22. Power of chief Administrative Officer in respect of orders or resolutions of the Board.

(1)Where the Chief Administrative Officer considers that an order or resolution passed by the Board-(i)has not been passed in accordance with the law; or(ii)is in excess of, or is an abuse of, the powers conferred on the Board by or under this Act or by any other law; or(iii)if implemented, is likely to-(a)cause financial loss to the Board or to the concerned trust or endowment; or(b)lead to a riot or breach of peace; or(c)cause danger to human life, health or safety; or(d)is not beneficial to the Board or to trust or endowment generally, he may, before implementing such order or resolution, place the matter before the Board for its re-consideration.(2)The Board may constitute a committee under section 14 to consider the aspects pointed out by the Chief Administrative Officer and on the suggestions of the committee, the Board may reconsider the matter or refer the matter to the Government along with the committee's report, Chief Administrative Officer's remarks and the order or resolution of the Board and the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

23. Delegation of powers of the Board.

- The Board may, by a general or special order in writing, delegate to the chairperson, any other member, or any other officer or employee of the Board or any committee subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the said order, such of its powers and duties under this Act, as it may deem necessary.

24. Chief Administrative Officer to exercise powers through collectors, etc.

(1)Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules made thereunder, the Chief Administrative Officer may,-(a)exercise all or any of the powers conferred on him by or under this Act with the previous approval of the Board through the collector of the District in which the concerned trust or endowment is situated or through any other responsible officer whom the collector may appoint for such purpose;(b)delegate, from time to time, any of his power to any collector or any such officer appointed by him; and(c)revoke at any time the delegation so made by him.(2)Where any delegation of powers is made by the Chief Administrative Officer under sub-section (1), the person to whom such delegation is made, may exercise those powers in the same manner and to the same extent, as if they have been conferred on him directly by this Act and not by way of delegation.

25. Powers of chief Administrative Officer to inspect records, registers, etc.

- The Chief Administrative Officer or any officer of the Board duly authorized by him, shall subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed and subject to the payment of such fees, if any, levied under any law for the time being in force, be entitled at all reasonable time to inspect, in any public office, any records, registers or other documents relating to a trust or endowment or movable or immovable properties which are trust or endowment properties or are claimed to be properties of trust or endowment.

26. Inspection of records.

(1)The Board may allow inspection of its proceedings or other records in its custody and issue copies of the same on payment of such fees and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.(2)All copies issued under this section shall be certified by the Chief Administrative Officer of the Board in the manner provided in section 76 of Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act I of 1872).(3)The powers conferred on the Chief Administrative Officer by sub-section (2) may be exercised by such other officer or officers of the Board as may either generally or specially be authorized in this behalf by the Board.

27. Powers and functions of the Board.

(1)Subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, the general superintendence of all trust and endowment shall vest with the Board and it shall be the duty of the Board to exercise its powers under this Act, as to ensure that the trust and endowment under its superintendence are properly maintained, controlled and administered and the income thereof is duly applied to the objects and for the purposes for which such trust and endowment were created or intended:Provided that in exercising its powers under this Act, in respect of any trust or endowment, the Board shall act in conformity with the directions of the trust deed or the documents through which the property was dedicated to charitable purposes.Explanation. - For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that in this sub-section, trust or endowment includes a trust or endowment in relation to which any scheme has been made by any court of law, whether before or after the commencement of this Act.(2)Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the functions of the Board shall be-(i)to maintain a record containing information relating to the origin, income, object and beneficiaries of every trust and endowment;(ii)to ensure that the income and the property of trust and endowment are applied for the objects and for the purposes for which such trust and endowment were intended or created;(iii)to give directions for the administration of trust or endowment;(iv)to settle schemes for management of trust and endowment:Provided that no such scheme shall be settled without giving an opportunity of being heard to the affected parties;(v)to scrutinize and approve the budgets submitted by the trustee or administrator and to arrange for auditing of accounts of the trust or endowment;(vi)to appoint and remove the trustees and administrators in accordance with the provisions of this Act;(vii)to take measures for the recovery of lost properties of any trust or endowment;(viii)to institute and defend suits and proceedings relating to property of any trust or endowment;(ix)to sanction any transfer of immovable property of any trust or endowment by way of sale, gift, mortgage, exchange or lease in accordance with the provisions of this Act: Provided that no such sanction shall be given, unless at least two thirds of the total members of the Board vote in favour of such transaction; (x) to administer the Vanniyakula Kshatriya Public charitable Trusts and Endowments (Protection and Maintenance) Fund; (xi) to call for such returns, statistics, accounts and other information's from the trustees or administrators with respect to the property of trust or endowment as the Board may, from time to time, requires; (xii) to inspect or cause inspection of the property of trust and endowment, accounts, records or deeds and documents relating thereto; (xiii) to investigate and determine the nature and extent of trust and endowment and its property and to cause, whenever necessary, a survey of the property of such trust and endowment; (xiv) to direct- (a) the utilization of the surplus income of a trust and endowment consistent with the objects of trust and endowment; (b) in what manner the income of a trust or endowment, the objects of which are not evident from any written instrument, shall be utilized for the benefit of poor Vanniyakula Kshatriya community for their economic, social, educational up-liftment and livelihood activities. (c) in any case where any object of trust or endowment has ceased to exist or has become incapable of achievement, that so much of the income of the trust or endowment as was previously applied to that object shall be applied to any other object which shall be similar, or nearly similar or to the original object or for the benefit of the poor Vanniyakula Kshatriya community for their economic, social, educational up-liftment and livelihood activities: Provided that no direction shall be given under this clause without giving opportunity of being heard to the affected parties; (xv) generally do all such acts as may be necessary for the control, maintenance and administration of trust and endowment. (3) Where the Board has settled any scheme of management under clause (iv) or given any direction under clause (xiv) of sub-section (2), any person interested in the trust or endowment or affected by such settlement or direction may institute a suit in a Court for setting aside such settlement or directions and the decision of the said court thereon shall be final. (4) Where the Board is satisfied that any land belonging to trust or endowment offers a feasible potential for development as a shopping centre, market, housing flats and the like, it may serve upon the trustee or administrator of the concerned trust or endowment a notice requiring him to convey its decision whether they are willing to execute such development as may be specified in the notice within such time, but not less than sixty days, as may be specified in the said notice. (5) On consideration of the reply, if any, received to the notice issued under sub-section (4), if the Board is satisfied that the trustee or administrator is not willing or is not capable of executing the works required to be executed as specified in the notice, the Board may, with prior approval of the Government, take over the property, clear it of any building or structure thereon, and execute such works from the funds of the trusts or endowments or by raising funds on the security of the concerned trust or endowments property and control and manage the properties, till such time as all the expenses incurred by the Board together with interest thereon, the expenditure on maintenance of such works and other legitimate charges incurred on the property are recovered from the income derived from the property: Provided that the Board shall compensate annually the trustee or administrator of the concerned trust or endowment to the extent of the average annual net income derived from the property during the three years immediately preceding the takeover of the property by the Board. (6) On recouping all the expenses as detailed in sub-section (5), from the income of the developed property, the developed property shall be handed over to the trustee or administrator of the concerned trust or endowment.

28. Powers of inspection by chief Administrative Officer or persons authorized by him.

(1)The Chief Administrative Officer with the prior approval of the Board either himself or any other person authorized by him in writing in this behalf, may inspect all movable and immovable properties, which are property of trust or endowment and all records, correspondences, plans, accounts and other documents relating thereto, for the purpose of examining whether, by reason of any failure or negligence on the part of the trustee or administrator in the performance of his administration or administrative duties, any loss or damage has been caused to the property of trust or endowment.(2)Whenever any such inspection as referred to in sub-section (1) is made, the concerned trustee or administrator and all officers and other employees working under him and every person connected with the administration of trust or endowment shall extend all such assistance and facilities as may be necessary and reasonably required by the person making such inspection to carry out his work, and shall also produce any movable property or documents relating to trust or endowment as may be called for by the person making the inspection and furnish to him such information relating to trust or endowment as may be required by him.(3)Where after any such inspection, it appears that the trustee or administrator or any officer or other employee who was working under him had misappropriated, misapplied or fraudulently retained, any money or property of trust or endowment, or had incurred irregular, unauthorized or improper expenditure from the funds of trust or endowment, the Chief Administrative Officer may after giving reasonable opportunity to the trustee or administrator to show cause as to why an order for recovery of the amount or property, should not be passed against him, after considering such explanation, if any furnished by him, determine the amount or the property, which has been misappropriated, misapplied or fraudulently retained, or the amount of the irregular, unauthorized or improper expenditure incurred by such person and make an order directing such person to pay the amount so determined and to restore the said property to the trust or endowment, within such time as may be specified in the order.(4)The trustee or administrator or other person aggrieved by such order may, within thirty days of the receipt of order by him, make an appeal to the court:Provided that no such appeal shall be entertained by the court unless the appellant first deposits with the Chief Administrative Officer, the amount which has been determined under sub-section (3) as being payable by the appellant and pending disposal of appeal, the court shall have no power to make any order of stay of the operation of the order made by the Chief Administrative Officer under sub-section (3).(5)The Court after taking evidence as it may think fit, may confirm, reverse, or modify the order made by the Chief Administrative Officer under sub-section (3), or may remit either in part, or in whole, the amount specified in such order and may make such orders as to cost as it may think appropriate.(6)The order made by the Court under sub-section (5) shall be final.

29. Recovery of the amount determined under section 28.

- Where any trustee or administrator or other person who has been ordered under sub-section (3) or sub-section (5) of section 28 to make payment or restore possession of any property, omits or fails to do so within the time specified in such order, the Chief Administrative Officer with the prior approval of the Board, shall take such steps, as he may think fit, to recover possession of the property aforesaid and shall also send a certificate to the collector of the district in which the property of the trustee or administrator or other person situate, stating therein the amount that has been determined by chief Administrative Officer or by the Court, as the case may be, under section 28, as being payable by the trustee or administrator or other person, and thereupon, the collector shall recover the amount specified in such certificate, as if, it was an arrear of land revenue and on the recovery of such amount, pay the same to the Chief Administrative Officer who shall credit the amount to the funds of the concerned trust or endowment.

Chapter - IV Registration of Trust and Endowment

30. Registration of trust and endowment.

(1) Every trust and endowment, whether created before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be registered at the office of the Board. (2) Application for registration shall be made by the trustee or administrator of trust or endowment: Provided that such application may be made by trust or endowment or a beneficiary of it or the descendants of the testator or any person belonging to Vanniyakula Kshatriya community. (3) An application for registration shall be made in such form and in such manner and at such place as the Board may by regulation provide from time to time and such application shall contain the following particulars:-(a) description of trust or endowment sufficient for identification thereof; (b) annual gross income from property of trust or endowment; (c) the amount of land revenue, cesses, rates and taxes payable annually for the property of trust or endowment; (d) an estimate of the expenses annually incurred in realization of the income from the property of trust or endowment; (e) the amount set apart for the following:-(i) the salary and other allowances to the officers and other employees of trust or endowment, (ii) for charitable purposes, (iii) for the beneficiaries, and (iv) for such other purposes; (f) any other particulars as may be prescribed by the Board by regulation. (4) Such application shall be accompanied by a copy of trust deed or will, or if no such deed has been executed or a copy thereof cannot be obtained, shall contain the particulars as far as they are known to the applicant, of the origin, nature and object of the trust or endowment; and particulars regarding beneficiaries, if any. (5) Such application made under sub-section (2) shall be signed and verified by the applicant in the manner provided in the code of civil Procedure 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), for the signing and verification of the pleadings. (6) The Board may require the applicant to supply any further particulars or information that the Board may consider necessary. (7) The Board may, on receipt of application for registration, make such inquiries as it thinks fit in respect of genuineness and validity of the application and correctness of the particulars therein and when the application is made by any person other than the person administering the trust or endowment, and shall hear him if he desires to be heard. (8) In the case of trust or endowment created before the commencement of this Act, every application for registration shall be made, within three months from such commencement and in the case of trust or endowment created after such commencement, within three months from the date of creation of trust or endowment.

31. Registration of trust and endowment.

- The Board shall maintain a register of trust and endowment, with such particulars as may be provided by regulations.

32. Decision as to whether a property is trust or endowment.

(1)Where the Board has reason to believe that any property of any trust or endowment, is a Vanniyakula Kshatriya Public charitable Trust or Endowment, the Board may, notwithstanding anything contained in any Act, hold an enquiry in regard to such property and, if after such enquiry, the Board is satisfied that such property is trust or endowment property, call upon the trust or endowment, as the case may be, either to register such property under this Act as Vanniyakula Kshatriya Public charitable Trust or Endowment or show cause why such property should not be so registered:Provided that in all such cases, notice of action proposed to be taken under this sub-section shall be given to the authority by whom the trust or endowment had been registered.(2)The Board shall, after duly considering such cause as may be shown in pursuance of notice issued under sub-section (1), pass such orders as it may think fit and the order so made by the Board shall be final, unless it is revoked or modified by a competent court under this Act.

33. Power to cause registration of trust and endowment and to amend the register.

- The Board may direct the trustee or administrator to apply for the registration of trust or endowment and to supply any information regarding a trust or endowment or may itself cause the trust or endowment to be registered or may at any time amend the register of trust and endowment.

34. Board to appoint Administrative Officer for trust or endowment.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Board may, if it is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do in the interests of trust or endowment, appoint an Administrative Officer, on whole time or part-time basis with salary or in honorary capacity, with such terms and conditions as may be specified therefor:Provided that the person to be chosen as Administrative Officer should be a person from Vanniyakula Kshatriya community.(2)The Administrative Officer so appointed under sub-section (1) shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties pertaining to the administration of the property of trust or endowment for which he has been appointed and shall exercise those powers and discharge those duties under the direction, control and supervision of the Board.(3)The salaries and allowances of the Administrative Officer and his staff shall be fixed by the Board having due regard to the income of the trust or endowment and the nature of the duties of the Administrative Officer and his staff.(4)The salaries and allowances of the Administrative Officer and his staff shall be paid by the Board from its fund and if the trust or endowment generates any additional income due to the appointment of the Administrative Officer, the Board may claim reimbursement of the amount spent towards the salaries and allowances from the fund of the concerned trust or endowment.(5)The Board may, for sufficient reasons and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the Administrative Officer or a member of his staff, remove or dismiss the Administrative Officer, or a member of his staff from his post.(6)Any Administrative Officer or a member of his staff who is aggrieved by any order of removal or dismissal made under sub-section (5) may, within thirty days from the date of communication of the order, prefer an appeal against the order to the court and the court may, after considering such representation as the Board may make in the matter, and after giving a reasonable opportunity to the Administrative Officer or a member of his staff of being heard, confirm, modify or reverse the order.

35. Board to cause enquiry in relation to trust or endowment.

(1)The Board shall, if it is satisfied that the objects or any part thereof, of a trust or endowment have ceased to exist, where such cessation took place before or after the commencement of this Act, cause an inquiry to be held by the Chief Administrative Officer, in the prescribed manner, to ascertain the property and funds pertaining to such trust or endowment.(2)On receipt of the enquiry report of the Chief Administrative Officer, the Board shall pass an order-(a)specifying the property and funds of such trust or endowment;(b)directing that the property and funds of such trust or endowment which have been recovered shall be applied or utilized for the renovation of trust or endowment and when there is no need for making any such renovation or where the utilization of the funds for such renovation is not possible, be appropriated, to any of the purposes specified in sub-clause (c) of clause (v) of sub-section (2) of section 27.(3)The Board may, if it has reason to believe that any building or other place which was being used for charity has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, ceased to be used for that purpose, make an application to the court for an order directing the recovery of possession of such building or other place.(4)The Court may, after making such enquiry as it may think fit and satisfied that such building or other place,-(a)is the property of trust or endowment;(b)has not been acquired under any law for the time being in force relating to acquisition of land or is not under any process of acquisition under any such law, or has not vested in the Government under any other law for the time being in force relating to land reforms; and(c)is not in the occupation of any person who has been authorized by or under any law for the time being in force to occupy such building or other place, make an order,-(i)directing the recovery of such building or place from any person who may be in unauthorized possession thereof, and(ii)directing that such property, building or place be used for charitable purpose or instruction as before, or if such use is not possible, be utilized for any purpose as given in sub-clause (c) of clause (v) of sub-section (2) of section 27.

46. Recovery of property of trust and endowment transferred in contravention of section 45.

(1)If the Board is satisfied, after making any inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed, that any immovable property of a trust or endowment entered as such in the register of trust and endowment maintained under section 31, has been transferred without the previous sanction of the Board in contravention of the provision of section 45, it may send a requisition to the collector within whose jurisdiction the property is situated to obtain and deliver possession of the property to it.(2)On receipt of a requisition under sub-section (1), the collector shall pass an order directing the person in possession of the property, to deliver the property to the Board within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order.(3)Every order passed under sub-section (2) shall be served-(i)by giving or tendering the order, or by sending it by post to the person for whom it is intended; or(ii)if such person cannot be found, by affixing the order on some conspicuous part of his last known place of abode or business, or by giving or tendering the order to some adult male member or servant of his family or by causing it to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the property to which it relates:Provided that where the person on whom the order is to be served is a minor, service upon his guardian or upon any adult male member or servant of his family shall be deemed to be the service upon the minor.(4)Any person aggrieved by the order of the collector under sub-section (2) may, within a period of thirty days from the date of the service of the order, prefer an appeal to the court within whose jurisdiction the property is situate and the decision of the court on such appeal shall be final.(5)Where an order passed under sub-section (2) has not been complied with and the time for appealing against such order has expired without an appeal having been preferred or the appeal, if any, preferred within that time has been dismissed, the collector shall obtain possession of the property in respect of which the order has been made, taking such police assistance, as may be necessary for the purpose and deliver it to the Board.(6)in exercising his functions under this section, the collector shall be guided by such rules as may be prescribed.

47. Restrictions on purchase of property on behalf of trust or endowment.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in a trust and endowment deed, no immovable property shall be purchased for or on behalf of any trust or endowment from the funds of any trust or endowment except with the prior sanction of the Board, and the Board shall not accord such sanction unless it considered that the acquisition of such property is necessary or beneficial to the trust or endowment and that the price proposed to be paid therefor is adequate and reasonable:Provided that before such sanction is accorded, the particulars relating to the proposed transaction shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette inviting objections and suggestions with respect thereto and the Board shall, after considering the objections and suggestions that may be received by it from the trustee or administrator or any other person interested in the trust and endowment make such orders as it may deem fit.

48. Restriction on power to grant lease of the properties of trust or endowment.

(1)A lease for any period exceeding three years of any immovable property which is property of trust or endowment shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the deed or instrument of trust or endowment or in any other law for the time being in force, be void and of no effect.(2)A lease for a period exceeding one year and not exceeding three years of any immovable property which is the property of trust or endowment shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the deed or instrument of trust or endowment or in any other law for the time being in force, be void and of no effect unless it is made with the previous sanction of the Board.(3)The Board shall, in granting sanction for lease or sub-lease or renewal thereof under this section, review the terms and conditions on which the lease or sub-lease is proposed to be granted or renewed and make its approval subject to the revision of such terms and conditions in such manner as it may direct.(4)Every trust and endowment shall inform the Board about the lease of its property and obtain permission to continue the lease and for grant of sanction for lease or renewal thereof, subject to provision of this section.

49. Trustee or administrator not to spend any money belonging to trust and endowment for self-defence.

- No trustee or administrator shall spend any money out of the funds of the trust or endowment of which he is the trustee or administrator, for meeting any costs, charges, or expenses which are or may be, incurred by him, in relation to any suit, appeal or any other proceeding for, or incidental to, his removal from office or for taking any disciplinary action against himself.

50. Duties of trustee or administrator or committee to deliver possession of records, etc.

(1)Where any trustee or administrator or committee of management has been removed by the Board in accordance with the provision of this Act, or of any scheme made by the Board, the trustee or administrator or the committee so removed from the office (hereinafter in this section referred to as the removed trustee or administrator or committee) shall hand over charge and deliver possession of the records, accounts and all properties of the trust and endowment (including cash) to the successor trustee or the successor committee, within one month from the date specified in the order.(2)Where any removed trustee or administrator or committee fails to deliver charge or deliver possession of the records, accounts and properties (including cash) to the successor trustee or administrator or committee within the time specified in sub-section (1), or prevents or obstructs such trustee or administrator or committee, from obtaining possession thereof after the expiry of the period aforesaid, the successor trustee or administrator or any member of the successor committee may make an application accompanied by a certified copy of the order appointing such successor trustee or administrator or committee, to any Judicial Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any part of the trust or endowment property is situate and, thereupon, such Judicial Magistrate may, after giving notice to the removed trustee or administrator or members of the removed committee, make an order directing the delivery of charge and possession of such record, accounts and properties (including cash) of the trust or endowment, to the successor trustee or administrator or the committee, as the case may be, within such time as may be specified in the order.(3)Where the removed trustee or administrator or any member of the removed committee, omits or fails to deliver charge and possession of the records, accounts and properties (including cash) within the time specified by the Judicial Magistrate under sub-section (2), the removed trustee or administrator or every member of the removed committee, as the case may be, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.(4)Whenever any removed trustee or administrator or any member of the removed committee omits or fails to comply with the orders made by the Judicial Magistrate under sub-section (2), the Judicial Magistrate may authorize the successor trustee or administrator or committee to take charge and possession of such records, accounts, properties (including cash) and may authorize such person to take such police assistance as may be necessary for the purpose.(5)No order of appointment of the successor trustee or administrator or committee shall be called in question in the proceedings before the Judicial Magistrate under this section.(6)Nothing contained in this section shall bar the institution of any suit in a court by any person aggrieved by any order made under this section, to establish that he has right, title and interest in the properties specified in the order made by the Judicial Magistrate under sub-section (2).Chapter - IX Removal of Encroachment

51. Removal of encroachment from the property of trust and endowment.

(1)Whenever the Chief Administrative Officer considers whether on receiving any complaint or on his own motion that there has been an encroachment on any land, building, space or other property, which is the property of trust or endowment and, which has been registered as such under this Act, he shall cause to be served upon the encroacher a notice specifying the particulars of the encroachment and calling upon him to show cause before a date to be specified in such notice, as to why an order requiring him to remove the encroachment before the date so specified should not be made and shall also send a copy of such notice to the concerned trustee or administrator.(2)The notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be served in such manner as may be prescribed.(3)If, after considering the objections, received during the period specified in the notice, and after conducting an inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed, the Chief Administrative Officer is satisfied that the property in question is property of trust or endowment and that there has been an encroachment on any such property of trust or endowment, he may, by an order, require the encroacher to remove such encroachment and deliver possession of the land, building, space or other property encroached upon, to the trustee of the trust or administrator of the endowment, within such time as may be specified in the order.(4)Nothing contained in sub-section (3) shall prevent any person aggrieved by the order made by the Chief Administrative Officer under that sub-section from instituting a suit in a court to establish that he has right, title or interest in the land, building, space or other property:Provided that no such suit shall be instituted by a person who has been let into possession of the land, building, space or other property as a lessee, licensee or mortgagee by the trustee of the trust or administrator of the endowment or by any other person authorized by him in this behalf.

52. Enforcement of the order made under section 51.

(1)Where the person, ordered under sub-section (3) of section 51 to remove any encroachment, omits or fails to remove such encroachment, within the time specified in the order or, as the case may be, fails to vacate the land, building, space or other property to which the order relates, within the time aforesaid, the Chief Administrative Officer may apply to the Judicial Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the land, building, space or other property is situate for evicting the encroacher, and, thereupon, such Judicial Magistrate shall make an order directing the encroacher to remove the encroachment, or as the case may be, vacate the land, building, space or other property and to deliver possession thereof to the concerned trustee or administrator and in default of compliance with the order, remove the encroachment or, as the case may be, evict the encroacher from the land, building, space or other property and may, for the purpose, take such police assistance as may be necessary.(2)(a)Any person who, on or after the commencement of this Act, continues to be in occupation, otherwise than by a lawful possession of a land belonging to a charitable trust or endowment shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.(b)Whoever contravenes the provisions of clause (a) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to five years and with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.(c)No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under clause (b) except on the complaint in writing of the Chief Administrative Officer.(d)No offence punishable under clause (b) shall be inquired into or tried by any Court inferior to that of a Judicial Magistrate of the first class.

Chapter - X Power of Board in the Administration of Trust or Endowment

53. Power of Board to pay dues in case of default by trustee or administrator.

(1)Where a trustee or administrator refuses to pay or fails to pay any revenue, charges or taxes due to the Government, any local authority or any statutory Board or any Government company, the Board may discharge the dues from the Board Fund and may recover the amount so paid from the trust or endowment property and may also recover damages not exceeding twelve and a half per cent of the amount so paid.(2)Any sum of money due under sub-section (1) may, on a certificate issued by the Board after giving the trustee or administrator concerned an opportunity of being heard, be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

54. Creation of reserve fund.

- For the purpose of making provision for the payment of rent, land revenue, charges and taxes due to the Government or any local authority or any statutory board or any Government company for the discharge of the expenses of the repair of the property of trust and endowment and for the preservation of the property of trust and endowment, the Board may direct the creation and maintenance, in such manner as it may think fit, of a reserve fund from the income of a trust and endowment.

55. Extension of time.

- The Board may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary so to do, extend the time within which any act is required to be done by the trustee and administrator under this Act.

56. Penalties.

(1)if a trustee or administrator fails to-(i)apply for the registration of the trust or endowment;(ii)furnish statements of particulars or accounts or returns as required under this Act;(iii)supply information or particulars as required by the Board;(iv)allow inspection of the properties of trust and endowment, accounts, records or deeds and documents relating thereto;(v)deliver possession of any trust and endowment property, if ordered by the Board or court;(vi)carry out the directions of the Board;(vii)discharge any public dues; or(viii)do any other act which he is lawfully required to do by or under this Act, he shall, unless he satisfies the Board or the Court that there was reasonable cause for his failure, be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if-(a)a trustee or administrator omits or fails, with a view to concealing the existence of a trust or endowment, to apply for its registration under this Act, - (i) in the case of a trust or endowment created before the commencement of this Act, within the period specified therefor in sub-section (8) of section 30; (ii) in the case of any trust or endowment created after such commencement, within three months from the date of the creation of the trust or endowment; or (b) a trustee or administrator furnishes any statement, return or information to the Board, which he knows or has reason to believe to be false, misleading, untrue or incorrect in any material particular, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with fine which may extend to fifteen thousand rupees. (3) No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this Act save upon a complaint made by the Board or an officer duly authorized by the Board in this behalf. (4) No court inferior to that of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class shall try any offence punishable under this Act. (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the code of criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1973), the fine imposed under sub-section (1), when realized, shall be credited to the fund specified under section 70. (6) In every case where offender is convicted of an offence punishable under sub-section (1) and sentenced to a fine, the Court shall also impose such term of imprisonment in default of payment of fine as is authorized by law for such default.

57. Power to appoint Administrative Officer in certain cases.

- When there is a vacancy in the office of the trustee and administrator of a trust and endowment and there is no one to be appointed under the terms of the deed of the trust and endowment, or where the right of any person to act as trustee or administrator is disputed, the Board may appoint any person belonging to Vanniyakula Kshatriya community to act as Administrative Officer for such period and on such condition as may be prescribed.

58. Removal of trustee and administrator.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or the deed of trust or endowment, the Board may remove a trustee or administrator from his office if such trustee or administrator - (a) has been convicted for an offence punishable under section 56; or (b) has been convicted of any offence of criminal breach of trust or any other offence involving moral turpitude, and such conviction has not been reversed and he has not been granted full pardon with respect to such offence; or (c) is of unsound mind or is suffering from other mental or physical defect or infirmity which would render him unfit to perform the functions and discharge the duties of a trustee; or (d) is an undischarged insolvent; or (e) is proved to be addicted to drinking liquor or other spirituous preparations, or is addicted to the taking of any narcotic drugs; or (f) is employed as a paid legal practitioner on behalf of, or against, the trust or endowment; or (g) has failed, without reasonable excuse, to maintain regular accounts for two consecutive years or has failed to submit, in two consecutive years, the yearly statement of accounts, as required by sub-section (2) of section 39; or (h) is interested, directly or indirectly, in a subsisting lease in respect of the property of the trust or endowment, or in any contract made with, or any work being done for the trust or endowment, or is in arrears in respect of any sum due by him to such trust or endowment; or (i) continuously neglects his duties or commits any misfeasance, malfeasance, misapplication of funds or breach of trust in relation to the trust or endowment, or in respect of any money or property of trust or endowment; or(j)willfully and persistently disobeys the lawful orders made by the Government, Board under any provision of this Act or rule or order made thereunder; or(k)misappropriates or fraudulently deals with the property of the trust or endowment.(2)The removal of a person from the office of the trustee shall not affect his personal rights, if any, in respect of the property of the trust or endowment either as a beneficiary or in any other capacity.(3)No action shall be taken by the Board under sub-section (1), unless it has held an inquiry into the matter in a prescribed manner and the decision has been taken by a majority of not less than two-third of the members of the Board.(4)A trustee, who is aggrieved by an order passed under any of the clauses (c) to (i) of sub-section (1), may, within one month from the date of the receipt by him of the order, appeal against the order to the court and the decision of the court on such appeal shall be final.(5)Where any inquiry under sub-section (3) is proposed, or commenced, against any administrator or trustee, the Board may, if it is of opinion that it is necessary so to do in the interest of the trust or endowment, by an order suspend such trustee or administrator until the conclusion of the inquiry:Provided that no suspension for a period exceeding ten days shall be made except after giving the trustee or administrator a reasonable opportunity of being heard against the proposed action.(6)Where any appeal is filed by the trustee to the Court under sub-section (4), the Board may make an application to the court for the appointment of a receiver to manage the trust or endowment, pending the decision of the appeal, and where such an application is made, the court shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the code of civil procedure, 1908 (Central Act v of 1908), appoint a suitable person as receiver to manage the trust or endowment, and direct the receiver so appointed to ensure that the customary rights of the trustee and of the trust or endowment, are safeguarded.(7)Where a trustee or administrator has been removed from his office under sub-section (1), the Board may, by order, direct the trustee or administrator to deliver possession of the property of trust or endowment, to the Board or any officer duly authorized in this behalf or to any person or committee appointed to act as the trustee of the trust or administrator of the endowment.(8)A trustee or administrator of a trust or endowment removed from his office under this section shall not be eligible for re-appointment as a trustee of the trust or administrator of an endowment, for a period of five years from the date of such removal.

59. Assumption of direct management of certain trust and endowment, by the Board.

(1)Where no suitable person is available for appointment as a trustee or administrator of a trust or endowment, or where the Board is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the filling up of the vacancy in the office of trustee or administrator is prejudicial to the interests of the trust or endowment, the Board may, by notification, assume direct management of the trust or endowment, for such period or periods, not exceeding five years in the aggregate, as may be specified in the notification.(2)The Government, may, on its own motion or on the application of any person interested in the trust or endowment, call for the records of any case for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of the notification issued by the Board under sub-section (1) and pass such orders as it may think fit and the orders so made by the Government shall be final and shall be published in the manner specified in sub-section (1).(3)As soon as possible after the close of every financial year, the Board shall send a detailed report to the Government in regard to every trust and endowment, under its direct management, giving therein-(i)the details of the income of the trust and endowment for the year immediately preceding the year under report;(ii)the steps taken to improve the management and income of the trust and endowment;(iii)the period during which the trust and endowment has been under the direct management of the Board and explaining the reasons as to why it has not been possible to entrust the management of the trust and endowment to the trustee or administrator or any committee of management during the year; and(iv)such other matters as may be prescribed.(4)The Government shall examine the report submitted to it under sub-section (3), and after such examination issue such directions or instructions to the Board as it may think fit and the Board shall comply with such directions or instructions on receipt thereof.

60. Supervision and supersession of committee of management.

(1)Whenever the supervision or management of trust or endowment is vested in any committee appointed by the trust deed, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, such committee shall continue to function until it is superseded by the Board or until the expiry of its term as may be specified by the trust deed, whichever is earlier:Provided that such committee shall function under the direction, control and supervision of the Board and abide by such directions as the Board may issue, from time to time:Provided further that if the Board is satisfied that any scheme for the management of a trust or endowment, by a committee is inconsistent with any provision of this Act or of any rule made thereunder or with the directions of the trust deed, it may, at any time, modify the scheme in such manner as may be necessary to bring it in conformity with the directions of the trust deed, or of the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and in the deed of the trust or endowment, the Board may, if it is satisfied for reason to be recorded in writing, that a committee, referred to in sub-section (1) is not functioning properly and satisfactorily, or that the trust or endowment, is being mismanaged and that in the interest of its proper management, it is necessary so to do, by an order, supersede such committee, and, on such supersession, any direction of trust deed, in so far as it relates to the constitution of the committee, shall cease to have any force:Provided that the Board shall, before making any order superseding any committee, issue a notice setting forth therein the reasons for the proposed action and calling upon the committee to show cause within such time, not being less than one month, as may be specified in the notice, as to why such action shall not be taken.(3)Every order made by the Board under sub-section (2) shall be published in the prescribed manner and on such publication shall be binding on the trustee or administrator and all persons having any interest in the trust or endowment.(4)Any order made by the Board under sub-section (2) shall be final:Provided that any person aggrieved by the order made under sub-section (2) may, within sixty days from the date of the order, appeal to the court.(5)The Board shall, whenever it supersedes any committee under sub-section (2), constitute a new committee of management simultaneously with the order made by it under sub-section (2).(6)Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, the Board may, instead of superseding any committee under sub-section (2), remove any member thereof if it is satisfied that such member has abused his position as such member or had knowingly acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the trust or endowment, and every such order for the removal of any member shall be served upon him by registered post:Provided that no order for the removal of the member shall be made unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed action:Provided further that any member aggrieved by any order for his removal from the membership of the committee may, within a period of thirty days from the date of service of the order on him, prefer an appeal against such order to the court and the court may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the Board of being heard, confirm, modify or reverse the order made by the Board and the order made by the court in such appeal shall be final.

61. Power of Board to frame scheme for administration of trust or endowment.

(1)Whenever the Board is satisfied, whether on its own motion or on the application of not less than five persons interested in any trust or endowment, that it is necessary or desirable to frame a scheme for the proper administration of the trust or endowment, it may, by an order, frame such scheme for the administration of the trust or endowment after consultation with the trustee or administrator or the applicant in the prescribed manner.(2)A scheme framed under sub-section (1) may provide for the removal of the trustee and administrator of the trust and endowment, holding office as such immediately before the date on which the scheme comes into force:Provided that where any such scheme provides for the removal of any hereditary trustee, the scheme shall also provide for the appointment of the person next in hereditary succession to the trustees removed, as one of the members of the committee appointed for the proper administration of the trust or endowment.(3)Every order made under sub-section (2) shall be published in the prescribed manner. Such publication shall be final and binding on the trustee and administrator and all persons interested in the trust or endowment:Provided that any person aggrieved by an order made under this section may, within sixty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the court and after hearing such appeal, the Court may confirm, reverse or modify the order:Provided further that the court shall have no power to stay the operation of the order made under this section.(4)The Board may, at any time by an order, whether made before or after the scheme has come into force, cancel or modify the scheme.(5)Pending the framing of the scheme for the proper administration of the trust or endowment, the Board may appoint an Administrative Officer to perform all or any of the functions of the trustee or administrator thereof and to exercise the powers, and perform the duties, of such trustee or administrator.

62. Inquiry relating to administration of trust and endowment.

- Any person interested in a trust or endowment, may make an application to the Board supported by an affidavit to institute an inquiry relating to the administration of the trust or endowment, and if the Board is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the affairs of the trust or endowment, are being mismanaged, it shall take such action thereon as it thinks fit.

63. Manner of holding inquiry.

(1)The Board may, either on an application received under section 62, or on its own motion,-(a)hold an inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed; or(b)authorize any member of the Board in this behalf to hold an inquiry into any matter relating to a trust or endowment, and take such action as it thinks fit.(2)For the purposes of an inquiry under this section, the Board or any member of the Board authorized by it in this behalf, shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the code of civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) for enforcing the attendance of witnesses and production of documents.Chapter - XI Power of the Government to Appoint or Remove a Trustee or Administrator in Consultation with Board
