(2) In the case of consumers who are sanctioned additional demand, the additional security deposit shall be calculated for the additional demand as if it is a new service.(3) If the applicant does not make payment of Initial Security Deposit in terms of this clause, the Licensee can refuse to release supply.(4) The initial security deposit shall be appropriately adjusted after the expiry of two months or three months, as the case may be, in accordance with sub-clause (1) or (2) of Clause 4 above.

6. Review and payment of Additional Security Deposit for the electricity supplied.

- (1) General Review Subject to the billing periods of three months or two months as specified in Clauses 4, the adequacy of the amount of security deposit in respect of consumers shall be reviewed by the licensee generally once in every year (preferably after revision of tariff for the respective year) based on the average consumption for the period representing 12 (twelve) months from April to March of the previous year.(2) Demand notice for Additional Security Deposit(a) Based on review as per sub-clause (1) above, demand for shortfall or refund of excess will be made by the licensee: Provided, however, that if the security deposit payable by the consumer is short by or in excess of not more than 10% of the existing security deposit, no demand for shortfall will be made for payment of Additional Security Deposit and the consumer shall not be entitled to demand the refund of the excess.(b) If the existing Security Deposit of a consumer is found to be in excess by more than 10% of the required security deposit, refund of the excess security deposit shall be made by the Licensee by adjustment of the then outstanding dues from the consumer to the Licensee or any amount becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee or any amount becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter.(c) Where the consumer is required to pay 'Additional Security Deposit, the Licensee shall issue to the Consumer a 30 days' advance notice specifying the amount payable with supporting calculations.(3) Surcharge for belated payment of additional security deposit(a) The consumers shall pay the additional security deposit within thirty days from the date of service of the demand notice issued by the licensee.(b) If there is any delay in payment, the consumer shall pay surcharge thereon at 18% per annum or at such rates as may be fixed by the Commission from time to time, without prejudice to the Licensee's right to disconnect supply of electricity, as per this Regulation.(4) Disconnection for non-payment of security deposit for the electricity supplied. In the case where Additional Security Deposit is demanded by the licensee in terms of clause 6, and the consumer does not make payment, the supply to the consumer shall be liable for disconnection, without any further notice.

7. Interest on Security Deposit payable by the Licensee.

(1) The licensee shall pay interest on security deposit of a consumer, at the Bank Rate notified by Reserve Bank of India provided that the Commission may specify a higher rate of interest from time to time by notification in Official Gazette. (2) The interest accruing to the credit of the consumer shall be adjusted annually against the amounts outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee as on 1st May of every year and the amounts becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter. (3) The Licensee shall duly show the amounts becoming due to the consumer towards interest on the security deposit in the bills raised on the consumer. (4) The Licensee shall pay interest at twice the rate specified under sub-clause (1) above for the delay in making the adjustments for interest on security deposit.

8. Special provision for seasonal industries.

(1) In the case of industries declared by a general or special order of Commission as seasonal, the adequacy of the security deposit shall be reviewed based on the consumption during the seasonal period of the preceding year and such additional security deposit as required, may be demanded by the Licensee by duly giving thirty (30) days' notice before the commencement of seasonal period. (2) It shall be ensured that by the commencement of seasonal period, the security deposit equivalent to 2 (two) months' charges during season is available for the seasonal supply. (3) At the end of the season, a review of Security Deposit shall be made again with reference to the consumption during off-season period of the preceding year and the security deposit in excess of two months "off-season" consumption charges shall be refunded by adjustment against the amount outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee and the amounts becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter.

9. Refund of Security Deposit.

- Where an agreement for supply of electricity is terminated as per the Terms and Conditions of supply, the Licensee shall be required to refund the security deposit if any, after making adjustments for the amounts outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee, within one month of the effective date of termination of the agreement: Provided that if such refund is delayed beyond the period of one month as specified above, the Licensee shall pay interest on such deposit at twice the rate applicable on such effective date of termination of the agreement.

10. Security for the electric line or electrical plant or electric meter.

(1) After receipt of requisition for supply of electricity from any person pursuant to Section 43 of the Act, the Distribution Licensee shall take necessary steps to provide supply as per the time limits specified in the Regulation under Section 57 of the Act.(2)The amounts to be paid for providing of electric line or electrical plant or electric meter, as the case may be, for supply of electricity to the person requisitioning supply, shall be estimated by the licensee and communicated to such person.(3)On receipt of intimation from Licensee, the person requisitioning supply shall give security by cash or Demand Draft to the licensee, equivalent to the amount required under sub-clause (2) above.(4)The licensee shall pay interest on the security amount at the Bank Rate notified by Reserve Bank of India or such higher rate as may be fixed by the Commission from time to time.(5)After furnishing of the security by the person requisitioning supply, the Distribution Licensee shall take up the work and take necessary steps for supply of electricity within the time limits specified in the Regulation notified under Section 57 of the Act.(6)If the person requisitioning supply fails to give such security as mentioned in sub-clause (2), the Distribution Licensee shall not be required to take up the work of providing electric line or electric plant or electric meter, as the case may be, in respect of supply of electricity to such person.(7)If the security given has become invalid or insufficient, the Distribution Licensee may, by notice, require the person requisitioning supply, within 30 days after service of the notice, to revalidate, or make good the shortfall in, security in respect of provision of such line or plant or meter.(8)The Distribution Licensee shall maintain a record of expenditure incurred for providing of electric line or electrical plant or electric meter for supply of electricity to such a person.(9)After execution of the work of electric line or electrical plant or electric meter for extension of supply, the Distribution Licensee shall be entitled to demand from the person requisitioning the supply the amount reasonably incurred by him in respect of providing the electric line or electric plant or electric meter for supply of electricity to such person as per the Regulation notified by the Commission under Section 46 of the Act and adjust the security deposit lying with the Licensee with interest accrued thereon for the amount due to the Licensee. In the event the Security amount with interest accrued thereon is in excess of the amount to be adjusted by the Licensee, the Licensee shall refund the excess amount by adjustment in the amount which will become due to the Licensee from the consumer immediately thereafter for supply of electricity or for any other services.
