is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the debtor from transferring or charging the property in any way and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge. (ii) The order shall be proclaimed at some place on, or adjacent to, such property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and upon a conspicuous part of the village chavadi, and where the property is land, which is being assessed for paying revenue to the State Government, also in the office of the Collector of the District and in offices of the Revenue Divisional Officer and the Mandal Revenue Officer / Tahsildar within whose Jurisdiction the property is situated.

- The procedure laid down in rules 51 and 52 shall mutatis mutandis apply for attachment and sale of property for the realization of any security given by a person in the course of execution proceedings.

54. Issue of proclamation prohibiting private transfer of property:

- The Registrar when acting under clause (a) of section 71 of the said Act, 1982 shall, at the time of signing a certificate affecting any property, issue a proclamation in Form XVIII and in the case of immovable property shall also forward a copy of the proclamation to the Mandal Revenue Officer/Tahsildar or any other revenue officer within whose jurisdiction the property is situated, who shall cause an entry about such certificate to be made in the Record of Rights.

55. Procedure for execution of awards:

(1) Every order or award passed by the Registrar, or his nominee under section 68 or 69 of the said Act, 1982 shall be forwarded by the Registrar to the foreman or to the party concerned with instructions that the foreman or, as the case may be, the party concerned should initiate execution proceedings forthwith according to the provisions of section 71 of the said Act. (2) If the amount due under the award is not forthwith recovered, or the order thereunder is not carried out, it shall be forwarded to the Registrar with an application for execution along with all information required by the Registrar, for the issue of certificate under section 71 of the said Act. The applicant shall state whether he desires to get it execute the award through a civil court or through the revenue authorities as provided under section 71 of the said Act. (3) On receipt of such application for execution, the Registrar shall forward the same to the proper authority for execution along with a certificate issued by him under section 71 of the said Act and a proclamation issued under rule 54 in the manner prescribed therein. (4) Every order passed in appeal under section 70 of the said Act shall also be executed in the manner laid down in sub-rules (2) and (3).

56. Transfer of property which cannot be sold:

(1) When, in execution of an order sought to be executed under section 71 of the Chit Funds Act, 1982, any property cannot be sold for want of buyers, if such property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming it under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of the certificate by the Registrar under clause (a) or (b) of the said Section, the officer conducting the execution shall as soon as practicable report the fact to the Court or the Collector or the Registrar as the case may be, and the judgement creditor applying for the execution of the said order. (2) On receipt of a report under sub-rule (1) the judgement creditor may within six months from the date of the receipt of the report or within such further period as may for sufficient reasons be allowed in any particular case by the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, submit an application in writing to the Court, the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, stating whether or not he agrees to take over such property. (3) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (2), notices shall be issued to the defaulter and to all persons known to be interested in the property, including those whose names appear in the Record of Rights as persons holding any interest in the property, about the intended transfer. (4) On receipt of such notice, the defaulter, or any person owning such property, or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before the date of the issue of a certificate under section 71 of the said Act may within one month from the date of the receipt of such notice, deposit with the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, for required by the Registrar, for the issue of certificate under section 71 of the said Act may within one month from the date of the receipt of such notice, deposit with the court of the Collector or the Registrar, for payment to the foreman a sum equal to the amount due under the order sought to be executed together with interest thereon and such additional sum for payment of costs and other incidental expenses as may be determined in this behalf by the Court or the Collector or the

Registrar, as the case may be.(5)On failure of the defaulter, or any person interested, or any person holding any interest in the property, to deposit the amount under sub-rule(4), the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall direct the property to be transferred to the judgement creditor on the conditions stated in the certificate in Form XIX.(6)The Certificate granted under sub-rule (5) shall state whether the property is transferred to the judgement creditor in full or partial satisfaction of the amount due to him from the defaulter.(7)If the property is transferred to the judgement creditor in partial satisfaction of the amount due to him from the defaulter, the court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall on the production by the judgement creditor of a certificate signed by the Registrar, recover the balance due in the manner laid down in section 71 of the said Act.(8)The transfer of the property under sub-rule (5) shall be effected as follows: (i)In the case of movable property:(a)Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter himself or has been taken possession of on behalf of the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, it shall be delivered to the judgement creditor.(b)Where the property is in the possession of some person on behalf of a defaulter, the delivery thereof shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession directing him to give actual peaceful possession to the judgement creditor and prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any other persons.(c)The property shall be delivered to a person authorized by the judgement creditor to take possession on behalf of him.(ii)In the case of immovable property:(a)Where the property is growing or standing crop, it may be delivered to the judgement creditor before it is cut and gathered and the judgement creditor shall be entitled to enter on the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting and gathering it;(b)Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf or some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of a certificate under section 71, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order the delivery to be made by putting the judgement creditor or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf in actual possession of the property and if need be, by removing any person who illegally refuses to vacate the same.(c)Where the property is in the possession of a tenant or other persons entitled to hold the same by a title acquired before the date of issue of a certificate under section 71 of the said Act the Court or the Collector or the Registrar as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of transfer of the property to the judgement creditor in some conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming to such person by beat of drum or other customary mode at some convenient place that the interest of the defaulter has been transferred to the judgement creditor.(9)The judgement creditor shall be required to pay expenses incidental to sale including the cost of maintenance of livestock, if any, according to such scale as may be fixed by the Registrar from time to time.(10)Where land is transferred to the judgement creditor under sub-clause (a) of clause (ii) of sub-rule (8) before the growing or standing crop is cut and gathered, the judgement creditor shall be liable to pay the current year's land revenue on the land.(11)The judgement creditor shall forthwith report any transfer of property under sub-clause (b) or (c) of clause (ii) of sub-rule (8) to the Village Assistant for information and entry in the Record of Rights.(12)The judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under sub-rule(5) shall maintain for each such defaulter a separate account showing all the expenses incurred including payment to outside encumbrances, land revenue and other dues on the property and all the income derived from it.(13)The judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall use his best endeavour to sell the property as soon as practicable to the best advantage of the foreman as well as that of the defaulter, the first option being always given to the defaulter who originally owned the property. The sale shall be subject to confirmation by the Registrar. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the sale and other expenses incurred by the judgement creditor and referred to in sub-rules (9) and (12) and to the payment of the arrears due by the defaulter under the order in execution, and the surplus (if any), shall then be paid to the defaulter.(14)Until the property is sold, the judgement creditor to whom the property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall use his best endeavours to lease it or to make any other use that can be made of it so as to derive the largest possible income from the property.(15)When the judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under sub-rule -(5) has realized all his dues, under the order in execution of which the property was transferred, from proceeds of management of the property, the property, if unsold, shall be restored to the defaulter.
