(1) As soon as the Appointing Authority determines the number of vacancies under rule regarding determination of vacancies of these rules and decides that a certain number of posts are required to be filled in by promotion, it shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (6), prepare a correct and complete list of the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified under these rules for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit. (2) The persons enumerated in the relevant column regarding post from which promotion is to be made, of the relevant Schedule shall be eligible for promotion to posts specified against them in column 2 thereof to the extent indicated in column 3 subject to their possessing minimum qualifications and experience on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection as specified in the relevant column regarding minimum qualification and experience for promotion. (3) No person shall be considered for first promotion in the service unless he is regularly selected on the post from which promotion is to be made in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under the provisions of these rules. Explanation. - In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection by promotion in a particular year such of the persons who are or were eligible for appointment to that post by both the methods of recruitment and have been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall also be considered for promotion. (4) No person shall be considered for promotion for five recruitment years from the date on which his promotion becomes due, if he/she has more than two children on or after 1.6.2002: Provided that, -(i) the persons having more than two children shall not be deemed to be disqualified for promotion so long as the number of children he/she had on 1.6.2002 does not increase. (ii) where a person has only one child from the earlier delivery but more than one child are born out of a single subsequent delivery, the children so born shall be deemed to be one entity while counting the total number of children. (iii) while counting the total number of children of a candidate, the child born from earlier delivery and having disability shall not be counted.(5)Selection for promotion on the post included in the service shall be -made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit:Provided that promotion on the highest post in the State service, if it is at least third promotion shall be made on the basis of merit alone.Provided further that if the Committee is satisfied that suitable persons are not available for selection by promotion to the highest post (s) strictly on the basis of merit in a particular year, selection by promotion to the highest post(s) on the basis of seniority-cum-merit may be made in the same manner as specified in these rules.(6)(i)The zone of consideration of persons eligible for promotion shall be as under

Number of vacancies	Number of eligible persons to be considered
(a) for one vacancy	five eligible persons
(b) for two vacancy	eight eligible persons
(c) for three vacancy	ten eligible persons
(d) for four or more vacancies	three times the number of vacancies

(ii)where the number of eligible persons for promotion to higher post is less than the number specified above, all the persons so eligible shall be considered.(iii)where adequate number of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, are not available within the zone of consideration specified above, the zone of consideration may be extended to seven times the number of vacancies and the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be (and not any other), coming within the extended zone of consideration shall also be considered against the vacancies reserved for them.(iv)For any post in the Service, -(a)if promotion is from more than one category of posts in the same Pay Band and/or Grade Pay, eligible persons up to two in number from each category of posts in the same Pay Band and/or Grade Pay shall be considered for promotion;(b)if promotion is from more than one category of posts carrying different Pay Band and/or Grade Pay, eligible persons in the higher Pay Band and/or Grade Pay shall be considered for promotion first and if no suitable person is available for promotion on the basis of merit or seniority cum merit, as the case may be, in the higher Pay Band and/or Grade Pay than only the eligible persons of other categories of posts in lower Pay Band and/ or Grade Pay shall be considered for promotion and so on and so forth. The zone of consideration for eligibility in this case shall be limited to five senior most eligible persons in all.(7)Except as otherwise expressly provided in this rule, the conditions of eligibility for promotion, constitution of the Committee and procedure for selection shall be the same as prescribed elsewhere in these rules.(8)The Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of post(s) concerned under these rules and shall prepare a list containing names of the persons found suitable on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules equal to the number of vacancies determined under these rules. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and/or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, shall be arranged in the order of seniority of the category of post(s) from which selection is made.(9)The Committee may also prepare a list on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit, as the case may be, as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules, containing names of persons not exceeding the number of persons selected in the list prepared under sub-rule (8) above to fill temporary or permanent vacancies, which may occur subsequently. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit shall be arranged in the order of seniority in the category of posts from which selection is made. Such a list shall be reviewed and revised by the Committee that meets in the subsequent year and that such list shall remain in force till the end of the last day of the year for which the meeting of the Committee is held.(10)Lists prepared under sub-rule (8) and (9) shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with Annual Performance Appraisal Reports and other Service Records of all the candidates included in the lists as also of those not selected, if any.Explanation. - For the purpose of selection for promotion on the basis of merit, no person shall be selected if he does not have Outstanding or Very Good record of at least four out of seven years preceding the year for which the meeting of the Committee is held.(11)If in any subsequent year, after promulgation of these rules vacancies relating to any earlier year are determined under these rules which were required to be filled in by promotion, the Committee shall consider the cases of all such persons who would have been eligible in the year to which the vacancies relate irrespective of the year in which meeting of the Committee is held and such promotion shall be governed by the criteria and procedure for promotion as was applicable in the particular year to which the vacancies relate and the service/experience of an incumbent who has been so promoted for promotion to higher post for any period during which he has not actually performed the duties of the post to which he would have been promoted shall be counted. The pay of a person who has been so promoted shall be re-fixed at the pay which he would have derived at the time of his promotion, but no arrears of pay shall be allowed to him.(12)The Government or the Appointing Authority may order for the review of the proceedings of the Committee held earlier on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of record, or on account of a factual error substantially affecting the decision of the Committee or for any other sufficient reasons e.g. change in seniority, wrong determination of vacancies, judgment / direction of any Court or Tribunal, or where adverse entries in the Confidential Reports of an individual are expunged or toned down or a punishment inflicted on him is set aside or reduced. The concurrence of the Department of Personnel and the Commission (where Commission is associated) shall always be obtained before holding the meeting of the review committee.(13)Where consultation with the Commission is necessary, the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along-with the Personal Files and Annual Confidential Rolls/Annual Performance Appraisal Reports of all the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.(14)The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Committee along-with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission considers it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.(15)Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (14) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised or remained in force, as the case may be.(16)The Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with the promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension, or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress, at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.(17)The provisions of this rule shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any provision of these rules.

32. Restriction of promotion of persons foregoing promotions.

- In case a person on his appointment by promotion to the next higher post either on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, forgoes such an appointment through his written request, and if the concerned Department Office accepts his/her request, the person concerned shall be debarred for consideration for promotion (both on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis) for subsequent two recruitment years for which the Departmental Promotion Committee is held and the name of such persons who foregoes promotion shall not be included in the seniority-cum-eligibility list to be placed before the Departmental Promotion Committee for subsequent two recruitment years.

Part VI – Appointments, Probation and Confirmation

33. Appointments to the service.

- Appointments to posts in the service by direct recruitment, or by promotion, as the case may be, shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected under Rule 26 in order of merit and by promotion from persons selected under Rule 31 of these rules.

34. Urgent temporary appointment.

(1)A vacancy in the service which cannot be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under these rules may be filled in by the Government or by the Authority competent to make appointments, as the case may be, by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto an officer eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:Provided that such an appointment shall not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission for concurrence, where such concurrence is necessary, and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur.Provided further that in respect of the service or a post in the service for which both the methods of recruitment have been prescribed, the Government or the Appointing Authority, as the case may be, competent to make appointment, shall not, save with the specific permission of the Government in the Department of Personnel in the case of State Services and Government in the Administrative Department concerned in respect of other services, fill the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by a whole-time appointment for a period exceeding three months, other-wise than out of person eligible for direct recruitment and after a short-term advertisement.(2)In the event of non-availability of suitable persons fulfilling the requirements of eligibility for promotion,

Government may notwithstanding the condition of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1) above, lay down general instructions for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointments shall however be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under the said sub-rule.

35. Seniority.

- Seniority of persons appointed to the post encadred in the service shall be determined from the date of appointment on the post after regular selection in accordance with the provisions of these rules. Appointment on ad-hoc or urgent temporary basis shall not be deemed to be appointment after regular selection: Provided that, -(i) the seniority inter-se of persons appointed to posts in a particular category by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection, except those who do not join service when a post is offered to them, shall follow the order in which their names have been placed in the list prepared under Rule 26. (ii) the seniority inter-se of persons appointed to posts in a particular category by promotion shall follow the order in which their name have been placed in the lists prepared under sub-rule (8) of Rule 31. (iii) the seniority inter-se of persons appointed by promotion to posts in the same group from different posts in the same year, shall be determined from the date of their substantive appointment on the post from which promotion was made; (iv) if two or more categories of staff are eligible for promotion, the seniority list of eligible candidates shall be prepared on the basis of date of regular appointment on the posts from which promotion is to be made. (v) the persons selected and appointed as a result of a selection, which is not subject to review and revision, shall rank senior to the persons who are selected and appointed as a result of subsequent selection. (vi) the seniority inter-se of persons selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and on the basis of merit in the same selection shall be the same as in the next below grade. (vii) the reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes employees, with consequential seniority, shall continue till the roster points are exhausted and adequacy of promotion is achieved. Once the roster points are complete the theory of replacement shall thereafter be exercised in promotion whenever vacancies earmarked for Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes employees occur. If on the application of these provisions the Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes employees who had been promoted earlier and are found in excess of the adequacy level, shall not be reverted and shall continue on ad-hoc basis and also any employee who had been promoted in pursuance to notification No. F.7(l)DOP/A-II/96 dt. 1.4.1997 shall not be reverted. Notification No. F.7(l)DOP/A-II/96 dt. 1.4.1997 shall be deemed to have been repealed w.e.f 1.4.1997. Explanation. - Adequate representation means 16% representation of the Scheduled Castes and 12% representation of the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the roster point.

36. Period of probation.

(1) A person entering the service by direct recruitment against a clear vacancy shall be placed as probationer-trainee for a period of two years: Provided that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation. (2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1). each such probationer-trainee may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

37. Confirmation in certain cases.

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule, a person appointed to a post in the Service temporarily or on officiating basis who after regular recruitment by any one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under these rules, has not been confirmed, within a period of six months after satisfactory completion of the period of probation of two years service in case he is appointed by direct recruitment as a probationer-trainee or within a period of one year's service in case he is appointed by promotion, shall be entitled to be treated as confirmed in accordance with his seniority if - (i) he has worked on the post or higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his deputation or training; (ii) he fulfills conditions as are prescribed under rule relating to confirmation subject to the quota prescribed under these rules; and (iii) permanent vacancy is available in the department. (2) If an employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in the said sub-rule the period mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, may be extended as prescribed for a probationer-trainee under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examinations) Rules, 1959 and any other rules or by one year whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, he will be liable to be discharged or terminated from such post in the same manner as a probationer-trainee or reverted to his substantive or lower post, if any, to which he may be entitled. (3) The employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above, shall not be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his/her work are communicated to him within the said period of service. (4) The reasons for not confirming of any employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall be recorded by the Appointing Authority in his Service Book and Annual Performance Appraisal Report. Explanation. - (i) Regular recruitment for the purpose of this rule shall mean - (a) Appointment by either method of recruitment or on initial constitution of service in accordance with the Rules made under the proviso to Art. 309 of the Constitution of India; (b) Appointment to the post for which no Service Rules exist, if the post is within the purview of the Commission, recruitment in consultation with them; (c) Appointment by transfer after regular recruitment where the service Rules specifically permit; (d) Persons who have been made eligible for substantive appointment to a post under these rules shall be treated as having been regularly recruited: Provided that it shall not include urgent temporary appointment or officiating promotion which is subject to review and revision. (ii) Persons who hold hen on another cadre shall be eligible to be confirmed under this rule and they will be eligible to exercise an option whether they do not elect to be confirmed on the expiry of two years of their temporary appointment under this rule. In the absence of any option to the contrary, they shall be deemed to have exercised option in favour of confirmation under this rule and their Hen on the previous post shall cease.

38. Unsatisfactory progress during period of probation.

(1) If it appears to the Appointing Authority, at any time, during or at the end of the period of probation, that services of a probationer trainee are not found to be satisfactory, the Appointing Authority may revert him/her to the post on which he/she is regularly selected immediately preceding his/her appointment as probationer trainee or in other cases may discharge or terminate him/her from service. The Appointing Authority, shall accord appropriate opportunity to the probationer-trainee before final orders are passed in this respect: Provided that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases, extend the period of probation of any probationer-trainee by a specified period not exceeding one year.

39. Confirmation.

- A probationer shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of his period of probation if, -(a)he / she has passed the departmental examination-and has successfully undergone such training, as Government may, from time to time, specify:(b)he / she has passed departmental test of proficiency in Hindi: and(c)the Appointing Authority is satisfied that his her integrity is unquestionable and that he /she is otherwise fit for confirmation.

Part VII – Pay

40. Scale of pay.

- The scale of monthly pay of a person appointed to a post in the Service shall be such as may be admissible under the rules referred to in Rule 42 or as may be sanctioned by the Government from time to time.

41. Pay during probation.

- A probationer-trainee appointed to the service by direct recruitment, shall be paid monthly fixed remuneration during the period of probation at such rates as may be fixed by the Government from time to time: Provided that an employee having been regularly selected as per provisions of recruitment rules in the Government service may be allowed emoluments in his/her own Grade Pay in the existing running Pay Band of the post during service as probationer trainee or fixed remuneration of the new post whichever is advantageous to him/her.

42. Regulation of Pay, Leave, Allowances, Pension, Contributory Pension etc.

- Except as provided in these rules, the pay, allowances, contributory pension, leave and other conditions of service of the members of the service, shall be regulated by -(i)The Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951. as amended from time to time;(ii)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Classification. Control, and Appeal) Rules, 1958, as amended from time to time;(iii)The Rajasthan Travelling Allowances Rules. 1971, as amended from time to time:(iv)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Conduct) Rules. 1971, as amended from time to time:(v)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1996, as amended from time to time:(vi)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 1998 as amended from time to time:(vii)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Contributory Pension) Rules, 2005 as amended from time to time:(viii)The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 2008 as amended from time to time:(ix)Any other rules prescribing general conditions of service made by the appropriate authority under the proviso to Art. 309 of the Constitution of India and for the time being in force.

43. Removal of doubt.

- If any doubt arises relating to the application and scope of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government in the Department of Personnel whose decision thereon shall be final.

44. Repeal and Saving.

- The Rajasthan Sanskrit Education Service Rules, 1977, the Rajasthan Sanskrit Education Subordinate Service Rules, 1978 and orders issued in relation to the matters covered by these Rules are hereby repealed: Provided that any action taken under the rules and orders, so repealed, shall be deemed to have been taken under the provisions of these rules.

45. Power to relax rule.

- In exceptional cases where the Administrative Department of the Government is satisfied that operation of the rules relating to age or regarding requirement of experience for recruitment causes undue hardship in any particular case or where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to age or experience of any person, it may, with the concurrence of the Department of Personnel, and in consultation with the Commission where necessary by order dispense with or relax the relevant provisions of these rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner, provided that such relaxation shall not be less favourable than the provisions already contained in these rules. Such cases of relaxation shall be referred to the Commission by Administrative Department concerned: Provided that relaxation in the prescribed period of service or experience under this rule shall only be granted to the extent of 1/3 period of the service or experience prescribed for promotion to any post before holding the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee.
